And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto ^aIsaiah the prophet the³ son of Amoz. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is^b a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of ¹blasphemy: for ^ethe children are come to ^dthe birth, and there is not⁴ strength to bring forth. It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for ^{dd}the^{dd ver. 32.} remnant that is ¹left. ⁸ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was⁹ departed from Lachish. And ^fhe heard^{f ch. 20. 5.} say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent¹⁰ messengers to Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into¹¹ the hand of the king of Assyria. Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be¹² delivered? Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden¹³ which were in Telassar? Where is the king of ²Hamath, and the king of ²Ar-^{2 Jer. 49. 23.}

phad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

And Hezekiah received the letter from ¹⁴ the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up ^{unto} the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. And Hezekiah prayed unto ¹⁵ the LORD, saying, O LORD of hosts, ¹⁶ God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: ^hthou hast made heaven and earth. ⁱIn- ¹⁷ cline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God. Of ^a ¹⁸ truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the [†]nations, and their countries, and have [†]cast their gods ¹⁹ into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O LORD our God, ²⁰ save us from his hand, ^jthat all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

Then ^aIsaiah the son of Amoz sent ²¹ unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria: this is the word which the ²² LORD hath spoken concerning him;

The virgin, ^kthe daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn;

The daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed?

And against whom hast thou exalted thy voice,

And lifted up thine eyes on high?

Even against the Holy One of Israel.

[†]By thy servants hast thou reproached ²⁴ the Lord, and hast said,

By the multitude of my chariots am I come up

To the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon;

And I will cut down [†]the tall ^mcedars thereof, and the choice ^mfir trees thereof:

And I will enter into the height of his border, and ⁿthe forest of his Carmel.

I have digged, and drunk water; ²⁵

And with the sole of my feet have I dried up all ^othe rivers of the [†]be-sieged places.

²⁵ [†]Hast thou not heard long ago, how [†]I have done it;

And of ancient times, that [†]I have formed it?

Now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste ^qDefenced cities into ruinous heaps.

²⁷ Therefore their inhabitants were [†]of small power,

[†]They were dismayed and confounded:

They were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb,

As the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

²⁸ But I know thy [†]abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in,

And thy rage against me.

²⁹ Because thy rage against me, and thy ^stumult, is come up into mine ears,

Therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and ^tmy bridle in thy lips,

And I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

³⁰ And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself;

And the second year that which springeth of the same:

And ^uin the third year sow ye, and reap,

And plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

³¹ And [†]the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah

Shall again ^wtake root downward, and bear fruit upward.

³² For out of Jerusalem shall go forth ^xa remnant,

And [†]they that escape out of mount Zion:

The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

³³ Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria,

^yHe shall not come into this city,

^zNor shoot an arrow there,

Nor come before it with [†]shields,

Nor ^acast a bank against it.

³⁴ By the way that he came, by the same shall he return,

And shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

For mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

^a In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And ^bIsaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [†]Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and ^cprayed unto the LORD, and said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept [†]sore. Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and ^dI will defend this city. And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken; ^ebehold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the [†]sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

The writing of Hezekiah, king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

^fI said, in the cutting off of my days, ^gI shall go to ^gthe gates of the grave:

I am deprived of the residue of my years.

I said, I shall not see ^hthe LORD, ⁱeven ^hthe LORD, ⁱin the land of the living:

I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

Mine age is departed, and is removed from me ^kas a shepherd's tent:

I have cut off [†]I like a weaver my life: ^mhe will cut me off [†]with pining sickness:

ⁿFrom day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned ^atill morning, that, ^aas a lion, so will he break all my bones: ⁿFrom day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like ^aa crane or ^aa swallow, so did I ^qchatter:

I did ^qmourn as a dove: ^sMine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; [†]I undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall ^ugo softly all my years ^vin the bitterness of my soul.

16 O Lord, ^wby these things men live, And in all these things is the life of my spirit: So wilt thou recover me, and ^wmake me to live.

17 Behold, [†]for peace I had great bitterness: But [†]thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: For ^xthou hast cast all my sins ^ybehind thy back.

18 For ^zthe grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: ^aThey that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 ^bThe living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day:

^cThe father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: Therefore we will sing my songs ^dto the stringed instruments All the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

21 For ^eIsaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 ^fHezekiah also had said, What is the sign ^gthat I shall go up ^gto the house of the LORD?

^aAt that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered. And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his [†]precious things, ^bthe silver, and the gold, and ^{bb}the spices, and ^{bb}the precious ointment, and all the house of his [†]armour, and ^ball that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them ³not. He maketh the judges of the earth as ^g vanity.

Yea, they shall not be planted; ²⁴

Yea, they shall not be sown:

Yea, their ^h stock shall not take root
in the earth:

And he shall also blow upon them,
and they shall wither,

And ⁱ the whirlwind shall take them away ^k as stubble.

^l To whom then will ye ^m liken me, ²⁵
or ^m shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

^{mm} Lift up your eyes on high, ²⁶
And behold who hath created these things,

ⁿ That bringeth out their host by number:

^o He calleth them all by names ^o Ps. 147. 4.
By ^p the greatness of his might, for ^p So Ps. 147. 5.
that he is strong in power;

^q Not one faileth.

²⁷ Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speak-
est, O Israel,

^r My way is hid from the LORD,
And ^s my judgment is passed over from my God?

²⁸ ^a Hast thou not known? ^a hast thou
not heard,
That the everlasting God, the LORD,
The Creator of the ends of the earth,
Fainteth not, neither is weary?

^{p†} There is no searching of his understanding.

²⁹ He giveth power to the faint;
And to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

³⁰ Even the youths shall faint and be weary,

And the young men shall utterly fall:

³¹ But ^u they that wait upon the LORD
^v shall [†] renew their strength;

They shall mount up with wings ^w as eagles;

They shall run, and not be weary;
And they shall walk, and not faint.

^a Keep silence before me, O ^b islands; ^{XLI.}

And ^c let the people renew their strength:

Let them come near; then let them
speak:

Let us come near together to judgment.

² ^d Who raised up [†] the righteous man
^e from the east,

Called him [†] to his foot, ^{††} Gave the nations before him, and

^g made him rule over kings?

He ^h gave them as the dust to his sword,

And as ⁱ driven stubble to his bow.

³ He pursued them, and passed [†] safely;
Even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

⁴ ^k Who hath wrought and done it, Calling the generations from the beginning?

[•] I the LORD, ^l the first,
And with the last; ^m I am he.

⁵ ⁿ The isles saw it, and feared;
The ends of the earth were afraid,

Drew near, and came.

⁶ They helped every one his neighbour;
And every one said to his brother,
[†] Be of good courage.

thee away.

^u Fear thou not ; ^v for I am with thee : ¹⁰

^w Be not dismayed ; for I am thy God :

^v I will strengthen thee ; yea, ^u I will

¹³ The LORD shall go forth ^f as a mighty
man,

He shall [†] prevail against his enemies.

¹⁴ I have long time holden my peace;

¹⁵ I will make waste mountains and hills,

¹⁷ They shall be [†] turned back, ^m they

And to the south, Keep not back:
Bring ^rmy sons from far,
And ^rmy daughters from the ends of
the earth;

⁷ Even every one ^sthat is called by my name:

For ^a*I* have created him for my
glory,

^a*I* have formed him; yea, ^u*I* have made him.

⁸ ^vBring forth the blind people that have eyes,

And the deaf that have ears.

⁹ Let all the nations be gathered together,

And let the people be assembled:
^wWho among them can declare this,

And shew us former things?

Let them bring forth their witnessess,
that they may be justified:

Or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

¹⁰ ^x*Ye are* my witnessess, saith the LORD,
And ^ymy servant whom I have chosen:

That ye may know and believe me,
And understand that I am he:

^zBefore me there was ⁱno God formed,
Neither shall there be after me.

¹¹ ^a*I, even I, am* the LORD;

^aAnd ^bbeside me there is no saviour.

¹² I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed,

When there was no ^cstrange god
among you:

Therefore ^d*ye are* my witnessess, saith
the LORD, that ^e*I am* God.

¹³ Yea, ^ebefore the day was I am he;
And there is none that can deliver out
of my hand:

I will work, and who shall ^flet it?

¹⁴ Thus saith the LORD, ^hyour redeemer, the Holy One of Israel;

For your sake I have sent to Babylon,
And have brought down all their

ⁱnobles,
And the ^kChaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

¹⁵ I am the LORD, your Holy One,
The creator of Israel, your King.

¹⁶ Thus saith the LORD, ^lwhich maketh
a way in the sea,

And a path in the mighty waters;

¹⁷ ^mWhich bringeth forth the chariot
and horse, the army and the power;

They shall lie down together, they shall not rise:

They are extinct, ⁿthey are quenched

¹¹ Calling ^z a ravenous bird ^a from the east,

^t The man ^y that executeth my counsel from a far country :

Yea, ^b I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass;

I have purposed it, I will also do it.

¹² Hearken unto me, ^c ye stouthearted,

That are far from righteousness:

¹³ ^d I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off,

And my salvation ^e shall not tarry :

And I will place ^f salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

^a Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin ^b daughter of Babylon,

^c Sit on the ground: ^d there is no throne,

^e O daughter of the Chaldeans;

For thou shalt no more be called ^f tender and delicate.

² ^g Take the millstones, and ^h grind meal:

^k Uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

³ ^k Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen :

^l I will take vengeance, and I will not ^m meet thee as a man.

⁴ ⁿ As for ^o our redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name,

^u The Holy One of Israel.

⁵ Sit thou ^p silent, and get thee into ^q darkness, ^o O daughter of the Chaldeans:

¶ I will also give thee for a light

That thou mayest be ^tmy salva-

¶ Thus saith the LORD, the redeemer ⁷
of Israel, and his Holy One,

¶ To him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers,

¶ Kings shall see and arise,
Princes also shall worship,

Because of ^sthe LORD that is faithful,
And the Holy One of Israel, and ^vhe

shall choose thee.

Thus saith the LORD,

¶ In an acceptable time have I heard thee,

And in a day of salvation have I helped thee:

And I will preserve thee, and ^agive
thee for a covenant of the people,

To ^lestablish the earth, ^ato cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

That thou mayest say ^bc to the pri- ⁹
soners, Go forth;

¶ To them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves.

They shall feed in the ways,
And their pastures shall be in all high places.

¶ They shall not hunger nor ¹⁰
thirst;

¶ Neither shall ^tthe heat nor sun
smite them:

For he that hath mercy on them
^sshall lead them,

Even by ^hthe springs of water ^sshall
he guide them.

And ⁱI will make all my mountains ¹¹
a way,

And my highways shall be exalted.
Behold, ^kthese shall come from far: ¹²

And lo, these ^lfrom the north and ^lfrom the west;

And these from the land of Sinim.

¶ Sing, O heavens; and ⁿbe joyful, O ¹³
earth;

And ^mbreak forth into singing, ^oO
mountains:

For the LORD hath comforted his
people,

And will have mercy upon his afflicted.
¶ But Zion said, The LORD hath for- ¹⁴
saken me,

And my Lord hath forgotten me.
Can a woman forget her sucking child, ¹⁵

¶ That she should not have compassion on ^qthe son of her womb?

Yea, ^rthey may forget,

¶ Yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, ^tI have graven thee upon
the palms of my hands;

Thy walls are continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste;

¶ Thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

18 ¶ Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold:

¶ All these gather themselves together, and come to thee.

¶ As I live, saith the LORD, ^xthou shalt surely clothe thee with them

all, as with an ornament,
And ^xbind them on thee, ^yas a bride doth.

19 For ^ythy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of ^uthy destruction,

¶ Shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants,

And they that ^aswallowed thee up
shall be far away.

20 ¶ The children which thou shalt have,
after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears,

The place is too strait for me:

¶ Give place to me that I may dwell.
Then shalt thou say in thine heart,

¶ Who hath begotten me these,
Seeing I have lost my children, and ¶ am desolate,

A captive, and removing to and fro?

And who hath brought up these?
Behold, I was left alone;

These, where had they been?

22 Thus saith the Lord God, ¶ Behold, ^sI will lift up mine hand to

And ^hset up my standard to the ^o Shall the prey be taken from the ²⁴

mighty,

Or ^t the lawful captive delivered?

But thus saith the LORD, ²⁵

Even the ^t captives of the mighty
shall be taken away,

And the prey of the terrible shall be delivered :

For I will contend with ^p him that contendeth with thee,

And I will save thy children.

And ^q I will feed them that oppress ²⁶
thee with their own flesh ;

And ^r they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with ^s sweet wine :

And all flesh ^s shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour

And ^t thy redeemer, ^u the mighty One of Jacob.

Thus saith the LORD,

Where is ^a the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away?

Or ^b which of my creditors is it to whom ^c I have sold you?

Behold, ^d for your iniquities ^e have you sold yourselves,

And for your transgressions is your mother put away.

Wherefore, when I came, was there ²
no man?

^f When I called, was there none to answer?

^g Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem?

Or have I no power to deliver?
Behold, ^h at my rebuke I ⁱ dry up
the sea,

^k I make the rivers a wilderness :

^l Their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

^m I clothe the heavens with black- ³
ness,

And ⁿ I make sackcloth their covering.

^o The Lord GOD hath given me the ⁴
tongue of ^p the learned,

^q That I should know how to speak
a word in season to ^r him that is
weary :

He wakeneth ^s morning by morning,
He wakeneth mine ear to hear as ^p the learned.

The Lord GOD ^t hath opened mine
ear, ⁵

And ^u I was not rebellious,
Neither ^v turned away back.

⁶ I ^w gave my back to the smiters,
And ^x y my cheeks to ^z them that plucked off the hair :

I hid not my face from shame and ^x ^a spitting.

⁷ For the Lord GOD will help me ;
Therefore shall I not be confounded :

Therefore have ^b I set my face like ^c a flint,

And ^d I know that I shall not be ashamed.

⁸ ^e He is near that justifieth me :
^f Who will contend with me? let us
stand together :

Who is ^t mine adversary? let him
come near to me.

⁹ Behold, the Lord GOD will help me ;
Who is he that shall condemn me?

Lo, ^g ^h they all shall wax old as a garment ; ⁱ the moth shall eat them up.

¹⁰ Who is among you that feareth the
LORD,

That obeyeth the voice of his servant,
^k That walketh in darkness, and hath no light?

Let him trust in the name of the LORD,
And ^l stay upon his God.

¹¹ Behold, all ye that kindle a fire,
that compass yourselves about with

^m sparks :

Walk in ⁿ the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye ^o have kindled.

^p This shall ye have of mine hand ;
Ye shall lie down ^q in sorrow.

^a Hearken to me, ^b ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek
the LORD :

^c Look unto the rock whence ye are hewn,

And to the hole of ^d the pit whence ye
are digged.

² Look unto ^e Abraham your father,
And unto ^f Sarah that bare you :

^g For I called him ^h alone,
And ⁱ ^j blessed him, and ^k increased
him.

³ For the LORD ^k shall comfort Zion :
He will comfort all ^l her waste places ;

And he will make her wilderness like ^m Eden,

And her desert ⁿ like the garden of
the LORD ;

Joy and gladness shall be found
therein,

^kMy people went down aforetime
into Egypt to sojourn there ;
And the Assyrian oppressed them

saith the LORD,
That my people is taken away for

And carried our sorrows:

Yet we did esteem him ^mstricken,

ⁿSmitten of God, and afflicted.

But ^ohe was ^{††}wounded for our ⁵
transgressions,

He was bruised for our iniquities:

^qThe chastisement of ^qour peace
was upon him;

And ^rwith his [†]stripes we are healed.

^{r†}All we like sheep have gone ⁶
astray;

[†]We have turned every one to his own way;

And ^uthe LORD [†]hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

^wHe was oppressed, and he was af- ⁷
flicted,

Yet ^xhe opened not his mouth:

^yHe is brought as a lamb to the slaughter,

And as a sheep before her shear-
ers is dumb,

So he openeth not his mouth.

^{y†}He was taken from prison and ⁸
from judgment:

And ^bwho shall declare his generation?

For ^che was cut off out of ^dthe
land of the living:

For the transgression of my people [†]was he stricken.

And he made his grave with the ⁹
wicked,

And ^ewith the rich in his [†]death;

^fBecause ^ghe had done no violence,

Neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise ¹⁰
him; he hath ^hput him to grief:

^{††}When thou shalt make his soul ^kan
offering for sin,

[†]He shall see his seed, ^mhe shall prolong his days,

And ⁿthe pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

He shall see of the travail of his soul, ¹¹
and ^oshall be satisfied:

^pBy his knowledge shall ^qmy righteous ^rservant ^sjustify ^tmany;

^uFor he shall bear their iniquities.

¹² ^vTherefore will I divide him a portion
with the great,

And ^whe shall divide the spoil with
the strong;

Because he hath ^xpoured out his soul
unto death:

^yAnd he was numbered with the transgressors;

And he bare the sin of many,

And ^zmade intercession for the trans-gressors.

Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity;
o Wasting and ^tdestruction are in their paths.
p The way of peace they know not; ⁸ And there is no [†]judgment in their goings:
r They have made them crooked paths: Whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

Therefore is judgment far from us, ⁹ Neither doth justice overtake us:
s We wait for light, but behold obscurity;
For brightness, but ^twe walk in darkness.
u We grope for the wall like the ¹⁰ blind,
And we grope as if we had no eyes:
We stumble ^uat noonday as in the night;
We are in desolate places as dead men.

We roar all like bears, ¹¹ And ^vmourn sore like doves:
w We look for judgment, but there is none;
For salvation, but it is far off from us.
For our transgressions are multiplied ¹² before thee,
And our sins testify against us:
For our transgressions are with us;
And as for our iniquities, ^wwe know them;
In transgressing and lying against the ¹³ LORD,

And ^xdeparting away from our God,
Speaking oppression and revolt,
Conceiving and ^yuttering ^zfrom the heart ^awords of falsehood.
And judgment is ^aturned away back- ¹⁴ ward,
And justice standeth afar off:
For truth is fallen in the street,
And ^aequity cannot enter.
Yea, truth ^bfaileth; ¹⁵
And he that departeth from evil [†]maketh himself a prey:
And the LORD saw it, and [†]it displeased him
That there was no judgment.
And ^dhe saw that there was no man, ¹⁶
And ^ewondered that there was no [†]intercessor:
f Therefore ^hhis arm brought salvation unto him;
And his righteousness, ^dit sustained him.

17 For ⁱhe put on righteousness as a breastplate,
And a helmet of salvation upon his head;
And he put on the garments of ^kvengeance for clothing,
And was clad with zeal [†]as a cloke.
18 [†]According to their [†]deeds, accordingly ^mhe will repay,
ⁿFury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies;
To ^othe islands he will repay recompence.
19 ^pSo shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west,
And his glory from the rising of the sun.
When the enemy shall come in ^qlike a flood,
The spirit of the LORD shall ^rlift up a standard against him.
20 And ^sthe redeemer shall come to Zion,
And unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.
21 As for me, ^tthis is my covenant with them, saith the LORD;
My spirit that is upon thee,
And ^umy words which I have put in thy mouth,
Shall not depart out of thy mouth,
Nor out of the mouth of thy seed,
Nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD,
From henceforth and for ever.

* The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me;
 Because the LORD ^bhath anointed me ^cto preach good tidings unto ^dthe meek;
 He hath sent me ^eto bind up ^fthe broken-hearted, ^gTo proclaim liberty to the captives,
 And ^hthe opening of the prison to them that are bound;
ⁱTo proclaim the acceptable year ² of the LORD,
 And ^kthe day of vengeance of our God;
^lTo comfort all that mourn;
 To appoint unto ^lthem that mourn in ³ Zion,
^mTo give unto them ⁿbeauty for ashes,
^oThe oil of joy for mourning,
 The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
 That they might be called ^ptrees of righteousness,
^qThe planting of the LORD, ^qthat he might be glorified.
 And ^rthey shall build the old wastes, ⁴
 They shall raise up the former desolations,
 And they shall repair the waste cities,
^tThe desolations of many generations.
 And ^ustrangers shall stand and feed ⁵ your flocks,
 And ^vthe sons of ^uthe alien shall be ^wyour plowmen and your vinedressers.
 But ^xye shall be named the Priests of ⁶ the LORD:
 Men shall call you the Ministers of our God:
^yYe shall eat the riches of the Gentiles,
 And ^zin their glory shall you boast yourselves.
 For your shame ^a*you shall have* double; ⁷
 And for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion:
^bTherefore in their land ^athey shall possess the double:
 Everlasting joy shall be unto them.
 For ^cI the LORD love judgment, ⁸
^dI hate robbery for burnt offering;
 And I will direct their ^ework in truth,
 And ^fI will make an everlasting covenant with them.
 And ^gtheir seed shall be known among ⁹ the Gentiles,
 And ^htheir offspring among the people:

All that see them shall acknowledge them,
ⁱThat they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.
¹⁰ ^jI will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
 My soul shall be joyful in my God;
 For ^khe hath clothed me with the garments of salvation,
 He hath covered me with ^lthe robe of righteousness,
 As a bridegroom ^tdecketh himself with ^mornaments,
 And ⁿas a bride ^oadorneth herself with her jewels.
¹¹ For as the earth bringeth forth her bud,
 And as the garden causeth ^pthe things that are sown in it to spring forth;
 So the Lord God will cause ^qrighteousness and ^rpraise to spring forth Before all the nations.

For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace,
 And for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
 Until ^athe righteousness thereof go forth as brightness,
 And the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.
² And ^bthe Gentiles shall see thy righteousness.
 And ^call kings thy glory:
 And thou shalt be called by ^da new name,
 Which the mouth of the LORD shall name.
³ Thou shalt also be ^ea crown of glory in the hand of the LORD,
 And a royal ^fdiadem in the hand of thy God.
⁴ ^gThou shalt no more be termed ^hForsaken;
 Neither shall thy land any more be termed ⁱDesolate:
 But thou shalt be called ^jHephzi-bah,
 And thy land ^kBeulah:
 For the LORD delighteth in thee,
 And thy land shall be married.
⁵ For ^kas a young man marieth a virgin,
 So shall ^lthy sons marry thee:
 And ^mas ⁿthe bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride,
 So ⁿshall thy God rejoice over thee.
⁶ I have set ^owatchmen upon thy walls,
 O Jerusalem,
 Which shall never hold their peace day nor night:

That the nations may tremble at thy presence.

When 5 thou didst terrible things which 3
we looked not for,
6 Thou camest down, 7 the mountains
flowed down at thy presence.

For since the beginning of the world 4 8 men have not heard, nor per-

8 But now, O LORD, 1 thou art our father;

2 We are the clay, and 3 thou our potter;

And 4 we all are the work of thine hand.

9 5 Be not wroth very sore, O LORD,
6 Neither remember iniquity for ever:

Behold, ^r it is written before me : 6 ^s I will not keep silence, but ^t will recompense,
Even recompense ^u into their bosom,
^v Your iniquities, and ^x the iniquities 7
of your fathers together, saith the
LORD,
^y Which have burnt incense upon the
mountains,
^z And blasphemed me upon the hills :
Therefore will I measure their former ^a work ^u into their bosom.

Thus saith the LORD, 8
^b As the ^c new wine is found in the cluster,
And one saith, Destroy it not ; for ^d a blessing is in it :
So will I do ^e for ^f my servants' sakes,
^g That I may not destroy them all.
And I will bring forth a seed out of ^h 9
Jacob,
And ⁱ out of Judah ^j an inheritor of
my mountains :
And mine ^k elect shall ^l inherit it,
And my servants shall dwell there.
And ^m Sharon shall be a fold of ⁿ 10
^k flocks,
And ^l the valley of Achor a place for ^k the herds to lie down in,
For my people that have sought me.

But ye are they that ^m forsake the LORD, 11
That forget ⁿ my holy mountain,
That prepare ^o a table for that ^p troop,
And that furnish ^q the drink offering unto that ^r number.
Therefore ^r will I number you to the 12
sword,
And ye shall all bow down to the
slaughter :
^s ^t Because when I called, ye did not answer ;
^s ^t When I spake, ye did not hear ;
^s But did evil before mine eyes,
^s And did choose that wherein I delighted not.
Therefore thus saith the Lord God, 13 Behold, ^u my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry :
Behold, my servants shall drink, but
ye shall be thirsty :
Behold, ^w my servants ^x shall rejoice,
but ye shall be ashamed :
Behold, my servants ^x shall sing ^y for 14
joy of heart,
But ye shall cry for sorrow of heart,
And ^z shall howl for ^t vexation of spirit.

And ye shall leave your name ^a for a 15
curse unto ^b my chosen :
For the Lord God shall slay thee,
And ^c call his servants by ^d another
name :
16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth ^e shall bless himself in ^f the God of ^f truth ;
And he that sweareth in the earth ^g shall swear ^h by ^f the God of truth ;
Because ⁱ the former troubles are forgotten,
And because they are hid from mine
eyes.

17 For, behold, ^k I create ^e new heavens
and a new earth :
And the former shall not be remembered, nor ^t come into mind.
But be ye glad and rejoice ^l for ever
in that which I create :
For behold, ^m I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.
18 And ⁿ I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people :
And ^o the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days,
Nor an old man that hath not filled
his days :
For ^p the child shall die an hundred
years old ;
But ^q the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.
21 And ^r they shall build houses, and inhabit them ;
And ^s they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 ^r They shall not build, and ^d another inhabit ;
^r ^s They shall not plant, and ^d another eat :
For ^t as the days of a tree are the days of my people,
And ^b mine elect ^t shall long enjoy
^u the work of their hands.
23 ^v They shall not labour in vain,
Nor ^w bring forth for ^x trouble ;
For ^y they are the seed of the blessed
of the LORD,
And their ^z offspring with them.
24 And it shall come to pass, that ^a before they call, I will answer ;
And ^b whiles they are yet speaking, I will hear.

^a The heaven is my throne, and ^b the earth is my footstool :
 Where is the house that ye build unto me ?
 And where is the place of my
 rest ?
 For ^c all those things hath mine ^a

 Yea, they have chosen ^l their own ways,
 And their soul delighteth in their abominations.
 I also will choose their ^m delusions, ⁴
 And will bring their fears upon them ;
ⁿ Because when I called, none did
 answer ;
ⁿ When I spake, they did not hear :
ⁿ But they did evil before mine eyes,
ⁿ And chose that in which I delighted not.

Hear the word of the LORD, ye that ⁵
^f tremble at his word ;
 Your brethren ^o that hated you,
 That ^p cast you out for my name's
 sake, said,
^q Let the LORD be glorified :
 But he ^r shall appear ^s to your joy,
 and they shall be ashamed.
 A voice of ^t noise from the city, ^a ⁶
 voice from the temple,
 A voice of the LORD that rendereth
 recompence to his enemies.
 Before she ^u travailed, she brought ⁷
 forth ;
 Before her ^u pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing ? who hath seen such things ?
 Shall the earth be made to bring forth
 in one day ?
 Or shall a nation be born at once ?
 For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.
⁹ Shall I bring to the birth, and not ⁱ cause to bring forth ? saith
 the LORD :
 Shall I cause to bring forth, and ^v shut ^w the womb ? saith thy God.

 And ^d the glory of the Gentiles ^e like
 a flowing stream :
 Then ^a shall ye suck, ^f ye shall be borne ^g upon her sides,

 wind,

king of Judah, ^h unto the carrying away
of Jerusalem captive ^{hi} in the fifth month.

Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Before I ^j formed thee in the belly ^k I knew thee; and ^l before thou camest forth out of the womb I ^m sanctified thee, and I ⁿ ordained thee a prophet ^o unto the nations.
Then said I, ^o Ah, Lord God, behold,
I cannot speak: for ^p I am a child.
But the LORD said unto me, Say not,
I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and ^q whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.
^r Be not afraid of their faces: for ^{stu} I am with thee ^t to deliver thee, saith the LORD. Then ^v the LORD put forth his hand, and ^w touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, ^x I have put my words in thy mouth. See,
I have this day set thee ^y over the nations and over the kingdoms, ^y to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy,
and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see ^z a rod of an almond tree. Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for ^a I will hasten my word to perform it.
And the word of the LORD came unto
me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see ^{ba} a seething

^c pot; and the face thereof ^{is} ^t towards ¹⁴ ^d the north. Then the LORD said unto me, ^d Out of the north an evil ^t shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of ¹⁵ the land. For lo, I will call ^e all the families of the kingdoms ^d of the north,
saith the LORD; and they shall come,
and ^f they shall set every one his throne ^{at} the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof
round about, and against all the cities ¹⁶ of Judah. And ^g I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, ^{hi} who have forsaken me, ^h and ^j have burnt incense unto other gods, and ^k worshipped the works of ¹⁷ their own hands. Thou therefore ^l gird up thy loins, and arise, and ^m speak unto them all that I command thee: ⁿ be not dismayed at their faces, lest I ^o confound ¹⁸ thee before them. For behold, I have ^o made thee ^{this} day ^{pa} a defenced city,
and ^q an iron pillar, and ^r brasen walls
against the whole land, against the kings
of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against ¹⁹ the people of the land. ^r And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; ^{rs} for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD;
I remember ^t thee, the kindness of ^{thy}
youth, ^b the love of thine espousals, ^c when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, ^d in a land ^{that was} not sown.

Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel: Thus saith the LORD,

What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and become vain? Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt? And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination. The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit. Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead. For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing. Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit. Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he spoiled? The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burnt without inhabitant. Also the children of Noph and Tahan have broken the crown of thy head. Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way? And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river? Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the LORD God of hosts.

For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot. Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the LORD. How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift meddler traversing her ways; a wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her. Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go. As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah. Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

^rMy bowels, my bowels! I am pained ¹⁹
at ^rmy very heart; ^sMy heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace,
Because thou hast heard, O my soul,
^tthe sound of the trumpet, ^uthe
alarm of war.
^uDestruction upon destruction is cried; ²⁰
for the whole land is spoiled:
Suddenly are ^vmy tents spoiled, and ^vmy curtains in a moment.
How long shall I see the standard, ²¹
and hear ^tthe sound of the trumpet?

For my people is foolish, ^wthey have ²²
not known me;
They are sottish children, and they have none understanding:

^xThey are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

^yI beheld the earth, and lo, it was ²³
^zwithout form, and void;

And the heavens, and ^athey had no
light.

I beheld ^bthe mountains, and lo, they ²⁴
trembled,

And all the hills moved lightly.

I beheld, and lo, ^cthere was no ²⁵
man,

And ^eall the birds of the heavens
^dwere fled.

I beheld, and lo, ^ethe fruitful place ²⁶
was a wilderness,

And all the cities thereof were broken down

At the presence of the LORD, and by his ^ffierce anger.

For thus hath the LORD said, ²⁷
The whole land shall be desolate;

Yet ^gwill I not make a full end.

For this ^hshall the earth mourn, ²⁸
^{ai}the heavens above be black:

Because I have spoken it, I have pur-
posed it,

And ^kwill not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

The whole city shall flee for the noise ²⁹
of the horsemen and ^lbowmen;

They shall go into thickets, and climb
up upon ^mthe rocks:

Every city shall be forsaken, and ⁿnot
a man dwell therein.

as fed horses in the morning: every one ^dneighed ^eafter his neighbour's wife. ^fShall I not visit for these things? saith ^g the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

^hGo ye up upon her walls, and de-^{io}stroy; but ^hmake not a full end: take away her ⁱbattlements; for they are not the LORD's. For the house of Israel ⁱⁱ and the house of Judah ^khave dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD. ^lThey have belied the LORD, ¹² and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; ^mneither shall we see sword nor famine: and the prophets ¹³ shall become ⁿwind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them. Never-¹⁸theless in those days, saith the LORD, I ^hwill not make a full end with you.

And it shall come to pass, when ye ¹⁹ shall say, ^yWherefore doth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ^zye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so ^ashall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours. they are revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, ^{gg}that giveth rain, both ^hthe former and ⁱthe latter, in his season: ^khe reserveth unto us ^lthe appointed weeks of the harvest. Your iniquities have turned away ^mthese things, and your sins have withholden ⁿgood ²⁶ things from you. and wounds. Be thou instructed, O ⁸ Jerusalem, lest ^w my soul [†] depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land ^{*} not inhabited.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ⁷ They ⁹ shall thoroughly glean ² the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.

^a To whom shall I speak, and give ¹⁰ warning, that they may hear? behold, ^b their ear is uncircumcised, and ^c they cannot hearken: behold, ^d the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am ¹¹ full of the fury of the LORD; ^e I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out ^f upon the children abroad, and upon ^g the assembly of ^h young men together: for even the husband with the wife ⁱ shall be taken, ^h the aged with ^j him that is full of days. And ^k their ¹² houses shall be turned unto others, with ^l their ¹ fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

For ^m from the least of them even unto ¹³ the greatest of them ⁿ every one is given to covetousness; and ^o from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. They have healed also the ¹⁴ [†] hurt ^p of the daughter of my people slightly, ^q saying, Peace, peace; when ^r there is no peace. ^s Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, ^t they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: ^s therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ¹⁶ ways, and see, and ask for ^u the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, ^v and ye shall find ^w rest for your souls. ^{*} But they said, We will not walk therein. Also I set ^{xx} watch-¹⁷ men over you, ^y saying, Harken to the sound of ^z the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken. Therefore hear, ¹⁸ ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. ^a Hear, O earth: ¹⁹ behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even ^b the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it. ^c To what purpose cometh there to ²⁰ me ^d incense from ^e Sheba, and ^f the sweet cane from a far country? ^g your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor ²¹ your sacrifices sweet unto me. Therefore thus saith the LORD, ^{gg} Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour ²² and his friend shall perish. Thus saith the LORD, ^h Behold, a people cometh from ⁱ the north country, and a great nation ^k shall be raised from the sides ²³ of the earth. They shall lay hold on bow and ^l spear; they are ^m cruel, and ⁿ have no mercy; ^o their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, ²⁴ O daughter of Zion. We have heard the fame thereof: ^p our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and ^q pain, as of a woman in travail.

²⁵ Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy ²⁶ and ^r fear is on every side. O daughter of my people, ^s gird thee with sackcloth, and ^t wallow thyself ^u in ashes: make thee ^v mourning, as for an only son, most ^w bitter lamentation: for the spoiler ²⁷ shall suddenly come upon us. I have set thee for ^x a tower and ^y a fortress among my people, that thou mayest ²⁸ know and ^z try their way. ^a They are all grievous revolters, ^b walking with slanders: they are ^c brass and iron; they ²⁹ are all ^d corrupters. The bellows are burnt, ^e the lead is consumed of the fire; ^e the founder melteth in vain: for ^f the wicked are not plucked away.

dow, and ^e shed not innocent blood in this place, ^h neither walk after other gods ⁱ to your hurt: ^{ck} then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in ^{kk} the land ^k that I gave to your fathers, ^l for ever and ever.

Behold, ^d ye trust in ^m lying words, ⁸ that cannot profit. Will ye ⁿ steal, murder, and commit adultery, and ^o swear falsely, and ^p burn incense unto Baal, and ^b walk after other gods whom ye know not; and come and stand before ^{io} me in this house, ^t which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Is ^q this ¹¹ house, which is called by my name, become ^{ra} a den of ^s robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. But go ye now unto ¹² ^t my place which was in ^u Shiloh, ^v where I set my name at the first, and see ^w what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. And now, ¹³ because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, ^x rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and ^y I called you, but ye answered not; therefore will I do unto ¹⁴ this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto ^z the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, ^{was} as I have done to Shiloh. And I ¹⁵ will cast you out of my sight, ^a as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of ^b Ephraim. ^c Therefore ^d pray not thou for this people, ^e neither lift up ^e cry nor prayer for them, neither ^f make intercession to me: ^e for I will not hear thee. Seest thou ¹⁷ not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women ^g knead ^{their} dough, ^h to make cakes to the ^{li} queen of heaven, and ^{hk} to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, ^l that they may provoke me to anger. ^m Do ¹⁹ they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: ⁿ do they not provoke themselves ^o to the confusion of their own faces? Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ²⁰ Behold, ^p mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, ^{pp} and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, ^{qq} and shall not be quenched.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^r Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and ^{rr} eat flesh. ²¹ For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, ^{tt} concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: but this thing commanded I them, saying, ^{su} Obey my voice, and ^v I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and ^w walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that ^x it may be well unto you. ^y But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, ^y but ^z walked in the counsels and ^a in the ^z imagination of their evil heart, and ^{tb} went backward, and not forward. ²⁵ Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, ^c I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, ^{cd} daily rising up early and sending them: ^e yet they hearkened not unto me, ^e nor inclined their ear, but ^f hardened their neck: ^g they did worse than their fathers. Therefore ^h thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: ⁱ thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee. But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, ^k nor receiveth ^{ll} correction: ^l truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth. ²⁹ Cut off thine ⁿ hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on ^o high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: ^p they have set their abominations in the house ^q which is called by my name, ^p to pollute it. ^r And they have built the high places of ^s Tophet, which is in ^t the valley of the son of Hinnom, ^u to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; ^v which I commanded them not, neither ^t came it into my heart. ^w Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called ^s Tophet, nor ^t the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: ^x for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place. And ^y the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; ^z and none shall ^a fray them away. Then will ^b I

VIII. At that time, saith the LORD, ^a they shall bring out the bones of ^b the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves: and ^c they shall spread ^d them before ^d the sun, and the moon, and ^d all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and ^d whom they have worshipped: ^f they shall not be gathered, ^g nor be buried; ^h they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth. And ⁱ death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all ^k the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

Moreover thou shalt say unto them, ⁴ Thus saith the LORD; ¹ Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return? Why then is this people of ⁵ Jerusalem ^m slidden back by a perpetual ⁿ backsliding? ^o they hold fast deceit, ^p they refuse to return. I ^q hearkened ⁶ and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to ^r his course, as the horse ^s rusheth ^t into the battle. Yea, ^u the ⁷ ^v stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and ^v the turtle and ^z the crane and ^z the swallow observe the time of their coming; but ^u ^a my people know not the judgment of the LORD. How do ye say, We are wise, and ^b the ⁸ law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly ⁱ in vain made he it; ^e the pen of the scribes is in vain. ^{1d} The wise ⁹ ^{men} are ashamed, they are dismayed and ^e taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and ^t what wisdom ⁱ is in them? Therefore ^f will I give ¹⁰ their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; ¹² when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, ^g they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

¹³ ¹ I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: ^h there shall be ^k no grapes on the vine, ^k nor figs on the fig tree, and ¹ the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from ¹⁴ them. Why do we sit still? ^m assemble yourselves, and ^m let us enter into the defenced cities, and ⁿ let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us ^o water of ¹ gall to drink, because we have sinned ¹⁵ against the LORD. ^p We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of ^q health, and behold trouble.
¹⁶ ¹ The snorting of his horses was heard ^s from Dan: ^t the whole land trembled at the sound of ^u the neighing of ^v his strong ones; for they are come, and ^v have devoured the land, and ^t all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell ¹⁷ therein. For behold, ^w I will send serpents, ^x cockatrices, among you, which will not be ^y charmed, and ^z they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

²¹ ^e For the hurt of ^e the daughter of my people am I hurt; ^g I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me. Is there no ²² balm in Gilead; is there no physician there? why then is not ^t the health of ^t the daughter of my people ^t recovered?

O that I had in the wilderness ^a a lodging place of ^{bb} wayfaring men; That I might leave my people, and go from them!

For ^c they be all adulterers, ^d an assembly of ^e treacherous men.

And ^f they bend their tongues like ^g their bow for lies:

But ^h they are not valiant ⁱ for ^h the truth upon the earth;

For they proceed from evil to evil, And ^j they know not me, saith the LORD.

^k Take ye heed every one of his ^l neighbour,

And ^m trust ye not in any brother:

For every brother ⁿ will utterly supplant, And every neighbour ^o will walk with

And they will ^p deceive every one his neighbour,

And will not speak the truth:

They have taught their tongue to speak lies,

And weary themselves ^q to commit iniquity.

Thine habitation is in the midst of ^r deceit;

^s Through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, ^t Behold, I will ^u melt them, and ^v try them;

For ^w how shall I do for ^b the daughter of my people?

^x Their tongue is as an arrow shot ^y out; ^z it speaketh deceit:

Speak, Thus saith the LORD,
 Even the carcases of men shall fall

 And as ^vthe handful after the harvest-
 man, and ^znone ^xshall gather them.

Thus saith the LORD,
 ab Let not the wise man glory
 in his wisdom,
 Neither let the mighty man
 glory in his might,
 Let not the rich man glory in
 his riches:
 b But c let him that glorieth
 glory in this,
 That he understandeth and
 d knoweth me,
 That I am the LORD which exercise
 lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth:
 For e in things I delight, saith
 the LORD.
 Behold, f the days come, saith the
 LORD,
 That g I will h punish all them which are i circumcised with the uncircumcised;
 b Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab,
 And all that are i in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness:
 For all these nations are uncircumcised,
 And all the house of Israel i are uncircumcised in the heart.

Hear ye the word which the LORD
 speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:
 Thus saith the LORD,
 Learn not the way of the heathen,
 And a be not dismayed at the signs of heaven;
 For the heathen are dismayed at them.
 For the b customs of the people are vain:
 For done cutteth a tree out of the forest,
 The work of the hands of the workman, c with the axe.
 f They deck it with silver and with gold;
 g They fasten it with nails and with hammers, h that it move not.
 They are i upright as k the palm tree,
 l but speak not:
 m They must needs be borne, because they cannot go.

Wisd. 13. 18. See Isai. 46. 7.

Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil,
 n Neither also is it in them to do good.

Forasmuch as there is o none like unto thee, O LORD;

o Thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

p Who would not fear thee, q O King
 of nations? for r to thee doth it ap-pertain:

Forasmuch as among all r the wise men of the nations, and s in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

But they are t altogether t brutish and
 u foolish:

v The stock is a doctrine of vanities.

Silver w spread into plates is brought from x Tarshish,
 And gold from y Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands
 of w the founder:

z Blue and a purple is their clothing:

b They are all the work of cunning
 men.

But the LORD is the t true God,
 He is c the living God, and an t everlasting king:

At his wrath the earth shall tremble,
 And the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

Thus shall ye say unto them, d The gods that have not made the heavens
 and the earth, even e they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

f He hath made the earth by his power,

h He hath established the world by his wisdom,
 And i hath stretched out the heavens
 by his discretion.

When he k uttereth his voice, there is a l multitude of waters in the heavens,

And k he causeth l the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth;

He maketh lightnings l with rain,
 And k bringeth forth the wind out of
 m his treasures.

Every man n is brutish in his knowledge:

Every founder o is confounded by the graven image:

For his molten image p is falsehood,

 t Or, is more
brutish than
to know.

^r See ch. 2. 5. ^r They are vanity, and the work of ¹⁵ errors:
^s Wisd. 14. 11. In the time of ^s their visitation ^e they shall perish.
^t See Ps. 16. 5. ^t The portion of Jacob is not like ¹⁶ them:
 For he is the former of all things;
 And ^u Israel is the rod of his inheritance:
^v The LORD of hosts is his name.
^w Gather up thy wares out of the ¹⁷ land,
 O ⁱ inhabitant of ^x the fortress.
 For thus saith the LORD,
 Behold, ^y I will sling out the inhabitants of the land ^y at this once,
 And will ^z distress them, ^a that they may find it so.
^b Woe is me for my hurt! ^e my wound ¹⁹ is grievous:
^d But I said, Truly this is a grief, and ^e I must bear it.
^f My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my ²⁰ cords are broken:
 My children are gone forth of me, and ^f they are not:
There is none to stretch forth my tent any more,
 And to set up ^f my curtains.
 For ^g the pastors ^h are become brutish, ²¹
 And have not sought the LORD:
 Therefore they shall not ⁱ prosper;
 And all their flocks shall be scattered.
 Behold, the noise of the ^k bruit is ²² come,
 And a great commotion out of ^l the north country,
 To make the ^m cities of Judah desolate,
 And ^m a den of dragons.
 O LORD, I know that ⁿ the way of ²³ man is not in himself:
It is not in man that walketh ^o to direct his steps.
 O LORD, ^p correct me, but with judgment;
 Not in thine anger, lest thou ^t bring me to nothing.
^q Pour out thy fury upon the heathen ²⁵
^r that know thee not,
 And upon the families that call not on thy name:
 For they have ^s eaten up Jacob, and ^s devoured him, and consumed him,
 And have made his ^t habitation desolate.

The word that came to Jeremiah from ^{XI.}
² the LORD, saying, ^a Hear ye the words of ^a this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of ³ Jerusalem; and say thou unto them,
 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel;
^b Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the ^b So Deut. 27. 26. Gal. 3. 10.
⁴ words of this covenant, which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, ^c from the iron furnace, ^d saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: ^d so shall ye be my people, and I will be your ⁵ God: that I may perform ^e the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them ^f a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, ^t So be it, O LORD.
⁶ Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words ^f in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, ^a Hear ye the words of this covenant, ⁷ and ^h do them. For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, ^h rising early and protesting, ^d saying, Obey my voice.
⁸ Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but ^k walked every one in the ^l imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all ^a the words of this covenant, ^g which I commanded them to do; but they did them not. And the LORD said unto me, ¹ A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
¹⁰ They are turned back to ^m the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah ⁿ have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able ^t to escape; and ^o though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.
¹² Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the ¹³ time of their ^t trouble. ^p For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that ^t shameful thing, even ¹⁴ altars to burn incense unto Baal. ^q Therefore pray not thou for this people,

† neither lift up a cry or prayer for them:
for °I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their [†]trouble.
† What hath °my beloved to do in ¹⁵
mine house, seeing [†]she hath wrought
lewdness with many, and [†]the holy flesh
is passed from thee? [†]when thou doest evil, [†]then thou rejoicest. The LORD ¹⁶ called thy name, [†]"A green olive tree,
fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise
of a great [†]tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and [†]the branches of it are broken. For the LORD of hosts, ²that ¹⁷ planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves [†]to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal. And the LORD hath given ¹⁸ me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings. But I ¹⁹ was [†]like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that [†]they had devised devices against me, [†]saying, [†]"Let us destroy [†]the tree with the fruit thereof, and [†]let us cut him off from [†]the land of the living, [†]that his name may be no more remembered.
But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest ²⁰
righteously, [†]that [†]triest the reins and [†]the heart, [†]let me see thy vengeance
on them: for unto thee have I revealed
my cause.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of ²¹
the men of °Anathoth, [†]that seek thy life, saying, [†]Prophesy not in the name of the LORD, [†]that thou die not by our hand: therefore thus saith the LORD of ²² hosts, Behold, I will [†]punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine: and there shall be no remnant ²³
of them: for °I will bring evil upon the men of °Anathoth, even [†]the year of their visitation.

XII. [†]Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet [†]let me [†]talk with thee of thy judgments. [†]Wherefore doth
the way of the wicked prosper? where- fore are all they [†]happy that [†]deal very treacherously? Thou hast planted them, ²
yea, they have taken root: [†]they grow,
yea, they bring forth fruit: [†]thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins. But thou, O LORD, [†]knowest ³ me: thou hast seen me, and [†]tried mine heart [†]towards thee: [†]pull them out [†]like sheep for the slaughter, and [†]prepare them for [†]the day of slaughter. How long shall [†]the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, °for the wickedness of them that dwell therein?

[†]the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

⁵ If thou hast run with the footmen,
and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou [†]contend with horses? and if
in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in [†]the swelling of Jordan?
⁶ For even [†]thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have [†]dealt treacherously with thee; yea, [†]they have called a multitude after thee: [†]believe them not, though they speak [†]fair words unto thee.

⁷ I have forsaken mine house, I have left [†]mine heritage; I have given [†]the dearly beloved of my soul unto the hand of her enemies. [†]Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it [†]crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.
⁹ Mine heritage is unto me as a [†]speckled [†]bird, [†]the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of ¹⁰ the field, [†]come to devour. Many [†]pastors have destroyed [†]my vineyard, [†]they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my [†]pleasant por-¹¹ tion a desolate wilderness. They have made it desolate, and being desolate [†]it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man [†]layeth ¹² it to heart. The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness:
for the sword of the LORD shall devour
from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall ¹³ have peace. [†]They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: [†]they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit:
and [†]they shall be ashamed of [†]your revenues [†]because of the fierce anger of
the LORD.

¹⁴ Thus saith the LORD against all [†]mine evil neighbours, [†]that touch the inheritance [†]which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out
the house of Judah from among them.

¹⁵ And it shall come to pass, after that I

Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee ^a a linen ^b girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. ^c So I got a girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put ^{it} on my loins. And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, Take the girdle that thou hast got, which ^{is} upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in ^a a hole of the rock. So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and behold, the girdle ^e was marred, it ^f was profitable for nothing. Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, ^g After this manner will I ^e mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which ⁱ walk in the ^j imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which ⁱ is good for nothing. For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; ^k that ^{they} might be unto me for a people, and ^l for a name, and ^l for a praise, and ^l for a glory: but they would not hear. Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, ^p Every bottle ^q shall be filled with wine: and ^r they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I ^{will} fill all the inhabitants of this land, even ^s the kings that sit upon David's throne, and ^s the priests, and ^s the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ^t with drunkenness. And ^u I will dash them ^{one} against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, ^t but destroy them. Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken. ^v Give glory to the LORD your God, before ^w he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ^x ye look for light, he turn it into ^y the shadow of death, and make it ^z gross darkness. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for ^a your ^a pride; and ^b mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive. Say unto ^c the king and to ^c the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your ^d principalities shall come down, ^{even} ^e the crown of your glory. The cities of the south shall be ^f shut up, and none shall open ^{them}: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive. Lift up your eyes, and behold ^g them that come from the north: where ^{is} the flock ^{that} was given thee, ^{thy} beautiful flock? What wilt thou say when he shall ^h punish thee? for thou hast taught them ^{to be} ^h captains, and as ⁱ chief over thee: ^k shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail? And if thou say in thine heart, ^l Wherefore come these ^{things} upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are ^m thy skirts discovered, and thy heels ⁿ made bare. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or ⁿ the leopard his spots? ^o then may ye also do good, that are ^t accursed to do evil. Therefore will I scatter them ^p as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness. ^q This ^{is} thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because ^r thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in ^s falsehood. Therefore will I discover ^m thy skirts upon thy face, that ^{thy} shame may appear. I have seen thine adulteries, and thy ^v neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations ^w on the hills in the fields. The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah ^aconcerning ^bthe dearth.

Judah mourneth, and ^cthe gates ²thereof ^dlanguish;

^eThey are black unto the ground;

And ^fthe cry of Jerusalem ^gis gone up.

And their nobles have sent ^htheir ³little ones to the waters:

They came to the pits, and found no water;

They returned with their vessels empty;

ⁱThey were ashamed and confounded, and ^kcovered their heads.

Because the ground is chapt,

For ^lthere was no rain in the earth,

The plowmen were ashamed, ^kthey covered their heads.

Yea, ^mthe hind also calved in the ⁵field, and forsook it,

Because there was no grass.

And ⁿthe wild asses did stand in the ⁶high places,

ⁿThey snuffed up the wind like ^odragons;

Their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

O LORD, though our iniquities testify ⁷against us, do thou it ^pfor thy name's sake: for ^qour backslidings are many;

^rwe have sinned against thee. ^sO the ⁸hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as ^ta wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night? Why shouldest thou ⁹be as a man astonished, as a mighty man ^u*that* cannot save? yet ^vthou, O LORD, ^u*art* in the midst of us, and ^w*we* are called by thy name; ^x*leave* us not.

Thus saith the LORD unto this people, ¹⁰Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore ^ythe LORD doth not accept them; ^z*he* will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. Then said the LORD ¹¹unto me, ^aPray not for this people ^bfor their good. ^cWhen they fast, I will not ¹²hear their cry; and ^dwhen they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but ^eI will consume them by ^fthe sword, and by ^fthe famine, and by ^fthe pestilence.

^gThen said I, Ah Lord God! behold, ¹³the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you ^hassured ^hpeace in this place. Then the LORD ¹⁴

said unto me, The prophets ⁱprophecy lies in my name: ^jI sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and ^kdivination, and a thing of nought, and ^lthe deceit of their heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and ^jI sent them not, ^myet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; ⁿBy sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and ^othey shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them. Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them;

^pLet mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and ^qlet them not cease:

For the virgin ^rdaughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very ^sgrievous blow.

¹⁸ If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword:

And if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine:

Yea, ^uboth the prophet and the priest ^vgo about ^winto a land that they know not.

¹⁹ ^wHast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion?

Why hast thou smitten us, and ^x*there* is no healing for us?

^y*We* looked for peace, and there is no good;

And ^yfor the time of healing, and behold trouble.

²⁰ We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers:

^zFor we have sinned against thee.

²¹ Do not abhor us, ^afor thy name's sake,

Do not disgrace the throne of thy glory:

^bRemember, break not thy covenant with us.

²² ^cAre there any among ^dthe vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain?

Or can the heavens give ^eshowers?

^f*Art* not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee:

For thou hast made ^gall these things.

Then said the LORD unto me, ^a Though ^{b c} Moses and ^{b d} Samuel ^a stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward
this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; ^e Such as are for death, to death; and
such as are for the sword, to the sword;
and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. And ^f I will appoint over them four ⁱ kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs
to tear, and [§] the fowls of the heaven,
and the beasts of the earth, to devour
and destroy. And [†] I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of ^h Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or ⁱ who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside [†] to ask how thou doest?
^k Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art ^l gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; ^m I am weary with repenting. And I will ⁿ fan them with ^o a fan in the gates of the land;
I will bereave them ^p of [†] children, I will destroy my people, ^q sith ^q they return not from their ways. Their widows are increased to me ^r above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them ^l against the mother of the young men a spoiler ^s at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly,
and ^t terrors ^u upon the city. ^u She that hath borne seven languisheth: ^v she hath given up the ghost; ^w her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the
LORD.

^x Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth!
I have neither ^y lent on usury, nor men
have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me. The LORD ^z said, Verily ^z it shall be well with thy remnant; verily ^z ^a I will cause the ene-and in the time of affliction. Shall treasures will I give to the spoil ^e without price, and that for all thy sins, ^d even in all thy borders. And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into ^f a land which thou knowest not: ^g for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

^h O LORD, thou knowest: ⁱ remember me, and visit me, and ^k revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: ^{k k} know that ^l for thy sake I have suffered rebuke. Thy words were found, and ^m I did eat them; and ⁿ thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for [†] I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts. ^o I sat not in ^p the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; ^{p p} I sat alone
because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation. Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound ^q incurable, which ^r refuseth to be healed?
wilt thou be altogether unto me ^s as a liar, and ^s as waters that [†] fail?

Therefore thus saith the LORD, [†] If thou return, then will I bring thee
again, and thou shalt ^t stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them. And I ^v will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but ^w they shall not prevail against thee: ^x for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD. And ^w I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of ^y the terrible.

The word of the LORD came also unto me, saying, Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons nor daughters in this place. For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land; they shall die of grievous
deaths; ^b they shall not be lamented;

shall be as dung upon the face of the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. For thus said the LORD, ^fSo Ezek. 24. 16, 17, 22, 23. ^lOr, mourning feast. So Amos 6. 7.

And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, ^kWherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? ^lThen shalt thou say unto them, ^mBecause your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and ^mhave walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; and ye have done ⁿworse than your fathers; for behold, ^mye walk every one after the ^limagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me: ^otherefore will I ^pcast you out of this land ^qinto a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

^rTherefore behold, ^sthe days come, ^tsaith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, ^tThe LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, ^tThe LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel ^ufrom the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and ^vI will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers. Behold, ^wI will send for many ^wfishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of ^xthe holes of the rocks. For ^ymine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, ^zneither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes. And first

^aI will recompense their iniquity and their sin ^bdouble; because ^{bb}they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcasses of their

^cdetestable and abominable things. O LORD, my strength, and ^cmy fortress, and ^dmy refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, ^evanity, and things ^{fg}wherein there is no

^hprofit. Shall a man make gods unto himself, and ^gthey are no gods? Therefore behold, I will ^bthis once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that ⁱmy name is ^lThe LORD.

The sin of Judah is written with ^aa pen of iron, and with the ^b'point of ^{ba}diamond: it is ^cgraven upon the table of their heart, and upon ^dthe horns of ^eyour altars; whilst ^ftheir children remember their altars and ^gtheir groves ^hby the green trees upon the high hills. ⁱO ⁱmy mountain in the field, ^jI will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, ^kthroughout all thy borders. And thou, even ^lthyself, shalt ^kdiscontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and ^lI will cause thee to serve thine enemies ^min the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

ⁿThus saith the LORD; Cursed ^{be} ⁿthe man that trusteth in man, and ^omaketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth ^pfrom the LORD. For he shall ^pbe like the ^qheath in the desert, and ^rshall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, ⁱⁿ ^sa salt land and ^tnot inhabited. ^uBlessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose ^vhope the LORD is. ^wFor ^whe shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but ^xher leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the break them

with a dou-

year of ¹drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

²The heart is ³deceitful above all ⁴things, and ⁵desperately wicked: who can know it? I the LORD ⁶search the heart, I ⁷try the reins, even ⁸to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. As ⁹the partridge ¹⁰sitteth on eggs, and ¹¹hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, ¹²shall leave them ¹³in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be ¹⁴a fool.

A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary. O LORD, ¹the hope of Israel, ²all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be ³written in the earth, because ⁴they have forsaken the LORD, ⁵the fountain of living waters. ⁶Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for ⁷thou art my praise. Behold, ⁸they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it ⁹come now. As ¹⁰for me, ¹¹I have not ¹²hastened from being ¹³a pastor ¹⁴to follow thee: neither have I desired the ¹⁵woeful day; ¹⁶thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was ¹⁷right before thee. Be not a ¹⁸terror unto me: ¹⁹thou art my hope in the day of evil. ²⁰Let them be confounded that persecute me, but ²¹let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and ²²destroy them with ²³double destruction.

Thus said the LORD unto me; Go ¹and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby ²the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; and say unto them, ³Hear ye the word of the LORD, ⁴ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: Thus saith the LORD; Take heed ⁵to yourselves, and ⁶bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring ⁷it in by the gates of Jerusalem; neither carry forth a ⁸burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, ⁹neither do ye any work, but ¹⁰hallow ye the sabbath day, ¹¹as I commanded your fathers. ¹²But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but ¹made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor ²receive instruction. And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, ³to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but ⁴hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein; ⁵then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and ⁶on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city ⁷shall remain for ever. And they shall come from ⁸the cities of Judah, and from ⁹the places about Jerusalem, and from ¹⁰the land of Benjamin, and from ¹¹the plain, and from ¹²the mountains, and from ¹³the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing ¹⁴sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD. But if you will not hearken unto me ¹⁵to hallow the sabbath day, and not ¹⁶to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then ¹⁷will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and ¹⁸it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and ¹⁹it shall not be quenched.

The word which came to Jeremiah ¹from the LORD, saying, Arise, and go down ²to ³the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words. Then I went down ⁴to the potter's house, and behold, he wrought a work on the ⁵wheels. And the vessel ⁶that he made of clay ⁷was marred in the hand of the potter: so he ⁸made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make ⁹it. Then the word of the LORD ¹⁰came to me, saying, O house of Israel, ¹¹cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, ¹²as the clay ¹³is in the potter's hand, so ¹⁴are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel. At ¹⁵what instant I shall speak ¹⁶concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, ¹⁷to pluck up, and to pull down, and to ¹⁸destroy it; if that nation, against whom I have pronounced, ¹⁹turn from their evil, ²⁰I will repent of the evil that I ²¹thought to do unto them. And at ²²what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, ²³to build and to plant it; if it do evil in my sight, that ²⁴it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said ²⁵ would benefit them. Now therefore go ¹¹ to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: ¹² return ye now every one from his evil way, and ¹³ make your ways and your doings good. And they said, ¹⁴ There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do ¹⁵ the imagination of his evil heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD; ¹⁶ Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done ¹⁷ a very horrible thing. Will a man leave ¹⁸ the snow of Lebanon ¹⁹ which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place ²⁰ be forsaken? ²⁵ And ^cI will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the

 even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. ^eAnd ^fI will cast thee out, and ^gthy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not ²⁷ born; and there shall ye die. But to the land whereunto they ¹desire to return, ^hthither shall they not return.
²⁸ Is this man ^aConiah a despised broken idol? ^{is he} ¹a vessel wherein ^{is} no pleasure? wherefore are they ^kcast out, he and his seed, and are ^ecast into ¹a land ²⁹ which they know not? ^mO earth, earth,
 earth, hear the word of the LORD.
³⁰ Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this seed shall prosper, ^ositting upon the

them away, and have not visited them:
 behold, ^bI will visit upon you ^cthe evil
 of your doings, saith the LORD. And ³
^dI will gather the remnant of my flock ^eout of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and ^fthey shall be fruitful and increase. And I will set ⁴ up ^gshepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more,
 nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.
^hBehold, ⁱthe days come, saith the ⁵
 LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous ^kBranch, and ^la King shall reign and ^mprosper, and shall execute ⁿjudgment and justice in the earth.
 In his days Judah shall be saved, and ⁶ ^oIsrael shall dwell ^psafely: and this ^{is}
 his name whereby he shall be called,
^qTHE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUS- NESS. ^rTherefore behold, ⁱthe days ⁷ come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, The LORD ⁸ liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and ^efrom all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

^{ss}Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets;
^tAll my bones shake;
 I am like a drunken man,
 And like a man whom wine hath overcome, ^uBecause of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.
 For ^vthe land is full of adulterers; ¹⁰
 For ^wbecause of ^{is}swearing ^wthe land
 mourneth;
^xThe pleasant places of the wilderness ^yare dried up,
 And their ^zcourse is evil, and their force ^{is}not right.
 For ^{aa}both prophet and priest are ¹¹
 profane;
 Yea, ^ain my house have I found
 their wickedness, saith the LORD.
 Wherefore ^btheir way shall be unto ¹²
 them as slippery ^{ways} ^cin the dark-
 ness:
 They shall be driven on, and fall
 therein:
^dFor I will bring evil upon them,
 even the year of their visitation,
 saith the LORD.

¹³ And I have seen ^{11e} folly in the prophets of ^fSamaria;
^gThey prophesied in Baal,
 And ^bcaused my people Israel to err.
¹⁴ I have seen also in ⁱthe prophets of Jerusalem ^{1a} a horrible thing:
^kThey commit adultery, and ^lwalk in lies:
 They ^mstrengthen also the hands of
 evildoers,
 That none doth return from his wickedness:
 They are all of them unto me ^{1a} as Sodom,
 And ⁿthe inhabitants thereof as Go-
 morrah.
¹⁵ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning ⁱthe prophets; ^oBe-
 hold, I will feed them with ^pwormwood, ^qand make them drink ^qthe water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ^{1b} profaneness gone forth into all the ¹⁶ land. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: ^rthey speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the ¹⁷ mouth of the LORD. They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, ^sYe shall have peace; and they say ^{unto} every one that walketh after the ^{imagination} of his own heart, ^tNo ¹⁸ evil shall come upon you. For ^uwho hath stood in the ^{1b} counsel of the LORD,
 and hath perceived and heard his word?
 who hath marked his word, and heard ¹⁹ ^{it}? ^wBehold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth ⁱⁿ fury, even ^xa grievous whirlwind: ^yit shall fall grievously upon ²⁰ the head of the wicked. ^yThe anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: ^zin
 the latter days ye shall consider it per-²¹ fectly. ^aI have not sent ^{these} prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to ²² them, yet they prophesied. But if they had ^bstood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words,
 then they should have ^cturned them
 from their evil way, and from ^dthe evil ²³ of their doings. ^{am} I a God at hand,
 saith the LORD, and ^enot a God afar
²⁴ off? ^fCan any hide himself in secret places ^gthat I shall not see him? saith
 the LORD. ^gDo not I fill heaven and what the prophets said, ^b that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I ⁱ have dreamed, I have dreamed. ^b ch. 1. 2. Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; the which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, ^bFrom the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, ^crising early and speaking; ^dbut ye have not hearkened. And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, ^crising early and sending them; ^dbut ye have not hearkened, nor ^einclined your ear to hear. They said, ^fTurn ye again now every one ^gfrom his evil way, and ^hfrom the evil of your doings, and ^hdwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers ^hfor ever and ever: and ⁱgo not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and ^kprovoke me not to anger with ^lthe works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might ^kprovoke me to anger with ^lthe works of your hands to your own hurt.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words, Behold, I will send and take ^gall ^mthe families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^mmy servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and ^tagainst all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them ^oan astonishment, and ^oa hissing, and perpetual desolations. Moreover I will take from them ^pthe voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, ^qthe sound of the millstones, and ^tthe light of the candle. And this whole land shall be ^sa desolation, and ^oan astonishment; and ^tthese nations shall serve the king of Babylon ^useventy years. And it shall come to pass, ^vwhen ^useventy years are accomplished, that I will ^tpunish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and ^wwill make it perpetual desolations. And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written ^xin this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴ For ^ymany nations and ^ygreat kings ^yshall serve themselves of them also: and ^bI will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

¹⁵ For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take ^cthe wine cup of this fury at mine hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.  thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, ^rbecause thou hast taught ^trebellion against the LORD. So ¹⁷ Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

XXIX. Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of ^athe elders which were carried away captives, and ^bto the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon; (after that ^{cd}Jeconiah the king, and ^{ce}the queen, and ^{ce}the ⁱeunuchs, ^dthe princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and ^dthe carpenters, and ^dthe smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;) by the hand ³ of Elasah the son of ^fShaphan, and Gemariah the son of ^gHilkiah, ^hwhom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God ⁴ of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon; ⁱbuild ye houses, and dwell ⁵ in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them; take ye wives, and beget ⁶ sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished. And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and ⁷ pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace. For ⁸ thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and ⁱyour diviners, that be in the midst of you, ^mdeceive you, neither hearken to ^lyour dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

ⁿFor they prophesy ^tfalsely unto you in my name: ⁿI have not sent them, saith the LORD. For thus saith the LORD, ¹⁰ That ^oafter seventy years be accomplished at Babylon ^pI will visit you, and ^qperform my good word towards you, ^pin causing you to return to this place. For I know the thoughts that I think ¹¹ towards you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, ^rto give you an ⁱexpected end. Then ^sshall ye call upon ¹² me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ^{sv}ye ¹³ shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me ^uwith all your heart. And ^vI will be found of you, saith the ¹⁴

LORD: and ^wI will turn away your captivity, and ^xI will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places ^ywhither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

¹⁵ Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon; ¹⁶ Know that thus saith the LORD of the king ^zthat sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwell ² in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity; thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, ^aI will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them ^blike vile figs, that ¹⁸ cannot be eaten, they are so evil. And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and ^cwill deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, ^tto be ^{de}a curse, and ^dan astonishment, and ^ga hissing, and ^{da} a reproach, ^bamong all the nations ⁱwhither I have driven them: ¹⁹ because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, ^krising up early and sending them; ^lbut ye would not hear, saith the LORD. ²⁰ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, ^mwhom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon: thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah, the son of Maaseiah, ⁿwhich prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your ²² eyes; and ^oof them shall be taken up ^{pa} a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, ^qwhom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; because they have ^rcommitted villany in Israel, and ^shave committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and ^{ns}have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and ^{tam} a witness, ¹saith the LORD.

²⁴ Thus shalt thou also speak to She-²⁵ maiah the ⁱNehelamite, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to ^uZepha-

niah the son of ^{uu}Maaseiah the priest,
and to all the priests, saying, The LORD ²⁶ hath made thee priest in the stead of ^vJehoiada the priest, that ^{ye} should be ^wofficers in the house of the LORD, for every man ^{*that is} mad, and ^ymaketh
himself a prophet, that thou shouldest
put him in prison, and in ^zthe stocks.
Now therefore why hast thou not re- ²⁷
proved ^aJeremiah of Anathoth, ^ywhich maketh himself a prophet to you? For ²⁸
therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: ^bbuild ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And ²⁹ Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. Then ³⁰ came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Send to all them of the ³¹ captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD
concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite;
Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and ^{cd}I sent him not, and ^ehe caused you to trust in a lie: there- ³²
fore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither ^eshall
he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; ^fbecause
he hath taught [†]rebellion against the
LORD.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus speaketh the ²
LORD God of Israel, saying, ^aWrite thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. For lo, ^{aa}the days ³ come, saith the LORD, that ^bI will bring again the captivity of my people ^cIsrael and Judah, saith the LORD: and ^dI will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it. And these are the words that ⁴
the LORD spake concerning ^cIsrael and concerning Judah. For thus saith the ⁵
LORD;

We have heard a voice of trembling,
[†]Of fear, and not of peace.
Ask ye now, and see whether [†]a man ⁶
doth travail with child?

Wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, ^eas a woman in travail,
And [†]all faces are turned into pale-
ness?

Alas! for ^gthat day is great, ^hso that ⁷
none is like it:

It is even the time of Jacob's trouble;
But he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass [†]in that day, ¹ See Isai. 2.
saith the LORD of hosts,
That [†]I will break his ^kyoke from off
thy neck,

And [†]will burst [†]thy bonds,
And ^mstrangers shall no more ^lserve
themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their
God,

And ⁿDavid their king, ^owhom I will raise up unto them.

10 ^pTherefore ^qfear thou not, O ^rmy
servant Jacob, saith the LORD;
Neither be dismayed, O Israel:
^pFor lo, I will save thee from afar,
And thy seed ^sfrom the land of their
captivity;

^pAnd Jacob shall return,
^pAnd shall be in rest, and ^tbe quiet,
^{pu}And none shall make him afraid.

11 ^{qv}For I am with thee, saith the LORD,
to save thee:

^wThough I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered
thee,

^{wx}Yet will I not make a full end of
thee:

But I will correct thee ^yin measure, ^yAnd ^{yy}will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD,
Thy bruise is ^zincurable,
And ^athy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, [†]that thou mayest be bound up:

^cThou hast no healing medicines.

14 ^dAll thy lovers have forgotten thee;
They seek thee not;

For I have wounded thee with the wound of ^ean enemy, with the chas-
tisement of ^fa cruel one,

^{††}For the multitude of thine iniquity;
Because thy sins ^gwere increased.

15 Why criest thou for thine afflic-tion?

^hThy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity:

Because thy sins ^gwere increased,
I have done these things unto
thee.

16 ⁱTherefore all ^kthey that devour thee
[†]shall be devoured;

And all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity;

And ^mthey that spoil thee shall be ^aa

And all that prey upon thee will I

For o I will restore health unto thee, 17
And p I will heal thee of thy wounds,
saith the LORD;
Because they called thee q an Outcast,
saying,
This is Zion, r whom no man seeketh after.

Thus saith the LORD: 18
Behold, s I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents,
And t have mercy on his dwelling
places;
And the city shall be builded upon
her own u heap,
And the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.
And out of them shall proceed 19
v thanksgiving and the voice of
w them that make merry:
And x I will multiply them, and they shall not be few;
I will also y glorify them, and z they shall not be small.

Their children also shall be z as afore-20
time,
And their congregation shall be established before me,
And I will punish all that oppress them.
And a their nobles shall be of themselves, 21
And a their governor shall proceed from
the midst of them;
And I will b cause him to draw near,
and he shall approach unto me:
For c who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith
the LORD.

And d ye shall be my people, and I 22
will be your God.
e Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD 23
goeth forth with fury,
A f continuing whirlwind:
e It shall h fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.
f The fierce g anger of the LORD shall 24
not return, until he have done it,
g And until he have performed the intents of his heart:
gh In the latter days ye shall consider it.

a At the same time, saith the LORD,
b Will I be the God of all the families
of Israel,
And they shall be my people.
Thus saith the LORD,
The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness;
Even Israel e when I went to cause
him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared t of old unto me, saying,
Yea, d I have loved thee with e an everlasting love;
Therefore f with lovingkindness f have
I drawn thee.

4 Again g I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel:
Thou shalt again h be adorned with thy i tabrets,
And shalt go forth in j the dances of
j them that make merry.

5 k Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of l Samaria:
The planters shall plant, and shall
l eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day,
That the watchmen upon m the mount Ephraim shall cry,
n Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion
unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD;
o Sing with gladness for Jacob,
And o shout among p the chief of the nations:

Publish ye, praise ye, and say,
O LORD, q save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them r from the north country,
And s gather them t from the coasts of
the earth,
And with them u the blind and the lame,

The woman with child and her that travailleth with child together:
A great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come v with weeping,
And with w supplication will I lead
them:

I will cause them to walk x by the rivers of waters
y In a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble:
For z I am a father to Israel,
And z Ephraim is a my firstborn.

10 Hear the word of the LORD,
O ye nations,
And declare it in the isles afar
off, and say,
He that scattered Israel b will gather
him,
And keep him c as a shepherd doth
his flock.

11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob,
And d ransomed him e from the hand

²⁰ Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a ^bpleasant child?
 For since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still:
 Therefore ^cmy bowels ^dare troubled for him;
 I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.
²¹ Set thee up ^ewaymarks, make thee high heaps:
^fSet thine heart toward the highway, ^gEven the way which thou wentest:
 Turn again, O virgin of Israel, Turn again to these thy cities,
²² How long wilt thou ^hgo about, O thou ⁱbacksliding daughter?
 For the LORD hath created a new ^jthing in the earth,
 A woman shall compass ^ka man.
²³ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel;
 As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, ^kWhen I shall bring again their captivity;
^lThe LORD bless thee, ^mO habitation of justice, and ⁿmountain of holiness.
²⁴ And there shall dwell in Judah itself, And ^oin all the cities thereof together, Husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.
²⁵ For I have ^psatiated the ^qweary soul, And I have replenished every sorrowful soul.
²⁶ Upon this I awaked, and beheld;
 And my sleep was sweet unto me.
²⁷ Behold, ^rthe days ^scome, saith the LORD,
 That ^tI will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah
 With ^uthe seed of man, and with the seed of beast.
²⁸ And it shall come to pass, that ^vlike as ^wI have watched over them,
^xTo pluck up, and ^yto break down, ^zand to throw down, ^zAnd to destroy, and to afflict;
^{aa}So will I watch over them, to ^{ab}build, and to plant, saith the LORD.
²⁹ ^{ac}In those days they shall say no more,
 The fathers have eaten a sour grape,
 And the children's teeth ^{ad}are set on edge.

this was the word of the LORD. And I ⁹ bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in ⁿAnathoth, and ^pweighed him the money, even ¹seventeen shekels of silver. And I ¹⁰ subscribed the evidence, and ^qsealed it, and ^rtook witnesses, and ^pweighed him the money in the balances. So I took the evidence ¹¹ of the purchase, both ^sthat which was sealed according to the law and ^tcustom, and ^sthat which was open: and I gave ¹² the evidence of the purchase unto ^uBaruch ^vthe son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of ^rthe witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat ^din the court of the prison. And I ¹³ charged ^uBaruch before them, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God ¹⁴ of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, ^sboth which is sealed, and ^sthis evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days. For ¹⁵ thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and ^wfields and vineyards shall be ^xpossessed again in this land.

Now when I had delivered ^ythe evidence of the purchase unto ^uBaruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying, Ah Lord God! behold, ^zthou ¹⁷ hast made the heaven and the earth ^aby thy great power ^aand stretched out arm, and ^bthere is nothing ¹too hard for thee: ^cthou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and ^drecompensest the iniquity of the fathers ^dinto the bosom of their children after them: the Great, ^fthe Mighty God, ^gthe LORD of hosts, ^his his name, ^hgreat in counsel, and mighty in ¹⁹ ^twork: ⁱfor thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: ^kto give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: which ²⁰ hast set ^lsigns and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and amongst other men; and ^mhast made thee ⁿa name, as at this day; and ²¹ ⁿhast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and ^owith a strong hand, and ^pwith a stretched out arm, and ^owith great terror; and hast given them ²² this land, ^qwhich thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, ^qa land flowing with milk and honey; and they ²³ came in, and possessed it; ^sbut they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil ²⁴ to come upon them: behold the ¹mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and ^tthe city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, ^ubecause of the sword, ^uand of the famine, ^uand of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and behold, thou seest it. And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, ^vBuy thee the field for money, and ^wtake witnesses; ¹for ^tthe city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

Then came the word of the LORD ²⁶ unto Jeremiah, saying, Behold, I am the LORD, ^xthe God of all flesh: ^bis there ²⁷ any thing too hard for me? Therefore thus saith the LORD; ^yBehold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall ²⁹ take it: and the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and ^zburn it with the houses, ^aupon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and ^apoured out drink offerings unto other gods, ^bto provoke ³⁰ me to anger. For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me ^gfrom their youth: for the children of Israel have only ^bprovoked me to anger ^hwith the work of their hands, saith the LORD. ³¹ For this city hath been to me as ^aa provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; ⁱthat I should remove it ³² from before my face, because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done ^bto provoke me to anger, ^kthey, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, ³³ and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And ¹they have turned unto me the [†]back, and not the face: though I taught them, ^mrising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened ⁿto receive instruction. But ^othey set their abominations in the house, ^owhich is called by ³⁴ my name, ^oto defile it. ^pAnd they built the high places of Baal, ^pwhich are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, ^qto cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; ^pwhich I commanded them not, neither ^r 1 Kin. 16. 19. came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, ^rto cause Judah to sin.

And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, ^sIt shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon ^sby the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; behold, ^tI will gather them out of all countries, ^uwhither I have driven them ^vin mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them ^wto dwell safely: and ^xthey shall be my people, and I ^ywill be their God: and I ^{xy}will give them one heart, and one way, ^zthat they may fear me ^tfor ever, ^zfor the good of them, and of their children after them: and ^{ab}I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away ^bfrom them, to do them good; but ^bI will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. Yea, ^cI will rejoice over them to do them good, and ^dI will plant them in this land ^tassuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. For thus saith the LORD; ^eLike as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, ^eso will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. And ^ffields shall be bought in this land, ^gwhereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; ^hit is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. Men shall buy fields for money, and ⁱsubscribe evidences, and ⁱseal them, and ⁱtake witnesses in ^kthe land of Benjamin, and in ^kthe places about Jerusalem, and in ^kthe cities of Judah, and in the cities of ^kthe mountains, and in the cities of ^kthe valley, and in the cities of ^kthe south: for ^lI will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

XXXIII. Moreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet ^ashut up in the court of the prison, saying, Thus saith the LORD ^bthe maker thereof, the LORD ^bthat formed it, to establish it; ^cthe LORD is his name; ^dcall unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and ^emighty things, ^ewhich thou knowest not. For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by ^fthe mounts, and by the sword; ^gthey come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain ^hin mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness ⁱI have hid my face ^jfrom this city. Behold, ^kI will bring it health and cure, and ^kI will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth. And ^lI will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and ^mwill build them, ⁿas at the first. And ^oI will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me, and ^pI will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me. ^qAnd ^qit shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall ^rfear and ^stremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it. Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, ^twhich ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, ^ueven ^uin the cities of Judah. ^uand in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and ^vwithout inhabitant, and without ^wbeast, ^wthe voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, ^xPraise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: ^yand of them that shall bring ^ythe sacrifice of praise ^yinto the house of the LORD. For ^zI will cause to return the captivity of the land ^zas at the first, saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Again in this place, ^zwhich is desolate ^zwithout man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be ^za habitation of shepherds ^zcausing their flocks to lie down. ^{ab}In ^bthe cities of the mountains, in ^bthe cities of the vale, and in ^bthe cities of the south, and in ^bthe land of Benjamin, and in ^bthe places about Jerusalem, and in ^bthe cities of Judah, ^cshall the flocks pass again ^dunder the hands ^eof him that telleth them, saith the LORD. ^fBehold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I ^gwill perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah. In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in ^hthe land. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, 'The LORD our righteousness. For thus saith the LORD; [†]David shall never want a man [†]to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; neither shall [†]the priests the Levites want a man before me [†]to offer burnt offerings, and [†]to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; [†]If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season; [†]then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son [†]to reign upon his throne; and with [†]the Levites the priests, my ministers. As [†]the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither [†]the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even [†]cast them off? thus they have despised my people, [†]that they should be no more a nation before them. Thus saith the LORD; [†]If my covenant be not with day and night, and [†]if I have not appointed [†]the ordinances of heaven and earth; [†]then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed [†]to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for [†]I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

XXXIV. The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, [†]when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and [†]all the kingdoms of the earth [†]of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to [†]Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, [†]I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and [†]he shall burn it with fire; and [†]thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and [†]delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and [†]he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and [†]thou shalt go to Babylon. [†]Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword: [†]but [†]thou shalt die in peace: and with [†]the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and [†]they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD. Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against [†]Lachish, and against [†]Azekah: for [†]these [†]defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

[†]This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, [†]to proclaim liberty unto them; [†]that every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, [†]go free; [†]that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother. Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, [†]go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go. But [†]afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let [†]go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah [†]from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that [†]I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying, At [†]the end of [†]seven years let ye go every man his brother a Hebrew, which [†]hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers [†]hearkened not unto me, [†]neither inclined their ear. And ye were [†]now turned, and had done right in my sight, in [†]proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and [†]ye had made a covenant before me in the house [†]which is called by my name.

The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD ^ain the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, Go unto the house of ^bthe Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them ^cinto the house of the LORD, into one of ^dthe chambers, and give them wine to drink. Then I took Jaazaniah ^ethe son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; and I brought them ^finto the house of the LORD, into ^gthe chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, ^ha man of God, which was by ⁱthe chamber of the princes, which was ^jabove the chamber of ^kMaaseiah the son of ^lShallum, ^mthe keeper of the ⁿdoor: and I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said ^ounto them, Drink ye wine. But they said, We will drink no wine: for ^pJonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, ^qneither ye, nor your sons for ever: neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have ^rany: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; ^sthat ye may live many days in the land where ^tye be strangers. Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. But it came to pass, ^uwhen Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go ^vto Jerusalem for fear of the army of ^wthe Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of ^xthe Syrians: ^yso we dwell at Jerusalem.

Then came the word of the LORD unto ^zJeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not ^{aa}receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD. The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, ^{ab}rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened ^{ac}not unto me. ^{ad}I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, ^{ae}rising up early and sending ^{af}them, saying, ^{ag}Return ye now every man from his evil way, ^{ah}and amend your doings, ^{ai}and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ^{aj}ye have not inclined your ear, nor ^{ak}hearkened unto me. the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting ^rin the gate of Benjamin; ^r See ch. 37. 8 ^oEbed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying, ⁹My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and [†]he is like to die for hunger ^sin the place where he is: for ¹⁰*there is* no more bread in the city. Then the king commanded ^oEbed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men [†]with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before ¹¹he die. So ^oEbed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast ^uclouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dun-¹²geon to Jeremiah. And ^oEbed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine ^varmholes under the cords. ¹³And Jeremiah did so. So they drew up Jeremiah ^wwith cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

¹⁴ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the [†]third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide ¹⁵nothing from me. Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not ¹⁶hearken unto me? So Zedekiah the king sware ^xsecretly unto Jeremiah, saying, ^yAs the LORD liveth, ^zthat made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of ^athese men that seek thy life. ¹⁷Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly ^bgo forth ^cunto the king of Babylon's princes, then ^dthy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house: ¹⁸but ^bif thou wilt not go forth ^cto the king of Babylon's princes, then ^eshall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, ^eand they shall burn it with fire, and ^fthou shalt not escape out of ¹⁹their hand. And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews ^gthat are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand,

⁴ marg. said, They shall not deliver thee. ^dObe-

Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, ²⁴ Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die. But ^pif the princes ²⁵ hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide ^{it} not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee: then thou ²⁶ shalt say unto them, ^qI presented my supplication before the king, that ^rhe would not cause me to return to Jona- than's house, to die there. Then came ²⁷ all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had command- ed. So ^tthey left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. ^sSo ²⁸ Jeremiah abode ^tin the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was ^{there} when Jerusa- lem was taken.

XXXIX. ^aIn the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. And in the eleventh year ² of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up. And ^ball the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and ^csat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, ^dRab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, ^eRab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon. And it came to pass, that ^fwhen ⁴ Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went ⁵ out the way of the plain. But the Chal- deans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jeri- cho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to ^gRiblah in the land of Hamath, where ^hhe ⁱgave judgment upon him. Then the king of Babylon slew ⁱthe sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: ^kalso the king of Baby- ⁷lon slew all the nobles of Judah. More- over he ^lput out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him ^twith chains to carry him to Babylon.

⁸ And ^mthe Chaldeans burnt the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls ⁹ of Jerusalem. Then Nebuzar-adan the ^lcaptain of the guard carried away cap- tive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and ⁿthose that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remain- ¹⁰ ed. But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left ^oof the poor of the peo- ple, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields ^tat the same time.

¹⁵ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, ^pwhile he was ^ushut up ¹⁶ in the court of the prison, saying, Go and speak to ^vEbed-melech the Ethio- pian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, ^wI will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not ^xfor good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee. ¹⁷ But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men ^yof whom

And the captain ²of the guard took Jeremiah, and ^esaid unto him, 'The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place. Now ³the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: ^ebecause ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you. And now be- ⁴hold, I loose thee this day from ^bthe chains which ¹were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and ¹I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, ¹all the land is before thee: whither ¹it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go. Now ⁵while he was not yet gone back, ¹he said, Go back also to ^kGedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, ¹whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him ^mamong the people: or go where-soever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him ⁿvictuals and a ^oreward, and let him go. Then went Jeremiah unto ⁶Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to ^pMizpah; and dwelt with him ^mamong the people that were left in the land.

¹ Now when all the captains of the ⁷forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that ¹the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and ^rof the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon; then they came to ⁸Gedaliah to ^pMizpah, even ^sIshmael the son of Nethaniah, and ¹Johanan and Jonathan the sons of ^tKareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and ^uJezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam

the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and ^vit shall be well with you. As for me, behold, I will dwell at ^pMizpah ¹to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye ¹¹have taken. ^vLikewise when all the Jews that were in ^wMoab, and among the ^xAmmonites, and in ^yEdom, and that were in all the countries, heard that ¹the king of Babylon had ^zleft a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan; ^{zz}even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and ^agathered wine and summer fruits very much.

¹³ Moreover ^tJohanan the son of Kareah, and ^ball the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah ¹⁴to Mizpah, and said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that ^cBaalis the king of ^xthe Ammonites hath sent ^sIshmael the son of Nethaniah ¹to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

Now it came to pass ^ain the seventh month, ^bthat ^cIshmael the son of Nethaniah the son of ^dElishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to ^cMizpah; and there ^cthey did eat bread together in ²Mizpah. ^bThen arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, ^fwhom the king of Babylon had made governor over the ³land. that were found there, and the men of war.

And it came to pass the second day ⁴ after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, that there came certain from ⁵ Shechem, from ^bShiloh, and from ⁱSamarina, even fourscore men, ^khaving their beards shaven, and ^ltheir clothes rent, and ^khaving cut themselves, ^mwith ⁿofferings and incense in their hand, to bring them ^oto the house of the LORD. And ⁶ Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from ^cMizpah to meet them, ^pweeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And it was so, when they came into the ⁷ midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, ^qand cast them into the midst of ^rthe pit, he, and the men that were with him. But ten men ⁸ were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have ^streasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren. Now ^rthe pit wherein Ishmael had cast ⁹ all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain ^tbecause of Gedaliah, was it ^uwhich Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain. Then Ishmael carried ¹⁰ away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, ^veven the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, ^wwhom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to ^wthe Ammonites.

But when ^xJohanan the son of Kareah, and ^yall the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, then they took all the men, and ¹² went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by ^zthe great waters that are in ^aGibeon. Now it ¹³ came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and ^yall the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad. So ^ball the people that ¹⁴ Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah. But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and ¹⁶ went to ^wthe Ammonites. Then took ^xJohanan the son of Kareah, and ^yall the captains of the forces that were with him, ^yall the remnant of the people ^bwhom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty ^cmen of war, and ^cthe women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again ¹⁷ from ^aGibeon: and they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of ^dChimham, which is by ^eBeth-lehem. ^fTo go to enter ¹⁸ into Egypt, because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, ^gwhom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

Then ^aall the captains of the forces, and ^bJohanan the son of Kareah, and ^bJezaniah the son of ^eHoshaiah, and all the people ^dfrom the least even unto the ²greatest, came near, and said unto Jeremiah the prophet, ^hLet, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and ^epray for us unto the LORD thy God, even ^ffor all this remnant; (for we are left but ^ga few of many, as thine eyes ³do behold us:) that the LORD thy God may shew us ^hthe way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do. ⁴Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you: behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that ⁱwhatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; ^jI will keep nothing back from you. ⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, ^kThe LORD be a true and ^lfaithful witness between us, ^mif we do not even according to all things ⁿfor the which the LORD thy God ⁶shall send thee to us. Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; ^othat it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

⁷And it came to pass ^pafter ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto ⁸Jeremiah. For thus saith ¹⁸the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As ^emine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ^fye shall be ^{fk}an execration, and ^{gjk}an astonishment, and ^{hijk}a curse, and ^{bjkl}a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more. The LORD hath said ¹⁹concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; ^{xx}Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have ^tadmonished you this day. For ^{ly}ye dissembled in your hearts, ^mwhen ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, ⁿPray for us unto the LORD our God; ⁿand according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it. And now I have ²¹*this* day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing ^ofor the which he hath sent me unto you. Now therefore ²²know certainly that ^cye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire ^{to} go and to sojourn.

And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words; then spake Azariah the son of ^aHoshaiah, and ^bJohanan the son of Kareah, and all the ^cproud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, ^dGo not into Egypt to sojourn there: ³but ^eBaruch the son of Neriah ^fsetteth thee on against us, ^gfor to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away ⁴captives into Babylon. So ^bJohanan the son of Kareah, and ^hall the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah. But ^bJohanan the son of Kareah, and ^hall the captains of the forces, took ⁱall the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell ⁶in the land of Judah: Even ^kmen, and ^kwomen, and children, and ^lthe king's daughters, and every person that ^mNebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and ^eBaruch the son of Neriah.

⁷So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to ⁿTahpanhes.

⁸Then came the word of the LORD unto ⁹Jeremiah in ⁿTahpanhes, saying, Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in ^othe brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in ⁿTahpanhes, in the sight of the men of ¹⁰Judah; and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^pmy servant, and ^qwill set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹And when he cometh, ^rhe shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver ^ssuch as are for death to death; and ^ssuch as are for captivity to captivity; and ^ssuch as are for the sword to the sword. And ^tI will kindle a fire in the houses of ^uthe gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and ^vcarry them away captives: and he shall ^warray himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace. He shall break also the ¹³ [†]images of [†]Beth-shemesh, ^{*}that is in the land of Egypt; and ^uthe houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at ^{ab}Migdol, and at ^{ac}Tahpanhes, and at ^{ad}Noph, and in the country of ^ePathros, saying, Thus ² saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are ^{fa}a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein, because of their wickedness which they have committed ^gto provoke me to anger, in that they went ^hto burn incense, and to serve ⁱother gods, whom they knew not, neither they, you, nor your fathers. Howbeit ^kI sent unto you all my servants the prophets, ^krising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. ¹But they hearkened not, ^lnor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, ^hto burn no incense unto other gods. Wherefore ^mmy fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are ^{fn}wasted and ^odesolate, as at this day. Therefore now ⁷ thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil ^{pa}against your souls, to cut off from you ^qman and woman, ^rchild and suckling, [†]out of Judah, to ^sleave you none to remain; in that ye ⁸ ^gprovoke me unto wrath with ^{ss}the works of your hands, ^bburning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be ^{ta}a curse and ^{ta}a reproach among all the nations of the earth? Have ye forgotten the ¹wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of ^vtheir wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of ^{vv}your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? They are not [†]humbled ¹⁰ even unto this day, neither have they ^wfear'd, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, ¹¹

the God of Israel; Behold, ^xI will set my face against you for evil, and to cut ¹² off all Judah. And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have ^yset their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and ^zthey shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed ^zby the sword, and by the famine: they shall die, ^afrom the least even unto the greatest, ^zby the sword and by the famine: and ^bthey shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and ^{ca}a curse, and ^{ca}a reproach. ¹³ ^dFor I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, ^zby the sword, ^zby the famine, and ^zby the pestilence: so that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall ^eescape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they [†]have a desire to return to dwell there: for ^{fn}none shall return but such as shall escape.

¹⁵ Then all the men which knew that ^gtheir wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in ^bPathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, ⁱwe will not ¹⁶ hearken unto thee. But we will certainly do ^jwhatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the ¹⁷ ^{lk}queen of heaven, and ^{kl}to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, ¹we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of [†]victuals, and ^mwere well, and ¹⁸ saw no evil. But since we left off ^kto burn incense to the queen of heaven, and ^kto pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and ⁿhave been consumed by the sword and by the ¹⁹ famine. And ^kwhen we burnt incense to the queen of heaven, and ^lpoured out drink offerings unto her, did we ^kmake her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our ^{men}?

²⁰ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to ^othe men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given ²¹ him that answer, saying, ^mThe incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD ^{oo}remember them, and came it ^{oo}not into his mind? ^pSo that the LORD ²²could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land ^{rs}a desolation, and ^{rs}an astonishment, and sta curse, ^uwithout an inhabitant, as at this day. Because you have burnt incense, and ^vbe- ²³cause ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore ^wthis evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the ²⁴people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, ^xall Judah that are in the land of Egypt: Thus saith the LORD ²⁵of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; ^yYe and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, ^jWe will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, ^lto burn incense to the queen of heaven, and ^lto pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows. Therefore hear ye the ²⁶word of the LORD, ^xall Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, ^yI have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, ^zthat my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, ^aThe Lord God liveth. Behold, ^bI will watch over ²⁷them for evil, and not ^cfor good: and ^xall the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt ^dshall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. ^eYet ^fa small ²⁸number ^gthat escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know ^hwhose words shall stand, ⁱmine, or theirs. And this shall be a sign unto ²⁹you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words ⁱshall surely stand against you for evil: Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ³⁰^kI will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and ^linto the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave ^mZedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto ^aBaruch the son of Neriah, ^bwhen he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, ^cin the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, ³O Baruch; Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for ^dthe LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; ^{dd}I fainted in my sighing, ⁴and ^eI find no ^frest. Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, ^gthat which I have built will I break down, and ^hthat which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole ⁵land. And ^bseekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for behold, ⁱI will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but ^kthy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet ^aagainst the Gentiles; against Egypt, against the army of ^bPharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in ^cCarchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote ^din the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

³ ^eOrder ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.
⁴ ^fHarness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, And stand forth with your helmets; ^{ff}Furbish the spears, and put on ^gthe brigandines.
⁵ Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? And their mighty ones are ^hbeaten down, And are ⁱfled apace, and ^hlook not back: For ⁱfear was round about, saith the LORD.
⁶ Let not ^kthe swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; ^lThey shall stumble, and fall toward the north ^mby the river Euphrates.
⁷ Who is this ⁿthat cometh up as ^oa flood, Whose waters ^pare moved as the rivers?
⁸ Egypt ^rriseth up like ^oa flood, And ^hhis waters ^qare moved like the rivers; And he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet ^aagainst the Philistines, ^bbefore that Pharaoh smote [†]Gaza.
 Thus saith the LORD;
 Behold, ^cwaters rise up ^dout of the north,
 And shall be an overflowing flood,
 And shall overflow the land, and [†]all
 that is therein;
 The city, and them that dwell therein:
 Then the men shall cry,
 And all the inhabitants of the land
 shall howl.
 At the noise of the stamping of the ³
 hoofs of ^ehis strong horses,
 At ^fthe rushing of his chariots,
 And at the rumbling of his wheels,
 The fathers shall not ^glook back to their children
 For feebleness of hands;
 Because of the day that cometh to ⁴
 spoil all ^hthe Philistines,
 And to cut off from ^hTyrus and Zi-
 don every helper that remaineth:
 For the LORD will spoil the Philis-
 tines, ^kThe remnant of [†]the country of [†]Caphtor.
^mBaldness is come upon Gaza;
ⁿAshkelon ^ois cut off with the remnant of their valley:
 How long wilt thou ^pcut thyself?
 O ^qthou sword of the LORD, how long ⁶
will it be ere thou be quiet?
[†]Put up thyself into ^qthy scabbard, ^rrest, and ^sbe still.
[†]How can it be quiet, seeing ^tthe ⁷
 LORD hath given it a charge Against ^uAshkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he ^uappointed it.
^aAgainst Moab thus saith the LORD
 of hosts, the God of Israel;
 Woe unto ^bNebo! for it is spoiled:
^cKiriathaim is confounded and taken:
^dMisgab is confounded and ^{cc}dismayed.

² There shall be no more praise of Moab:
 In ^dHeshbon they have devised evil
 against it;
 Come, and let us cut it off ^efrom
 being a nation.
 Also thou shalt [†]be cut down, O ^fMadmen;
 The sword shall [†]pursue thee.
³ ^gA voice of crying shall be from ^hHo-ronaim,
 Spoiling and great destruction.
⁴ Moab is destroyed;
 Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.
⁵ For ⁱin the going up of Luhith
[†]Continual weeping shall go up;
 For ⁱin the going down of ^hHoronaim
 The enemies have heard ^ga cry of destruction.
⁶ ^jFlee, save your lives,
 And be like [†]the heath in the wilderness.
⁷ For ^kbecause thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures,
 Thou shalt also be taken:
 And [†]Chemosh shall go forth into
 captivity
With ^mhis priests and his princes together.
⁸ And ⁿthe spoiler shall come upon every city,
 And no city shall escape:
 The valley also shall perish,
 And ^othe plain ⁿshall be destroyed,
 As the LORD hath spoken.
⁹ ^pGive wings unto Moab,
 That it may flee and get away:
 For the cities thereof ^qshall be desolate,
^rWithout any to dwell therein.
¹⁰ ^sCursed be he that doeth ^tthe work of the LORD ^udeceitfully,
 And cursed be he that keepeth back
 his sword from blood.
¹¹ Moab ^vhath been at ease from his youth,
 And he hath settled ^won his lees,
 And hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel.
 Neither hath he gone into captivity:
 Therefore his taste ^xremained in him,
 And his sent is not changed.
¹² Therefore behold, the days come,
 saith the LORD,
 That I will send unto him ^xwanderers,
 that shall ^xcause him to wander,
 And shall empty his vessels, and ^ybreak their ^zbottles.

And ^tI have caused wine to fail from
the wine presses:

^tNone shall tread with shouting;
^u*Their shouting shall* be no shouting.

³⁴ ^vFrom the cry of Heshbon even unto Therefore hear the counsel of the

LORD,
That he hath taken against Edom;
And his purposes, that he hath pur-posed against the inhabitants of Teman:
Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out:
Surely he shall make their habitations
desolate with them.
The earth is moved at the noise of
their fall,
At the cry, the noise thereof was heard
in the Red sea.
Behold, he shall come up and fly
as the eagle,
And spread his wings over h Bozrah:
And at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom
Be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.
Concerning D Damascus.
Hamath is confounded, and Ar-
pad:
For they have heard evil tidings: they
are fainthearted;
There is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.
Damascus is waxed feeble, and
turneth herself to flee,
And fear hath seized on her:
Anguish and sorrows have taken her
as a woman in travail.
How is the city of praise not left,
The city of my joy!
Therefore her young men shall fall
in her streets,
And all the men of war shall be cut off in that day,
Saith the LORD of hosts.
And I will kindle a fire in the wall
of D Damascus,
And it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.
Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD;
Arise ye, go up to *K*edar,
And spoil the men of the east.
Their tents and their flocks shall
they take away:
They shall take to themselves their curtains,
And all their vessels, and their camels;
And they shall cry unto them, Fear
is on every side.

^h Flee, [†] get you far off, ^h dwell deep, 30
 O ye inhabitants of Hazor,
 Saith the LORD;
 For Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon
 hath taken counsel against you,
 And hath conceived a purpose against you.
^a Arise, get you up unto the [†] wealthy ³¹
 nation,
[†] That dwelleth without care, saith the
 LORD,
[†] Which have neither gates nor bars,
[†] [†] which dwell alone.
 And their camels shall be a booty, 32
 And the multitude of their cattle a spoil:
 And [†] I will scatter into all winds them
 that are [†] in the utmost corners;
 And I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.
 And Hazor shall be [†] a dwelling for 33
 dragons,
 And [†] a desolation for ever:
[†] There shall no man abide there,
[†] Nor [†] any son of man dwell in it.

The word of the LORD that came to 34
 Jeremiah the prophet against [†] Elam
 in the beginning of the reign of Ze-dekiah king of Judah, saying,
 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; 35
 Behold, I [†] will break [†] the bow of Elam,
 The chief of their might.
 And upon Elam will I bring the four 36
 winds
 From the four quarters of heaven,
 And [†] I will scatter them towards all those winds;
 And there shall be no nation
 Whither [†] the outcasts of Elam shall not come.
 For I will [†] cause Elam to be dismay- 37
 ed before their enemies,
 And before them that seek their life:
 And I will bring evil upon them,
 Even [†] my fierce anger, saith the LORD;
 And [†] I will send the sword after
 them,
 Till I have consumed them:
 And [†] I will set my throne in Elam, 38
 And will destroy from thence the king
 and the princes,
 Saith the LORD.
 But it shall come to pass [†] in the latter 39
 days,
[†] That I will bring again the captivity
 of Elam,
 Saith the LORD.

The word that the LORD spake ^a against Babylon [†] and against the land of the Chaldeans [†] by Jeremiah the prophet.

- 2 Declare ye among the nations, and
 publish, and [†] set up a standard;
 Publish, [†] and conceal not:
 Say, [†] Babylon is taken, [†] Bel is confounded, [†] Merodach is broken in pieces;
[†] Her idols are confounded, her images
 are broken in pieces.
- 3 For [†] out of the north there cometh
 up a nation against her,
[†] Which shall make her land desolate,
 And [†] none shall dwell therein:
 They shall remove, they shall depart,
[†] both man and beast.
- 4 In those days, and in that time, saith
 the LORD,
 The children of Israel shall come, [†] They and the children of Judah together,
[†] Going and weeping: they shall go,
 And [†] seek the LORD their God.
- 5 [†] They shall ask the way [†] to Zion with their faces thitherward, [†] saying,
 Come, and let us join ourselves to the
 LORD
 In [†] a perpetual covenant [†] that shall not be forgotten.
- 6 [†] My people hath been [†] lost sheep:
 Their shepherds have caused them to go astray, [†] they have turned them
 away [†] on the mountains:
[†] They have gone from mountain to hill,
 They have forgotten their [†] resting place.
- 7 All that found them [†] have devoured
 them:
 And [†] their adversaries said, [†] We offend not,
 Because they have sinned against the LORD, [†] the habitation of justice,
 Even the LORD, [†] the hope of their fathers.
- 8 [†] Remove [†] out of the midst of Babylon,
 And [†] go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans,
 And be as [†] the he goats before the flocks.

For lo, ^eI will raise and cause to come ⁹
 up against Babylon
 †An assembly of great nations ^f§from the north country:
 And ^hthey shall set themselves in array against her;
 From thence she shall be taken:
 †Their arrows shall be as ^kof a mighty †expert man;
 †None shall return in vain.
 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: ¹⁰
 All that spoil her shall be satisfied,
 saith the LORD.
 †Because ye were glad, because ye re- ¹¹
 joiced,
 O ye destroyers of ^omine heritage,
 Because ye are grown [†]fat [¶]as the heifer [¶]at grass,
 And [¶]bellow as [¶]bulls;
 Your mother shall be sore confound- ¹²
 ed;
 She that bare you shall be ashamed:
 Behold, the hindermost of the nations
Shall be [¶]a wilderness, [¶]a dry land,
 and [¶]a desert.
 Because of the wrath of the LORD [¶]it ¹³
 shall not be inhabited, †But it shall be wholly desolate: [¶]every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished,
 †And hiss at all her plagues.
 †Put yourselves in array against Baby- ¹⁴
 lon [¶]round about:
 †All ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows:
 For [¶]she hath sinned against the
 LORD.
 †Shout against her [¶]round about: ¹⁵
 †She hath given her hand:
 †Her foundations are fallen, [¶]her walls are thrown down:
 †For it is the vengeance of the LORD:
 take vengeance upon her;
 †As she hath done, do unto her.
 Cut off the sower from Babylon, ¹⁶
 And him that handleth the [¶]sickle in the time of harvest;
 †For fear of the oppressing sword
 †They shall turn every one to his
 people,
 And [¶]they shall flee every one to his own land.
 Israel is [¶]a scattered sheep; ¹⁷
 †The lions have driven him away:
 †First the king of Assyria [¶]hath devoured him;
 And [¶]last this Nebuchadrezzar king
 of Babylon [¶]hath broken his bones.

Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts,
 the God of Israel;
 Behold, I will [¶]punish the king of Babylon and his land,
 †As I have [¶]punished the king of Assyria.
 †And [¶]I will bring Israel again to his habitation,
 And [¶]he shall feed on [¶]Carmel and [¶]Bashan,
 And his soul shall be satisfied upon [¶]mount Ephraim and [¶]Gilead.
 †In those days, and in that time, saith
 the LORD,
 †The iniquity of Israel shall be sought
 for, [¶]and there shall be none;
 And the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found:
 For [¶]I will pardon them [¶]whom I reserve.
 †Go up against the land [¶]of [¶]Merethaim, even against it,
 And against the inhabitants of [¶]Pe-
 kod:
 Waste and [¶]utterly destroy after them,
 saith the LORD,
 And do [¶]according to all that I have commanded thee.
 †A sound of battle is in the land,
 And of great destruction.
 †How is [¶]the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken!
 †How is Babylon [¶]become a desolation
 among the nations!
 †I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon,
 And [¶]thou wast not aware:
 Thou art found, and also caught,
 Because thou hast [¶]striven against the
 LORD.
 †The LORD hath opened his ar-
 moury,
 And hath brought forth [¶]the weapons
 of his indignation:
 For this is the work of the Lord God
 of hosts
 In the land of the Chaldeans.
 †Come against her [¶]from the utmost border,
 Open her storehouses:
 †Cast her up as [¶]heaps, and [¶]destroy her utterly:
 †Let nothing of her be left.
 †Slay all her [¶]bullocks; [¶]let them go down to the slaughter:
 Woe unto them! for [¶]their day is
 come,

against it ⁹round about;
¹⁰Let none thereof escape:
¹¹Recompense her according to her work;
According to all that she hath done,
do unto her:
¹²For she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.
¹³Therefore shall her young men fall ³⁰
in the streets,
¹⁴And all her men of war ¹⁵shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.
Behold, I am against thee, O thou ³¹ ¹⁶most proud,
Saith the Lord GOD of hosts:
¹⁷For thy day is come, ¹⁸the time that I will visit thee.
And ¹⁹the most proud shall stumble ³²
and fall,
And none shall raise him up:
²⁰And ²¹I will kindle a fire in his cities,
²²And it shall devour all round about him.
Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ³³
²³The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together:
And all that took them captives held
them fast;
²⁴They refused to let them go.
²⁵Their redeemer is ³⁴strong;
²⁶The LORD of hosts is his name:
²⁷He shall thoroughly plead their cause,
That he may give rest to the land,
And disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.
A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith ³⁵
the LORD,
And upon the inhabitants of Babylon,
And ²⁸upon her princes, and upon ²⁹her wise men.
A sword is upon the ³¹liars; and they ³⁶
shall ³⁷dote:
A sword is upon ³⁰her mighty men;
and they shall be dismayed.
A sword is upon ³²their horses, and ³⁷
upon ³³their chariots,
And upon all ³⁴the mingled people that are in the midst of her;
And ³⁵they shall become as women:
A sword is upon ³⁶her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

³⁸ A ³⁹drought is upon her waters; and
they shall be dried up:
For it is the land of ⁴⁰graven images,
And ⁴¹they are mad upon their idols.
Therefore ⁴²the wild beasts of the desert
With ⁴³the wild beasts of the islands
shall dwell there,
And ⁴⁴the owls shall dwell therein:
And it ⁴⁵shall be no more inhabited
for ever;
⁴⁶Neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.
⁴⁷As God overthrew Sodom and Go-
morrah
And the neighbour cities thereof,
saith the LORD;
⁴⁸So shall no man abide there,
Neither shall any son of man dwell
therein.
⁴⁹Behold, a people shall come ⁵⁰from
the north,
And ⁵¹a great nation, and many kings Shall be raised up from the coasts of
the earth.
⁵²They shall hold the bow and the lance:
They are cruel, and will not shew
mercy:
Their voice shall roar like the sea,
And they shall ride upon horses,
Every one put in array, like a man to the battle,
Against thee, O daughter of Babylon.
The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them,
And his hands waxed feeble:
⁵³Anguish took hold of him,
And pangs as of a woman in travail.
⁵⁴Behold, he shall come up like a lion
from the swelling of Jordan
Unto the habitation of the strong:
But I will make them suddenly run away from her:
And who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her?
For who is like me? and who will ⁵⁵ap-
point me the time?
And who is ⁵⁶that shepherd that will stand before me?
⁵⁷Therefore hear ye ⁵⁸the counsel of the
LORD,
That he hath taken against Babylon;
And ⁵⁹his purposes, that he hath pur-posed against the land of the Chal-
deans:
Surely the least of the flock shall draw
them out:
Surely he shall make their habitation
desolate with them.

Thus saith the LORD;
Behold, I will raise up against Babylon,
And against them that dwell in the [†]midst of ^athem that rise up against me,

^bA destroying wind;
And will send unto Babylon ^cfanners, ²
that shall fan her,
And shall empty her land:
For ^din the day of trouble they shall

the Chaldeans,

And they that are ⁱthrust through ^kin
her streets.

For [†]Israel hath not been forsaken, ⁵ Nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts;

Though their land was filled with sin
Against the Holy One of Israel.

^{mn}Flee out of the midst of Babylon, ⁶
ⁿAnd deliver every man his soul:

Be not ^ocut off in her iniquity;
For ^pthis is the time of the LORD's

^k The vengeance of his temple.

¹² [†]Set up the standard upon the walls of habitants of Babylon.

¹³ ^o O thou that dwellest upon many waters, ^pabundant in treasures,

Thine end is come, and the measure

Surely I will fill thee with men, as with ^tcaterpillars;

And they shall [†]lift up ^ua shout against thee.

¹⁵ ^v He hath made the earth by his power,

¹⁶ When he uttereth his voice, there is a [†]multitude of waters in the heavens;

And he causeth the vapours to ascend
from the ends of the earth:

He maketh lightnings with rain,
And bringeth forth the wind out of his

¹⁷ Every man [†]is brutish by his know-

The adversaries saw her, and did mock at ^e her sabbaths.
8 (ii) Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she ^f is removed:
All that honoured her despise her, because ^g they have seen her nakedness:
Yea, ^h she sigheth, and turneth backward.
9 (iii) Her filthiness is in her ⁱ skirts; she ^j remembereth not her last end;
Therefore she came down wonderfully: ^k she had no comforter.
O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy ^l hath magnified himself.
10 (iv) The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her ^m pleasant things:
For she hath seen that ⁿ the heathen entered into her sanctuary,
Whom thou didst command that ^o they should not enter into thy congregation.
11 (v) All her people ^p sigh, ^q they seek bread;
They have given ^r their pleasant things for meat ^s to relieve the soul:
See, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.
12 (vi) ^t Is it nothing to you, ^u all ye that ^v pass by? behold, and see
^w If there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, ^x which is done unto me, Wherewith the LORD ^y hath afflicted ^z me ^{aa} in the day of ^{ab} his fierce anger.

(i) The Lord hath ^xcast off his altar, ^yhe hath ^zabhorred his sanctuary,
He hath [†]given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; ^zThey have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.
(ii) ^aThe LORD hath purposed to destroy ^{aa}the wall of the daughter of Zion: ^bHe hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from [†]destroying:
Therefore he made ^cthe rampart and the wall to lament; they ^dlanguish-

(iii) Her gates ^eare sunk into the ^gground;
he hath destroyed and [†]broken her bars: ^gHer king and her princes are among the Gentiles: ^hthe law is no
more:
ⁱHer prophets also find no vision
from the LORD.
(iv) The elders of the daughter of Zion ^{kk} ^{ll}sit upon the ground, and ^{mm}keep silence:
They have ⁿⁿcast up dust upon their heads; they have ^{oo}girded themselves with sackcloth:
The virgins of Jerusalem hang down
their heads to the ground.
(v) ^{oo}Mine eyes do fail with tears, ^{pp}
^{qq}my bowels are troubled,
^{qq}My liver [†]is poured upon the earth,
^{ss}for the destruction of the daughter of my people;
Because [†]the children and [†]the suck-
lings [†]swoon in the streets of the city.
(vi) They say to their mothers, ^{tt}
^{uu}Where is corn and wine?
^{vv}When they swooned as the wounded
in the streets of the city,
When their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.
(vii) What thing shall I take to witness ^{zz}
for thee? ^{aa}what thing shall I liken
to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem?
^{bb}What shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion?
For ^{cc}thy breach is great like the sea:
who can heal thee?
(viii) Thy ^{xx}prophets have seen ^{yy}vain ^{zz}
and ^{zz}foolish things for thee:
And ^{aa}they have not discovered thine
iniquity, ^{bb}to turn away thy captivity;
But have seen for thee false ^{cc}burdens
and causes of banishment.

(D) All that pass [†]by ^{cc}clap their hands
at thee;
They ^{de}hiss and [†]wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, ^{gg}saying,
Is this the city that men call ^{hh}The perfection of beauty, ⁱⁱThe joy of the whole earth?
(E) ^{jj}All thine enemies ^{kk}have opened
their mouth against thee:
They ^{de}hiss and [†]gnash the teeth: they say, ^{mm}We have swallowed her up:
Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, ⁿⁿwe have seen it.
(F) ^{oo}The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled
his word that he had commanded ^{pp}in the days of old:
^{qq}He hath thrown down, ^{rr}and hath not pitied: and he hath [†]caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee,
He hath set up ^{ss}the horn of thine adversaries.
(G) Their heart cried unto the Lord, [†]O wall of the daughter of Zion, [†]let tears run down like a river [†]day
and night:
Give thyself no ^{tt}rest; let not ^{uu}the
apple of thine eye cease.
(H) Arise, ^{vv}cry out in the night: in the beginning of ^{zz}the watches, ^{aa}Pour out thine heart ^{bb}like water before the face of the Lord:
Lift up thy hands toward him for the life of ^{cc}thy young children, [†]That faint for hunger ^{dd}in the top of every street.
(I) Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom [†]thou hast done this.
[†]Shall the women eat their fruit, and children [†]of a span long?
Shall [†]the priest and [†]the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?
(J) [†]The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets:
[†]My virgins and my young men [†]are fallen by the sword; ^{kk}Thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, ^{ll}and not pitied.
(K) Thou hast called as in ^{ll}a solemn day ^{mm}my terrors round about,
So that in the day of the LORD's anger none ⁿⁿescaped nor remained:

NOW it came to pass ^ain the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the [†]captives ^bby the river of Chebar, that ^cthe heavens were opened, and I saw ^dvisions of God. In the fifth day ^eof the month, which was ^{dd}the fifth year of ^eking Jehoiachin's captivity, the word of the LORD came expressly unto [†]Ezekiel ^{af}the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans ^bby the river Chebar; and ^gthe hand of the LORD was there upon him.

^hAnd I looked, and behold, ^{ia} a whirlwind came ^jout of the north, a great cloud, and a fire ⁱinfoling itself, and ^{ka} a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof ^{kl}as ^mthe colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire. Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of ⁿfour living creatures. And ^othis was their appearance: they had ^pthe likeness of a man. ^qAnd every one had four faces, and every one had four wings. And their feet were ^rstraight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled ^qlike ^mthe colour of burnished brass. ^rAnd ^sthey had the hands of a man under their wings on ^stheir four sides; and ^tthey four had their faces and their wings. [†]Their wings were ^ujoined one to another; ^vthey turned not when they went; ^wthey went every one straight forward. As for the likeness of their faces, ^xthey four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle. Thus were their faces: and ¹¹

their wings were [†]stretched upward; [†]two wings of every one were joined one to another, and [†]two covered their bodies. And [†]they went every one straight forward: ^zwhither the spirit was to go, they went; and [†]they turned not ¹³when they went. As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning ^acoals of fire, and like the appearance of ^blamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. And the living creatures ^cran and returned as the appearance of ^{da} a flash of lightning.

And under the firmament were their ²³ wings ^rstraight, the one toward the other: every one had two, ^swhich covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side; their bodies. And ²⁴ when they went, ^tI heard the noise of their wings, ^ulike the noise of great waters, as ^vthe voice of ^wthe Almighty, the voice of ^xspeech, ^yas the noise of a host: when they stood, they let down their wings. And there was a voice from ²⁵ ^pthe firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

And above ^pthe firmament that was ²⁶ over their heads was ^zthe likeness of a throne, ^zas the appearance of ^aa sapphire stone: and ^bupon the likeness of the throne was the likeness ^{bas} the appearance of a man above upon it. And I saw ^cas the colour of amber, ²⁷ as the appearance of fire round about within it, ^cfrom the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and ^dit had brightness round about. ^eAs ²⁸ the appearance of the bow ^fthat is in the cloud in the day of rain, ^dso was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of ^sthe glory of the LORD. ^hAnd when I saw it, ^hI fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

II. And he said unto me, ^aSon of man, ^bstand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee. ^cAnd the spirit entered into me when ² he spake unto me, and ^{bc} set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me. And he said unto me, Son of man, I ³ send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious ¹nation that hath rebelled against me: ^dthey and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day. For ^ethey are ⁱimpudent ⁴ children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God. And they, ^fwhether they will hear, or ⁵ whether they will forbear, (for ^{fs}they are a rebellious house,) yet ^hshall know that there hath been a prophet among them. And thou, ^ason of man, ⁱbe not ⁶ afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ^kbriers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among ^lscorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor ⁱbe dismayed at their looks, though ⁷ ^gthey be a rebellious house. ^mAnd thou shalt speak my words unto them, ^fwhether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are ¹most rebellious. But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that ^srebellious house: open thy mouth, and ^aeat that I give thee.

⁹ And when I looked, behold, ^aa hand was sent unto me; and lo, ^pa roll of a book was therein; and he spread it before me; and it was written ^qwithin and without: and ^tthere was written therein lamentations, and ^smourning, and woe. Then I came to ^athem of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt ^zby the river of Chebar, and ^aI sat where they sat, and ^aremained there astonished among them ^bseven days. ^cAnd it ¹⁶came to pass at the end of ^bseven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ^dSon of man, ^eI have made ¹⁷thee a ^df watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and ^ggive them warning from me. ^hWhen I say unto the wicked, ¹⁸ⁱThou shalt surely die; and thou ^ggivest him not warning, nor speakest ^gto warn the wicked from his wicked way, ^jto save his life; ^hthe same wicked man ^jshall die in his iniquity; but ^khis blood will I require at thine hand. ¹Yet if thou ^gwarn the wicked, and he ¹⁹turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, ^jhe shall die in his iniquity; ^{1m}but thou ^hhast delivered thy soul. Again, ^oWhen a righteous man ²⁰doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and ^pI lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not ^ggiven him warning, he shall die in his sin, and ^ohis ¹righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but ^khis blood will I require at thine hand. Nevertheless if ²¹thou ^gwarn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is ^gwarned; also thou ^hhast delivered thy soul.

^q And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth ^rinto the plain, and ^sI will there talk with thee. Then I arose, ²³and went forth ^rinto the plain: and behold, ^{ss}the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw ^tby the river of Chebar: and ^{ss}I fell on my face. ^uThen the spirit entered into me, and ²⁴^uset me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself ²⁵within thine house. But thou, O son of man, behold, ^vthey shall put hands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among ²⁶them: and ^wI will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that ^xthou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them ^ta reprover: ^yfor they are a ²⁷rebellious house. But when I speak with thee, ^zI will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, ^aThus saith the Lord God; ^aHe that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: ^yfor they are a rebellious house.

Thou also, son of man, ^atake thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and ^bpour-tray upon it the city, even Jerusalem: ²and ^clay siege against it, and ^dbuild a fort against it, and ^dcast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and ^eset ¹*battering* rams against it round ³about. ⁴ Lie thou also ¹upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou ⁵shalt ^mbear their iniquity. For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, ⁿaccording to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: ⁿso shalt thou ^mbear the iniquity of the ⁶house of Israel. And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again ¹on thy right side, and thou shalt ^mbear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: ⁿI have appointed thee ¹each day ⁷for a year. Therefore ⁱthou shalt set thy face toward ^cthe siege of Jerusalem, and ^othine arm shall be uncovered, and ⁸thou shalt prophesy against it. And behold, ^pI will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee ¹from one side to another, till thou hast ended ^qthe days of thy ^csiege.

I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and ^uwill break your staff of bread: so will I send ¹⁷ upon you ^vfamine and ^wevil beasts, and they shall ^xbereave thee; and ^ypestilence and ^zblood shall pass through thee; and I will bring ^athe sword upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, ^aset thy face ²towards ^bthe mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, ^{bb}and say, Ye ³mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God ^cto the mountains, and ^cto the hills, to ^{cd}the rivers, and ^{ce}to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and ^fI will destroy your high places. And your altars shall be desolate, and ^gyour ^himages shall be broken: and ^{ig}I will cast down your slain men before your idols. And ^fI will ^llay the dead ⁵carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and ^gI ^hwill scatter your bones round about your altars. In all ⁶your dwelling places the cities ⁱshall be laid waste, and ^fthe high places ^gshall be desolate; that your altars ⁱmay be laid waste and ^jmade desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your ^kimages may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. And the slain ⁷shall fall in the midst of you, ^land ye shall know that I am the LORD.

^mYet will I leave a remnant, that ye ⁸may have ^asome that shall escape the sword among the nations, ^owhen ye shall be scattered through the countries. And ⁹they that escape of you ^{mp}shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because ^qI am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and ^rwith their eyes, which ^sgo a whoring after their idols: and ^pthey shall lothe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. And ^lthey shall ¹⁰know that I am the LORD, and that ^uI have not said ⁱⁿvain that I would do this evil unto them.

Thus saith the Lord God; Smite ^wwith ¹¹

thine hand, and ^xstamp with thy foot, ^xch. 25, 6. and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel: for ^ythey shall fall by the sword, by the famine, ¹²and by the pestilence. ^y*He* that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: ^zthus will I accomplish my fury upon them. So will I ^fstretch out mine hand upon them, and ^gmake the land desolate, yea, ^hmore desolate than the wilderness towards ⁱDiblath, ^kin all their habitations: ^land they shall know that I am the LORD.

Moreover the word of the LORD came ²unto me, saying, Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of ^aIsrael; ^bAn end, the end is come upon the four ^ccorners of the land. ³Now ^bis the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and ^dwill judge thee according to thy ways, and ^dwill ^frecompense upon thee all thine ⁴abominations. ^eAnd ^fmine eye shall not spare thee, ^fneither will I have pity: but ^{eg}I will recompense thy ways upon thee. ^eand thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: ^hand ye shall know that I am the LORD.

Thus saith the Lord God; An evil, ⁶an only evil, behold, is come. ^bAn end is come, the end is come: it ^fwatcheth ⁷for thee; behold, it is come. ⁱThe morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: ^jthe time is come, ^{ik}the day of trouble is near, and not the ⁸soundings again of the mountains. Now will I ^mshortly ⁿpour out my fury upon thee, and ^oaccomplish mine anger upon thee: and ^qI will judge thee according to thy ways, and ^dwill recompense thee ⁹for all thine abominations. ^{ef}And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: ^dI will recompense ^fthee according to thy ways ^eand thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; ^{eh}and ye shall know that I am the LORD ^pthat smiteth. ^r Violence is risen up into ^a a rod of ¹¹ wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their ^t multitude, nor of any of ^u theirs: ^v neither shall there be wailing for them. ^w The time is come, the day ^x draweth near: let not ^y the buyer rejoice, nor ^z the seller mourn: ¹² for wrath is upon all ¹ the multitude thereof. So I went ¹⁰ in and saw; and behold every form of ^w creeping things, and ^t abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, ^x pourtrayed upon the wall round about. And there stood before them ¹¹ ^y seventy men of ^z the ancients of the house of Israel, and ^a in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of ^b Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up. Then said he unto me, Son of man, ¹² hast thou seen what ^z the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of ^c his imagery? for they say, ^{de} The LORD seeth us not; ^d the LORD hath forsaken the earth. He ¹³ said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

Then he brought me to the door of ¹⁴ ^f the gate of the LORD's house which was towards the north; and behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. Then ¹⁵ said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these. And he brought me into ¹⁶ ^g the inner court of the LORD's house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, ^h between ⁱ the porch and ^k the altar, were ^l about five and twenty men, ^m with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces towards the east; and ⁿ they worshipped ^o the sun towards the east. He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them ^a that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. And behold, six ² ^b men came from the way of ^c the higher gate, ^{1d} which lieth toward the north, and every man ^t a slaughter weapon in his hand; and ^f one man among them was ^g clothed with linen, ^g with a writer's inkhorn ⁱ by his side: and they went in, ³ and stood beside ^h the brasen altar. And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, ^x that ^y I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, ^z Ah Lord GOD, ^x wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel ^a in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem? pearance of the likeness of ^a a throne. And he spake unto ^d the man clothed ² with linen, and said, Go in between ^e the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill ^f thine hand with ^f coals of fire from between the cherubims, and ^g scatter them over the city. And he went in ^h in my sight. Now the cherubims stood ³ ⁱ on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled ^j the inner court. Then ^k the glory of the ⁴ LORD ^l went up from the cherub, and stood over ^l the threshold of the house; and ^m the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of ^{kn} the brightness of the LORD's glory. And ^{na} the ⁵ sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the utter court, ⁿ as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh. And it came to pass, that ⁶ when he had commanded ^d the man clothed with linen, saying, ^o Take fire from between ^e the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels. ¹⁸ Then ^h the glory of the LORD ⁱ departed from off ^h the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims. ¹⁹ ^j And the cherubims lift up their wings, and ^b mounted up from the earth ^k in my sight: when they went out, ^j the wheels also were ^l besides them, and every one stood at the door of ^m the east gate of the LORD's house; and ^h the glory of the God of Israel was over ²⁰ them above. ^c This is the living creature that I saw ⁿ under the God of Israel ^d by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were ^{the} ^o cherubims. ²¹ ^p Every one had four faces apiece, ^p and every one four wings; and ^q the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. ^r And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw ^d by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: ^s they went every one straight forward.

And ¹⁸ they shall come thither, and ^ethey shall take away all ^fthe detestable things thereof and all ^fthe abominations thereof from thence. And ^gI will give them ¹⁹ one heart, and I will put ^ha new spirit within you; and I ⁱwill take the stony heart out of their flesh, and ⁱwill give them a heart of flesh: ^kthat they may ²⁰ walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and ^lthey shall be my people, ^land I will be their God. But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of ^ftheir detestable things and ^ftheir abominations, ^mI will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God.

²² Then ^adid the cherubims lift up their wings, and ⁿthe wheels besides them; and ^othe glory of the God of Israel ²³ was over them above. And ^othe glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon ^pthe mountain which is on the east side of the city. Afterwards ^qthe spirit took me up, and brought me ^rin vision by the Spirit of God ^sinto Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had ²⁵ seen went up from me. Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

The word of the LORD also came unto me, saying, Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of ^aa rebellious house, ^bwhich have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: ^afor they are a rebellious house.

⁸ And in the morning came the word ⁹ of the LORD unto me, saying, Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, ^athe rebellious house, said unto thee, ^kWhat ¹⁰ doest thou? Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; This ^lburden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among ¹¹ them. Say, ⁱI am your sign: ^mlike as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: ⁱthey shall remove and go into ¹² captivity. And ^fthe prince that is among them ⁿshall bear upon ^{his} shoulder in ^hthe twilight, and shall go forth: ⁿthey shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: ^a he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes. ^o My net also will I spread upon him, ¹³ and he shall be taken in ^a my snare: and I ^r will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; ^s yet shall he not see it, ^t though he shall die there. And ^u I will scatter toward every wind ¹⁴ all that are about him to help him, and all his ^w bands; ^v and I will draw out the sword after them. ^x And they shall ¹⁵ know that I am the LORD, ^y when ^y I shall scatter them among the nations, and ^y disperse them in the countries. ^{yy} But I will leave ¹⁶ ^a few men of them ^z from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; ^{yy} that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; ^x and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Moreover the word of the LORD came ¹⁷ to me, saying, Son of man, eat thy ¹⁸ bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and ^a with carefulness; and say unto the people of the land, ¹⁹ Thus saith the Lord God, of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; ^a They shall eat their bread with carefulness, ^a and drink their water with astonishment, that ^b her land may be desolate from ¹ all that is therein, ^c because of ^d the violence of all them that dwell therein. And ^e the cities that ²⁰ are inhabited shall be laid waste, and ^b the land shall be desolate; ^f and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

And the word of the LORD came ²¹ unto me, saying, Son of man, what is ²² that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, ^g The days are prolonged, and ^h every vision faileth? Tell them ²³ therefore, Thus saith the Lord God; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, ⁱ The days are at hand, and ^h the effect of every vision. For ^k there shall be no more ²⁴ any ^l vain vision nor ^m flattering divination within the house of Israel. For ²⁵ I am the LORD: I will speak, and ⁿ the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more ^o prolonged: for in your days, ^p O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

Again the word of the LORD came to ²⁶ me, saying, Son of man, behold, they of ²⁷ the house of Israel say, ^q The vision that he seeth is ^r for many days to come, ^q and he prophesieth of the times that ²⁸ are far off. Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; ⁿ There shall none of my words be ^o prolonged any more, ⁿ but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God.

And the word of the LORD came ²⁹ unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto ^a ¹ them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ³⁰ ye the word of the LORD; thus saith the Lord God; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that ¹ follow their own spirit, ³¹ ^b and have seen nothing! O Israel, thy prophets are ^c like the foxes in the deserts. Ye have not gone up ^d into the ¹ gaps, neither ^d made up the hedge for the house of Israel ^d to stand in the ⁶ battle in the day of the LORD. ^e They have seen vanity ^e and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith: and ^f the LORD hath not sent them: and they have ^g made others to hope that they would ⁷ confirm the word. Have ye not seen ^e a vain vision, and have ye not spoken ^e a lying divination, ^h whereas ye say, The LORD saith it; albeit I have not ⁸ spoken? Then ^acame certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity of at all by them? Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart,

 and putteth ^bthe stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him
 that cometh according to the multitude of his idols; ^dthat I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all ^eestranged from me through their idols. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn ^f*yourself*s from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which ^eseparat-eth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth ^bthe stumblingblock of his iniquity before his

 of him concerning me; I the LORD will

 my face against that man, and will make him a ^hsign and ^{ia} proverb, and ^gI will cut him off from the midst of my people;

 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, ¹I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.
 And they shall bear ^mthe punishment of their iniquity: ^mthe punishment of the

 of him that seeketh unto him; that the house of Israel ⁿmay go no more astray
 from me, neither ^obe polluted any more
 with all their transgressions; but ^pthat
 they may be my people, ^pand I may be

and thy raiment was of ^efine linen, and ^fsilk, and ^ebroidered work; ^fthou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and ^gthou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom. And ^hthy renown went forth among the heathen ^hfor thy beauty: for it was perfect through my ⁱcomeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

But thou didst trust ^gin thine own ^jbeauty, and ^jplayedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications ^kon every one that passed by; his it was. And of thy garments thou didst take, and ^ldeckedst thy high places ^mwith divers colours, and ^jplayedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. Thou hast also taken thy fair ⁿjewels of ⁿmy gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself ^oimages ^lof men, and ^jdidst commit whoredom with them, and tookest ^ethy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and ^pthou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them. ^qMy meat also which I gave thee, ^rfine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for ^aa sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God. Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, ^rwhom thou hast borne unto me, and ^sthese hast thou sacrificed unto them ^tto be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms ^ta small matter, that thou hast slain ^rmy children, and delivered them ^sto cause them to pass through ^uthe fire for them? And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered ^vthe days of thy youth, when thou wast ^wnaked and bare, and wast ^xpolluted ^{kk}in thy blood. And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord God;) that thou hast also built unto thee an ^leminent place, and ^yhast made thee a high place in every street. Thou hast built thy high place ^zat every head of the way, and hast made ^gthy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet ^ato every one that passed by, and ^bmultiplied thy whoredoms. ^aThou hast also committed fornication with ^ethe Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and ^bhast increased thy whoredoms, ^dto provoke me to anger. Behold therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and ^ehave diminished ^fthine ordinary food, and ^hdelivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, ^gthe ^ldaughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way. ^aThou hast played the whore also ^hwith the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldst not be satisfied. ^{ab}Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of ⁱCanaan unto ^jChaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied' herewith. How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman; ^{ll}in that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and ^mmakest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as a harlot, ⁿin that thou scornest hire; but as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers ^oinstead of her husband. They give gifts to all whores: but ^{pp}thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and ^lhirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom. And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that ^pthou givest a reward, and ⁿno reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD: thus saith the Lord God; Because thy ^qfilthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by ^rthe blood of thy children, ^rwhich thou didst give unto them; behold therefore, ^sI will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, ^twith all them that thou hast hated; ^sI will even gather them round about against thee, and ^uwill discover thy nakedness unto them, ^uthat ^vthey may see all thy nakedness. And ^{uu}I will judge thee, ^tas ^{vv}women that break wedlock and ^{vv}shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy. And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down ^ythine eminent place, and shall break down ^ythy high places: ^{uza}they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, ^zand ^bshall take ^tthy fair jewels, and leave thee ⁴⁰naked and bare. ^dThey shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee
 in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more. So will I make my fury towards thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.
 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me
 in all these things; behold therefore, I also will recompense thy way upon thine
 head, saith the Lord God: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above
 all thine abominations.

Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which lotheth their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell
 at thy left hand: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand,
 is Sodom and her daughters. Yet hast thou not walked after their ways,
 nor done after their abominations: but,
 as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways. As I live, saith the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done,
 she nor her daughters, as thou hast done,
 thou and thy daughters. Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom,
 pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine
 abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abomi-nations which thou hast done. Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters,
 I bear thine own shame for thy sins,
 that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them: that thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done,
 in that thou art a comfort unto them.
 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned
 by thy mouth in the day of thy pride,
 before thy wickedness was discovered,
 as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which despise thee round about. Thou hast borne thy lewd-ness and thine abominations, saith
 the Lord. For thus saith the Lord God;
 I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath
 in breaking the covenant. Nevertheless I will remember my covenant
 with thee in the days of thy youth,
 and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. Then thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed,
 when thou shalt receive thy sisters,
 thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant. And I will establish my covenant with thee;
 and thou shalt know that I am the Lord: that thou mayest remember,
 and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more, because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith
 the Lord God.

And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel; and say, Thus saith the Lord God; A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers,
 which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar: he cropt off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of ^h traffick; he set it in a city of merchants. ⁱ He took also of the seed ^j of the land, and ^k planted it ^l in a fruitful field; he placed it ^m by great waters, and set it ⁿ as a willow tree. And it grew, ^o and became ^{kk} a spreading vine ^l of low stature, ^m whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth ⁿ branches, and shot forth ^o sprigs. There was also ^p another great eagle ^q with great wings and many ^r feathers: and behold, ^p this vine ^m did bend her roots towards him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that ^{he} might water it by ^q the furrows of her plantation. It ^{was} planted in a good ^t soil by ^g great waters, ^{qq} that ^{it} might bring forth branches, and ^{qq} that ^{it} might bear fruit, ^{qq} that ^{it} might be a goodly vine. Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; ⁹ Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither ⁱⁿ all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof. Yea behold, ¹⁰ ^{being} planted, shall it prosper? ^r shall it not utterly wither, when ^s the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in ^q the furrows where it grew.

Moreover the word of the LORD came ¹¹ unto me, saying, Say now to ^t the rebellious house, ^u Know ye not what these ^{things} mean? tell them, Behold, ^u the king of Babylon is come ^{to} Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon; and ^v hath taken of the ¹³ king's seed, and made a covenant with him, ^w and hath ^{taken} an oath of him: ^u he hath also taken ^s the mighty of the land: that the kingdom might be ^y base, ¹⁴ that ^{it} might not lift itself up, ^{but} that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. But ^z he rebelled against him ⁱⁿ sending his ambassadors ^{ab} into Egypt, ^c that they might give him horses and much people. ^d Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such ^{things}? or ^e shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? ^f As I live, saith the Lord God, surely ¹⁶ ^g in the place ^{where} the king ^{dwell}eth ^v that made him king, ^e whose oath he despised, and ^e whose covenant he brake, even with him ^h in the midst of Babylon ¹⁷ he shall die. ^b Neither shall ⁱ Pharaoh with ^{his} mighty army and great company make for him in the war, ^k by casting up mounts, and ^k building forts, to cut off ¹⁸ many persons: seeing ^e he despised the oath ^e by breaking the covenant, when lo, he had ^l given his hand, and hath done all these ^{things}, ^e he shall not escape. ¹⁹ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ^f As I live, surely ^e mine oath that he hath despised, and ^e my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon ²⁰ his own head. And ⁱ I will spread my net upon him, and ⁿ he shall be taken in my snare, and ^h I will bring him to Babylon, and ^e will plead with him there ^{for} ^p his trespass that he hath trespassed ²¹ against me. And all his fugitives with all ^q his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered ^q towards all winds: and ye shall know that ⁱ the LORD have spoken ^{it}.

²² Thus saith the Lord God; I will also ^s take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set ^{it}; I will ^t crop off from the top of his young twigs ^a a tender one, and will plant ^{it} ^v upon a high mountain and eminent: ^w in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and ^x it shall bring forth boughs, and ^x bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and ^y under it shall dwell ^z all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of ^{zz} the branches thereof ²⁴ shall they dwell. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD ^a have brought down the high tree, ^a have exalted the low tree, have dried up ^b the green tree, and have made ^{bc} the dry tree to flourish: ^d I the LORD have spoken and have done ^{it}.

house of Israel, neither ^h hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither ⁱ hath come near to ^k a menstruous woman, and hath ⁷ not ^l oppressed any, ^{but} ^m hath restored to the debtor his pledge, ⁿ hath spoiled none by violence, ^o hath given his bread to the hungry, and ^p hath covered the naked with a garment; ^q he that hath not given ⁸ forth upon ^r usury, neither ^q hath taken any ^s increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, ^t hath executed true judgment between man and man, ^u hath ⁹ walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, ^v he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

If he beget a son that is a ^w robber, ^a a shedder of blood, and ^b that doeth the like to any one of these things, and that ¹¹ doeth not any of those duties, but even ^c hath eaten upon the mountains, and ^d hath defiled his neighbour's wife, ^e hath oppressed the poor and needy, ^f hath spoiled by violence, hath not ^m restored the pledge, and ^g hath lift up his eyes to the idols, ^h hath committed abomination, ⁱ hath given forth upon usury, and ¹³ hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; ^j his ¹⁴ blood shall be upon him.

Now lo, if he beget a son, that seeth ¹⁴ all his father's sins which he hath done, and ^y considereth, and doeth not such like, that ^t hath not eaten upon the ¹⁵ mountains, neither ^g hath lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, ^h hath not defiled his neighbour's wife, neither ⁱ hath oppressed any, ^m hath not ¹⁶ withholden the pledge, neither ⁿ hath spoiled by violence, ^{but} ^o hath given his bread to the hungry, and ^p hath covered the naked with a garment, that ^z hath ¹⁷ taken off his hand from the poor, ^q that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, ^u hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, ^v he shall surely live. As for his father, because ¹⁸

^a he cruelly oppressed, ^a ⁿ spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even ^b he shall die in his iniquity.

Yet say ye, Why? ^c doth not the son ¹⁹ bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done ^d that which is lawful and right, and ^{dd} hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, ^e he shall surely live. ^f The soul that sinneth, it ²⁰ shall die. ^g The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: ^h the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and ^{hi} the wickedness of ²¹ the wicked shall be upon him. But ^k if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and ^{dd} keep all my statutes, and ^d do that which is lawful and right, ^e he shall surely live, ²² he shall not die. ¹ All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he ²³ shall live. ^m Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

But ⁿ when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked ^{man} doeth, shall he live? ^{no} All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in ^p his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

³⁰ Therefore I ^s will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. ^t Repent, and turn ^u yourselves from all your transgressions: so iniquity shall not be ³¹ your ^v ruin. ^w Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you ^x a new heart and a new spirit: ^y for why will ³² ye die, O house of Israel? For ^z I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn ^u yourselves, and live ye.

Moreover ^atake thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, and say, ²What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among ^blions, she nourished her whelps among ^cyoung lions. And ³she brought up one of her whelps: ^dit became ^ea young lion, and it learned ^{dd}to catch the prey; ^eit devoured men. And he went up and down among the ⁶lions, ^dhe ^lbecame a young lion, ^land learned to catch the prey, ^land devoured men. And he knew ^mtheir de- ⁷solate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and ⁿthe land was desolate, ⁿand the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring. ^oThen the nations set ⁸against him on every side from ^pthe provinces, and ^qspread their net over him: ^fhe was taken in their pit. About And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, ^aset thy face toward Jerusalem, and ^bdrop thy word toward the holy places, and ^cprophesy against the land of Israel, and say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee,

The word of the LORD came unto me ¹⁸ again, saying, Also, thou son of man, ap- ¹⁹ point thee two ways, that the sword of ²⁰ the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and ²¹ choose thou ^a a place, ^b choose it, ^c at the head of the way to the city. Ap- ²² point a way, that ^e the sword may come to ^f Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced. For ²³ the king of Babylon stood at ^g the ^h parting of the way, ⁱ at the head of the two ways, ^j to use divination: he ^k made his ^l arrows bright, he consulted with ^m images, he looked in the liver. At his right hand ²⁴ was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint ⁿ captains, to open the mouth ^o in the slaughter, ^p to lift up the voice with shouting, ^q to appoint battering rams against the gates, ^r to cast a mount, and ^s to build a fort. And it shall be unto ²⁵ them as a false divination in their sight, ^t to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, ^u that they may be taken. Therefore ²⁶ thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ^v ye shall be taken with the hand.

And thou, ^w profane ^x wicked prince of ^y Israel, ^z whose day is come, ^{aa} when iniquity shall have an end, thus saith the ²⁷ Lord God; Remove ^{ab} the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: ^{ac} exalt him that is low, and abase ^{ad} him that is high. ^{ae} I will overturn, over- ²⁸ turn, overturn it: and ^{af} it shall be no ^{ag} more, ^{ah} until he come whose right it is; and ^{ai} I will give it him.

And thou, son of man, prophesy and ²⁹ say, Thus saith the Lord God ^x concerning the Ammonites, and ^y concerning their reproach; even say thou, ^z The sword, the sword is ^{aa} drawn: for the slaughter it is ^{ab} furnished, to consume because of the ^{ac} glittering: whiles ^{ad} they ²⁹ see vanity unto thee, whiles ^{ae} they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain of the wicked, ^{af} whose day is come, ^{ag} when ^{ah} their iniquity shall have an end. ^{ai} Shall ³⁰ I cause it to return into ^{aj} his sheath? ^{ak} I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of ^c thy ³¹ nativity. Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; ^g thou shalt be no more remembered: ^h for I the LORD have spoken it.

Moreover the word of the LORD came ^{XXII.} unto me, saying, Now, thou son of man, ^a wilt thou ^b judge, wilt thou judge the ^c bloody city? yea, thou shalt ^{bb} shew ³ her all her abominations. Therefore ^yhave I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them ^zwith the fire of my wrath: ^atheir own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the LORD God.

The word of the LORD came again unto ^{XXIII.} ² me, saying, Son of man, there were ^atwo women, the daughters of one mother: and ³ ^bthey committed whoredoms ^cin Egypt; ^bthey committed whoredoms ^din their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there ^ethey bruised ^fthe teats of ⁴ their virginity. And the names of them ^{were} Aholah the elder, and Aholibah ^aher sister: and ^sthey were mine, and ^hthey bare sons and daughters. Thus ^{were} their names; ⁱSamaria is ^lAholah, and Jerusalem ^lAholibah.

⁵ And Aholah played the harlot ^kwhen she was mine; and ^lshe doted on her lovers, on ^mthe Assyrians ^{her}neighbours, ⁶ ^{which} were clothed with blue, ^{no}captains and rulers, ^uall of them desirable young men, ^uhorsemen ^priding upon horses. ⁷ Thus she ^tcommitted her whoredoms with them, ^{with} all them ^{that were} ^tthe chosen men of Assyria, and with all ^{on} whom ^lshe doted: with all their idols ⁸ she defiled herself. Neither left she her whoredoms ^{brought} ^cfrom Egypt: for ^din her youth they lay with her, and ^ethey bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her. ⁹ Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of ^rthe ¹⁰ Assyrians, ^lupon whom she doted. These ^sdiscovered her nakedness: ^{ss}they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became ^tfamous among women; for they had ^texecuted judgment upon her.

Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith ²² the Lord God; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, ^d from whom thy mind is alienated, and ^k I will bring them against thee on every side; the ²³ Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, [†] Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, all the Assyrians with them: ^m all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and ⁿ renowned, all of them riding upon horses. And they ²⁴ shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and ^o wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee ^p buckler and ^p shield and ^q helmet round about: and I will set judgment before them, and ^r they shall judge thee according to their judgments. when ^r they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day ^u into my sanctuary to profane it; and lo, ^u thus have they done in the midst of mine house. Again ^a in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, write thee the name ² of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon ^a set himself against Jerusalem this same day. And ^{aa} utter ³ a parable unto ^b the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; ^c Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it: gather ^d the pieces ^d thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and ^e the shoulder; fill it ^{with} ^e the choice bones. Take the choice of the flock, and [†] burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; ^f Woe to ^f the bloody city, to the pot whose ^g scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece ⁷ by piece; ^h let no lot fall upon it. For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon ⁱ the top of a rock; she ^k poured it not upon the ground, ^k ^l to cover it with dust; that it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon ⁱ the top of a rock, that ⁹ it should not be covered. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; [†] Woe to the bloody city! I will even make ^m the pile for fire great. Heap on wood, ⁿ kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and ^o spice it well, and let the bones be burnt.

Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that ^v the brass of it may be hot, and ^q may burn, and that ^r the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that ^g the scum of it may be consumed. She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: ^s her scum ¹³ shall be in the fire. In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not ^s be purged from thy filthiness ^t any more, till ^u I have caused my fury to rest upon ¹⁴ thee. ^v I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and ^v I will do it; I will not go back, ^w neither will I spare. ^x neither will I repent; ^y according to thy ways, and ^y according to thy doings, ^z shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

Also the word of the LORD came unto ¹⁶ me, saying, Son of man, behold, I take away from thee ^a the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: ^b yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears ¹⁷ run down. [†] Forbear to cry, ^{bc} make no mourning for the dead, ^d bind the ^e tire of thine head upon thee, and ^f put on thy shoes upon thy feet, ^g and ^h cover not thy ^l lips, and ⁱ eat not the bread of ¹⁸ men. So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning ^{as} I was commanded.

And the people said unto me, ^k Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so? Then I answered ²⁰ them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Speak unto the house of ²¹ Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ¹ I will profane my sanctuary, ^m the excellency of your strength, ^a the desire of your eyes, and ^t that which your soul pitieth; and ^o your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword. And ye shall do as I ²² have done: ^g ye shall not cover your lips, ⁱ nor eat the bread of men. And ²³ ^e your tires shall be upon your heads, and ^f your shoes upon your feet: ^b ye shall not mourn ^p nor weep; but ^q ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and ^r mourn one towards another. Thus Eze- ²⁴ kiel is unto you ^a a sign: ^t according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and ^u when this cometh, ^v ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

Also, thou son of man, shall it not ²⁵ be in the day when I take from them ^w their strength, the joy of their glory, ^a the desire of their eyes, and ^t that whereupon they set their minds, ^o their sons and their daughters, that ^x he that ²⁶ escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears? In that day ^y shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and ^z be no more dumb: and ^s thou shalt be a sign unto them; and ^v they shall know that I am the Lord.

The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, ^a set thy ² face ^b against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them; and say unto ^b the ³ Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God; Because thou saidst, ^c Aha, against my sanctuary, when ^d it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity; behold therefore, I will deliver thee to ⁴ ^e the ^t men of the east ^z for a possession, and they shall set their ^f palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk. And I will make ⁵ ^g Rabbah ^h a stable for camels, and the Ammonites ^a a couching place for flocks: ^k and ye shall know that I am the Lord. For thus saith the Lord God; Because ⁶ thou hast ^l clapped thine ^t hands, and ^m stamped with the ^t feet, and ⁿ rejoiced in ^t heart with all thy ^o despite against the land of Israel; behold therefore, ^p I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee ^q for ^a a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; ^k and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

⁸ Thus saith the Lord God; Because that ^r Moab and ^s Seir do say, ^{ss} Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the ⁹ heathen; therefore behold, I will open the ^t ^t side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, ^u the glory of the country, ^v Beth-jeshimoth, ^w Baal-meon, and ^x Kiria-thaim, unto the men of the east ^l with the Ammonites, and will give them ^z in possession, that ^v the Ammonites ^a may not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹ And I will execute judgments upon Moab; ^k and they shall know that I am the Lord.

¹² Thus saith the Lord God; ^b Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah ^t by taking vengeance, and ^c hath greatly offended, and revenged ¹³ himself upon them; therefore thus saith the Lord God; ^d I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and ^e will cut off man and beast from it; and ^{ee} I will make it desolate from ^t Teman; and ^f they of ^g Dedan shall fall by the sword. ¹⁴ And ^h I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and ⁱ they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

¹⁵ Thus saith the Lord God; ^j Because ^k the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance ^l with a despightful heart, to destroy it ^l for the old hatred; therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^d I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and ^m I will cut off ⁿ the Cherethims, and ^m destroy ¹⁷ the remnant of the ^p sea coast. Now ⁱshall the isles tremble ^jin the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be ¹⁹troubled at thy departure. For thus saith the Lord God; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; ^jwhen I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee; when ^kI shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, ^{kk}with the people of old time, and shall set thee ^kin the low parts of the earth, in places ^ldesolate of old, ^kwith them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory ^min the land of the living; ⁿI will make thee ^ta terror, ⁿand thou shalt be no more: ^othough thou be sought for, yet shalt thou ^{op}never be found again, saith the Lord God.

The word of the LORD came again ²unto me, saying, Now, thou son of man, ³take up a lamentation for Tyrus; and say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at ^bthe entry of the sea, which art ^{ea}a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord God; O Tyrus, thou hast said, ^dI am ^tof perfect beauty. Thy borders are in the ¹midst of the seas, thy builders ^dhave perfected thy beauty. They have ^tmade all thy ship boards of ^efir trees of ^fSenir: they have taken ^gcedars from Lebanon ⁶to make ^hmasts for thee. Of ⁱthe oaks of Bashan have they made thine ^jjoars; ¹the company of ¹the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of ^mthe isles of Chittim.

XXVIII. The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, say unto ^a the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God; ^b Because ^c thine heart is lifted up, and ^d thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, ^e in the ^f midst of the seas; yet ^f thou art a man, and not God, though ^g thou set thine heart as the heart of God: be- ^h hold, ^h thou art wiser than ⁱ Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee: ^h ^j with thy wisdom and with thine understanding ^k thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures: [†] by thy great wisdom and by ^l thy traffick ^k hast thou increased thy riches, and ^m thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches: therefore thus saith the Lord God; ⁿ Because ^g thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God; behold therefore, I ^o will bring ⁿ strangers upon thee, ^p the terrible of the nations: and ^o they shall draw their swords against ^q the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile ^q thy brightness. Thou shalt die the deaths ^o of ^s the uncircumcised by the hand of ⁿ strangers: for [†] I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, ^u take up a lamentation upon ^a the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God; Thou sealest up ^v the sum, ^b full of wisdom, and ^w perfect in beauty. phire, ^f the [†] emerald, and ^g the carbuncle, and ^e gold: ^h the workmanship of thy ⁱ tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in ^k the day that thou wast created. Thou art the anointed ^l cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon ^m the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of ⁿ the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from ^k the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee. ¹⁶ By the multitude of ^o thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of ^m the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, ^l O covering cherub, from the midst of ⁿ the stones of fire. [†] Thine heart was lifted up because of ^q thy beauty, thou hast corrupted ^q thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

¹⁸ [†] Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of ^o thy traffick; therefore ^s will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

¹⁹ All they that know thee among the people ^t shall be astonished at thee: ^u thou shalt be ^a a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, ^v set thy face ^w against Zidon, and ^v prophesy against it, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^x Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and ^{xx} I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and ^y they shall know that I am the LORD, ^{yy} when I shall have executed judgments in her.

²³ ^z and shall be sanctified in her. In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, ^a set thy face against ² ^b Pharaoh king of Egypt, and ^a prophesy against him, and ^c against all Egypt: speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord ³ GOD; ^d Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great ^e dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, ^e which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself. But ^h I will put hooks in thy jaws, and ⁴ I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy ⁱ scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy ⁱ scales. And I will leave ⁵ thee ⁱ thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the [†] open fields; ^k thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee ¹ for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven. And all the inhabitants of Egypt ^m shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been ⁿ a staff of reed to the house of Israel. ^o When they took hold of thee ⁷ by thy hand, thou didst break, and rent all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest. and ^p madest all their loins to be at a stand. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; ⁸ ^q Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, ^q and cut off man and beast out of thee. And the land of Egypt shall ⁹ be desolate and waste; ^m and they shall know that I am the LORD: ^s because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it. ^d Behold therefore, I ¹⁰ am against thee, and ^r against thy rivers, and ^r I will make the land of Egypt [†] utterly waste and desolate, ¹ from the tower of [†] Syene even unto the border of ^u Ethiopia. ^v No foot of man shall

^c Isai. 10. 34. ^c the Assyrian was ^d a cedar in Lebanon ^t with fair ^e branches, and with a shadowing ^f shroud, and ^g ^h of a high stature; and ^h his top was ^g among ^e ^b the thick boughs. ⁱⁱ The waters ^l made him great, the deep ^l set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her ^l little rivers unto all the trees of the field. Therefore ^g ^b his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and ^k his boughs were multiplied, and ^l his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, ^l when he shot forth. ^m All the fowls of heaven made their nests in ^k his boughs, and under ^l his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and ^{mn} under his shadow dwelt all great nations. Thus was he fair ^b in his greatness, in the length of ^o his branches: for his root was by great waters. The cedars ^p in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like ^k his boughs, and ^q the chesnut trees were not like ^l his branches; nor any tree ^p in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty. the rivers shall be full of thee. And 7
 when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars
 thereof dark; I will cover the sun
 with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light. All the bright lights of 8
 heaven will I make dark over thee,
 and set darkness upon thy land, saith
 the Lord GOD. I will also vex the 9 hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known. Yea, I will make 10 many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee,
 when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

For thus saith the Lord GOD; The 11 sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee. By the swords of the 12 mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp
 of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed. I will destroy also 13
 all the beasts thereof from besides the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them. Then 14 will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith
 the Lord GOD. When I shall make 15
 the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that where-
 of it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall 16
 they know that I am the LORD. This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord
 GOD.

It came to pass also in the twelfth 17
 year, in the fifteenth day of the month,
 that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, wail for the 18
 multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit. Whom dost 19 thou pass in beauty? go down, and
 be thou laid with the uncircumcised.
 They shall fall in the midst of them 20

that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes. The strong among 21
 the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie
 uncircumcised, slain by the sword.
 Asshur is there and all her company: 22
 his graves are about him: all of them
 slain, fallen by the sword: whose graves are set in the sides of the pit,
 and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in 23
 the land of the living. There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in 24
 the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit. They have set her 25
 a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain. There is Meshech, 26 Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror 27
 in the land of the living. And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons
 of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones,
 though they were the terror of the 28
 mighty in the land of the living. Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.
 There is Edom, her kings, and all 29
 her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit. There be the 30 princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror
 they are ashamed of their might; and that be slain by the sword, and ^t bear their shame ^f with them that go down to the pit. Pharaoh shall see them, ³¹ and ^d shall be comforted over all ^e his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army ^k slain by the sword, saith the Lord GOD. For ^q I have caused my terror ^r in the land of the living: and ⁱ he shall be laid in the midst of ^j the uncircumcised with ^k them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all ^e his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

XXXIII. Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, speak ² to ^a the children of thy people, and say unto them, ^b ^t When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their ^c watchman: if when he seeth ³ the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and ^d warn the people; then ^t whosoever heareth ^e the sound of the trumpet, and ^d taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, ^r his blood shall be upon his own head. He heard ^e the sound of the trumpet, ⁵ and ^d took not warning; ^r his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul. But if ⁶ ^e the watchman see the sword come, and ^e blow not the trumpet, and the people ^d be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, ⁸ he is taken away in his iniquity; but ^h his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. ⁱ So thou, O son of man, I have ^k set thee ^a a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and ^d warn them from me. ^h When I ⁸ say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak ^d to warn the wicked from his way, ^g that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but ^h his blood will I require at thine hand. ¹ Nevertheless, ⁹ if thou ^d warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, ^g he shall die in his iniquity; ^{1m} but thou hast delivered thy soul.

Therefore, O thou son of man, speak ¹⁰ unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and ⁿ we pine away in them, ^o how should we then live? Say unto them, ^p As I live, saith ¹¹ the Lord GOD, ^q I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live:

turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for ^r why will ye die, O house of Israel? ¹² Therefore, thou son of man, say unto ^a the children of thy people, ^s The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, ^t he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; ^s neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the ¹³ day that he sinneth. When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; ^s if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it. Again, ^u when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; ^v if he turn from his sin, and ^v do ^t that which is lawful and right; ¹⁵ if the wicked ^w restore the pledge, ^x give again that he had robbed, walk in ^y the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, ¹⁶ he shall not die. ^z None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: ^v he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall ¹⁷ surely live. ^a Yet ^b the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way ¹⁸ is not equal. ^c When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die ¹⁹ thereby. ^d But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and ^v do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. ²⁰ ^a Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, ^e I will judge you every one after his ways.

²¹ And it came to pass ^b in the twelfth year ^f of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, ^g that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, ^h The city is smitten. Now ⁱ the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and ^k my mouth was opened, and ^k I was no more ²³ dumb. and he inherited the land : but ⁿ we are many ; the land is given us for inheritance. Wherefore say unto them, Thus ²⁵ saith the Lord God ; ^o Ye eat with the blood, and ^p lift up your eyes toward your idols, and ^q shed blood : and shall ye possess the land ? ^r Ye stand upon ²⁶ your sword, ye work abomination, and ^p ye defile every one his neighbour's wife : and shall ye possess the land ? Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith ²⁷ the Lord God ; ^t As I live, surely they that are in [†] the wastes shall fall by ^u the sword, and him that is in the open field ^v will I give to ^u the beasts [†] to be devoured, and they that be ^w in the forts and ^x in the caves shall die of ^u the pestilence. For ^y I will lay the land ²⁸ [†] most desolate, and ^a the pomp of her strength shall cease ; and ^b the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through. Then ^c shall ²⁹ they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

Also, thou son of man, ^d the children ³⁰ of thy people still are talking [†] against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what [†] is the word that cometh forth from the LORD. And ³¹ ^e they come unto thee [†] as the people cometh, and [†] they [†] sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them : for ³² [†] with their mouth [†] they shew much love, but [†] their heart goeth after their covetousness. And lo, [†] thou art unto them as [†] a very lovely song of ^k one that hath a pleasant voice, and [†] can play well on an instrument : for they hear thy words, but they do them not. And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come) then ³³ ^m shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against ² the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds ; ^a Woe be to the shepherds of Israel ^b that do feed themselves ! ^c should not the shepherds feed the flocks ? ^d Ye eat the fat, and ye ³ clothe you with the wool, ^e ye kill them that are fed : but ^e ye feed not the flock.

And ⁿ they were scattered, ^{no} because there is no shepherd : and ^p they became meat to all the beasts of ⁶ the field, when they were scattered. ^{pp} My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill : yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and ^q none did search or seek after them. ⁷ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word ⁸ of the LORD ; ^t As I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock ^s became a prey, and my flock ^p became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but ^b the shepherds fed themselves, and ^{ee} fed not my flock ; ⁹ therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word ¹⁰ of the LORD ; Thus saith the Lord God ; Behold, I am against the shepherds ; and [†] I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock ; neither shall the shepherds ^b feed themselves any more ; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, ^p that they may not be meat for them.

¹¹ For thus saith the Lord God ; Behold, ^q I, even I, will [†] both search my sheep, ¹² and [†] seek them out. [†] As ^{ss} a shepherd [†] seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered ; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in [†] the cloudy and ¹³ [†] dark day. And I will bring them out from the people, and ^v gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon ^w the mountains of Israel by ^x the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the ¹⁴ country. ^y I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon ^z the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be : ^a there shall they lie in a good fold, and in ^a a ^b fat pasture shall they feed upon ^w the mountains of Israel. ^c I will feed my flock, and ^a I will cause them to lie down, saith ¹⁶ the Lord God. ^d I will seek that which was lost, and ^d bring again that which was driven away, and ^d will bind up that which was broken, and ^d will strengthen that which was sick : but I will destroy ^e the fat and the strong ; I will feed them ¹⁷ [†] with judgment. Israel, because it was desolate, ¹so will I do unto thee: ²thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and ³all Idumea, even all of it: ⁴and they shall know that I am the LORD.

XXXVI. Also, thou son of man, prophesy unto ¹the mountains of Israel, ²and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD: thus saith the Lord ³GOD; Because ⁴the enemy hath said against you, ⁵Aha, even ⁶the ancient high places ⁷are ours in possession: therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith ⁸the Lord GOD; ⁹Because they have made you desolate, and ¹⁰swallowed you up on every side, ¹¹that ye might be a possession unto ¹²the residue of the heathen, ¹³and ¹⁴ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and ¹⁵are an infamy of the people: therefore, ¹⁶ye mountains of Israel, ¹⁷hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD ¹⁸unto the mountains, and ¹⁹to the hills, ²⁰to the ²¹rivers, and ²²to the valleys, to ²³the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, ²⁴which became ²⁵a prey and ²⁶derision to ²⁷the residue of ²⁸the heathen that are round about; there- fore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely ²⁹in the fire of ³⁰my jealousy have I spoken against ³¹the residue of the heathen, and against ³²all Idumea, ³³which have appointed my land into their possession ³⁴with the joy of all their heart, ³⁵with despiteful minds, to cast it out ³⁶for a prey. Prophesy therefore con- cerning the land of Israel, and say ³⁷unto the mountains, and ³⁸to the hills, ³⁹to the rivers, and ⁴⁰to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, ⁴¹I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ⁴²ye have borne ⁴³the shame of the heathen: therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have ⁴⁴lifted up mine hand, ⁴⁵Surely the heathen that are about you, ⁴⁶they shall bear their shame.

But ye, ⁴⁷O mountains of Israel, ye ⁴⁸shall shoot forth your ⁴⁹branches, and yield your ⁵⁰fruit to my people of Israel; for ⁵¹they are at hand to come. For behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye ⁵²shall be tilled and sown: and ⁵³I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and ⁵⁴the cities shall be inhabited, and ⁵⁵the wastes shall be builded: and ⁵⁶I will multiply upon you ⁵⁷man and beast; and ⁵⁸they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after ⁵⁹your old estates, and will do better ⁶⁰unto you than at your beginnings: ⁶¹and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

⁶²Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and ⁶³they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth ⁶⁴bereave them of men. ⁶⁵Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, ⁶⁶Thou land devour- est up men, and hast ⁶⁷bereaved thy nations; therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither ⁶⁸bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD. ⁶⁹Neither will I cause men to hear in thee ⁷⁰the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the re- proach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

⁷¹Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, ⁷²they defiled it by ⁷³their own way and by ⁷⁴their doings: their way was before me ⁷⁵as the unclean- ness of a removed woman. Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for ⁷⁶the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it: and ⁷⁷I scattered them among the heathen, and ⁷⁸they were dis- persed through the countries: ⁷⁹accord- ing to ⁸⁰their way and according to ⁸¹their doings I judged them. And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, ⁸²they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land. But I had pity ⁸³for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; ⁸⁴I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but ⁸⁵for mine holy name's sake, which ye have pro- faned among the heathen, whither ye went. And I will sanctify ⁸⁶my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen ⁸⁷shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, ⁸⁸when I shall be sanc- tified in you before ⁸⁹their eyes. † midst of the land. ^m Sheba, and ⁿ De-dan, and ^o the merchants of Tarshish, with all ^p the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come ⁱ to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company ⁱ to take a prey? to carry away
silver and gold, to take away ^l cattle
and goods, ⁱ to take a great spoil?
Therefore, son of man, prophesy and ^l say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^q In that day when my people of Israel ^a dwelleth safely, ^r shalt thou not know it? And ^s thou shalt come ^l
from thy place out of the north parts,
thou, and ^t many people with thee, all of them ^u riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: and thou ^v shalt come up against my people of Israel, ^d as a cloud to cover the land;
it shall be ^v in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, ^w when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, ^x before their eyes.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou ^l
he of whom I have spoken in old time ^t by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them? And it shall come to pass ^{at} ^l
the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that ^y my fury shall come up in my face. For ^y in my jealousy ^l and in ^z the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely ^q in that day there shall be ^a a great shaking in the land of Israel; so that ^b the fishes of the sea, ²⁰
and ^b the fowls of the heaven, and ^b the beasts of the field, and all ^c creeping things that creep upon the earth,
and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and ^d the mountains shall be thrown down, and ^e the ^l steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. And I will ^f call for ^g ^{ha} ²¹ sword against him ⁱ throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: ^j every man's sword shall be against his brother. And ^k I will plead against him with ^{lm} pestilence and with ^l blood; and ⁿ I will rain upon him, and upon his ^o bands, and upon ^o the many people that are with him, ^p an overflowing rain,
and ^p great hailstones, ⁿ fire, and ⁿ brimstone. Thus ^s will I magnify myself, ²³ and ^s sanctify myself; and st ^u I will be known in the eyes of many nations,

^v and they shall know that I am the ^v LORD. ^v See ch. 6. 7.

Therefore ^a thou son of man, ^a prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith
the Lord GOD; ^a Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Me-shech and Tubal: ^b and I will turn thee back, and ^c leave but the sixth part of thee, and ^d will cause thee to come up from ^t the north parts, and will bring thee upon ^e the mountains of Israel:
³ and ^f I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows
⁴ to fall out of thy right hand. ^g Thou shalt fall upon ^e the mountains of Israel, thou, and ^h all thy bands, ^h and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto ⁱ the ravenous birds of every ^l sort,
and ^{to} ^k the beasts of the field ^t to be ⁵ devoured. Thou shalt fall upon ^t the open field: for ^l I have spoken it, saith ^o the Lord GOD. And ^m I will send a fire on ⁿ Magog, and among them that ^o dwell ^l carelessly in ^p the isles: ^q and they shall know that I am the LORD.
⁷ ^r So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not ^s let them pollute my holy name any more: and ^q the heathen shall know that I am ^u the LORD, the Holy
One in Israel.

⁸ ^v Behold, it is come, and ^w it is done,
saith the Lord GOD; this is the day ⁹ ^x whereof I have spoken. And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and ^{xx} shall set on fire and ^y burn ^z the weapons, both ^{zz} the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the ^l handstaves, and the spears, and they shall ^l burn them with ¹⁰ fire seven years: so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn ^z the weapons with fire: and ^a they shall spoil those that spoiled
them, and rob those that robbed them, ¹¹ saith the Lord GOD. And it shall come to pass in ^b that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop
the ^l noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley ¹² of ^l Hamon-gog. And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, ^c that they may cleanse the land. Yea, all the people of the land shall ¹³ bury them; and it shall be to them ^d a renown the day that ^e I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God. And they ¹⁴ shall sever out ^f men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury ^f with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, ^c to cleanse it: after the end of ^g seven months shall they search. And ^f the ¹⁵ passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he ⁱ set up ^h a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in ⁱ the valley of Hamon-gog. And also the name of the ¹⁶ city shall be ^j Hamonah. ^c Thus shall they cleanse the land.

And thou son of man, thus saith ¹⁷ the Lord God; ^j Speak ^k unto every feathered fowl, and ^k to every beast of the field, ^j Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to ^m my ^l sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice ^k upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood. ⁿ Ye shall eat ¹⁸ the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of ^t goats, of ^o bullocks, all of them fatlings ^o of Bashan. And ye shall eat fat ^p till ye be full, and ¹⁹ drink blood till ye be drunken, ^m of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. Thus ye shall be filled at my ²⁰ table ⁿ with ^q horses and chariots, ⁿ with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God. And ^e I will set ²¹ my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see ^r my judgment that I have executed, and ^r my hand that I have laid upon them. ^s So the ²² house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from ^b that day ^t and forward. And the heathen shall ²³ know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore ^u hid I my face from them, and ^v gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword. ^w According to ²⁴ their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and ^u hid my face from them.

Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ²⁵ Now will I ^x bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon ^y the whole house of Israel, and ^z will be jealous for my holy name; after that ²⁶

^a they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they ^b dwelt safely in their land, and ^c none made ²⁷ them afraid. When I have brought them again from the people, and ^d ^e gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and ^d ^f am sanctified in them in the ²⁸ sight of many nations; then ^g shall they know that I am the LORD their God, ^t which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have ^h gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more ²⁹ there. ⁱ Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have ^k poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

tween the little chambers were five cubits; and ^sthe threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate ^uwithin was one reed. He measured also the porch ⁸ of the gate ^uwithin, one reed. Then ⁹ measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and ^vthe posts thereof, ^wtwo cubits; and the porch of the gate was ^uinward. And ^tthe little chambers ¹⁰ of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; ^{ww}they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. And he measured the breadth ¹¹ of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. The ^tspace also before ^tthe ¹² little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and ^tthe little chambers were ^xsix cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. He measured then the ¹³ gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: ^{xx}the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door. He made also ^vposts ¹⁴ ^yof threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate. And from the face of the gate of the ¹⁵ entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate ^{yy}were fifty cubits. And there were ^z^tnarrow windows to the little chambers, and to their ^vposts ^awithin the gate round about, and likewise to the [†]arches: and windows were round about ^uinward: and upon each ^bpost were ^bpalm trees.

Then brought he me into ^cthe outward court, and lo, there were ^dchambers, and ^ea pavement made for the court round about: ^fthirty chambers were upon the pavement. And ^ethe pavement ^gby ¹⁸ the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement. Then he measured the breadth ¹⁹ from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court [†]without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

And the gate of ^cthe outward court ²⁰ ^tthat looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof. And ^hthe little chambers ²¹ of were ⁱthree on this side and three on that side; and ^jthe posts thereof and the [†]arches thereof were ^jafter the measure of the first gate: ^kthe length thereof was fifty cubits, and ^lthe breadth five and twenty cubits. And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate ^otoward the north, and ⁿtoward the east; ^pand he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured ^jthe posts thereof and ^mthe arches thereof ^jaccording to ²⁵ these measures. And there were ^mwindows in it and in ^mthe arches thereof round about, ^mlike those windows: ^kthe length was fifty cubits, and ^lthe breadth ²⁶ five and twenty cubits. And he brought me to ^sthe inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate ^jaccording to these ²⁹ measures; and ^hthe little chambers thereof, and ^jthe posts thereof, and ^mthe arches thereof, ^jaccording to these measures: and there were ^mwindows in it and in ^mthe arches thereof round about: it was ^kfifty cubits long, and ^lfive and twenty ³⁰ cubits broad. And at the side with- ⁴⁰out, ^las one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables. Four tables ⁴¹*were* on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon ^cthey slew their sacrifices. And the four tables were ^dof hewn ⁴²stone for ^zthe burnt offering, of a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew ^zthe burnt offering and the sacrifice. And within were ^lhooks, ^fa ⁴³hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

And without the inner gate were ^xthe ⁴⁴chambers of ^gthe singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. And he said unto me, This ^xchamber, ⁴⁵whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, ^bthe keepers of the ^lcharge of the house. And ^{xi}the chamber whose ⁴⁶prospect is toward the north is for the priests, ^jthe keepers of the charge of the altar: ^kthese are ^lthe sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, ^{km}which come near to the LORD to minister unto him. So he measured the court, ⁿan hundred ⁴⁷cubits long, and ⁿan hundred cubits broad, ^ofoursquare; and ^pthe altar that was before the house.

And he brought me to ^qthe porch of ⁴⁸the house, and measured each ^rpost of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. ^sThe ⁴⁹

length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were ^tpillars by ^tthe posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

Afterward he brought me to ^{ad}the ^{XLI.} temple, and measured ^bthe posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, ^cwhich ²*was* the breadth of the tabernacle. And the breadth of ^{cc}the ^ldoor was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured ^dthe length thereof, forty cubits: and ^ethe ³breadth, twenty cubits. Then went he ^finward, and measured ^bthe post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. So he measured ^gthe length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before ^athe temple: and he said unto me, This is ^hthe most holy ⁵place. After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of ⁱevery ⁱside chamber, four cubits, round ⁶about the house on every side. And ⁱthe side chambers ^kwere three, ^lone over another, and ^lthirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for ⁱthe side chambers round about, that they might ^lhave hold, but ^kthey had not hold in the wall of the ⁷house. And ^mthere was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to ⁱthe side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so ⁿincreased ^mfrom the lowest chamber to the highest ⁸by the midst. I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of ⁱthe side chambers were ^oa full reed ⁹of six great cubits. The thickness of the wall, which was for ⁱthe side chamber without, was five cubits: and ^pthat which was left was the place of ⁱthe ¹⁰side chambers that were within. And between ^qthe chambers was the wide- ¹¹ness of ^{qa}twenty cubits round about the house on every side. And the doors of ⁱthe side chambers were toward ^pthe place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of ^pthe place that was left was five cubits round about.

the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits. So he measured ¹³ the house, an hundred cubits long; and ¹⁴ the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, ¹⁵ an hundred cubits long; also the breadth of the face of the house, and of ¹⁶ the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits. And he ¹⁷ measured the length of ¹⁸ the building over against ¹⁹ the separate place which ²⁰ was behind it, and the ²¹ galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, ²² an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court; ²³ the ²⁴ door posts, and ²⁵ the narrow windows, and ²⁶ the galleries round about ²⁷ on their three ²⁸ stories, over against ²⁹ the door, ³⁰ cieled with wood round about, ³¹ and ³² from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered; to ³³ that above ³⁴ the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, ³⁵ by ³⁶ measure. And ³⁷ it was made ³⁸ with cherubims and ³⁹ palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and ⁴⁰ every cherub had two faces; so that ⁴¹ the face ⁴² of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: ⁴³ it was made through all the house round about. From the ground unto ⁴⁴ above the door were ⁴⁵ cherubims and ⁴⁶ palm trees made, and ⁴⁷ on the wall of the temple.

The ⁴⁸ posts of ⁴⁹ the temple were ⁵⁰ squared, and the face of ⁵¹ the sanctuary; the appearance of ⁵² the one as the appearance of ⁵³ the other. ⁵⁴ The altar of ⁵⁵ wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This ⁵⁶ is ⁵⁷ the table that ⁵⁸ is ⁵⁹ before the LORD. And ⁶⁰ the temple ⁶¹ and ⁶² the sanctuary ⁶³ had two doors. And ⁶⁴ the doors had two leaves ⁶⁵ apiece, two ⁶⁶ turning leaves; two ⁶⁷ leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other ⁶⁸ door. And ⁶⁹ there were made on them, on the ⁷⁰ doors of ⁷¹ the temple, ⁷² cherubims and ⁷³ palm trees, ⁷⁴ like as ⁷⁵ were made upon the walls; and ⁷⁶ there were ⁷⁷ thick planks upon the face of ⁷⁸ the porch without. And ⁷⁹ there were ⁸⁰ narrow windows and ⁸¹ palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of ⁸² the porch, and upon ⁸³ the side chambers of the house, ⁸⁴ and ⁸⁵ thick planks.

Then he brought me forth into ⁸⁶ the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into ⁸⁷ the chamber that was over against ⁸⁸ the separate place, and ⁸⁹ which was before the building toward the north. ⁹⁰ Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and ⁹¹ the breadth was fifty cubits. Over against ⁹² the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against ⁹³ the pavement which was for the utter court, ⁹⁴ was ⁹⁵ gallery against gallery in ⁹⁶ three ⁹⁷ stories. And before ⁹⁸ the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, ⁹⁹ a way of one cubit; and ¹⁰⁰ their doors toward the north. Now the upper ¹⁰¹ chambers were shorter: for ¹⁰² the galleries ¹⁰³ were higher than these, ¹⁰⁴ than the lower, and than the middlemost of the ¹⁰⁵ building. For they were in three ¹⁰⁶ stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore ¹⁰⁷ the building ¹⁰⁸ was straitened ¹⁰⁹ more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. And ¹¹⁰ the wall that was without over against ¹¹¹ the chambers, towards the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, ¹¹² the length thereof was fifty cubits. For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and lo, before ¹¹³ the temple ¹¹⁴ were an hundred cubits. And ¹¹⁵ from under these chambers was ¹¹⁶ the entry on the east side, ¹¹⁷ as one goeth into them from the utter court. ¹¹⁸ The chambers were in the thickness of ¹¹⁹ the wall of the court toward the east, over against ¹²⁰ the separate place, ¹²¹ and over against the building. And ¹²² the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers ¹²³ which were toward the north, as long as they, ¹²⁴ and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both ¹²⁵ according to their fashions, and ¹²⁶ according to their doors. And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door ¹²⁷ in the head of the way, ¹²⁸ even the way directly before ¹²⁹ the wall toward the east, as ¹³⁰ one entereth into them.

Then said he unto me, ¹³¹ The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before ¹³² the separate place, they be holy chambers, where ¹³³ the priests that approach unto the LORD ¹³⁴ shall eat ¹³⁵ the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and ¹³⁶ the meat offering, and ¹³⁷ the sin offering, and ¹³⁸ the trespass offering; for the place is holy. When the priests enter therein, then shall ¹⁴ they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but ^dthere they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and ^dshall put on other garments, and shall approach to ^dthose things which are for the people.

Now when he had made an end of ¹⁵ measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward ^ethe gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. He measured the east ¹⁶ side with ^fthe measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. He measured the north ¹⁷ side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. He measured ¹⁸ the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed. He turned about ¹⁹ to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. He ²⁰ measured it by the four sides: ^git had a wall round about, ^hfive hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, ⁱto make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

Afterward he brought me to the gate, even ^athe gate that looketh toward the east: and behold, ^bthe glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and ^chis voice was like a noise of many waters: and ^dthe earth shined with his glory. And it was ^eaccording to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw ^fwhen I came ^fto destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw ^gby the river Chebar; and ^eI fell upon my face. And ^hthe glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of ^athe gate whose prospect is toward the east. So ⁱthe spirit took me up, and brought me into ^kthe inner court; and behold, ^lthe glory of the LORD filled the house. And I heard him speaking ^munto me out of the house; and ⁿthe man stood by me. And he said unto me, Son of man, ⁿthe place of my throne, and ^othe place of the soles of my feet, ^pwhere I will dwell ^qin the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and ^rmy holy name, shall the house of Israel ^rno more defile, neither they, nor their kings, ^tby their whoredom, nor ^tby

the carcases of their kings in their high ^splaces. ^uIn their setting of their threshold by ^vmy thresholds, and their post by ^wmy posts, ^vand ^xthe wall between me and them, ^ythey have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger. ⁹ Now let them put away ^ttheir whoredom, and ^tthe carcases of their kings, far from me, and ^pI will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

¹⁰ Thou son of man, ^zshew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them ¹¹measure ^athe ^hpattern. And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, ^bshew them the form of the house, and ^athe fashion thereof, and ^dthe goings out thereof, and ^dthe comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and ^{dd}all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and ^{dd}all the laws thereof: and write it ^ein their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all ^{dd}the ordinances thereof, and do them.

¹³ And these are the measures of ^hthe altar after the cubits: ⁱThe cubit is a cubit and a hand breadth; even the ^jbottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and ^kthe border thereof by the ^jedge thereof round about shall be ^{ka}span: and this shall be the higher place ¹⁴of the altar. And from the bottom ^{upon} the ground even to the lower ^lsettle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and ¹⁵the breadth one cubit. So ^{*}the altar shall be four cubits; and from ^tthe altar and upward shall be ^mfour horns. And ^tthe altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, ⁿsquare in the four ^osquares thereof. And ^lthe settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four ^osquares thereof; and ^kthe border about it shall be ^khalf a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and ^phis stairs shall look toward the east.

¹⁸ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God; These are ^qthe ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and ^rto sprinkle blood thereon. And thou shalt give to ^sthe 19 priests the Levites ^sthat be of the seed

of Zadok, ^twhich approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, ^ua young bullock ^vfor a sin offering.
And ^wthou shalt take of the blood there- 20
of, and ^wput it on ^mthe four horns of it,
and on the four corners of ^xthe settle,
and upon ^{xy}the border round about:
thus ^zshalt thou cleanse and ^{zz}purge it.
Thou shalt take ^vthe bullock also of the 21 sin offering, and he ^ashall burn it in ^bthe appointed place of the house, ^awithout the sanctuary. And on the second 22 day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and ^zthey shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock. When thou 23

hast made an end of ^zcleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish,
and a ram out of the flock without blemish.
And thou shalt offer them be- 24
fore the LORD, and the priests ^cshall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up ^{for} a burnt offering unto
the LORD. ^dSeven days shalt thou pre- 25
pare every day a goat ^{for} a sin offering:
they shall also prepare a young bullock,
and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.
^dSeven days shall they purge 26
the altar and purify it; and they shall ^tconsecrate themselves. And when these 27 ^edays are expired, it shall be, that ^tupon
the eighth day, ^gand so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your ^hpeace offerings; and I will ⁱaccept you, saith the Lord God.

XLIV. Then he brought me ^aback the way of ^bthe gate of the outward sanctuary ^bwhich looketh toward the east; and it was shut. Then said the LORD unto 2 me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in
by it; ^cbecause the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. It is for ^dthe prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to ^eeat bread before the LORD; ^fhe shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

Then brought he me the way of ^gthe 4
north gate before the house: and I looked, and behold, ^hthe glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and ⁱI fell upon my face. And the LORD said unto 5 me, Son of man, ^tmark well, and ^jbehold with thine eyes, and ^jhear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning ^kall the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and ^kall the laws thereof;

and ^tmark well ^kthe entering in of the house, with every ^kgoing forth of the sanctuary. And thou shalt say to ^lthe rebellious, even to the house of Israel,
Thus saith the Lord God; O ye house of Israel, ^mlet it suffice you of all your abominations, ⁿin that ye have brought into my sanctuary ^ostrangers, ^ouncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, ⁿto be in my sanctuary, ^pto pollute it, even my house, when ye offer ^qmy bread, ^rthe fat and ^{rs}the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations. And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things:
but ye have ^tset keepers of my ^lcharge
in my sanctuary for yourselves.

Thus saith the Lord God; ^uNo stranger, ^uuncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel. And ^uthe Levites that are gone away far from me, ^uwhen Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols;
they shall even ^vbear their iniquity. Yet
they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, ^{having} ^wcharge ^xat the gates of the house, and ^{xx}ministering to the house:
they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and ^ythey shall stand before them to minister unto them.

Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and ^tcaused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I ^zlift up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and ^vthey shall bear their iniquity. And ^athey shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in ^bthe
most holy place: but ^cthey shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. But I will make them ^dkeepers of the charge of the house, ^efor all the service thereof,
and ^efor all that shall be done therein.

But ^{ee}the priests the Levites, ^{ef}the sons of Zadok, ^dthat kept the charge of my sanctuary ^uwhen the children of Israel
went astray from me, they shall come near to me ^fto minister unto me, and ^fthey shall stand before me ^gto offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the LORD GOD: they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to ^hmy table, ^fto minister unto me, and ^dthey shall keep my charge.

¹ So Ex. 28. And it shall come to pass, that ¹ when ¹⁷ they enter in at the gates of ¹ the inner court, ¹ they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. They shall ¹⁸ have ¹ linen ^m bonnets upon their heads, and shall have ¹ linen ⁿ breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves ¹¹ with any thing that causeth sweat. And when ¹⁹ they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court ^o to the people, ^o they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and ^o lay them in the holy chambers, and ^p they shall put on other garments; and they shall not ^q sanctify the people with their garments. ^r Neither ²⁰ shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their ^s locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads. ^t Neither shall any ²¹ priest drink wine, when they enter into ^u the inner court. Neither shall they ²² take for their wives ^u a widow, nor ^u her that is ¹ put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow ^t that had a priest before. And ^v they shall teach my ²³ people the difference ^w between the holy and profane, and ^w cause them to discern ^x between the unclean and the clean. And ^y in controversy they shall stand ²⁴ in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and ^z they shall hallow my sabbaths. And ^z they shall come ²⁵ at no dead person ^a to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, ^z they may defile themselves. And after he is cleansed, ²⁶ they shall reckon unto him ^b seven days. And in the day that he goeth into ²⁷ the sanctuary, unto ^c the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, ^d he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord God. And ²⁸ ^e it shall be unto them for an inheritance: ^e I am their inheritance: and ^e ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession. ^f They shall eat the meat offering, and ^f the sin offering, and ^f the trespass offering; and ^g every ¹ dedicate thing in Israel shall be theirs. And ^h the ¹¹ first ³⁰ of all the firstfruits of all things, and every ^k oblation of all, of every sort of ^{ik} your oblations, shall be the priests': ye shall also give unto the priest ¹ the first of your dough, ^m that he may cause ⁿ the blessing to rest in thine house. ³¹ The priests shall not eat of ^o any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

Moreover, ¹ when ye shall ^a divide by ^{XLV.} ^{lot} the land for inheritance, ^b ye shall offer an ^c oblation unto the LORD, ¹ a holy portion of the land: ^b the length ^{shall be} the length of five and twenty thousand ^d rods, and the breadth ^{shall be} ten thousand. This ^{shall be} holy in ² all the borders thereof round about. Of this there shall be for the sanctuary ^e five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, ^f square round about; and fifty cubits round about ^{for} ^{the} ¹ suburbs thereof. And ^h of this measure shalt thou measure ^h the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and ⁱ in it shall be the sanctuary and ^k the most holy place. ^h The holy portion of the land shall be ¹ for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, ^m which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and ⁿ a holy place for the sanctuary. And ^o the five and twenty thousand of length, and ^{the} ten thousand of breadth, ^o shall also the Levites, ^p the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession ^{for} ¹ twenty chambers. And ^r ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, ^r over against ^c the oblation of the holy portion: ^s it shall be for the whole house of ⁷ Israel. And ^{ss} a portion shall be for ¹ the prince on the one side and on the other side of ^c the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length ^{shall be} over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border. ⁸ In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and ^u my princes shall no more ^{uv} oppress my people; and ^{the} rest of ^{uv} the land shall they give to the house of Israel ^w according to their tribes.

⁹ Thus saith the Lord God; Let ^w it suffice you, O princes of Israel: ^u remove violence and spoil, and ^u execute judgment and justice, take away your ¹ exactions from my people, saith the Lord ¹⁰ GOD. Ye ^x shall have just ^y balances, when they go in, ¹shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth. And ²in the feasts and ³in the solemnities the meat offering shall be ⁴an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and ⁵to the lambs ⁶as he is able to give, and ⁷a hin of oil to an ephah. Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings ⁸voluntarily unto the LORD, ⁹he shall then open him ¹⁰the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, ¹¹as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth ¹²one shall shut the gate. ¹³Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb ¹⁴of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it ¹⁵every morning. And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of ¹⁶an ephah, and the third part of ¹⁷a hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD. Thus shall they ¹⁸prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for ¹⁹a continual burnt offering.

Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance. But if he give a gift ²⁰of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to ²¹the year of liberty; after, it shall return to the prince; but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them. Moreover ²²the prince shall not take the people's inheritance, ²³by oppression to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

After, he brought me through the entry, which was ²⁴at the side of the gate, into the holy ²⁵chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the two sides westward. Then said he unto me, This ²⁶is the place where the priests shall ²⁷boil the trespass offering and ²⁸the sin offering, where they shall ²⁹bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, ³⁰to sanctify the people. Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, ³¹in every corner of the court there was a 22 court. In the four corners of the court there were courts ³²joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four ³³corners were of one measure. And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about. Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where ³⁴the ministers of the house shall ³⁵boil the sacrifice of the people.

Afterward he brought me again unto ³⁶the door of the house; and behold, ³⁷waters ³⁸issued out from under ³⁹the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of ⁴⁰the altar. Then brought he me out of the way of ⁴¹the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto ⁴²the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

And when ⁴³the man that had ⁴⁴the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; ⁴⁵the waters were to the ankles. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins. Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen. ⁴⁶Waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river. Now when I had returned, behold, at the ⁴⁷bank of the river were ⁴⁸very many trees on the one side and on the other. Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east ⁴⁹country, and go down into the ⁵⁰desert, and go into ⁵¹the sea: which being brought forth into ⁵²the sea, the waters shall be healed. And it shall come to pass, that ⁵³every thing that liveth, ⁵⁴which moveth, whithersoever the ⁵⁵rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh. I. IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah ^acame Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with ^bpart of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried ^cinto the land of Shinar to the house of his god; ^dand he brought the vessels ^einto the treasure house of his god.

And the king spake unto Ashpenaz ³the master of his eunuchs, that ^{he}should bring ^{*certain} of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of ^fthe princes; children in whom ^{was}no ^gblemish, but well favoured, and ^hskillful in all wisdom, and cunning in ⁱknowledge, and understanding ^{ik}science, and such as ^{had}ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and ^lwhom ^{they}might teach ^{im}the learning and the tongue of ⁿthe Chaldeans. And the ⁵king appointed them ^{na}a daily provision of ^othe king's meat, and of ^tthe wine which he drank: so nourishing them ^pthree years, that at the end thereof they might ^qstand before the king.

Now among these were of the children ⁶of Judah, Daniel, ^rHananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: unto whom the prince of ⁷the eunuchs ^sgave names: for he gave unto Daniel ^{the name of} Belteshazzar; ^uand to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

But Daniel ^vpurposed in his heart ⁸that he would not defile himself with ^othe portion of the king's ^{wx}meat, nor with ^{wy}the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces ^tworse liking than the children which ^{are} of your ^usort? then shall ye make ^{me}endanger ¹¹my head to the king. Then said Daniel to ^vMelzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ^bten days; and let them give us ^{ic}pulse ^tto eat, ¹²and water to drink. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat ^dof ^dthe portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal ¹⁴with thy servants. So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ¹⁵ten days. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and ^efatter in flesh than all the children which did eat ^dthe portion of the king's meat. Thus Melzar took away ^dthe portion of their meat, and ^dthe wine that they should drink; and gave them ^cpulse.

¹⁷ As for these four children, ^fGod gave them ^gknowledge and ^gskill in all ^glearning and ^gwisdom: and ^lDaniel ^hhad understanding in all visions and ¹⁸dreams. Now at the end of ^kthe days that the king had said ^{he}should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. And ⁱⁿall matters of ^twisdom ^{and}understanding, that ^mthe king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all ^{no}the magicians ^{and} ^oastrologers that ^{were} in all his ²¹realm. ^{*}And Daniel continued ^{even}unto the first year of king Cyrus.

dreamed dreams, wherewith ^b his spirit was troubled, and ^c his sleep brake from him. ^{cc} Then the king commanded to call ^d the magicians, and ^d the astrologers, and ^e the sorcerers, and ^f the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and ^g stood before the king. And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and ^b my spirit was troubled to know the dream. Then spake ^f the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack*, ^{gg} O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation. The king answered and said to ^f the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall ^h be ⁱ cut in pieces, and ^{hi} your houses shall be made a dunghill. But ^k if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me ^l gifts and ^l rewards and great honour: ^m therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof. They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it. The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would ⁿ gain the time, ⁿⁿ because ye see the thing is gone from me. But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, ^o there is but one decree for you: for ye have ^p prepared lying and ^q corrupt words to speak before me, ⁿ till the time be changed: ^m therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof. ^f The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: ^r therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any ^d magician, or ^d astrologer, or ^f Chaldean. And it is a rare thing ⁱⁱ that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, ^s except ^t the gods, ^u whose dwelling is not with flesh. ^{uu} For this cause ⁱⁱ the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all ^v the wise men of Babylon. And the decree ⁱⁱⁱ went forth that ^v the wise men should be slain; and they sought ^w Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

Then Daniel ^t answered with counsel ^{iv}

and ^x wisdom to Arioch the ^{††} captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay ^v the wise men of Babylon: ¹⁵ he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so ^{xx} hasty from the king? Then Arioch ¹⁶ made the thing known to Daniel. Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation. Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to ^y Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: ^z that they would desire mercies [†] of ^a the God of heaven concerning this ^b secret; ^{††} that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of ^{cc} the wise men of Babylon.

¹⁹ Then was ^b the secret revealed unto Daniel ^d in a night vision. Then Daniel ²⁰ ^c blessed ^a the God of heaven. Daniel answered and said,

^f Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever:

For ^g wisdom and might are his:

²¹ And ^h he changeth ⁱ the times and the seasons:

He ^{kl} removeth kings, and ^l setteth up kings:

He giveth wisdom unto the wise, And ^m knowledge to them that know understanding:

²² ^u He revealeth the deep and secret things:

^o He knoweth what is in the darkness,

And ^p the light dwelleth with him.

²³ ^q I thank thee, and praise thee, ^O thou ^r God of my fathers, Who hast given me ^g wisdom and might,

And hast made known unto me now what ^s we desired of thee:

For thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

²⁴ ^{uu} Therefore Daniel went in unto [†] Arioch, whom the king had ^u ordained to destroy ^{cc} the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation. Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. The king answered and said to Daniel, ^w whose name was Belteshazzar, ^x Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, ^b The secret which the king hath demanded ^{xx} cannot ^{bb} the wise men, ^y the astrologians, ^z the magicians, ² the soothsayers, shew unto the king; but there is ^a a God in heaven that revealeth ^b secrets, and ^t maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be ^b in the latter days. ^{bb} Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; As for thee, O king, thy thoughts ^t came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and ^a he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. But ^c as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, ⁱ but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

Thou, O king, ^t sawest, and behold ^a a great image. This great image, whose ^{dd} brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. ^e This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his ⁱ thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet part of iron ³³ and part of clay. Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out ^{ff} without hands, which smote the image upon his feet ^{that were} of iron and clay, and ^g brake them in pieces. Then was the iron, ³⁵ the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became ^h like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that ⁱ no place was found for them; and the stone that smote the image ⁱⁱ became a great mountain, and ⁱ filled the whole earth.

This is the dream; and we will tell ³⁶ the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king, art ^{ka} a king of kings: for ^{lm} the God of heaven ^m hath given thee a kingdom, ⁿ power, and ^o strength, and ⁿ glory. And whereso- ³⁸ ever the children of men dwell, ^o the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them ³⁹ all. ^p Thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall arise ^q another kingdom ^p inferior to thee, and ^r another third kingdom ^p of brass, which shall bear ⁴⁰ rule over all the earth. And ^s the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: ^t forasmuch as iron ^g breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it ^g break in ⁴¹ pieces and bruise. And whereas thou sawest ^u the feet and toes, part of potter's clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but ^s there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, ^t forasmuch as thou sawest ^v the iron ⁴² mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly ⁴³ strong, and partly ⁱ broken. And whereas thou sawest ^v iron mixt with miry clay, ^w they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave ^t one to another, ^v even as iron is ⁴⁴ not mixed with clay. And in ^t the days of these kings shall ^l the God of heaven set up ^{xy} a kingdom, ^y which shall never be destroyed: and the ^t kingdom shall not be left to other people, but ^z it shall ^g break in pieces and ^{zz} consume all these kingdoms, and ^x it shall stand ⁴⁵ for ever. ^t Forasmuch as ^a thou sawest that ^b the stone was cut out of the mountain ⁱ without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; ^c the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass ^t hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

Then the king Nebuchadnezzar ^d fell upon his face, and ^{de} worshipped Daniel, and ^f commanded that they should offer an oblation and ^g sweet odours ⁴⁷ unto him. The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your ^h God is a God of gods, and ⁱ a Lord of kings, and ^{ja} a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this ⁴⁸ secret. Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great ^k gifts, and made him ruler over the whole ^l province of Babylon, and ^m chief of ⁿ the governors over all ^o the wise ⁴⁹ men of Babylon. Then Daniel requested of the king, and he ^p set ^q Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of ^lthe province of Babylon: but Daniel ^rsat in the gate of the king.

Nebuchadnezzar the king made ^aan image of gold, whose height was three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in ^bthe plain of Dura, in ^cthe province of Babylon. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to ^dgather together ^{d^e}the princes, ^{d^f}the governors, and ^{d^g}the captains, ^gthe judges, ^gthe treasurers, ^gthe counsellors, ^gthe sheriffs, and all ^fthe rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ^{g^g}Then ³the princes, the governors and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. Then a herald cried [†]aloud, To you ⁴it is commanded, ^hO people, nations, and languages, that at what time ⁱye hear ^jthe sound of ^kthe cornet, ^lflute, ^{l^m}harp, sackbut, psaltery, [†]dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ⁿye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: and whoso ⁿfalleth not down and wor- ⁶shippeth shall the same hour ^obe cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. ^pTherefore at that time, when ⁷all the people heard ^jthe sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all ^hthe people, the nations, and the languages, ⁿfell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

^pWherefore at that time certain ⁸Chaldeans ^rcame near, and ^saccused the Jews. They spake and said to the ⁹king Nebuchadnezzar, ^tO king, live for ever. Thou, O king, ^uhast made a de- ¹⁰cree, that every man that shall hear ^jthe sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ⁿshall fall down and worship the golden image: and whoso ¹¹falleth not down and worshippeth, that ^ohe should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. thee: they serve not thy gods, nor ⁿworship the golden image which thou hast set up.

^m Isai. 43. 2. Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. He answered and said, Lo, I see four ²⁵ men loose, ^m walking in the midst of the fire, and ⁿ they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like ^o the Son of God. Then Nebuchadnezzar came ²⁶ near to the ^t mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of ^p the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ^q came forth of the midst of the fire. And ^r the princes, ²⁷ ^r governors, and ^r captains, and the king's ^r counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, ^s upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their ^e coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ^t who hath sent ^{ou} his angel, and ^u delivered his servants ^v that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, ^w except their own God. I Nebuchadnezzar was ^{bat} rest in mine ⁴ house, and ⁱ flourishing in my palace: I saw a dream which made me afraid, ⁵ and ^j the thoughts upon my bed, and ^k the visions of my head troubled me. Therefore made I a decree ^m to bring ⁶

But at the last Daniel came in before me, ^p whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and ^q in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I ^t told the dream, ^r saying, ^p O Belteshazzar, ^s master of the magicians, because I know that ^q the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no ^t secret troubleth thee, tell me ^j the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. ¹⁰ Thus were ^j the visions of mine head in my bed; ^t I saw, and behold, ^u a tree in the midst of the earth, and ¹¹ the height thereof was great. ⁱ The tree grew, and was strong, and ^{uv} the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth: ^w the leaves thereof were fair, ^w and the fruit thereof much, ^w and in it was ^x meat for all: ^{wv} the beasts of the field had shadow under it, ^w and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. ¹³ I saw in ^j the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, ^z a watcher and ^a a holy one came down from heaven; ¹⁴ he cried ^t aloud, and said thus, ^b Hew down the tree, and ^c cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: ^c let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches: nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and ^d let seven ^d times ¹⁷ pass over him. This matter is by ^e the decree of ^f the watchers, and ^f the demand by the word of the holy ones: ^g to the intent that ^h the living may know ⁱ that ^j the most High ^k ruleth in the kingdom of men, ⁱ and ^l giveth it to whomsoever he will, and ¹¹ setteth up over it the basest of men. ^a It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom ^b an hundred and twenty ^c princes, which should be over the whole kingdom; and over these ^d three ^e presidents; of whom Daniel ^f was first: that the ^g princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage. Then this Daniel was ^h preferred above ⁱ the presidents and ^j princes, ^k because an excellent spirit ^l was in him; and the king thought ^m to set him over the whole realm.
ⁿ Then ^o the presidents and ^p princes ^q sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor ^r fault; ^s forasmuch as he ^t was faithful, neither was there any ^u error or ^v fault found in him. Then said these men, We shall ^w not find any occasion against this Daniel, ^x except we find ^y it against him concerning the law of his God. Then these ^a presidents and ^b princes ^c assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, ^d King Darius, live for ever. ^e All ^f the presidents of the kingdom, ^g the governors, and the ^h princes, ⁱ the counsellors and ^j the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm ^k decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, ^l save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into ^m the den of lions. Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that ⁿ it be not changed, according to ^o the law of ^p the Medes and Persians, ^q which ^r altereth not. ^s Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

^t Now when Daniel knew that the writing ^u was signed, he went into his house; and ^v his windows being open ^w in his chamber ^x toward Jerusalem, he ^y kneeled upon his knees ^z three times a day, and prayed, and ^{aa} gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.
^{ab} Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. Then they ^{ac} came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask ^{ad} a petition of any God or man within thirty days, ^{ae} save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing ^{af} is true, ^{ag} according to the law of the Medes and Persians, ^{ah} which ^{ai} altereth not. Then answered they and said before the king, ^{aj} That Daniel, ^{ak} which ^{al} is ^{am} of the children of the captivity of Judah, ^{an} regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition ^{ao} three times a day. Then the king, when he heard ^{ap} these words, ^{aq} was sore displeased with himself, and set ^{ar} his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the ^{as} sun to deliver him. Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that ^{at} the law of the Medes and Persians ^{au} is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. Then the king commanded, and they brought ^{av} Daniel, and ^{aw} cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God ^{ax} whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. And ^ma stone was brought, and laid ¹⁷ upon the mouth of the den; and ⁿthe king sealed it ^owith his own signet, and with the signet of his ^plords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

Then the king went to his palace, ¹⁸ and passed the night fasting: ^qneither were ^rinstruments of musick brought before him: and ^rhis sleep went from him. Then the king arose very early ¹⁹ in ^sthe morning, and went ^tin haste unto the den of lions. And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of ^uthe living God, ^vis thy God, ^wwhom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions? Then said Daniel unto the ²¹ king, ^wO king, live for ever. ^xMy ²² God hath sent his angel, and ^yhath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: ^zforasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. Then was the king exceeding ²³ glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and ^ano manner of hurt was found upon him, ^bbecause he believed in his God. And the king commanded, and ^cthey ²⁴ brought those men which had ^daccused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, ^etheir children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

Then king Darius wrote ^funto ²⁵ all people, nations, and languages, ^fthat dwell in all the earth; ^fPeace be multiplied unto you. ^gI make a decree, ²⁶ That in every dominion of my kingdom ^hmen ^htremble and ^hfear before ^hthe God of Daniel: for ^hhe ^{is} ^mthe living God, and stedfast for ever, and ⁿhis kingdom that which shall not be ⁿdestroyed, and his dominion shall be even ^ounto the end. He delivereth and res- ²⁷cueth, and he worketh ^psigns and wonders in heaven and in earth, ^qwho hath delivered Daniel from the ^tpower of the lions. So this Daniel ^rprospered ²⁸ in the reign of Darius, and ^sin the reign of ^tCyrus the Persian.

In the first year of ^aBelshazzar king of Babylon Daniel ^bhad ^ba dream and ^cvisions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum ²of the ^lmatters. Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, ^dthe four winds of the heaven ³strove upon the great sea. And four great beasts ^ecame up from the sea, ⁴^sdiverse one from another. The first was ^glike a lion, and had ^eeagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were pluckt, ^land ^lit was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and ^ja man's heart was ⁵given to it. And behold, ^kanother beast, a second, ^glike to a bear, and ^lit raised up itself on one side, and ^lit had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. ⁶After this I beheld, and lo ^kanother, ^glike a leopard, ⁿwhich had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also ^mfour heads; and dominion was given to it. After this I saw ^oin the night visions, and behold, ^pa fourth beast, ^qdreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and ^qit had great ^riron teeth: ^qit devoured and ^rbrake in pieces, and ^qstamped the residue with the feet of it: and it ^qwas diverse from all the beasts that were ⁸before it; and ^tit had ten horns. I considered the horns, and behold, ^uthere came up among them another little horn, ^ubefore whom there were three of the first horns pluckt up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were ^{uu}eyes like the eyes ^vof man, and ^wa mouth ^xspeaking great things.

⁹ I beheld till ^ythe thrones were cast down, and ^zthe Ancient of days did sit, ^awhose garment was ^bwhite as snow, and ^athe hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like ^cthe fiery flame, and ^dhis wheels as burning fire. ¹⁰ A ^efiery stream issued and came forth from before him: ^fthousand thousands ^gministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand ^gstood before him: ^hthe judgment was set, and ⁱthe books ¹¹were opened. I beheld then because of the voice of ^kthe great words which the horn spake: I beheld even ^ltill the beast was slain, and ^lhis body destroyed, and

As con- ³⁹ cerning the rest of the beasts, ⁴⁰ they had their dominion taken away: yet ⁴¹ their lives were prolonged for a season and time. ⁴² ¶ I saw in the night visions, and ⁴³ behold, ⁴⁴ one like ⁴⁵ the Son of man ⁴⁶ came with the clouds of heaven, and came to ⁴⁷ the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And ⁴⁸ there ⁴⁹ was ⁵⁰ given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, ⁵¹ that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: ⁵² his dominion ⁵³ is an everlasting dominion, ⁵⁴ which shall not pass away, and ⁵⁵ his kingdom ⁵⁶ that which shall not be destroyed.

⁵⁷ I Daniel ⁵⁸ was grieved in my spirit in ⁵⁹ the midst of ⁶⁰ my ⁶¹ body, and ⁶² the visions of my head troubled me. I came near ⁶³ unto ⁶⁴ one of them that stood ⁶⁵ by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

⁶⁶ These great beasts, which ⁶⁷ are four, ⁶⁸ are four kings, ⁶⁹ which shall arise out of the earth. But ⁷⁰ the saints of the ⁷¹ most ⁷² High ⁷³ shall take the kingdom, and ⁷⁴ possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. Then I would know the ⁷⁵ truth of ⁷⁶ the fourth beast, which was diverse ⁷⁷ from all the others, ⁷⁸ exceeding dreadful, ⁷⁹ whose teeth ⁸⁰ were of iron, and his nails of brass; ⁸¹ which ⁸² devoured, ⁸³ brake in pieces, and ⁸⁴ stamped the residue with his feet; and of ⁸⁵ the ten horns ⁸⁶ that ⁸⁷ were in his head, and of ⁸⁸ the other which came up, and ⁸⁹ before whom three fell; even of ⁹⁰ the horn that had eyes, and ⁹¹ a mouth that spake very great ⁹² things, whose look ⁹³ was more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and the same ⁹⁴ horn ⁹⁵ made war with ⁹⁶ the saints, and ⁹⁷ prevailed against them; until ⁹⁸ the An- ⁹⁹ cient of days came, and ¹⁰⁰ judgment ¹⁰¹ was given to ¹⁰² the saints of the most High; and the time came that ¹⁰³ the saints possessed the kingdom. Thus he said, ¹⁰⁴ the fourth beast shall be ¹⁰⁵ the fourth kingdom upon earth, ¹⁰⁶ which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and ¹⁰⁷ shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and ¹⁰⁸ break it in pieces. And ¹⁰⁹ the ten horns out of this kingdom ¹¹⁰ are ten kings ¹¹¹ that shall arise: and ¹¹² another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and ¹¹³ he shall subdue three kings. And ¹¹⁴ he shall speak ¹¹⁵ great words against ¹¹⁶ the most High, and ¹¹⁷ shall wear out ¹¹⁸ the saints of the most

High, and think ¹¹⁹ to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand ¹²⁰ until a time and times and the ¹²¹ dividing of time. But ¹²² the judgment shall sit, and ¹²³ they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy ¹²⁴ it unto the end. And ¹²⁵ the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, ¹²⁶ shall be given to the people of ¹²⁷ the saints of the most High, ¹²⁸ whose kingdom ¹²⁹ is an everlasting kingdom, and all ¹³⁰ dominions shall serve and obey him. Hitherto ¹³¹ is the end of the matter. ¹³² As for me Daniel, ¹³³ my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but ¹³⁴ I kept the matter in my heart.

¹³⁵ In the third year of the reign of king ¹³⁶ Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, ¹³⁷ even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me ¹³⁸ at the first. ¹³⁹ And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I ¹⁴⁰ was at ¹⁴¹ Shushan in ¹⁴² the palace, which ¹⁴³ is in the province of ¹⁴⁴ Elam; and ¹⁴⁵ I saw in a vision, and I was by ¹⁴⁶ the river of ¹⁴⁷ Ulai. ¹⁴⁸ Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before ¹⁴⁹ the river ¹⁵⁰ a ram which had two horns: and the two horns ¹⁵¹ were high; but one ¹⁵² was higher than ¹⁵³ the other, and the higher ¹⁵⁴ came up last. I saw the ram ¹⁵⁵ pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no ¹⁵⁶ beasts ¹⁵⁷ might stand before him, ¹⁵⁸ neither ¹⁵⁹ was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he ¹⁶⁰ did according to his will, and became ¹⁶¹ great. And as I was considering, behold, ¹⁶² a he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and ¹⁶³ touched not the ground; and the goat ¹⁶⁴ had ¹⁶⁵ a notable horn between his eyes. And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before ¹⁶⁶ the river, and ¹⁶⁷ ran unto him in the fury of ¹⁶⁸ his power. And I saw him come close unto the ram, and ¹⁶⁹ he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and ¹⁷⁰ there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down ¹⁷¹ to the ground, and ¹⁷² stamped upon him: and ¹⁷³ there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. Therefore ¹⁷⁴ the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn ¹⁷⁵ was broken; and for it came up ¹⁷⁶ four notable ones ¹⁷⁷ toward ¹⁷⁸ the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came forth *a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, y toward the south, and z toward the east, and toward a the pleasant land. And 10 b it waxed great, even 1c to the host of heaven; and d it cast down some of the host and of the stars e to the ground, and e stamped upon them. Yea, f he magnified himself even 1 to g the prince of the host, and h by him h the daily sacrifice h was taken away, and i the place of his sanctuary k was cast down. And 1a 12 host was given him against i the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and km it cast down n the truth to the ground; and it o practised, and o prospered. Then 15 I heard p one saint speaking, and q another saint said unto 1 that certain saint which spake, r How long shall be the vision concerning i the daily sacrifice, and r the transgression 1 of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and s the host t to be trodden under foot? And he said unto 14 me, u Unto two thousand and three hundred 1 days; u then shall the sanctuary be 1 cleansed.

And it came to pass, when I, even I 15 Daniel, had seen the vision, and v sought for the meaning, then behold, there stood before me w as the appearance of a man. And I heard a man's voice: 16 x between the banks of y Ulai, which called, and said, z Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. So he came near 17 where I stood: and when he came, a I was afraid, and b fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, c O son of man: for at cc the time of the end shall be the vision. Now as he was speaking 18 with me, d I was in a deep sleep de on my face toward the ground: but ee he touched me, and f set me upright. And 19 he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of h the indignation: for at i the time appointed the end shall be. k The ram which thou sawest having two horns are l the kings of m Media and Persia. n And o the rough 21 goat is l the king of p Grecia: and n the great horn that is between his eyes q is 22 the first king. Now r that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, 23 s but not in his power. And in the latter time of their kingdom, t when the transgressors 1 are come to the full, a king u of fierce countenance, and v under- standing dark sentences, shall stand up. 24 And his power shall be mighty, w but not by his own power: and he shall destroy x wonderfully, and y shall prosper, and y practise, and z shall destroy the 25 mighty and z the 1 holy people. And b through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and c he shall magnify himself in his heart, and d by 1 peace e shall destroy many: he shall also stand up e against the Prince of princes; but f he shall be broken g with- 26 out hand. And the vision h of the evening and the morning which was told i is true: wherefore k shut thou up the vision; for l it shall be for many days. And m I Daniel fainted, and was sick n certain days; afterward I rose up, and o did the king's business; and I p was astonished at the vision, but q none understood it.

a In the first year of b Darius the son of c Ahasuerus, of the seed of d the Medes, e which was made king over the 2 realm of e the Chaldeans; in the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to f Jeremiah the prophet, g that he would accomplish seventy years in the desola- 3 tions of Jerusalem. And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek h by prayer and i supplications, h k with fasting, and 4 l sackcloth, and l ashes: and h I m prayed unto the LORD my God, and m made my confession, and said, and from thy judgments: ^sneither have ⁶ we hearkened unto ^tthy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name ^uto our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. score and two weeks: the street †shall be built again, and the †wall, †even †in troublous times. And †after threescore 26 and two weeks †shall †Messiah be cut off, †but not for himself: †and †the people of the prince that shall come †shall destroy the city and †the sanctuary; and †the end thereof shall be †with a flood, and unto †the end of the war †desolations are determined. And he shall 27 confirm †the covenant with †many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, †and †for †the over-spreading of †abominations he shall make it desolate, †even until the consummation, and †that determined †shall be poured †upon †the desolate.

† In the third year of Cyrus †king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, †whose name was called Belteshazzar; and †the thing was true, but †the time appointed †was †long: and †he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. In those days I Daniel 2 was mourning †three †full weeks. I ate 3 no †pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, †neither did I janoint myself at all, till †three whole weeks were fulfilled. And in the four 4 and twentieth day of †the first month, as I was †by the side of the great river, which is †Hiddekel; then †I lift up 5 mine eyes, and looked, and behold, †a certain man †clothed in linen, †whose loins were girded with †fine gold of †U-phaz: his body also was †like the beryl, and 6 †his face †as the appearance of lightning, and †his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and †his feet like in colour to polished brass, and †the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. And †I Daniel alone saw the vision: for 7 †the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide 8 themselves. Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and †there remained no strength in me: for my †comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and †I retained no strength. 9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, †then was I in a deep sleep on my face, 10 and †my face toward the ground. And behold, †a hand touched me, which †set me upon my knees and upon the 11 palms of my hands. And he said unto me, †O Daniel, †a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and †stand upright: for †unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood 12 †trembling. Then said he unto me, †Fear not, Daniel: for †from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and †to chasten thyself before thy God, †thy words were heard, 13 and I am come for thy words. But †the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me †one and twenty days: but 14 lo, †Michael, one of †the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there 15 with the kings of Persia. Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people †in the latter days: for †yet the vision is for †many 16 days. And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set †my face toward the ground, and †I became dumb. And behold, †one †like the similitude of the sons of men †touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and †I have retained no 17 strength. For how can †the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there 18 breath left in me. Then there came again and †touched me †one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened 19 me, and said, †O man greatly beloved, †fear not: peace be unto thee, †be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with †the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo,

And the king of the south shall be ⁵ strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. And in the end of years ⁶ they ^f shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make ^f an agreement: but she ⁱ shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and ^k they that brought her, and ^l he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times. But out of a branch of her ⁷ roots shall one stand up ⁱⁿ his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into ^o the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: and shall also ⁸ carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their ⁱ princes, and with ^f their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north. So the king ⁹ of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land. But his sons ^m shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and ⁿ overflow, ⁿ and pass through: ⁱ then shall he return, and be stirred up, ^o even to his fortress. And the king of ¹¹ the south ^p shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and ^q he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given ¹² into his hand. And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall ¹³ not be strengthened by it. For the king of the north shall return, and ^q shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come ⁱ after certain years with a great army ¹⁴ and with much riches. THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, ^ain the days

of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah,
kings of Judah, and in the days of ^bJero-boam the son of Joash, king of Israel.
The beginning of the word of the LORD ²
by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, ^cGo, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and ^dchildren of whoredoms: for ^ethe land hath committed great whore-dom, departing ^ffrom the LORD. So he ³ went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him
a son. And the LORD said unto him, ⁴ Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and ^gI will ^havenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and ⁱwill cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel. And it shall come to ⁵ pass at that day, that ^jI will break the bow of Israel in ^kthe valley of Jezreel.
And she conceived again, and bare a ⁶ daughter. And ^lGod said unto him, Call her name ^mLo-ruhamah: for ⁿI will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; ^obut I will utterly take them away.
But ^pI will have mercy upon the house ⁷
of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and ^qwill not save them
by bow, nor by sword, ^rnor by battle, ^snor by horses, nor by horsemen. Now ⁸
when she had ^tweaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son. Then said ⁹ ^uGod, Call his name ^vLo-ammi: ^wfor ye are not my people, and I will not be your God. Yet ^xthe number of the chil- ¹⁰
dren of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; ^yand it shall come to pass, ^zthat ^{aa}in the place where it was said unto them, ^{ab}Ye are not my people, ^{ac}there it shall be said unto them, ^{ad}Ye are ^{ae}the sons of ^{af}the living God. ^{ag}Then shall the children ¹¹

of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and ^{ah}appoint themselves ^{ai}one head, and ^{aj}they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of ^{ak}Jezreel.

^{al}Say ye unto your brethren, ^{am}Ammi;
And to your sisters, ^{an}Ruhamah.

^{ao}Plead with your mother, plead:

For ^{ap}she is not my wife, neither am I
her husband:

Let her therefore put away ^{aq}her whore-
doms out of her sight,
And her adulteries ^{ar}from between her breasts;

^{as}Lest ^{at}I strip her naked, and set her as ^{au}in the day that she was born,

And make her ^{av}as a wilderness, and
set her ^{aw}like a dry land,
And slay her ^{ax}with thirst.

^{ay}And ^{az}I will not have mercy upon her children;

For they be the ^{ba}children of whoredoms.

^{bb}For their mother ^{bc}hath played the
harlot:

^{bd}She that conceived them hath done
shamefully:

For she said, ^{be}I will go after my lovers,

^{bf}That give me my bread and my water,

^{bg}My wool and my flax, mine oil and
my ^{bh}drink.

^{bi}Therefore behold, ^{bj}I will ^{bk}hedge up thy way with thorns,

And ^{bl}make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

^{bm}And she shall follow after ^{bn}her lovers, but she shall not overtake
them;

And she shall seek them, but shall
not find them:

Then shall she say, ^{bo}I will go and return to my ^{bp}first husband;

^{bq}For then was it better with me than now.

^a Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel:

For ^{aa} the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land,

Because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor ^bknowledge of God in the land.

^c By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out,

And [†]blood toucheth blood.

Therefore ^dshall the land mourn, And ^{de}every one that dwelleth therein

^fshall languish, ^{egh}With the beasts of the field, and ^{eh}with the fowls of heaven;

Yea, ^{eh}the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

Yet ⁱlet not man strive, nor reprove ^janother:

For ^kthy people are as ^lthey that strive with the priest.

Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, And the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night,

And I will [†]destroy ^mthy mother. My people are [†]destroyed ⁿfor lack of knowledge, Because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that ^othou shalt be no priest to me: Seeing ^pthou hast forgotten the law of thy God,

I will also forget thy children. ^qAs they were increased, so they sinned against me:

^r Therefore will I change their glory into shame. They ^seat up the sin of my people,

And they [†]set their heart on their iniquity.

^u And there shall be, ^ulike people, like ^vpriest:

And ^vI will [†]punish them for their ways, And ^vreward them their doings.

For ^wthey shall eat, and not have ^xenough:

They shall commit whoredom, and shall not ^xincrease:

Because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

^a Hear ye this, O priests; And hearken, ye house of Israel;

And give ye ear, O house of the king; For judgment is toward you,

¹³ ^gThey sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, And burn incense upon the hills,

Under ^hoaks and ⁱpoplars and ^kelms, Because the shadow thereof is good:

Therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom,

And ^lyour spouses shall commit adultery.

¹⁴ [†]I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom,

Nor your spouses when they commit adultery:

For themselves ^mare separated with whores,

And they sacrifice with harlots: Therefore ⁿthe people that doth not understand shall [†]fall.

¹⁵ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, Yet let not Judah ⁿⁿoffend;

And come not ye unto ^{op}Gilgal, Neither go ye up to ^pBeth-aven, eth unto me.

 Ephraim, ^she hath mixed himself ⁸
 among the people;
 Ephraim is a cake not turned.

⁹ Strangers have devoured his strength, ^uand he knoweth it not:
 Yea, gray hairs are ^there and there
 upon him, ^vyet he knoweth not.
¹⁰ And ^vthe pride of Israel testifieth to his face:
 And ^wthey do not return to the LORD
 their God, nor seek him for all this.
¹¹ ^xEphraim also is like a ^ysilly dove,
 without heart:
^{xz}a' They call to Egypt, ^{ab}they go to Assyria.
¹² When they shall go, ^cI will spread my
 net upon them;
 I will bring them down as the fowls
 of the heaven;
^dI will chastise them, ^eas their congregation hath heard.
¹³ Woe unto them! for they have fled
 from me:
^{††}Destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me:
 Though [§]I have redeemed them, yet
 they have ^bspoken lies against me.
¹⁴ And [†]they have not cried unto me
 with their heart,
 When they howled ^jupon their beds:
 They assemble themselves for corn
 and ^kwine,
 And they rebel against me.
¹⁵ Though I ^{||}have bound and ^lstrength-
 ened their arms,
 Yet do they imagine mischief against me.
¹⁶ They return, but not to ^mthe most High:
 They are ⁿlike a deceitful bow:
 Their princes shall fall by the sword
^ofor the rage of their tongue:
 This shall be their derision ^pin the land
 of Egypt.

VIII.

Set ^athe trumpet to ^tthy mouth.
He shall come ^bas an eagle against the house of the LORD, Because ^cthey have transgressed my covenant,
 And trespassed against my law.
² Israel shall cry unto me, ^dMy God,
 we know thee.
³ Israel ^jhath cast off the thing that is good:
 The enemy shall pursue him.
⁴ ^eThey have set up kings, ^fbut not by me:
 They have made princes, and I knew
it not:
 Of [§]their silver and their gold have they made them idols,
 That they may be cut off.

 For from Israel was it also:
 The workman made it; therefore it is not God:
 But ^hthe calf of ⁱSamaria ^lshall be broken in pieces.
 For ^mthey have sown the wind, and ⁿthey shall reap the whirlwind:
 It hath no ^ostalk: the bud shall yield no meal:
 If so be it yield, ^pthe strangers shall swallow it up.
^oIsrael is swallowed up:
 Now shall they be among the Gentiles as ^pa vessel wherein is no pleasure.

^wI have written to him ^wthe great things of my law,
 But they were counted as a strange thing.
^yThey sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it;

Though they bring up their children, ¹²
 Yet will I bereave them, that there
shall not be a man left:
 Yea, ¹woe also to them ^mwhen I depart from them!
 Ephraim, as I saw ⁿTyrus, is planted ¹³
 in a pleasant place:
 But Ephraim ^kshall bring forth his children to the murderer.
 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou ¹⁴
 give?
 Give them ^oa ^tmiscarrying womb and ^odry breasts.
 All their wickedness is ^pin Gilgal, for ¹⁵
 there I hated them:
 For the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house,
 I will love them no more:
 All ^qtheir princes are ^rrevolvers.
 Ephraim is smitten, ^jtheir root is ¹⁶
 dried up, they shall bear no fruit:
 Yea, ^kthough they bring forth, yet will I slay even ^tthe beloved fruit of their womb.
 My God will cast them away, because ¹⁷
 they did not hearken unto him:
 And ^tthey shall be wanderers among the nations.

Israel is ¹an empty vine, he bringeth
 forth fruit ^aunto himself:
 According to the multitude of his fruit
^bhe hath increased the altars;
 According to the goodness of his land
^cthey have made goodly ^timages.
 † Their heart is divided; now shall they ²
 be ^dfound faulty:
 He shall ^tbreak down their altars, he shall spoil their ^timages.
 For now they shall say, ^eWe have no ³
 king,
 Because we feared not the LORD;
 What then should a king do to us?
 They have spoken words, swearing ⁴
 falsely in making a covenant:
 Thus ^fjudgment springeth up as ^ghem-
 lock ^hin the furrows of the field.
 The inhabitants of ⁱSamaria ^jshall fear ⁵
 because of ^kthe calves of ¹Beth-
 aven:
 For the people thereof shall mourn
 over it,
 And ¹the priests thereof that rejoiced
 on it,
 For ^mthe glory thereof, because ^mit
 is departed from it.

⁶ ⁿIt shall be also carried unto Assyria
for a present to ^oking Jareb:
 Ephraim shall receive shame,
 And Israel ^jshall be ashamed of ^pthis
 own counsel.
⁷ As for ⁱSamaria, ^eher king is ^qcut off
 As ^tthe foam upon ^tthe water.
⁸ The high places also of ¹Aven, ^sthe sin of Israel, shall be destroy-
 ed:
 † The thorn and ^tthe thistle shall come
 up on their altars;
 And ^tthey shall say to the mountains, Cover us;
 And to the hills, Fall on us.
⁹ O Israel, thou hast sinned ^vfrom the days of Gibeah: there they stood:
^wThe battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake
 them.
¹⁰ ^x*It is* in my desire that I should chas-
 tise them;
 And ^ythe people shall be gathered
 against them,
 † When they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.
¹¹ And Ephraim is as ^za heifer that is taught, and loveth ^ato tread out the corn;
 But ^zI passed over upon ^ther fair
 neck:
 I will make Ephraim to ride;
 Judah shall plow,
 And Jacob shall ^ebreak his clods.
¹² ^dSow to yourselves in righteousness,
^dReap ^ein mercy;
 † Break up your ^gfallow ground:
 For it is time to seek the LORD,
 Till he come and ^hrain righteousness
 upon you.
¹³ ⁱYe have plowed wickedness, ^{di}ye have reaped iniquity;
 Ye have eaten the fruit of lies:
 Because thou didst trust in thy way,
 In the multitude of thy mighty
 men.
¹⁴ Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people,
 And ^jall thy fortresses ^kshall be spoiled,
 As ¹Shalman ^kspoiled ^mBeth-arbel in
 the day of battle:
ⁿThe mother was dashed in pieces
 upon her children.
¹⁵ So shall ^oBeth-el do unto you because of ^tyour great wickedness;

 utterly be cut off.

And ^eJacob fled into the country of ^lSyria,
And Israel ^fserved for a wife, and for a wife he ⁱkept sheep.
And ^gby a prophet ^hthe LORD brought ^lIsrael out of Egypt,
And ^gby a prophet was he ⁱpreserved.
Ephraim ^kprovoked him to anger ^lmost bitterly:
Therefore ^lshall he leave his ^lblood upon him,
And ^mhis reproach shall his Lord ⁿreturn unto him.

When Ephraim spake trembling, he ^aexalted himself in Israel;
But when he ^boffended ^cin Baal, he died.
And now ^tthey sin more and more, ²And ^dhave made them molten images of their silver,
And idols according to their own understanding,
^eAll of it the work of the craftsmen:
They say of them, Let ^lthe men that sacrifice ^fkiss the calves.
Therefore they shall be ^{ff}as the morning cloud,
^{ff}And as the early dew that passeth away,
^gAs the chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor,
And ^has the smoke out of ⁱthe chimney.
Yet ^{kl}I am the LORD thy God from ⁴the land of Egypt,
And thou shalt know no god but me:
For ^{km}there is no saviour ⁿbeside me.
^oI did know thee in the wilderness,
^pIn the land of ^tgreat drought.
^{qr}According to their pasture, so were ⁶they filled;
^qThey were filled, and their heart was exalted;
Therefore ^{qr}have they forgotten me.
Therefore ^sI will be unto them as a ⁷lion:
As ^ta leopard by the way will I ^uobserve them:
I will meet them as ^va bear that is bereaved of her whelps,
And will rent the caul of their heart,
And there will I devour them like a lion:
^tThe wild beast shall tear them.

9 O Israel, ^w*thou* hast destroyed thyself; but ^xin me ^tis thine help.
10 ^lI will be thy king: ^xwhere is any other that may save thee in all thy cities?
And thy judges of whom ^zthou saidst, Give me a king and princes?
11 ^aI gave thee a king in mine anger, And ^btook him away in my wrath.
12 The iniquity of Ephraim is ^cbound up; his sin is hid.
13 ^dThe sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him:
He is an unwise son;
For he should not ^estay ^tlong in the place of ^tthe breaking forth of children.
14 I ^gwill ransom them from ^hthe power of the grave;
^hI will redeem them from death:
^jO death, I will be thy plagues;
O grave, I will be thy ^kdestruction:
^lRepentance shall be hid from mine eyes.
15 Though ^mhe be fruitful among his brethren,
ⁿAn east wind shall come, ^othe wind of the LORD shall come up ^pfrom the wilderness,
And his ^qspring ^rshall become dry, and his ^sfountain shall be dried up:
He shall spoil the treasure of all ^tpleasant vessels.
16 ^{ss}Samaria ^tshall become desolate;

THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.
a Hear this, b ye old men,
And give ear, b all ye inhabitants of the land.
bb Hath this been in your days,
Or even in the days of your fathers?
c Tell ye your children of it,
And let your children tell their children,
And their children another generation.
d That which d the palmerworm hath left hath e the locust eaten;
And that which e the locust hath left hath f the cankerworm eaten;
And that which f the cankerworm hath left hath g the caterpillar eaten.
Awake, ye drunkards, and weep;
And h howl, all ye drinkers of wine,
Because of i the new wine, k for it is cut off from your mouth.
For l a nation is come up upon my land,
l Strong, and without number,
m Whose teeth are the teeth of a lion,
And he hath n the cheek-teeth of a o great lion.
He hath laid my vine waste,
And p barked my fig tree:
He hath made it clean bare, and cast it away;
q The branches thereof are made white.
Lament like a virgin r girded with s sackcloth for t the husband of her youth.
u The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD;
v The priests, w the LORD's ministers, mourn.
The field is wasted, x the land mourn-eth;
For y the corn is wasted, z the new wine is y dried up, w the oil y languisheth.

z Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; a howl, O ye vinedressers,
For the wheat and for the barley;
Because the harvest of the field is perished.
12 The vine is y dried up, and p the fig tree languisheth;
The pomegranate tree, a the palm tree also, and b the apple tree,
Even all the trees of the field, are withered:
Because c joy is y withered away from the sons of men.
13 de Gird yourselves, and d lament, ye priests:
d Howl, ye ministers of the altar:
Come, lie all night e in sackcloth, f ye ministers of my God;
For f the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.
14 g Sanctify ye a fast, g call a h solemn assembly,
g Gather h the elders and h all the inhabitants of the land
Into the house of the LORD your God,
And cry unto the LORD,
15 Alas for the day! i for the day of the LORD is at hand,
And as a j destruction from k the Almighty shall it come.
16 l Is not the meat cut off before our eyes,
Yea, l joy and gladness f from the house of our God?
17 m The t seed is rotten under their clods,
The garners are laid desolate, m the barns are broken down;
For the corn is y withered.
18 n How do the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle n are perplexed,
Because they have no pasture;
Yea, the flocks of sheep o are made desolate.
19 O LORD, p to thee will I cry:
For q the fire hath devoured r the s pastures of the wilderness,
And s the flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.

before them,

And ^{kk}behind them ^{la}a desolate wilder-
ness;

Yea, and ^lnothing shall escape them.

^mThe appearance of them is as the ⁴
appearance of horses;

And as horsemen, so shall they run.

ⁿLike the noise of chariots on the tops ⁵
of mountains shall they ^{na}leap,

Like the noise of a flame of ^ofire that
devoureth the stubble,

^hAs a strong people set in battle array.
Before their face the people shall be ⁶
much pained:

^pAll faces ^qshall gather ^tblackness.

They shall run like mighty men; they ⁷ shall climb the wall like men of war;

And they shall march every one on
his ways,

And they shall not break their ranks:
Neither shall one ^rthrust another; ⁸

They shall walk every one in his path:
And when they fall upon the ^ssword,

they shall not ^sbe wounded.

^tThey shall ^urun to and fro in the ⁹
city;

They shall ^urun upon the wall,

They shall climb up upon the houses;
^vThey shall enter in at the windows
^vlike a thief.

^wThe earth shall quake before them;

^wThe heavens shall tremble:

^xThe sun and the moon shall be dark,

^xAnd the stars shall withdraw their shining:

¹¹ And ^{xx}the LORD shall utter his voice
before ^yhis army:

For ^hhis ^zcamp is very great:

^aFor he is strong that executeth his word:

For ^bthe day of the LORD is great
and very ^cterrible;

And ^dwho can abide it?

¹² Therefore also now, saith the LORD,

^cTurn ye even to me with all your heart,

And ^fwith fasting, and with weeping,
and with mourning:

¹³ And ^grent your heart, and not ^hyour
garments,

And ^eturn unto the LORD your God:
For ^{ij}he is gracious and ^{ij}merciful,

^{ij}Slow to anger, and ^{ij}of great kind-
ness,

And ⁱrepenteth him of the evil.

¹⁴ ^lWho knoweth if he will return and repent,

And leave ^{ma}a blessing behind him;

Even ^{na}a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

¹⁵ ^oBlow the trumpet in Zion,

^pSanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

¹⁶ Gather the people, ^qsanctify the congregation, assemble the elders,

^rGather the children, and those that suck the breasts:

^sLet the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her

^tcloset.

¹⁷ Let ^uthe priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep ^vbetween ^wthe porch

and ^xthe altar,

And let them say, ^ySpare thy people,
O LORD,

And givenot thine heritage to reproach,
That the heathen should ^zrule over

them:

^zWherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

¹⁸ Then will the LORD ^abe jealous for his land,

And ^bpity his people.

Yea, the LORD will answer and say ¹⁹ 28
unto his people,
Behold, I will send you ^{cd} corn, and ^c wine, and ^c oil,
And ye shall be satisfied therewith:
And I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:
But ^{dd} I will remove far off from you ²⁰
^e the northern army,
And will drive him into a land barren
and desolate,
With his face toward ^f the east sea,
And his hinder part towards ^g the ut-

For the LORD ^j will do great things.
^k Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: ²²
For ^k the pastures of the wilderness do spring,
For ^l the tree beareth her fruit,
^l The fig tree and the vine do yield

^gThe LORD will roar from Zion,
^hAnd utter his voice from Jerusalem;
And ^bthe habitations of the shepherds shall mourn,
And ⁱthe top of ^jkCarmel shall wither.

Thus saith the LORD;
1 For three transgressions of ^mDamascus,
2 ^lAnd for four, I will not ⁱturn away the punishment thereof;
3 ⁿBecause they have threshed ^pGilead with ^qthreshing instruments of iron:
4 ^rBut I will send a fire into the house of ^sHazeel,
5 ^rWhich shall devour the palaces of ^sBen-hadad.
I will break also ^tthe bar of ^mDamascus,
And cut off the inhabitant from ^uthe plain of ^uAven,
And ^vhim that holdeth the sceptre from ^vthe house of ^vEden:
And ^xthe people of Syria shall go into captivity ^xunto ^yKir, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD;
6 ^lFor three transgressions of ^zGaza,
7 ^lAnd for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof;
8 ^bBecause they ⁱcarried away captive the whole captivity,
9 ^cTo deliver them up ^dto Edom:

OBADIAH.

THE vision of Obadiah.

Thus saith the Lord God ^a concerning Edom ;

^{bc} We have heard a rumour from the LORD,

And an ambassador is sent among the heathen,

Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

^c Behold, I have made thee small ^a among the heathen :

Thou art greatly despised.

^c The pride of thine heart hath ^m deceived thee,

Thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose ^d habitation is high ;

^e That saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground ?

^{ce} Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle,

And ^{efg} though thou set thy nest among the stars,

^g Thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

^h If thieves came to thee, if robbers ⁵ by night, (how art thou ⁱ cut off !)

Would they not have stolen till they had enough ?

^h If the grape-gatherers came to thee, ^k Would they not leave ^l some grapes ?

^l How are the things of Esau searched ⁶ out !

How are his hid things sought up !

All the men of thy confederacy have ⁷ brought thee even to the border :

^t The men that were at peace with thee have ^m deceived thee, and prevailed against thee ;

^{tu} They that eat thy bread have laid ^o a wound under thee :

^p There is none understanding ⁱⁿ him.

^q Shall I not ^r in that day, saith the LORD,

Even destroy ^p the wise men out of Edom,

And ^p understanding out of ^s the mount of Esau ?

⁹ And ^t thy mighty men, O ^{pu} Teman, shall be dismayed,

To the end that every one of ^s the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

¹⁰ ^v For thy ^w violence against ^x thy brother Jacob shame ^w shall cover thee,

And ^y thou shalt be cut off for ever.

¹¹ ^v In the day that thou stoodest on the other side,

In the day that the strangers ^l carried away captive his forces,

And foreigners entered into his gates, And ^a cast lots upon Jerusalem,

Even thou wast as one of them.

¹² But ^l thou shouldest not have ^h looked on ^c the day of thy brother in the day ^d that he became a stranger ;

Neither shouldest thou have ^e rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction ;

Neither shouldest thou have ^t spoken proudly in the day of distress.

¹³ Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people ^f in the day of their calamity :

Yea, thou shouldest not have ^h looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity,

^g Nor have ^h laid hands on their ^l substance in the day of their calamity ;

¹⁴ Neither shouldest thou have stood in ⁱ the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape ;

Neither shouldest thou have ^l delivered up ^k those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

¹⁵ ^{lm} For the day of the LORD is near ^m upon all the heathen :

ⁿ As thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee ;

^o Thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

And they said every one to his fellow,
Come, and let us cast lots, that we may

us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause
this evil is upon us; What is thine occu-

of the LORD, because he had told them.
Then said they unto him, What shall we 13 tempest is upon you. Nevertheless the men [†]rowed hard to bring it to the land;

but they could not: for the sea ^{††}wrought,

14 Wherefore they cried unto ^zthe LORD,
and said, We beseech thee, O LORD,
we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and ^alay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, ^bhast

Jonah the second time, saying, Arise, ² go unto ^aNineveh, ^{that} great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto ³ Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now ^aNineveh was an ^texceeding great city of three days' journey. And Jonah began to enter into the city ⁴ a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and ^bNineveh ^{shall be} overthrown. So ^cthe people of Nineveh believed God, and ^dproclaimed a fast, and ^eput on sackcloth, ^ffrom the greatest of them even to the least of them. For word came unto the king ⁶ of Nineveh, and ^ghe arose from his throne, and he laid ^hhis robe from him, and ^{ei}covered ^{him} with sackcloth, and ⁱsat in ashes. And he ^kcaused ^{it} to ⁷ be proclaimed and ^tpublished through Nineveh by ^lthe decree of the king and his ^{nobles}, saying, Let neither man nor ^mbeast. herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: but let man and beast ^ebe covered with ⁸ sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, ⁿlet them turn every one from his evil way, and from ^othe violence that is ⁹ in their hands. ^pWho can tell ^{if} God will turn ^qand repent, and ^rturn away from his fierce anger, that we perish ¹⁰ not? And God saw their works, that ⁿthey turned from their evil way; and ^sGod repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did ^{it} not.

But ^ait displeased Jonah exceedingly, ² and ^bhe was very angry. And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, ^{was} not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore ^cI fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou ^{art} ^da gracious God, and ^{de}merciful, ^dslow to anger, and of great kindness, ^dand repentest thee of the ³ evil. Therefore now, ^fO LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for ^{git is} ⁴ better for me to die than to live. Then said the LORD, ¹¹Doest thou well to be ⁵ angry? So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him ^ha booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

And the ¹LORD God ^jprepared a ¹¹gourd, and made ^{it} to come up over Jonah, that ^{it} might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his ^agrief. So Jonah ^twas exceeding glad of the gourd. ⁷ But God ^jprepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote ⁸ the gourd, that it withered. And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God ^jprepared a ¹¹vehement ^keast wind; and the sun ^{beat} upon the head of Jonah, that ^mhe fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, ^gIt is better ⁹ for me to die than to live. And God said to Jonah, ¹¹Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, ⁱI do well to be angry, ^{even} unto death.

Then said the LORD, Thou hast ¹¹had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which ^tcame up in a night, and ¹¹perished in a night: and should not I spare ^oNineveh, ^{that} great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons ^pthat cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; ^qand ^{also} much cattle?

†MICAH.

I. THE word of the LORD that came to a Micah b the Morasthite c in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah,
 kings of Judah, which he saw d concerning e Samaria and Jerusalem.
 1 f Hear, all ye people ;
 2 g Harken, O earth, and h all that therein is :
 And i let the Lord GOD be witness against you,
 i The Lord from k his holy temple.
 1 For behold, the LORD cometh forth 3
 out of l m his place,
 And will come down and n o tread
 u upon the high places of the earth.
 And p the mountains shall be molten 4
 under him,
 And the valleys shall be cleft,
 q As wax before the fire,
 And as the waters that are r poured down s a steep place.
 For t the transgression of Jacob is all 5
 this,
 And for u the sins of the house of Israel.
 What is the transgression of Jacob?
 is it not v Samaria?
 And what are w the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?
 Therefore I will make e Samaria x as 6
 a heap of the field,
 And as plantings of a vineyard :
 And I will r pour down the stones
 thereof u into the valley,
 And v I will discover the foundations
 thereof.
 And all the graven images thereof 7
 w shall be beaten to pieces,
 And all x the hires thereof shall be burnt with the fire,
 And all the idols thereof will I lay
 desolate :
 For she gathered it y of the hire of
 a harlot,
 And they shall return to the hire of a
 harlot.

* Hos. 9. 1 (Heb.). So Hos. 2. 12. See Hos. 2. 5.

8 y Therefore I will z wail and howl,
 I will go a stript and b naked :
 I will make a wailing like c d the dragons,
 And mourning as e e the f owls.
 9 For f her wound is incurable ;
 For it is come unto Judah ;
 g He is come unto the gate of my people, h en to Jerusalem.
 10 h Declare ye i it not at j Gath, weep ye not at all :
 In the house of k Aphrah l roll thyself in the dust.
 11 Pass ye away. m thou n inhabitant of Saphir, o having thy shame naked :
 The inhabitant of p Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of q Beth-ezel ;
 He shall receive of you his standing.
 12 For the inhabitant of r Maroth s waited carefully for good :
 But t evil came down from the LORD
 unto the gate of Jerusalem.
 13 O thou u inhabitant of v Lachish, bind
 the chariot to w the swift beast :
 She is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion :
 For x the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.
 14 Therefore shalt thou give y presents
 z to w Moreseth-gath :
 The houses of x Achzib shall be a lie
 to the kings of Israel.
 15 xx Yet will I bring an heir unto thee,
 O y inhabitant of z Mareshah :
 He shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel.
 16 z Make thee bald, and a poll thee for
 b thy delicate children :
 z Enlarge thy baldness c as the eagle ;
 For d they are gone into captivity
 from thee.

Woe to them ^athat devise iniquity,
and work evil ^aupon their beds!
When the morning is light, they practise it,
Because ^bit is in the power of their hand.
And they covet ^cfields, and take them ²
by violence;
And ^chouses, and take them away:
So they ^loppress a man and his house,
Even a man and his heritage.
Therefore thus saith the LORD;
Behold, against ^dthis family ^edo I devise an evil,
From which ye shall not remove your necks;
Neither shall ye go haughtily:
g For this time is evil.

In that day shall one ^htake up ⁱa
parable against you,
And lament [†]with a doleful lamentation,
And say, We be utterly spoiled:
k He hath changed the portion of my
people:
k How hath he removed it from me!
† Turning away he hath divided our fields.
Therefore thou shalt have none that ⁵
shall ^mcast a cord ⁿby lot
In the congregation of the LORD.
† ^{to} Prophecy ye not, say they to them ⁶
that prophecy:
p They shall not prophesy to them,
that they shall not take shame.
O thou that art named the house of ⁷
Jacob,
Is the spirit of the LORD [†]straitened?
q Are these his doings?
Do not my words do good to him
that walketh [†]uprightly?
s Even [†]of late my people is risen up ⁸
as an enemy:
Ye pull off [†]the robe [†]with the garment
s From them that pass by securely
as men averse from war.
s The [†]women of my people have ye ⁹
cast out from their ⁿpleasant houses;
s From their children have ye taken away ^vmy glory for ever.
Arise ye, and depart; for this is not ¹⁰
^w*your* rest:
Because ^xit is polluted, it shall ^ydestroy you, even with a ^zsore destruction.

11 If a man [†]walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, ^csaying,
I will ^dprophecy unto thee of wine
and of strong drink;
e He shall even be ^dthe prophet of this people.
12 f I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all
of thee;
f I will surely ^ggather ^hthe remnant
of Israel;
I will put them together as the sheep
of ⁱBozrah,
As ^gthe flock in the midst of ^jtheir
fold:
k They shall [†]make great noise by reason of the multitude of ^kmen.
13 m The breaker is come up before
them:
They have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone
out by it:
And ⁿtheir king shall pass before
them,
And ^othe LORD on the head of them.

And I said, ^aHear, I pray you, O
heads of Jacob,

a And ye ^bprinces of the house of Israel;

c Is it not for you ^dto know judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil;

e Who pluck off their skin from off
them,

And their flesh from off their bones;

3 e Who also ^feat the flesh of my
people,

And flay their skin from off them;

And ^gthey break their bones,

And ^hchop them in pieces, as for the pot.

And ⁱas flesh within ^kthe caldron.

4 l Then shall they cry unto the LORD,
but he will not hear them:

m He will even hide his face from them at that time,

As they have behaved themselves ill
in their doings.

5 Thus saith the LORD concerning ⁿthe prophets that make my people err,

p That bite with their teeth, and ^qcry,
Peace;

And ^rhe that putteth not into their mouths,

They even ^sprepare war against him.

^p They shall seem like torches,

^p They shall stumble in their walk ;

They shall make haste to the wall
thereof,

And the ⁱ defence shall be prepared.

lion, walked,

And ^{ln} the lion's whelp, and ^o none
made them afraid ?

^{lp} The lion did tear in pieces enough
^q for his whelps,

And strangled for his ^r lionesses,
And ^p filled his holes ^s with prey,

And his dens with ravin.

¹⁵ Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts,

And ^u I will burn her chariots in the smoke,

And the sword shall devour ^l thy
young lions :

And I will cut off ^s thy prey from the
earth,

And the voice of ^v thy messengers
shall no more be heard.

Woe to the ^{ta} bloody city !

It is all full of lies and robbery ;

^b The prey departeth not ;

² The noise of a whip, and ^c the noise
of the rattling of the wheels,

And of the ^d prancing horses, and of the ^e jumping chariots.

³ The horseman lifteth up both ^t the bright sword and ^f the glittering

spear :

And ^g there is a multitude of slain,
and a great number of carcasses ;

And there is none end of their corpses ; they stumble upon their corpses :

⁴ Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured

harlot,

ⁱ The ^k mistress of ^l witchcrafts,
That selleth nations through ^h her

whoredoms,
And families through her ^l witch-

crafts.

⁵ Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts ;

And ⁿ I will discover thy skirts upon
thy face,

And ^{no} I will shew the nations thy nakedness,

And the kingdoms ^{op} thy shame.

⁶ And ^{pp} I will cast abominable filth
upon thee, and ^q make thee vile,
And will set thee as ^{ra} a gazing-stock,

^a THE burden which Habakkuk
the prophet did see.
O LORD, ^b how long shall I ^c cry, and ²
thou wilt not hear?
Even ^{cd} cry out unto thee of ^{de} violence,
and thou wilt not save?
Why dost thou shew me ^f iniquity, ³
and cause me to behold ^f grievance?
For ^g spoiling and ^e violence are before me:
And there ^{are} that raise up ^f strife and contention.
Therefore the law ^h is slacked, and ⁴
judgment doth never go forth:
For ⁱ the wicked doth ^k compass about
the righteous;
Therefore ^l wrong judgment proceed-
eth.
¹ Behold ye among the heathen, and ⁵
regard, and ^m wonder marvellously:
For I will work a work in your
days,
Which ye will not believe,
though it be told you.
For lo, ⁿ I raise up ^o the Chaldeans, ⁶
that bitter and ^p hasty nation, ^{pp} Which shall march through the [†] breadth of the land,
^{pp} To possess the dwelling places
^q that are not theirs.
They ^{are} ^{qq} terrible and dreadful: ⁷
[†] Their judgment and their ^r dignity
shall proceed of themselves.
^s Their horses also are swifter than ⁸
^t the leopards,
And are more [†] fierce than ^u the evening wolves:
And their horsemen shall ^v spread themselves,
And their horsemen shall come ^w from far;
^x They shall fly as ^s the eagle ^y that
hasteth to eat.

^w See Isai. 5. 26.

^x See Deut. 28. 49.

^y So

⁹ They shall come all for violence:
^{††} Their faces shall sup up as the east
wind,
And they shall gather ^a the captivity
^b as the sand.
¹⁰ And they shall scoff at the kings,
And the princes shall be a scorn unto
them:
^c They shall deride every strong hold;
For ^d they shall heap dust, and take it.
¹¹ Then shall ^e his mind change, and he shall pass over, and ^f offend, ^g Imputing this his power unto his
god.
¹² ^h Art thou not from everlasting,
O LORD my God, mine Holy One?
ⁱ we shall not die.
O LORD, ^k thou hast ordained them
for judgment;
And, O [†] mighty God, ^k thou hast
[†] established them for correction.
¹³ Thou art of purer eyes than to ^l behold evil,
And canst not look on [†] iniquity:
^m Wherefore lookest thou upon them
^{mn} that deal treacherously,
And ^o holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth ^p the man that is more righteous than he?
¹⁴ And makest men as ^{pp} the fishes of
the sea,
As ^q the [†] creeping things, that have no ruler over them?
¹⁵ ^r They take up all of them with ^s the angle,
They catch them in their ^t net, and
gather them in their ^u drag:
Therefore they rejoice and are glad.
¹⁶ ^v Therefore they sacrifice unto their ^t net, and ^v burn incense unto their ^u drag;
Because by them their portion is fat,
and their meat ^{††} plenteous.

Woe unto him that saith to the wood, ¹⁹
 Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise,
 it shall teach!
 Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver,
 And ^d there is no breath at all in the midst of it.
 But ^e the LORD is in his holy temple: ²⁰
^f Let ^g all the earth keep silence before him.

^a A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.
 O LORD, I have heard ^b thy speech, ²
 and ^c was afraid:
 O LORD, ^d revive ^e thy work in the midst of the years,
 In the midst of the years make known;
^f In wrath remember mercy.

God came from ^g Teman,
 And ^h the Holy One from mount Pa-
 ran. Selah.

His glory covered the heavens,
 And the earth was full of his praise.
 And ⁱ his brightness was as the ⁴
 light;

He had ^j horns coming out of his hand:
 And ^k there was the hiding of his power.

^k Before him went the pestilence,
 And ^l ^k burning coals went forth ^m at his feet.

He stood, and measured the earth: ⁶
 He beheld, and ⁿ drove asunder the
 nations;

And ^o the everlasting ^p mountains were scattered,

The perpetual ^p hills did bow:
 His ways are everlasting.

I saw the tents of ^q Cushan ^r in ^r af- ⁷
 fliction:

And the curtains of the land of ^t Mi-dian did tremble.

^u Was the LORD displeased against ⁸
^v the rivers?

Was thine anger against ^v the rivers?

^u Was thy wrath against the sea,
 That ^w thou didst ride upon thine
 horses and ^x thy chariots of salvation?

^y Thy bow was made quite naked,
^y According to the oaths of the tribes,
 even thy word. Selah.

^z Thou didst cleave the earth with ^v rivers.

^a The mountains ^b saw thee, and ^b they
 trembled:

The overflowing of the water passed by:

^c The deep uttered his voice,
 And ^d lift up his hands on high.

^e The sun and moon stood still in ^f their habitation:

^g At the light of ^g thine arrows they went,

And at ⁱ the shining of thy glittering
 spear.

^j Thou didst march through the land
 in indignation,

Thou didst ^k thresh the heathen in anger.

^j Thou wentest forth for the salvation
 of thy people,

Even for salvation with ^l thine anointed;

^m Thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked,

ⁿ By ^l discovering the foundation unto ^o the neck. Selah.

¹⁴ Thou didst strike through with his
 staves the head of ^p his villages:

^q They ^l came out as a whirlwind ^r to scatter me:

Their rejoicing was as to devour the poor ^s secretly.

^t Thou didst walk through the sea
^u with thine horses,

Through the ^v heap of great waters.

¹⁶ When I heard, ^w my belly trembled;

My lips quivered at the voice:
^x Rottenness entered into my bones,

and I trembled in myself,
 That ^y I might rest in the day of
 trouble:

When ^z he cometh up unto the people, ^z he will ^z invade them with his troops.

And ^gbe strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and

For ⁱI am with you, saith the LORD
 of hosts :

^jAccording to ^kthe word that I ^kcovenanted with you when ye came out
 of Egypt,

So ^lmy spirit remaineth among you :
^mfear ye not.

For thus saith the LORD of hosts ; 6

ⁿYet once, it is ^oa little while,

And ^pI will shake the heavens,
 and the earth, and the sea, and
 the dry land ;

And ^pI will shake ^qall nations, and 7
^rthe desire of all nations ^sshall
 come :

And I will fill this house with ^tglory,
 saith the LORD of hosts.

^uThe silver is mine, and the gold is 8
 mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

^vThe glory ^wof this latter house 9
 shall be greater than of ^xthe former,
 saith the LORD of hosts :

And in this place will I give ^ypeace,
 saith the LORD of hosts.

^aIn the four and twentieth day of the 10
 ninth month, ^bin the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD
^bby Haggai the prophet, saying, Thus 11
 saith the LORD of hosts ; ^cAsk now the priests concerning the law, saying, If one 12
 bear ^dholy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread,
 or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, ^eNo. Then said Hag- 13
 gai, If one that is ^funclean by a dead body ^gtouch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, ^gIt shall be unclean. Then an- 14
 swered Haggai, and said,

^hSo is this people, and so is this nation
 before me, saith the LORD ;

And so is ^pevery work of their hands ;

And that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, ⁱjconsider from
 this day and upward,

From before a stone was laid upon
 a stone in the temple of the LORD :

16 ^kSince those days were, ^lwhen one came to a heap of twenty mea- sures, there were but ten :

When one came to ^mthe pressfat for
 to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I ⁿsmote you with blasting and with mildew and ^owith hail

In ^pall the labours of your hands ;

Yet ye ^qturned not to me, saith the
 LORD.

18 ⁱjConsider now from this day and upward,

^rFrom the four and twentieth day of the ninth month,

Even from ^sthe day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid,
ⁱconsider it.

19 ^tIs the seed yet in ^uthe barn?

Yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree,
 and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth :

^vFrom this day ^vwill I bless you.

20 And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai ^rin the four and twentieth

21 day of the month, saying, Speak to ^wZerubbabel, ^wgovernor of Judah, saying,

^xI will shake the heavens and the
 earth ;

22 And ^yI will overthrow the throne of kingdoms,

And ^yI will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen ;

And ^zI will overthrow the chariots,
 and those that ride in them ;

And the horses and their riders shall come down,

^aEvery one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts,
 Will I take thee, ^wO Zerubbabel, ^bmy

†ZECHARIAH.

I. ^aIN the eighth month, ^{ab}in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, ^cthe son of Berechiah, ^cthe son of ^dIddo the prophet, saying,
The LORD hath been ^tsore displeased ²with your fathers.
Therefore say thou unto them, Thus ³saith the LORD of hosts;
^{ef}Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts,
And ^eI will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.
^hBe ye not as your fathers, ⁱunto ⁴whom the former prophets have cried, saying,
Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^{fk}Turn ye now from your evil ways, and ^{from}your evil doings:
But ^lthey did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.
^m^o Your fathers, ⁿwhere ^{are} they? ⁵
And ^othe prophets, do they live for ever?
^pBut my words and my statutes, which ⁶I commanded ^amy servants the prophets,
Did they not ^ltake hold of your fathers?
And they returned and said, ^rLike as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us,
According to our ^sways, and according to our ^sdoings, so hath he dealt with us.
^{*} Upon the four and twentieth day of ⁷the eleventh month, which ^{is} the month ^tSebat, ^bin the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, ^cthe son of Berechiah, the son of ^dIddo the prophet, saying, I saw by ⁸night, and behold ^ua man ^vriding upon a red horse, and he stood among ^wthe myrtle trees that ^{were} in the bottom; and behind him ^{were there} ^xred horses, ^lspeckled, and white. Then said I, O ⁹

And ^bhe shall be a priest upon his throne:

And the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

And ^cthe crowns shall be to ^dHelem, and to ^dTobijah, and to ^dJedaiah, and to Hen the son of ^dZephaniah, ^efor a memorial in the temple of the LORD. ¹⁵And ^fthey that are far off ^gshall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ^hye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And ^{this} shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

And it came to pass ^ain the fourth year of king Darius, ^{that} the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, ^{even} in ^bChisleu; when they had sent unto ^cthe house of God Sherezer and Regemmelech, and their men, ^{to} pray before the LORD, ³and to speak unto ^dthe priests which ^{were} in ^ethe house of the LORD of hosts, and to ^ethe prophets, saying, Should I weep in ^fthe fifth month, ^hseparating myself, as I have done ⁱthese so many years?

Then came the word of the LORD of ⁵hosts unto me, saying, Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ⁱye fasted and mourned in ^lthe fifth and ^{rk}seventh month, ^{even} ^lthose seventy years, did ye ⁶at all fast ⁱunto me, ^{even} to me? And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, ^ldid not ye eat ^mfor yourselves, and drink ^mfor yourselves? ^{Should} ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried ^lby the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and ⁿin prosperity, and ^othe cities thereof round about her, when ^mmen inhabited ^othe south and ^othe plain?

And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying,

^pExecute true judgment,

And ^qshow mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

And oppress not ^rthe widow, nor ^rthe fatherless, ^rthe stranger, nor ^sthe poor;

 And the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent [†]in his spirit [†]by the former prophets:
 Therefore [†]came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.
 Therefore it is come to pass, that ^aas [†]he cried, and they would not hear;
^aSo they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:
 But I [†]scattered them with a whirl- [†]wind [†]among all the nations [†]dwhom they knew not:
 Thus [†]the land was desolate [†]after them, [†]that no man passed through nor returned:
 For they laid [†]the [†]pleasant land desolate.

 Behold, ^aI will save my people ^afrom the east country,
 And ^afrom [†]the west country;
 8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem:
 And [†]they shall be my people, and I will be their God,
[†]In truth and in righteousness.
 9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [†]Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of [†]the prophets, which were in [†]the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple [†]might be built. [†]For before these days [†]there was no [†]hire for man, nor any hire for beast; [†]neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.
 11 But now I will not be unto [†]the residue of this people as in the former days,
 12 saith the LORD of hosts. For [†]the seed shall be [†]prosperous; [†]the vine shall give [†]her fruit, and [†]the ground shall give her increase, and [†]the heavens shall give their dew; and I will ^acause the remnant of this people to possess all [†]these things. And it shall come to pass, that as ye were ^acurse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so [†]will I save you, and [†]ye shall be a blessing: [†]fear not, but let [†]your hands be strong. For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [†]As I thought to punish you, when your fathers [†]provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, [†]and I repented not: [†]so again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: [†]fear ye not.
 16 These are the things that ye shall do: [†]Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; [†]execute the judgment of [†]truth and [†]peace [†]in your gates:
 17 and [†]let none of you [†]imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and [†]love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.
 18 And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of [†]the fourth month, and the fast of [†]the fifth, and the fast of [†]the seventh, and the fast of [†]the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah [†]joy and gladness, and cheerful [†]feasts; therefore love [†]the truth and [†]peace.

Thus saith the LORD my God; ^kFeed ⁴ the flock of ^lthe slaughter; Whose ^mpossessors ^lslay them, and ⁵ ⁿhold themselves not guilty: And they that sell them say, Blessed ^{be} the LORD; for ^oI am rich: And their own shepherds pity them not. For ^pI will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: But lo, I will [†]deliver the men Every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: And they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them. And ^kI will feed the flock of slaughter, ⁷ [†]even you, ^rO poor of the flock.

And I took unto me two staves; the one I called ^sBeauty, and the other I called [†]Bands; and ^kI fed the flock. Three shepherds also [†]I cut off in one ⁸ month; and my soul [†]loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me. Then said ⁹ I, I will not feed you: ^vthat that dieth, let it die; and that that is to ^ube cut off, let it be ^ucut off; and let the rest ^weat every one the flesh [†]of another. And ¹⁰ I took my staff, even ^sBeauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. And it was broken in that day: ¹¹ and [†]so ^rthe poor of the flock ^xthat waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And I said unto ¹² them, [†]If ye think good, ^ygive me my price; and if not, forbear. So ^zthey weighed for my price ^athirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said unto me, ¹³ Cast it unto ^bthe potter: ^ca ^dgoodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took ^athe thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter ⁱⁿ the house of the LORD. Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even [†]Bands, ¹⁴ that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

And the LORD said unto me, Take ¹⁵ unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

For lo, I will raise up a shepherd in ¹⁶ the land,

^e Which shall not visit those that be [†]cut off,

^e Neither shall seek the young one,

^e Nor [†]heal that that is broken,

Nor ^gfeed that that standeth still:

But ^hhe shall eat the flesh of the fat,

And tear their claws in pieces.

¹⁷ Woe to [†]the idol shepherd ^hk that leaveth the flock! The sword shall be upon his arm, and upon [†]his right eye: His arm shall be clean dried up, And [†]his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

^a The burden of the word of the LORD ^{XII.} for Israel, saith the LORD,

^b Which stretcheth forth the heavens, and ^clayeth the foundation of the earth,

And ^{bd}formeth the spirit of man within him.

² Behold, ^eI will make Jerusalem ^{fa} a cup of ^gtrembling unto all the people round about,

[†] When they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

³ And ^hin that day will I make Jerusalem ^{ia} a burdensome stone for all people:

^j All that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces,

^k Though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

⁴ ^hIn that day, saith the LORD,

[†] I will smite every horse with ^mastonishment, and his rider with ^mmadness:

And [†]I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah,

And [†]will smite every horse of the people with ^mblindness.

⁵ And ^othe governors of Judah shall say in their heart,

[†] The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength

In the LORD of hosts their God.

⁶ ^hIn that day will I make ^othe governors of Judah [†]like a hearth of fire among the wood,

And like a torch of fire in a sheaf;

And [†]they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left:

And [†]Jerusalem shall be inhabited again ^sin her own place, even in Jerusalem.

^dMy name shall be great ^eamong the Gentiles;
And ^fin every place ^gincense shall be ^hoffered unto my name, and ⁱa pure ^koffering:
For ^dmy name shall be great ^eamong the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.
But ye have profaned it, in that ye ¹² say, ^lThe table of the LORD is polluted;
And the fruit thereof, even his meat, ^l*is* contemptible.
Ye said also, Behold, ^mwhat a weariness is it!
ⁿAnd ^oye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts;
And ye brought that which was ^ptorn, and ^qthe lame, and ^rthe sick;
Thus ye brought an offering:
^sShould I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.
But cursed be the deceiver, ^twhich ¹⁴ hath in his flock ^ua male,
And voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord ^aa corrupt thing:
For I am ^aa great King, saith the LORD of hosts,
And my name is ^tdreadful among the heathen.

And now, ^aO ye priests, this commandment is for you.
^bIf ye will not hear, and if ye will not ² ^clay it to heart,
To give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts,
^dI will even send ^{de}a curse upon you, and will curse ^fyour blessings:
Yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not ^clay it to heart.
Behold, ^gI will ^hcorrupt your seed, ³
And ^hspread dung upon your faces, ⁱ
even ⁱthe dung of your ^ksolemn feasts;
And ^lnone shall take you away with it.
And ye shall know that I have sent ⁴ ^mthis commandment unto you,
That ⁿmy covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

⁵ ^{no}My covenant was with him of life and ^opeace;
And I gave them to him ^pfor the fear wherewith he feared me,
And was afraid before my name.
⁶ ^qThe law of truth was in his mouth, And iniquity was not found in his lips:
He walked with me in peace and ^requity,
And ^sdid turn many away from iniquity.
⁷ ^tFor the priest's ^ulips should keep knowledge,
And ^vthey should seek the law at his mouth:
For he is ^vthe messenger of the LORD of hosts.
⁸ But ye are departed out of the way; Ye ^whave caused many to ^xstumble at the law;
Ye have corrupted ^ythe covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.
⁹ Therefore ^xhave I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, ^yAccording as ye have not kept my ways,
But ^zhave been partial in the law.
¹⁰ ^aHave we not all one father?
^bHath not one God created us?
Why do we ^cdeal treacherously every man against his brother, ^dBy profaning the covenant of our fathers?
¹¹ Judah hath ^edealt treacherously, And an abomination is committed in ^fIsrael and in Jerusalem;
For Judah hath profaned ^fthe holiness of the LORD which he ^hloved, ^gAnd hath ^hmarried ⁱthe daughter of a strange god.
¹² The LORD will cut off the man that doth this, ^hthe master and ^mthe scholar,
Out of the tabernacles of Jacob,
And ⁿhim that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.
¹³ And this have ye done again,
Covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out,
Insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more,
Or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

APOCRYPHA.

I. ESDRAS.

I. AND Josias held the ^afeast of the passover in Jerusalem unto his Lord, and offered the passover the fourteenth day of the first month; having set the priests according to their ^bdaily courses, being arrayed in long garments, in the temple of the Lord. And he spake unto the Levites, the holy ministers of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord in the house that king Solomon the son of David had built: ^cand said, Ye shall no more bear the ark upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God, and minister unto his people Israel, and prepare you after your families and ^dkindreds, according as David the king of Israel prescribed, and according to ^ethe magnificence of Solomon his son: and standing in the temple according to ^dthe several dignity of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the children of Israel, offer the passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the passover according to the commandment of the Lord, which was given unto Moses. And unto the people ^fthat was found there Josias gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's allowance, according as he promised, to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. And Helkias, Zacharias, and ^gSylus, the governors of the temple, gave to the priests for the passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves. And Jeconias, and Samaias, and Nathanael his brother, and Assabias, and Ochiel, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the passover five thou-

10 And when these things were done, the priests and Levites, having the unleavened bread, stood in very comely
11 order according to the ^dkindreds, and according to ^dthe several dignities of the fathers, before the people, to offer to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: ⁱand thus did they in 12 the morning. And they roasted the passover with fire, ^jas appertaineth: as for the sacrifices, they sod them in brass pots and pans ^kwith a good savour, and set them before all the people: and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their
14 brethren, the sons of Aaron. For the priests offered the fat until night: and the Levites prepared for themselves, and the priests their brethren, the sons
15 of Aaron. The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment ^lof David, to wit, ^mAsaph, Zacharias, and Jethuthun, who was ⁿof the king's retinue.
16 Moreover the porters were at every gate; it was not lawful for any to go from his ^oordinary service: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.
17 Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, that they might hold the 18 passover, and offer sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the 19 commandment of king Josias. So the children of Israel ^pwhich were present held the passover at that time, and ^qthe feast of sweet bread seven days.
20 And ^rsuch a passover was not kept in Israel since the time of the prophet found dwelling at Jerusalem. In the²² eighteenth year of the reign of Josias was this passover kept. ¹And the works²³ of Josias were upright before his Lord with a heart full of godliness. ¹As for²⁴ the things that came to pass in his time, they were written in former times, concerning those that sinned, and ¹did wickedly against the Lord above all people and kingdoms, and how they grieved him ¹exceedingly, so that the words of the Lord rose up against Israel.

^m Now after all these acts of Josias²⁵ it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchamis upon Euphrates: and Josias went out against him. But the king of Egypt²⁶ sent to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, O king of Judea? I am²⁷ not sent out from the Lord God against thee; for my war is upon Euphrates: and now the Lord is with me, yea, the Lord is with me hasting me forward: depart from me, and ¹be ¹not against the Lord. Howbeit Josias did not turn²⁸ back his chariot from him, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremie spoken by the mouth of the Lord: but joined²⁹ battle with him in the plain of Magiddo, and the princes came against king Josias. Then said the king unto his³⁰ servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants took him away out of the battle. Then gat he up³¹ upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem died, and was buried in his fathers' sepulchre. And in all Jewry they mourned for Josias, yea, Jeremie the prophet lamented for Josias, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him unto this day: and this was given out³² ^ofor an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel. These things are written in the book of the stories of the kings of Judah, and every one of the acts that Josias did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now re-cited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judea.

^p And the people took Joachaz the³¹ son of Josias, and ^qmade him king instead of Josias his father, when he was twenty and three years old. And³⁵

he reigned in Judea and in Jerusalem three months: and then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in³⁶ Jerusalem. And he set a tax upon the land of an hundred talents of silver and³⁷ one talent of gold. The king of Egypt also ^qmade king Joacim his brother³⁸ king of Judea and Jerusalem. And he bound Joacim and the nobles: but Zaraces his brother he apprehended,³⁹ and brought him out of Egypt. ^rFive and twenty year old was ^tJoacim when he was made king in the land of Judea and Jerusalem; and he did evil before⁴⁰ the Lord. Wherefore against him Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him unto Babylon. Nabuchodonosor also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them in his own temple⁴² at Babylon. But those things that are recorded of him, and of his uncleanness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings.

⁴³ And Joacim his son reigned in his stead: he ^qwas made king being⁴⁴ ^seighteen years old; ^tand reigned but three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and did evil before the Lord. So after a year Nabuchodonosor sent and caused him to be brought into Babylon with ^uthe holy vessels of the Lord; ⁴⁶ and ^qmade Zedechias king of Judea and Jerusalem, when he was one and twenty years old; and he reigned eleven⁴⁷ years: and he did evil also in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the words that were spoken unto him by the prophet Jeremie from the mouth of⁴⁸ the Lord. And after that king Nabuchodonosor had made him to swear by the name of the Lord, he forswore himself, and rebelled; and hardening his neck, and his heart, he transgressed the⁴⁹ laws of the Lord God of Israel. The governors also of the people and of the priests ^xdid many things against the laws, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in⁵⁰ Jerusalem. Nevertheless the God of their fathers sent by his messenger to call them back, because he spared them⁵¹ and his tabernacle also. But they ^yhad his messengers in derision; and look, when the Lord spake unto them, they⁵² made a sport of his prophets: so far forth, that he, being wroth with his people for their great ungodliness, commanded the kings of the Chaldees to come up against them; who slew their young men with the sword, yea, even within the compass of their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child, among them; for he delivered all into their hands. And they took all ^{the} holy vessels of the Lord, both great and small, with the vessels of the ark of God, and the king's treasures, and carried them away into Babylon. As for the house of the Lord, they burnt it, brake down the walls of Jerusalem, set fire upon her towers: and as for her glorious things, they never ceased till they had consumed and brought them all to nought: and the people that were not slain with the sword he carried unto Babylon: who became servants to him and his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfil the word of the Lord ^{spoken} by the mouth of Jeremie: Until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she rest, until the full term of seventy years.

^a In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord might be accomplished, that he had promised by the mouth of Jeremie; the Lord ^craised up the spirit of Cyrus the king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of the Persians; The Lord of Israel, the most high Lord, hath ^bmade me king of the whole world, and commanded me to build him a house at Jerusalem in Jewry. If therefore there be any of you that are of his people, let the Lord, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel: for he is the Lord that dwelleth in Jerusalem. Whosoever then dwell in the places about, let them help him (those, I say, that are his neighbours) with gold and with silver, with gifts, with horses, and with cattle, and other things, which have been set forth by vow, for the temple of the Lord at Jerusalem.

Then the chief of the families of Judea and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose ^cmind the Lord had moved to go up, and to build a house for the Lord at Jerusalem, and they that dwelt round about them, and helped them in all things with silver and gold, with ^hhorses and cattle, and with very many free gifts of a great number whose minds were stirred up thereto. King Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels, ^dwhich Nabuchodonosor had carried away from Jerusalem, ^dand had set up in his ^etemple of idols. Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithridates his treasurer: and by him they were delivered to ^fSanabassar the governor of Judea. And this was the number of them; A thousand golden cups, and a thousand of silver, ^gcensers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver ^htwo thousand four hundred and ten, and a thousand other vessels. So all the vessels of gold and of silver, which were carried away, were ⁱfive thousand four hundred threescore and nine. These were brought back by Sanabassar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

^j But in the time of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, Belemus, and Mithridates, and Tabellius, and ^kRathumus, and Beeltethmus, and ^lSemellius the secretary, with others that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote unto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Jerusalem these letters following;

To king Artaxerxes our lord, Thy servants, Rathumus the ^hstorywriter, and Semellius the ^gscribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in ⁱCoelosyria and ^kPhenice. Be it now known to the lord the king, that the Jews that are come up from you to us, being come into Jerusalem (that rebellious and wicked city) do build the marketplaces, and repair the walls of it, and do lay the foundation of the temple. Now if this city and the walls thereof be made up again, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but also rebel against kings. And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter, but to speak unto our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be thy pleasure, it may be sought out in the books of thy fathers: and thou shalt find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shalt understand that that city was rebellious, troubling both kings and

Then the king wrote back again to²⁵ Rathumus the ^hstorywriter, ¹to Beeltethmus, ¹to Semellius the ^gscribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwellers in Samaria and Syria and Phenice, after this manner; I²⁶ have read the epistle which ye have sent unto me: therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and it hath been found that that city was from the beginning practising against kings; and the men therein were given to rebel-²⁷ lion and war: and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tributes in ¹Coelosyria and Phenice. Now therefore I²⁸ have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be no more done in it; and that those wicked workers pro-²⁹ ceed no further to the annoyance of kings. Then king Artaxerxes his³⁰ letters being read, Rathumus, and Semellius the ^gscribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste towards Jerusalem with a troop of horsemen and ^ha multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

enforceth to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

IV. Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say,

¹ Or, have the command.

O ye men, do not men excel in strength, that bear rule over sea and land, and all things in them? But yet the king is more mighty: for he is lord of all these things, and hath dominion over them; and whatsoever he commandeth them they do. If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it: if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and break down mountains, walls, and towers. They slay and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else. Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbandry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute unto the king. And yet he is but one man: if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare; if he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build; if he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant. So all his people and his armies obey him: ^b furthermore he lieth down, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest: and ^c these keep watch round about him, neither ¹ may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in any thing. O ye men, how should not the king be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his tongue.

Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth, (this was ^d Zorobabel) began to speak. O ye men, it is not the great king, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine, that [†]excelleth; who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them? are they not women? Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land. Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine cometh. ^e These also make garments for men; these bring glory unto men; and without women cannot men be. Yea, and if men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, do they not love a woman which is comely in favour and beauty? And letting all those things go, do they not gape, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire unto her than unto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever? ⁸ A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife. He sticks not to spend his life with his wife, and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country. By this also you must know that women have dominion over you: do ye not labour and toil, and give and bring all to the woman? Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon rivers; and looketh upon a lion, and goeth in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love.

⁸ Gen. 2. 24.

Wherefore a man loveth his wife better than father or mother. Yea, many there be that have run out of their wits for women, and become servants for their sakes. Many also have perished, have erred, and sinned, for women. And now do ye not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him? Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the admirable ¹ Bartacus, sitting at the right hand of the king, and taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; she also strooke the king with her left hand. And yet for all this the king gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, the king was fain to flatter, that she might be reconciled to him again. O ye men, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus?

Then the king and the ¹princes looked one upon another: so he began to speak of the truth. O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day. Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger than all things. All the earth

Then the king and the ¹princes looked one upon another: so he began to speak of the truth. O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day. Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger than all things. All the earth

men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, do they not love a woman which is comely in favour and beauty? And letting all those things go, do they not gape, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire unto her than unto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever? ⁸ A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife. He sticks not to spend his life with his wife, and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country. By this also you must know that women have dominion over you: do ye not labour and toil, and give and bring all to the woman? Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon rivers; and looketh upon a lion, and goeth in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love.

¶ Or, praiseth the truth,
Athanasius.

¶ calleth upon the truth, and the heaven
blesseth it: all works shake and tremble at it, and with it is no unrighteous thing. Wine is wicked, the king is 37 wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked, and such are all their wicked works; and ^mthere is no truth in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish. As for the 38 truth, it endureth, and is always strong;
it liveth and conquereth for evermore.
With her there is no ⁿaccepting of 39
persons or rewards; but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all unjust and wicked things; and all men ^odo well like of her works. Nei- 40
ther in her judgment is any unrighteousness; and she is the strength, ^pkingdom, power, and majesty, of all ages.
Blessed be ^qthe God of truth.

And with that he held his peace. 41
And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is truth, and mighty above all things. Then said the king unto 42
him, Ask what thou wilt more ^rthan is appointed in the writing, and we will give it thee, because thou art found wisest; and ^sthou shalt sit next me,
and ^sshalt be called my cousin. Then 43
said he unto the king, Remember thy vow, which thou hast vowed to build Jerusalem, in the day when thou camest
to thy kingdom, and to send away all 44
the vessels that were taken away out of Jerusalem, ^twhich Cyrus set apart,
when he vowed to destroy Babylon,
and to send them again thither. Thou 45
also hast vowed to build up the temple,

which ^uthe Edomites burnt when Judea was made desolate by the Chaldees. And now, O lord the king, this 46 is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality ^xproceeding from thyself: I desire therefore that thou make good
the vow, the performance whereof with thine own mouth thou hast vowed to ^ythe King of heaven. Then Darius 47

the king stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him unto all the ^ztreas-urers and ^zlieutenants and captains and governors, that they should safely convey on their way both him, and all those that go up with him to build Jerusalem. He wrote letters also unto 48
the ^zlieutenants that were in ^aCoelosyria and Phenice, and unto them in Libanus, that they should bring ^bcedar wood from Libanus unto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with 49 him. Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that went out of his realm up into Jewry, concerning their freedom,

that no officer, no ^zruler, no lieutenant,
nor ^ltreasurer, should forcibly enter 50 into their doors; and that all the country which they hold should be free
without tribute; and that ^uthe Edomites should give over the villages of 51 the Jews which then they held: yea,
that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, 52 until the time that it were built; and other ten talents yearly, to maintain the burnt offerings upon the altar every day (as they had a commandment to 53 offer seventeen :) and that all they that went from Babylon to build the city should have free liberty, as well they
as their posterity, and all the priests 54 that went away. He wrote also concerning the charges, and the priests' 55 vestments wherein they minister; and likewise for the charges of the Levites,
to be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusa-56 lem builded up. And he commanded to give to all that kept the city 57 ^lpensions and ^cwages. He sent away
also all the vessels from Babylon, ^tthat Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same
charged he also to be done, and sent unto Jerusalem.

58 Now when this young man was gone forth, ^dhe lifted up his face to heaven
^etoward Jerusalem, and praised ^ythe
59 King of heaven, and said, From thee
cometh victory, from thee cometh wisdom, and ^tthine is the glory, and I am 60 thy servant. Blessed art thou, ^gwho hast given me wisdom: for to thee I give 61 thanks, O Lord of our fathers. And so he took the letters, and went out, and came unto Babylon, and told it all his 62 brethren. And they praised the God of their fathers, because he had given them 63 freedom and liberty to go up, and to build Jerusalem, and ^hthe temple which is called by his name: and they feasted
ⁱwith instruments of musick and gladness
seven days.

After this were the principal men of the families chosen according to their tribes, to go up with their wives and sons and daughters, with their menser-
vants and maidservants, and their cattle.
2 And Darius sent with them ^aa thousand

All the ministers of the temple, and the sons of the servants of Solomon, were three hundred seventy and two.

These came up from Thermeleth and Thelersas, Charaathalar leading them, and Aalar; neither could they shew their families, nor their stock, how they were of Israel: the sons of ^s Ladan, the son of ^t Ban, the sons of ^u Necodan, six hundred fifty and two. And of the priests that usurped the office of the priesthood, and were not found: the sons of ^x Obdia, the sons of ^y Accoz, the sons of ^z Addus, who married Augia one of the daughters of ^a Berzelus, and was named after his name. And when the description of the kindred of these men was sought in the register, and was not found, they were removed from executing the office of the priesthood: for unto them said ^b Nehemias and Atharias, that they should not be partakers of the holy things, till there arose up a high priest clothed with ^c doctrine and truth.

So of Israel, from them of twelve years old and upward, they were all in number forty thousand, besides ^a menservants and womenservants two thousand three hundred and sixty. Their ^b menservants and handmaids were seven thousand three hundred ^c forty and seven: the singing men and singing women, two hundred forty and five: four hundred thirty and five camels, ^d seven thousand thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mules, ^e five thousand five hundred twenty and five ^f beasts used to the yoke.

And certain of the chief of their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Jerusalem, vowed to set up the house again ^h in his own place according to their ability, and to give into the holy treasury of the works a thousand ^d pounds of gold, five thousand of silver, and an hundred priestly vestments. And so dwelt the priests and the Levites and the people in Jerusalem, and in the country, the singers also and the porters; and all Israel in their villages.

⁴⁷ ^e But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in ^f his own place, they came all together with one consent into the open place ^g of the first gate which is towards the east. Then stood up ^h Jesus the son of Josedec, and his brethren the priests, and ⁱ Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and his brethren, and made ready the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of God. And there were gathered unto them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar ^h upon his own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and burnt offerings to the Lord both morning and evening. ⁵¹ Also they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is commanded in the law, and offered ⁵² fered sacrifices daily, as was meet: and after that, the ^{||} continual oblations, and the sacrifice of the sabbaths, and of the new moons, and of all holy feasts. ⁵⁶ ⁿ And in the second year and second month after his coming to the temple of God at Jerusalem began Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedec, and their brethren, and the priests, and the Levites, and all they that were come unto Jerusalem out of the captivity: and they laid the foundation of the house of God in the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come to Jewry and Jerusalem. And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord. ters forward of the business, labouring to advance the works in the house of God. So the workmen built the temple of the Lord. And the priests stood arrayed in their vestments with musical instruments and trumpets; and the Levites the sons of Asaph had cymbals, singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising the Lord, ⁵⁹ according as David the king of Israel had ordained. And they ⁶¹ sung with loud voices songs to the praise of the Lord, because his mercy and glory is for ever in all Israel. And ⁶² all the people sounded trumpets, and shouted with a loud voice, singing songs of thanksgiving unto the Lord for the rearing up of the house of the Lord. Also of the priests and Levites, and of ⁶³ the chief of their families, the ancients who had seen the former house came to the building of this with weeping and great crying. But many with trumpets ⁶⁴ and joy shouted with loud voice, inso- ⁶⁵ much that the trumpets might not be heard for the weeping of the people: yet the multitude sounded marvellously, so that it was heard afar off.

⁶⁶ Wherefore when the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard it, they came to know what that noise of trumpets should mean. And they perceived that they that were of the captivity did build the temple unto the Lord God of Israel. So they went to ⁶⁸ Zorobabel and Jesus, and to the chief of the families, and said unto them. We will build together with you. For we ⁶⁹ likewise, as you, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice unto him from the days of ⁷⁰ Azbarezeth the king of the Assyrians, who brought us hither. Then Zorobabel and Jesus and the chief of the families of Israel said unto them, It is not for us and you to build together a house unto the Lord our God. We ourselves alone ⁷¹ will build unto the Lord of Israel, according as Cyrus the king of the Persians hath commanded us. But the hea- ⁷² then of the land lying heavy upon the inhabitants of Judea, and holding them strait, hindered their building; and ⁷³ by their secret plots, and popular persuasions and commotions, they hindered the finishing of the building all the time that king Cyrus lived: so they were hindered from building for the space of two years, ⁷⁴ until the reign of Darius.

Now ^a in the second year of the reign of Darius, ^b Aggeus and Zacharias the son of ¹ Addo, the prophets, prophesied unto the Jews in Jewry and Jerusalem in the name of the Lord God of Israel,

² which was upon them. Then stood up Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedec, and began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, the prophets of the Lord being with them, and helping them.

³ At the same time came unto them ⁴ Sinnes the governor of Syria and Phenice, with ⁵ Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and said unto them, By whose appointment do you build this house and this roof, and perform all the other things? and who are the workmen that ⁶ perform these things? Nevertheless the ⁷ elders of the Jews obtained favour, because ⁸ the Lord had visited the captivity; and they were not hindered from building, until such time as signification was given unto Darius concerning them, ⁹ and an answer received. The copy of the letters which Sinnes, governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, rulers in Syria and Phenice, wrote and sent unto Darius;

¹⁰ To king Darius. greeting. Let all things be known unto our lord the king, that being come into the country of Judea, and entered into the city of Jerusalem, we found in the city of Jerusalem the ¹¹ ancients of the Jews that were of the captivity, building a house unto the Lord, great and new, of hewn and costly stones, and the timber already ¹² laid upon the walls. And those works are done with great speed, and the work goeth on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence is it ¹³ made. Then asked we these ¹⁴ elders, saying, By whose commandment build you this house, and lay the foundations ¹⁵ of these works? Therefore to the intent that we might give knowledge unto thee by writing, we demanded of them who were the chief doers, and we required of them the names in writing of ¹⁶ their principal men. So they gave us this answer. We are the servants of the Lord which made heaven and earth. ¹⁷ And as for this house, it was builded many years ago by a king of Israel great and strong, and was finished. But when our fathers ¹⁸ provoked God unto wrath, and sinned against the Lord of Israel which is in heaven, he gave them over into the power of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, of the Chaldees; who ¹⁶ pulled down the house, and burnt it, and carried away the people captives unto Babylon. But in the first year ¹⁷ that king Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon, Cyrus the king wrote to build up this house. And the holy vessels of gold and of silver, that Nabuchodonosor had carried away out of the house at Jerusalem, and had ¹⁸ set them in his own temple, ¹⁹ those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple at Babylon, and they were delivered to ²⁰ Zorobabel and to Sanabassar the ruler, with commandment that he should carry away the same vessels, and put them in the temple at Jerusalem; and that the temple of the Lord should be built in his place. Then the same Sanabassar, ²¹ being come hither, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet fully ended. Now therefore, if it seem good unto the king, let search be made among the ²² records of king Cyrus: and if it be found that the building of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem hath been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and if our lord the king be so minded, let him signify unto us thereof.

²³ Then commanded king Darius to seek among the ²⁴ records at Babylon: and so at Ecbatane the palace, which is in the country of Media, there was found a ²⁵ roll wherein these things were recorded.

In the first year of the reign of Cyrus, ²⁶ king Cyrus commanded that the house of the Lord at Jerusalem should be built again, where they do sacrifice ²⁷ with continual fire: whose height shall be sixty cubits, and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expenses thereof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus: and that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold and silver, that Nabuchodonosor took out of the house at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before. And also he commanded that ²⁸ Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phenice, should be careful not to meddle with the place, but suffer Zorobabel, the servant of the Lord, and governor of Judea, and the ²⁹ elders of the Jews, to build the house of the Lord in that place. I have commanded also to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of the Jews, till the house of the Lord be finished: and out of the tribute of ³⁰ Coelosyria and Phenice a portion carefully to be given these men for the sacrifices of the Lord, that is, to Zorobabel the governor, for bullocks, and rams, and lambs; and also corn, salt, wine, and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify ³¹ to be daily spent: that ³² offerings may be made to ³³ the most high God for the king and for his children, and that they may pray for their lives. And he commanded that whosoever should transgress, yea, or make light of any thing afore spoken or written, out of ³⁴ his own house should a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and all his goods seized for the king. The Lord therefore, whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation, that stretcheth out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in Jerusalem. I Darius the king have ordained that according unto these things it be done with diligence.

³⁵ Then Sisinnes the governor of ³⁶ Coelosyria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, following the ³⁷ commandments of king Darius, did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the ³⁸ ancients of the Jews and ³⁹ governors of the temple. And so the holy works prospered, when Aggeus and Zacharias the prophets prophesied. And they finished these things by the commandment of the Lord God of Israel, and with ⁴⁰ the ⁴¹ consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia. ⁴² And thus was the holy house finished in ⁴³ the three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of Darius ⁴⁴ king of the Persians. And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and other that were of the captivity, that were added unto them, did according to the things written in the book ⁴⁵ of Moses. And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord they offered an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, ⁴⁶ four hundred lambs; and twelve goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the [¶]chief of the tribes of Israel. The priests also and the Levites stood arrayed in their vestments, according to their [†]kindreds, in the services of [°]the Lord God of Israel, according to the book of Moses: and the porters at every gate.

And the children of Israel [¶]that were ¹⁰of the captivity held the passover the fourteenth day of the first month, after that the priests and the Levites were sanctified. They that were of the captivity were not all sanctified together: but the Levites were all sanctified together. And so they offered the passover for all them of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. And the children of Israel ¹³that came out of the captivity did eat, even all they that had separated themselves from the abominations of the people of the land, and sought the Lord. And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days, making merry before the Lord, for that he had ¹⁵turned the [¶]counsel of the king of Assyria towards them, to strengthen their hands in the works of [°]the Lord God of Israel.

^a And after these things, when Artaxerxes the king of the Persians reigned, came Esdras the son of Saraïas, the son of ^{*}Ezerias, the son of Helchiah, the son of Salum, the son of Sadduc, the son of Achitob, the son of Amarias, the son of [†]Ozias, the son of ^{*b}Memeroth, the son of [¶]Zaraïas, the son of ^{††}Savias, the son of Boccas, the son of Abisum, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron [¶]the chief priest. This ³Esdras went up from Babylon, as a scribe, being very ready in the law of Moses, that was given by the God of Israel. And the king did him honour: ⁴for he found grace in his sight in all his requests. There went up with him ⁵also certain of the children of Israel, of the priests, of the Levites, of the holy singers, porters, and [¶]ministers of the temple, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of the reign of Artaxerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon in the first day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the ^{¶d}prosperous journey which the Lord gave them. For Esdras had very ⁷great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordinances and judgments. Now the copy of the [¶]commission, which was written from Artaxerxes the king, and came to Esdras the priest and [°]reader of the law of the Lord, is this that followeth:

⁹ King Artaxerxes unto Esdras the priest and [°]reader of the law of the Lord sendeth greeting: having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites, being within our realm, as are willing and desirous, should go with thee unto ¹¹Jerusalem. As many therefore as have a mind thereunto, let them depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me and my seven friends the counselors; that they may look unto the affairs of Judea and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the ¹³Lord; and carry the gifts unto the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed, and all the gold and silver that in the country of Babylon can be [¶]found, to the Lord ¹⁴in Jerusalem, with that also which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God at Jerusalem: and that silver and gold may be collected for bullocks, rams, and lambs, and things ¹⁵thereunto appertaining; to the end that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, ¹⁶which is in Jerusalem. And whatsoever thou and thy brethren will do [¶]with the silver and gold, that do, according to the will of thy God. And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are given thee for the use of the temple of thy God, which is in Jerusalem, thou shalt set before thy God in ¹⁸Jerusalem. And whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the use of the temple of thy God, thou shalt give it out ¹⁹of the king's treasury. And I king Artaxerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phenice, that whatsoever Esdras the priest and the reader of the law of [¶]the most high God shall send for, they ²⁰should give it him with speed, to the sum of an hundred talents of silver, likewise also of wheat even to an hundred [¶]cors, and an hundred [¶]pieces of wine, and [¶]other things in abundance. ²¹Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently unto [¶]the most high God, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons. I command you also, that ye require ²² no tax, nor any other imposition, of any of the priests, or Levites, or holy singers, or porters, or ministers of the temple, or of any that have doings in this temple, and that no man have authority to impose any thing upon them. And thou, Esdras, according to the wisdom of God ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all Syria and Phenice [†]all those that know the law of thy God; and those that know it not thou shalt teach. And ²⁴ whosoever shall transgress the law of thy God, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by imprisonment.

Then said Esdras the scribe, Blessed ²⁵ be the only Lord God of my fathers, who hath put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify his house that is in Jerusalem: and hath honoured ²⁶ me in the sight of the king, and his counsellors, and all his friends and nobles. Therefore was I encouraged ²⁷ by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together men of Israel to go up with me.

[‡] And these are the chief according ²⁸ to their families and ^hseveral dignities, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artaxerxes: of the sons of Phinees, Gerson: of the sons of Ithamar, [†]Gamael: of the sons of David, [‡]Lettus ^kthe son of Sechenias: ^kof the sons of Pharez, Zacharias; and ³⁰ with him were counted an hundred and fifty men: of the sons of Pahath Moab, ³¹ Eliaonias, the son of [†]Zaraías, and with him two hundred men: ^mof the sons of Zathoe, Sechenias the son of Jezelus, and with him three hundred men: of the sons of Adin, Obeth the son of Jonathan, and with him [†]two hundred and fifty men: of the sons of Elam, ³³ Josias son of ⁿGotholias, and with him seventy men: of the sons of Saphatias, ³⁴ ^oZaraías son of Michael, and with him ^pthreescore and ten men: of the sons of Joab, ^qAbadías, son of ^rJezelus, and with him two hundred and ^stwelve men: ^tof the sons of Banid, Assalimoth ³⁶ son of Josaphias, and with him an hundred and threescore men: of the sons ³⁷ of Babi, Zacharias son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight men: of ³⁸

the sons of ^uAstath, Johannes son of ^uOr, ^vAcatan, and with him an hundred ^xAcatan, and with him an hundred ³⁹ and ten men: of the sons of Adoniam, the last, and these are the names of them; Eliphalet, Jeuel, and ^ySamaías, and with them ^zseventy men: of the sons of [†]Bago, Uthi the son of Istalcurus, and with him seventy men.

⁴¹ And these I gathered together [†]to the river called Theras, where we pitched our tents three days: and then [†]I surveyed them. [†]But when I had found there none of the priests and Levites, ⁴³ then sent I unto Eleazar, and ^aIduel, and ^bMasman, and Alnathan, and ^cMaíias, and ^cJoribus, and Nathan, Eunatan, Zacharias, and Mosollamus, principal men and learned. And I bade them that they should go unto ^dSaddeus the captain, ^ewho was in the place of ^fthe treasury: and commanded them that they should speak unto ^dDaddeus, and to ^ghis brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' office in the house of the Lord. And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought unto us skilful men of the sons of ^hMoli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, ⁱAsebebia, and his sons, and ⁴⁸ his brethren, who were eighteen. ^jAnd Asebia, and Annuus, and Osaías his brother, of the sons of Channuneus, and their sons, were twenty men. And ⁴⁹ [†]of the servants of the temple whom David had ordained, and the principal men for the service of the Levites, to wit, ^kthe servants of the temple, two hundred and twenty, the catalogue of whose names was shewed. And there I [†]vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, to desire of him [†]a prosperous journey both for us and them that were with us, for our children, and for the [†]cattle: for ^mI was ashamed to ask the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries. For we had said unto the king, that the power of the Lord our God should be with them that seek him, to support them in all ways. And again we besought our Lord as touching these things, and found him favourable unto us.

⁵⁴ Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, ^{mm}Esebias, and Assanias, and ten men of their brethren with them: and I ⁿweighed them the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of

And [°] from the river Theras we de- ⁶¹ parted the twelfth day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with us: and from the [†] beginning of our journey the Lord delivered us from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem. And when we had been there ⁶² three days, the gold and silver that was weighed was delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day [†] unto Marmoth the priest the son of Iri. And with him was Eleazar ⁶³ the son of Phinees, and with them were Josabad the son of Jesu and [†] Moeth the son of Sabban, Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight. And all the weight of them was writ- ⁶⁴ ten up the same hour. Moreover they ⁶⁵ that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifice unto [†] the Lord God of Israel, even twelve bullocks for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, [†] three- ⁶⁶ score and twelve lambs, goats for [†] a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord. And they deliver- ⁶⁷ ed the king's [°] commandments unto the king's [†] stewards, and to the governors of [°] Coelosyria and Phenice; and they honoured the people and the temple of God.

* Now when these things were done, ⁶⁸ the rulers came unto me, and said, The ⁶⁹ nation of Israel, the princes, the priests and Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, nor the pollutions of the Gentiles, to wit, of the Canaanites, Hittites, Pheresites, Je- ⁷⁰ busites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and [†] Edomites. For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the great men have been partakers ⁷¹ of this iniquity. And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me ⁷² down sad and ^z very heavy. So all they that were then moved at the word of [†] the Lord God of Israel assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still ^z full of heaviness until the ⁷³ evening sacrifice. Then rising up from [†] the fast with my clothes and the holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto the Lord, ⁷⁴ I said,

O Lord, I am confounded and bas- ⁷⁵ hamed before thy face; for our sins [†] are multiplied above our heads, and our ignorances have reached up unto heaven. ⁷⁶ For ever since the time of our fathers we have been and are in great sin, even ⁷⁷ unto this day. And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and our priests were given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and [°] for a prey with shame, ⁷⁸ unto this day. And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place ⁷⁹ of thy sanctuary; and to discover unto us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and [†] to give us [†] food in the time ⁸⁰ of our servitude. Yea, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord; but he made us gracious before the kings of Persia, [†] so that they gave us ⁸¹ food; yea, and honoured the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Sion, that they have given us a sure abid- ⁸² ing in Jewry and Jerusalem. And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed thy [°] commandments, which thou gavest by the hand of thy servants the prophets, ⁸³ saying, that the land, which ye enter into to possess as an heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with ⁸⁴ their uncleanness. unto your sons. Moreover you shall never⁸⁵ seek to have peace with them, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave the inheritance of the land unto your children for evermore. And all that is befallen⁸⁶ is done unto us for our wicked works and great sins: for thou, O Lord, didst make our sins light, and didst give unto⁸⁷ us such ^fa root: but we have turned back again to transgress thy law, and to mingle ourselves with the uncleanness of the nations of the land. [†]Mightest⁸⁸ not thou be angry with us to destroy us, till thou hadst ^gleft us neither ^froot, seed, nor name? O Lord of Israel, thou art⁸⁹ true: for we are left ^fa root this day. Behold, now are we before thee in our⁹⁰ iniquities, for we cannot stand any longer by reason of these things before thee.

^hAnd as Esdras in his prayer made⁹¹ his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered unto him from Jerusalem a very great multitude of men and women and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude. Then Jechonias the son of Jeelus, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Esdras, we have sinned against the Lord God, we have married strange women of the nations of the land, and now is all Israel [†]aloft. Let us make an oath to the⁹³ Lord, that we will put away all our wives, which we have taken of the heathen, with their children, like as thou hast decreed, and as many as do obey the law of the Lord. Arise, and put in⁹⁵ execution: for to thee doth this matter appertain, and we will be with thee: do valiantly. So Esdras arose, and took an⁹⁶ oath of the chief of the priests and Levites [†]of all Israel to do after these things; and so they sware.

IX.

Then Esdras rising from the court of the temple went to the chamber of Joanan the son of Eliasib, and remained there, and did eat no meat nor drink water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude. And there was a proclamation in all Jewry and Jerusalem to all them that were of the captivity, that they should be gathered together at Jerusalem: and that whosoever met not *there*⁴ within two or three days, according as the elders that bare rule appointed, their cattle should be seized to the use of the temple, and himself [†]cast out from them that were of the captivity.

^aAnd in three days were all they of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem the twentieth day⁶ of the ninth month. And all the multitude sat trembling in the broad court of the temple because of the present foul⁷ weather. So Esdras arose up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed the law in marrying strange wives, thereby to increase the sins of Israel. And now ^bby confessing give glory unto the Lord God⁹ of our fathers, and do his will, and separate yourselves from the heathen of the land, and from the strange women.¹⁰ Then cried the whole multitude, and said with a loud voice, Like as thou¹¹ hast spoken, so will we do. But forasmuch as the people are many, and it is foul weather, so that we cannot stand without, and this is not a work of a day or two, seeing our sin in these things is spread far: therefore let the rulers of the multitude [†]stay, and let all them of our habitations that have strange wives¹³ come at the time appointed, and with them the rulers and judges of every place, till we turn away the wrath of the Lord¹⁴ from us for this matter. Then Jonathan the son of Azael and Ezechias the son of Theocanus accordingly took this matter upon them: and Mosollam and Levis¹⁵ and Sabbatheus helped them. And they that were of the captivity did according¹⁶ to all these things. And Esdras the priest chose unto him the principal men of their families, all by name: and in the first day of the tenth month they¹⁷ sat together to examine the matter. So their cause that held strange wives was brought to an end ^din the first day of the first month.

¹⁸And of the priests that were come together, and had strange wives, there were¹⁹ found; of the sons of Jesus the son of Josedec, and his brethren; ^eMatthelas, and Eleazar, and ^fJoribus, and ^gJoadanus. And they gave their hands to put away their wives, and to offer [†]rams to make reconciliation for their ^{§§}errors.²¹ And of the sons of Emmer; Ananias, and Zabdeus, and ^hEanes, and ⁱSameius, and ^jHiereel, and ^kAzarias. And of the sons of ^lPhaisur; Elionas, Massias, Ismael, and Nathanael, and ^mOcidelus, and ⁿTalsas.

And ³³ of the sons of Asom; ^pAltaneus, and ^qMatthias, and ^rBannaia, Eliphalat, and Manasses, and Semei. And of the sons of ³⁴ Maani; Jeremias, Momdis, Omaerus, Juel, Mabdai, and Pelias, and Anos, Carabasion, and Enasibus, and Mamni-tanaimus, Eliasis, Bannus, Eliali, Samis, Selemias, Nathanas: and ^sof the sons of Ozora; Sesis, Esril, Azaelus, Samatus, Zambis, Josephus. And of the sons ³⁵ of Ethma; Mazitias, Zabadaias, Edes, Juel, Banaias. All these had taken ³⁶ strange wives, and they put them away with their children.

³⁷ And the priests and Levites, and they that were of Israel, dwelt in Jeru-salem, and in the country, ^uin the first day of the seventh month: so the chil-dren of Israel were in their ¹habita-tions. ^xAnd the whole multitude came ³⁸ together with one accord into ^ythe broad place of the holy porch ^ztoward the east: and they spake unto Esdras the priest ³⁹ and ^areader, that he would bring the law of Moses, that was given of ^bthe Lord God of Israel. So Esdras the chief priest brought the law unto the whole multitude from man to woman, and to all the priests, to hear the law ^cin the first day of the seventh month. ^c ver. 37.

⁴¹ And he read in ^dthe broad court before the holy porch from morning unto mid-day, before both men and women; and all the multitude gave heed unto the law. And Esdras the priest and ^areader of the law stood ^{up} upon a pulpit of wood, which was made for that purpose. ⁴³ And there stood ^{up} by him Mattathias, Sammus, Ananias, Azarias, Urias, ^eEze-cias, ^fBalasamus, upon the right hand: and upon his left hand stood ^gPhal-daius, Misael, Melchias, ^hLothasubus, ⁴⁵ and ⁱNabarias. Then took Esdras the book of the law before the multitude: for he sat ¹honourably in the first place ⁴⁶ in the sight of them all. And when he opened the law, they stood all straight up. So Esdras blessed the Lord God most High, the God of hosts, ^kAlmighty. ⁴⁷ And all the people answered, Amen; and lifting up their hands they fell to the ground, and worshipped the Lord. ⁴⁸ Also Jesus, Anus, Sarabias, Adinus, Jacobus, Sabateus, ^lAuteas, Maianeas, and Calitas, Azarias. and Joazabdus, and Ananias, Biatas, the Levites, taught the law of the Lord, making them withal to ^munderstand it.

⁴⁹ Then spake ⁿAttharates unto Esdras the ^ochief priest and ^areader, and to the Levites that taught the multitude, even ⁵⁰ to all, saying, This day is holy unto the Lord; (for they all wept when they heard the law :) go then, and eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send part to ¹them ⁵² that have nothing; for this day is holy unto the Lord: and be not sorrowful; for the Lord will bring you to honour. ⁵³ So the Levites published all things to the people, saying, This day is holy to the Lord; be not sorrowful. Then went they their way, every one to eat and drink, and make merry, and to give ^ppart to them that had nothing, and to ⁵⁵ make great cheer; because they ^munderstood the words wherein they were instructed, and for the which they had been assembled.

I. THE second book of the prophet ^a Esdras, the son of ^b Saraïas, the son of Azarias, the son of Helchias, the son of ¹ Sadamias, the son of Sadoc, the son of Achitob, the son of Achias, the son of Phinees, the son of Heli, the son of Amarias, the son of Aziei, the son of Marimoth, the son of Arna, the son of Ozias, the son of Borith, the son of Abisei, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, of the tribe of Levi; which was captive in the land of ^c the Medes, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of the Persians.

And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Go thy way, and ^d shew my people their sinful deeds, and their children their wickedness which they have done against me; that they may tell their children's children: because the sins of their fathers are increased in them: for they have forgotten me, and have offered unto strange gods. Am not I even he that ^e brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage? but they have provoked me unto wrath, and despised my counsels. ^f Pull thou off then the hair of thy head, and cast all evil upon them, for they have not been obedient unto my law, but ^g it is a rebellious people. ^h How long shall I forbear them, unto whom I have done so much ⁱ good? I will cast you out from my face.

^k When you offer unto me, I will turn my face from you: for your solemn feastsdays, your new moons, and your circumcisions, have I forsaken. ^l I sent unto you my servants the prophets, whom ye have taken and slain, and torn their bodies in pieces, whose blood I will require of your hands, saith the Lord. Thus saith the ^b Almighty Lord,

^m Your house is desolate, ⁿ I will cast you out ^o as the wind doth stubble. I Esdras received a charge of the ³³ Lord upon the mount ^m Oreb, that I should go unto Israel; but when I came unto them, they set me at nought, and despised the commandment of the Lord. And therefore I say unto you, ³⁴ O ye heathen, that hear and understand, look for ⁿ your Shepherd, he shall give you everlasting ^o rest; for he is nigh at hand, ^p that shall come in the end of the world. He answered and said unto me, These be they ^e that have put off the mortal clothing, and put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of God: now ^d are they crowned, and ^e receive palms. Then said I unto ^e the angel, What ^h young person is it that crowneth them, and giveth them palms ⁴⁵ in their hands? So he answered and said unto me, ^d It is the Son of God, whom they have confessed in the world. Then began I greatly to commend them that stood so stiffly for the name of ⁴⁸ the Lord. Then ^e the angel said unto me, Go thy way, and ⁱ tell my people what manner of things, and how great wonders of the Lord thy God thou hast seen.

In the thirtieth year after ^a the ruin of the city I was in Babylon, and lay troubled upon my bed, and ^b my thoughts ² came up over my heart: for I saw the desolation of Sion, and the wealth of ³ them that dwelt at Babylon. And my spirit was sore moved, so that I began to speak words full of fear to the most High, and said,

⁴ O Lord, ^{bb} who bearest rule, thou spakest at the beginning, when thou didst plant the earth, and that ^c thyself alone, ⁵ and commandedst the people, and ^d gavest a body unto Adam without soul, which was the workmanship of thine hands, and ^d didst breathe into him the breath of life, and he was made living ⁶ before thee. And ^e thou leddest him into paradise, which thy right hand had planted, before ever the earth came forward. And unto him thou gavest commandment to love thy way: which he transgressed, and immediately ^fthou appointedst death in him and in his generations, of whom came nations, tribes, people, and kindreds, out of number. And ^gevery people walked after their own will, and ^hdid wonderful things before thee, and despised thy commandments. And again in process of time ⁱthou broughtest the flood upon those that dwelt in the world, and destroyedst them. And it came to pass in every of them, that as death was to Adam, so was the flood to these. Nevertheless one of them thou leftest, namely, ^kNoah with his household, of whom came all righteous men. And it happened, that when they that dwelt upon the earth began to multiply, and had gotten them many children, and were a great people, they began again to be more ungodly than the first. Now when they lived so wickedly before thee, ^lthou didst choose thee a man from among them, whose name was ^mAbraham. ⁿHim thou lovedst, and unto him only thou shewedst thy will: and ^omadest an everlasting covenant with him, promising him that thou wouldst never forsake his seed. And ^punto him thou gavest Isaac, and ^qunto Isaac also thou gavest Jacob and Esau. As for Jacob, ^rthou didst choose him to thee, and put by Esau: and so ^sJacob became a great multitude. And it came to pass, ^tthat when thou leddest his seed out of Egypt, ^uthou broughtest them up to the mount Sina. And ^vbowing the heavens, ^wthou didst set fast the earth, movedst the whole world, and ^xmadest the depths to tremble, and ^ytroubledst the men of that age. And ^zthy glory went through four gates, of fire, and of earthquake, and of wind, and of cold; that thou mightest give the law unto the seed of Jacob, and diligence unto the generation of Israel. And yet tookest thou not away from them a wicked heart, that thy law might bring forth fruit in them. For ^athe first Adam bearing a wicked heart transgressed, and was overcome; and so ^bbe all they that are born of him. Thus infirmity was made permanent; and ^cthe law also in the heart of the people with ^dthe malignity of the root; ^eso that the good departed away, and the evil abode still. So the times passed away, and the years were brought to an end: then ^ddidst thou raise thee up a servant, called David: ^ewhom thou commandedst to build a city unto thy name, and to offer incense and oblations unto thee therein. When this was done many years, then they that inhabited the city forsook thee, and in all things did even as Adam and all his generations had done: for they also had a wicked heart: and so thou gavest thy city over into the hands of thine enemies. ^fAre their deeds then any better that inhabit Babylon, that they should therefore have the dominion over Sion? For when I came thither, and had seen impieties without number, then my soul saw many evil-doers in ^gthis thirtieth year, so that ^hmy heart failed me. For ⁱI have seen how thou sufferest them sinning, and hast spared wicked doers: and hast destroyed thy people, and hast preserved thine enemies, and hast not signified it. I do not ^jremember how this way may be left: ^kAre they then of Babylon better than they of Sion? Or is there any other people that knoweth thee besides Israel? or what generation hath so believed thy covenants as Jacob? And yet their reward appeareth not, and their labour hath no fruit: for I have gone here and there through the heathen, and I see that they ^lflow in wealth, and think not upon thy commandments. Weigh thou therefore our wickedness now in the balance, and theirs also that dwell in the world; and so shall thy name no where be found but in Israel. Or when was it that they which dwell upon the earth have not sinned in thy sight? or what people hath so kept thy commandments? Thou shalt find that Israel by name hath kept thy precepts; but not the heathen.

And the angel that was sent unto me, whose name was ^aUriel, gave me an answer, and said, Thy heart hath gone too far in this world, and ^{aa}thinkest thou to comprehend the way of the most High? Then said I, Yea, my Lord. And he answered me, and said, I am sent to shew thee ^bthree ways, and to set forth three similitudes before thee: whereof if thou canst declare me one, I will shew thee also the way that thou desirest to see, and I shall shew thee from whence the wicked heart cometh. And I said, Tell on, my Lord. Then said he unto me; Go thy way, weigh me the weight of the fire, or measure me the blast of the wind, or call me again the day that is past. Then answered I and said, ⁶ What man is able to do that, that thou shouldest ask such things of me? And he said unto me, If I should ask thee how great dwellings are ⁷ in the midst of the sea, or how many springs are in the beginning of the deep, or how many springs are above the firmament, or which are the outgoings of ⁸ paradise: peradventure thou wouldest say unto me, I never went down into the deep, nor as yet into hell, neither did I ever climb up into heaven. Nevertheless ⁹ now have I asked thee but only of the fire and wind, and of the day where-through thou hast passed, and of things from which thou canst not be separated, and yet canst thou give me no answer of them. He said moreover unto me, ¹⁰ Thine own things, and such as are grown up with thee, canst thou not know; how ¹¹ should thy vessel then be able to comprehend the way of the Highest, and, the world being now outwardly corrupted, to understand the corruption that is evident in my sight? Then said I unto him, It were better that we were not at all, than that we should live still in wickedness, and to suffer, and not to know wherefore.

He answered me, and said, I went ¹² into a forest into a plain, and the trees took counsel, and said, Come, let us go and make war against the sea, that it may depart away before us, and that we may make us more woods. The floods ¹³ of the sea also in like manner took counsel, and said, Come, let us go up and subdue the woods of the plain, that there also we may make us another country. The thought of the wood was in vain, for ¹⁴ the fire came and consumed it. The thought of the floods of the sea came likewise to nought, for ¹⁵ the sand stood up and stopped them. If thou wert judge ¹⁶ now betwixt these two, whom wouldest thou begin to justify? or whom wouldest thou condemn? I answered and said, ¹⁷ Verily it is a foolish thought that they both have devised, for the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea also ¹⁸ hath his place to bear his floods. Then answered he me, and said, Thou hast given a right judgment, but why judgest thou not thyself also? For like as ¹⁹ the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea to his floods: even so ²⁰ they that dwell upon the earth may understand nothing but that which is upon the earth: and he that dwelleth above the heavens may only ²¹ understand the things that are above the height of the heavens. Then answered I and said, I beseech thee, O Lord, let ²² me have understanding: for it was not my mind to be curious of the high things, but of such as pass by us daily, namely, ²³ wherefore Israel is given up as a reproach to the heathen, and for what ²⁴ cause the people whom thou hast loved is given over unto ungodly nations, and why the law of our forefathers is brought to nought, and the written covenants ²⁵ come to none effect, and we pass away out of the world ²⁶ as grasshoppers, and our life is astonishment and fear, and we are not worthy to obtain mercy. ²⁷ What will he then do unto his name whereby we are called? of these things have I asked.

Then answered he me, and said, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marvel; for ²⁸ the world hasteth fast to pass away, and cannot comprehend the things that are promised to the righteous in time to come: for ²⁹ this world is full of unrighteousness and infirmities. But as concerning the things whereof thou askest me, I will tell thee; for the evil is sown, but the destruction thereof is not yet come. If therefore that which is sown be not turned upside down, and if ³⁰ the place where the evil is sown pass not away, then cannot it come that is sown with good. For ³¹ the grain of evil seed hath been sown in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much ungodliness hath it ³² brought up unto this time? and how much shall it yet bring forth until the time of threshing come? ³³ Ponder now by thyself, how great fruit of wickedness the grain of evil seed hath brought forth. And when the ears shall be cut down, which are without number, how great a floor shall they fill? Then I answered and said, How and when shall these things come to pass? wherefore are our years ³⁴ few and evil? And he answered me, saying, Do not thou hasten above ³⁵ the most Highest: for thy haste is in vain to be above him, for thou hast much exceeded. Did not ³⁶ the souls also of the righteous ask question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long shall I hope on this fashion? when cometh the fruit of the floor of our reward? And unto these things ³⁷ Uriel the archangel gave them

answer, and said, ^wEven when the number of seeds is filled in you: for he hath weighed the world in the balance. By ³⁷measure hath he measured the times, and by number hath he numbered the times; and he doth not move nor stir them, until the said measure be fulfilled. Then answered I and said, ^{ww}O ³⁸Lord that bearest rule, even we all are full of impiety. And for our sakes peradventure it is that the floors of the righteous are not filled, because of the sins of them that dwell upon the earth. So he answered me, and said, Go thy way to a woman with child, and ask of her when she hath fulfilled her nine months, if her womb may keep the birth any longer within her. Then said I, ⁴¹No, Lord, that can she not. And he said unto me, In the grave the ^uchambers of souls are like the womb of a woman: for like as a woman that travaileth maketh haste to escape the necessity of the travail: even so do these places haste to deliver those things that are committed unto them. Then answered I and said, ^xIf I ⁴⁴have found favour in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore, shew ⁴⁵me then whether there be more to come than is past, or ^ymore past than is to come. What is past I know, but what ⁴⁶is for to come I know not. And he said unto me, Stand up upon the right side, and I shall expound the similitude unto thee. So I stood, and saw, and ⁴⁸behold, a hot burning oven passed by before me: and it happened, that when the flame was gone by, I looked, and behold, the smoke remained still. After ⁴⁹this there passed by before me a watery cloud, and sent down much rain with a storm; and when the stormy rain was past, the drops remained still. Then ⁵⁰said he unto me, Consider with thyself; as the rain is more than the drops, and as the fire is greater than the smoke; but the drops and the smoke remain behind: so ^ythe ¹quantity which is past did more exceed. Then I prayed, and ⁵¹said, ²May I live, thinkest thou, until that time? or ^{1a}what shall happen in those days? He answered me, and said, ⁵²As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may tell thee of them in part: but ^{2a}as touching thy life, I am not sent to shew thee; for I do not know it.

Nevertheless ^aas concerning the tokens, behold, the days shall come, that they which dwell upon earth ¹shall be taken in a great number, and the way of truth shall be hidden, and ^bthe land ²shall be barren of faith. But ^ciniquity shall be increased above that which now thou seest, or that thou hast heard long ³ago. And ^dthe land, ¹that thou seest now to have root, shalt thou see wasted ⁴suddenly. But if the most High grant thee to live, thou shalt see ^eafter the third trumpet that ^fthe sun shall suddenly shine again in the night, and ⁵the moon thrice in the day: and ^gblood shall drop out of wood, and ^hthe stone shall give his voice, and the people ⁶shall be troubled: and even he shall rule, whom they look not for that dwell upon the earth, and the fowls shall take their ⁷flight away together: and the Sodomitic sea shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many have not known: but they shall all hear the ⁸voice thereof. There shall be a confusion also in many places, and the fire shall be oft ¹sent out again, and the wild beasts shall change their places, and menstruous women shall bring forth ⁹monsters: and salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and all friends shall destroy one another; then ¹shall wit. hide itself, and understanding withdraw it- ¹⁰self into his ¹secret chamber, and shall be sought of many, and yet not be found: then ^eshall unrighteousness and incontinency be multiplied upon earth. ¹¹One land also shall ask another, and say, Is righteousness that maketh a man righteous gone through thee? Up then, and eat bread, and forsake us ¹⁸ not, ^o as the shepherd that leaveth his flock in the hands of cruel wolves. Then ¹⁹ said I unto him, Go thy ways from me, and come not nigh me. And he heard what I said, and went from me.

And so ¹ I fasted seven days, mourn-²⁰ ing and weeping, ¹ like as ^p Uriel the angel commanded me. And after seven ²¹ days so it was, that the thoughts of my heart were very grievous unto me again, and ^q my soul recovered the spirit of ²² understanding, and I began to talk with the most High again, and said, ²³

^r O Lord that bearest rule, of every wood of the earth, and of all the trees thereof, thou hast chosen thee ^s one only vine: and of all lands of the whole ²⁴ world thou hast chosen thee ^t one pit: and of all the flowers thereof ^u one lily: and of all the depths of the sea ²⁵ thou hast filled thee ^w one river: and of all builded cities thou hast hallowed ²⁶ Zion unto thyself: and of all the fowls ^x one dove: and of all the cattle that are made thou hast provided thee ^y one sheep: and among all the multitudes of peoples thou hast gotten thee one people: and unto this people, ²⁷ whom thou lovedst, thou gavest a law that is approved of all. And now, O Lord, why hast thou given this one people over unto many? and ¹ upon ^a the one root hast thou prepared others, and why hast thou scattered thy ⁵ only one people among many? And they which did gainsay thy pro-²⁹ mises, and believed not thy covenants, have trodden them down. If thou didst ³⁰ so much hate thy people, yet shouldst thou punish them with thine own hands.

Now when I had spoken these words, ³¹ the angel that came to me ^b the night afore was sent unto me, and said unto ³² me, Hear me, and I will instruct thee; hearken to the thing that I say, and I shall tell thee more. And I said, Speak ³³ on, my Lord. Then said he unto me, Thou art sore troubled in mind for Israel's sake: ^c lovest thou that people better than he that made them? And I ³⁴ said, No, Lord: but of very grief have I spoken: for ^d my reins pain me every hour, while I labour ^e to comprehend the way of the most High, and to seek out part of his judgment. And I said, She cannot: but ⁴⁸ must do it by distance of time. Then said he unto me, Even so have I given the womb of the earth to those that be ⁴⁹ sown in it in their times. For like as a young child may not bring forth the things that belong to the aged, even so have I disposed the world which I created. And I asked, and said, See-⁵⁰ing thou hast now given me the way, I will proceed to speak before thee: for our mother, of whom ^mthou hast told me that she is young, draweth now nigh unto age. He answered me, and said, Ask a ⁵¹woman that beareth children, and she shall tell thee. Say unto her, Where-⁵²fore are not they whom thou hast now brought forth ^ulike those that were before, but less of stature? And she ⁵³shall answer thee, They that be born in the strength of youth are of one fashion, and they that are born in the time of age, when the womb faileth, are otherwise. Consider thou therefore also, how that ⁵⁴ye are less of stature than those that were before you. And so are they that ⁵⁵come after you less than ye, as the creatures which now begin to be old, and have passed over the strength of youth. said unto me, Up, Esdras, and hear the words that I am come to tell thee. And I said, Speak on, ^bmy God. Then ³said he unto me, The sea is set in a wide place, that it might be deep and great. But put the case the entrance ⁴were narrow, and like a river; who ⁵then could go into the sea to look upon it, and to rule it? if he went not through the narrow, how could he come into the broad? There is also another thing; A city is builded, and set upon a broad field, and is full of all good things: the entrance thereof is narrow, and is set in a ⁷dangerous place to fall, like as if there were a fire on the right hand, and on the left a deep water: and one only path between ⁸them both, even between the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man go there at once. If this city ⁹now were given unto a man for an inheritance, if he never shall pass the danger set before it, how shall he receive this inheritance? And I said, It ¹⁰*is* so, Lord. Then said he unto me, Even so also is Israel's portion. Because ^cfor their sakes I made the world: and ^dwhen Adam transgressed my statutes, then was decreed that now is done. Then were the entrances of ¹²this world made narrow, ^efull of sorrow and travail: they are but few and evil, full of perils, and very painful. For ¹³the entrances of the ^felder world were wide and sure, and brought ^gimmortal fruit. If then they that live labour not to enter these ^hstrait and vain things, they can never ⁱreceive those that are laid up for them. Now therefore why ¹⁵disquietest thou thyself, seeing thou art but a corruptible man? and why art thou moved, whereas thou art but mortal? Why hast thou not considered in ¹⁶thy mind this thing that is to come, rather than that which is present? Then ¹⁷answered I and said, ^kO Lord that bearest rule, thou hast ordained ^lin thy law, that the righteous should inherit these things, but that the ungodly should perish. Nevertheless the righteous shall suffer strait things, and hope for wide: for they that have done wickedly have suffered the strait things, and yet shall not see the wide. And he said unto ¹⁹me, There is no judge above God, and none that hath understanding above the Highest. For there be many that perish ²⁰in this life, because they despise the law of God that is set before them. For God hath given strait commandment to such as came, what they should do to live, even as they came, and what they should observe to avoid punishment.

²²Nevertheless they were not obedient unto him; but spake against him, and ²³imagined vain things; and deceived themselves by their wicked deeds; and said of the most High, that he is not; ²⁴and knew not his ways: but ^mhis law have they despised, and denied his covenants: in his statutes have they not been faithful, and have not performed his works. And therefore, Esdras, ⁿfor the empty are empty things, and for the full are the full things.

²⁶Behold, the time shall come, that these tokens which I have told thee shall come to pass, and the bride shall appear, and she coming forth shall be seen, that now is withdrawn from the

²⁷earth. And whosoever is delivered from ^othe foresaid evils shall see my won-

²⁸ders. For my son Jesus shall be revealed with those that be with him, and they that remain shall rejoice with ²⁹in ^pfour hundred years. ^pAfter these years shall my son Christ die, and all ³⁰men that have life. And the world shall be turned into ^qthe old silence seven days, like as in the ^rformer judgments: so that no man shall remain.

³¹And after seven days the world, that yet awaketh not, shall be raised up, and ³²that shall die that is corrupt. And ^rthe earth shall restore those that are asleep in her, and ^sso shall the dust those that dwell in silence, and the ^ssecret places shall deliver those souls

³³that were committed unto them. And ^tthe most High shall appear upon the seat of judgment, and misery shall pass away, and the long suffering shall have ³⁴an end: but judgment only shall remain, ^utruth shall stand, and ^vfaith shall wax strong: and ^vthe work shall follow, and ^wthe reward shall be shewed, and the good deeds shall be of force, and wicked deeds shall bear no rule.

Even so now, seeing corruption is grown up, and wickedness increased, and the righteous have prayed for the ungodly; wherefore shall it not be so now also? He answered me, and said, This present life is not the end, where much glory doth abide; therefore have they prayed for the weak. But the day of doom shall be the end of this time, and the beginning of ^g the immortality for to come, ^g where in corruption is past, intemperance is at an end, ^h infidelity is cut off, righteousness is grown, ^h and truth is sprung up. Then ⁱ shall no man be able to save him that is destroyed, nor to oppress ^k him ^k that hath gotten the victory. I answered then and said,

This is my first and last saying, that it had been better not to have given the earth unto Adam: or else, when it was given ^{him}, to have restrained him from sinning. ^l For what profit is it for men now in this present time to live in heaviness, and after death to look for punishment? O thou Adam, what hast thou done? for ^m though it was thou that sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but we all that come of thee. For what profit is it unto us, if there be promised us an immortal time, whereas we have done ⁿ the works that bring death? And that there is promised us an everlasting hope, whereas ourselves being most wicked are made vain? And that there are laid up for us dwellings of health and safety, whereas we have lived wickedly? And that the glory of the most High is kept to defend them which have led ^o a wary life, whereas we have walked in the most wicked ways of all? And that there should be shewed ^o a paradise, whose fruit endureth for ever, wherein is ^p security and ^p medicine, sith we shall not enter into it? (For we have walked in unpleasant places.) And that ^q the faces of them which have used abstinence shall shine above the stars, whereas ^r our faces shall be blacker than darkness? For while we lived and committed iniquity, we considered not that we should begin to suffer for it after death.

Then answered he me, and said, This is the ^l condition of the battle, which man that is born upon the earth shall fight; that. if he be overcome, he shall suffer ^s as thou hast said: but if he ^k get the victory, ^t he shall receive the thing that I say. For this is the life whereof Moses spake unto the people while he lived, saying, ^u Choose thee life, that thou mayest live. Nevertheless they believed not him, nor yet the prophets after him, no nor me which have spoken unto them, that there should not be such heaviness in their destruction, as ^w shall be joy over them that are persuaded to salvation. I answered then, and said, I know, Lord, that the most High is called merciful, in that he hath mercy upon them which are not yet come into the world, and upon those also that turn to his law; and that he is ^x patient, and long suffereth those that have sinned, as his creatures; and that he is bountiful, for he is ready to give where it needeth; and that he is of great mercy, for he multiplieth more and more mercies to them that are present, and that are past, and also to ^y them which are to come. For if he shall not multiply his mercies, the world would not ^y continue with them that inherit therein. And he pardoneth; ^z for if he did not so of his goodness, that they which have committed iniquities might be eased of them, the ten thousand part of men should not ^y remain living. And being judge, if he should not forgive them that are ^l cured with his word, and put out the multitude of ^l contentions, there should be very few left peradventure in an innumerable multitude.

And he answered me, saying, The most High hath made this world for many, ^a but the world to come for few. ^a I will tell thee a similitude, Esdras; As when thou askest the earth, it shall say unto thee, that it giveth much mould whereof earthen vessels are made, but little dust that gold cometh of: even so is the course of this present world. ^a There be ^b many created, but few shall be saved. So answered I and said,

Swallow then down, O my soul, understanding, and devout wisdom. For thou hast agreed to give ear, and art willing to prophesy: ^c for thou hast no longer space than only to live. O Lord, if thou suffer not thy servant, that we may pray before thee, and

¶ thou give us seed unto our heart, and culture to our understanding, that there may come fruit of it; how shall each man live that is corrupt, who beareth the place of a man? For thou art alone, and we all one workmanship of thine hands, ^dlike as thou hast said. For ^ewhen the body is fashioned now ⁸ in the mother's womb, and thou givest it members, thy creature is preserved in fire and water, and nine months doth thy workmanship endure thy creature which is created in her. But that which ⁹ keepeth and is kept shall both be preserved: and when the time cometh, the womb preserved delivereth up the things that grew in it. For thou hast commanded out of the parts of the body, that is to say, out of the breasts, milk to be given, which is the fruit of the breasts. that the thing which is fashioned may be nourished for a time, till thou disposest it to thy mercy. Thou broughtest it up with thy righteousness, and nurturedst it in thy law, and reformedst it with thy judgment. And ¹³ thou shalt mortify it as thy creature, and quicken it as thy work. If there-¹⁴ fore ²thou shalt destroy him which with so great labour was fashioned, it is an easy thing to be ordained by thy commandment, that the thing which was made might be preserved. Now therefore, Lord, I will speak; touching man in general, thou knowest best: but touching thy people, for whose sake I am sorry; and for thine inheritance, ¹⁶ for whose cause I mourn; and for Israel, for whom I am heavy; and for Jacob, for whose sake I am troubled; therefore will I begin to pray before ¹⁷ thee for myself and for them: for I see the falls of us that dwell in the land. For while I live I will speak, and so long as I have understanding I will answer. O look not upon the sins of thy people; but on them which serve thee in truth. Regard not the wicked inventions of the heathen, but the desire of those that keep thy testimonies in afflictions. Think not upon those that have walked feignedly before thee: but remember them, which according to thy will have known ⁿthy fear. Let it not be thy will to destroy them which have lived like beasts; but to look upon them that have clearly taught thy law. Take thou no indignation at them which are deemed worse than beasts; but love them that alway put their trust in thy righteousness and glory. For we and our fathers ¹do languish of such diseases: but because of us sinners ^othou shalt be called merciful. For if thou ¹hast a desire to have mercy upon us, thou shalt be called ^pmerciful, to us namely, that have no works of righteousness. For the just, which have many good works laid up with thee, ^qshall out of their own deeds receive reward. and planteth many trees, and yet the thing that is sown good in his season cometh not up. neither doth all that is planted take root: even so is it of them that are sown in the world; ² they shall not all be saved. I answered then and said, ^a If I have found grace, let me speak. Like as the husbandman's seed ^b perisheth, if it come not up, and ^c receive not thy rain in due season; or if there come too much rain, and corrupt it: even so perisheth man also, which ^d is formed with thy hands, and ^e is called thine own image, because thou art like unto him, ^f for whose sake thou hast made all things, and ^g likened him unto the husbandman's seed. Be not wroth with us, but ^h spare thy people, and have mercy upon thine own inheritance: for thou art merciful unto thy creature. Then answered he me, ⁱ and said, Things present are for the present, and things to come for such as be to come. For thou comest far short ^j that thou shouldst be able to love my creature more than I: but I have oftentimes drawn nigh unto thee, and unto it, but never to the unrighteous. In this also thou art marvellous before the most High: in that thou hast humbled thyself, as it becometh thee, and hast not judged thyself worthy to be much glorified among the righteous. For many great miseries shall be done to them that ^k in the latter time shall dwell in the world, because they have walked in great ^l pride. But understand thou for thyself, and seek out the glory for such as be like thee. For unto you is ^m paradise opened, ⁿ the tree of life is planted, ^o the time to come is prepared, plenteousness is made ready, ^p a city is builded, and ^q rest is allowed, yea, perfect goodness and wisdom. The root of evil ^r is sealed up from you, weakness and the ^s moth is hid from you, and corruption is fled into ^t hell to be forgotten: ^u sorrows are passed, and in the end is shewed the treasure of immortality. And therefore ask thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish. For ^v when they had taken liberty, they despised the most High, thought scorn of his law, and forsook his ways. Moreover they have trodden down his righteous, and ^w said in their heart, that there is no God; yea, and that knowing they must die. For as ^x the things aforesaid shall receive you, so ^y thirst and pain are prepared for them: for ^z it was not his will that men should come to nought: but they which be created have ^{aa} defiled the name of him that made them, and were ^{ab} unthankful unto him which prepared life for them. And therefore ^{ac} ^y is my judgment now at hand. These things have I not shewed unto all men, but unto thee, and a few ^{ad} like thee. Then answered I and said, Behold, O Lord, now hast thou shewed me the multitude of the ^{ae} wonders, which thou wilt begin to do ^{af} in the last times: but at what time, thou hast not shewed me. He answered me then, and said, Measure thou the time diligently in itself: and when thou seest part of the ^{ag} signs past, which I have told thee before, ^{ah} then shalt thou understand, that it is the very same time, wherein the Highest will begin to visit the world which he made. Therefore when there shall be seen ^{ai} earthquakes and ^{aj} uproars of the people in the world: then shalt thou ^{ak} well understand, that the most High spake of those things from the days that were before thee, even from the beginning. For like as all that is made in the world hath a beginning and an end, and the end is manifest: ^{al} even so the times also of the Highest have plain beginnings in wonders and powerful works, and endings in effects and ^{am} signs. And every one that shall be saved, and shall be able to escape ^{an} by his works, and ^{ao} by faith, whereby ye have believed, shall be preserved from the said perils, and ^{ap} shall see my salvation in my land, and within my borders: for ^{aq} I have sanctified them for me from the beginning. Then ^{ar} shall they be in pitiful case, which now have abused my ways: and they that have cast them away despitefully shall dwell in torments. For such as ^{as} in their life have received benefits, and have not known me; and ^{at} they that have lothed my law, ^{au} while they had yet liberty, and, when as yet ^{av} place of repentance was open unto them, understood not, but despised it; the same must know ^{aw} it after death by pain. said before, and now do speak, and will speak it also hereafter, that ° there be many moe of them which perish, than of them which shall be saved, like ¹⁶ as a wave is greater than a drop. And ¹⁷ he answered me, saying, Like as the field is, so is also the seed; as the flowers be, such are the colours also; such as the workman is, such also is the work; and as the husbandman is himself, so is his husbandry also. ¶ for it was the time of the world. And now ¹⁸ when I prepared the world, which was not yet made, even for them to dwell in that now live, no man spake against me. For then every one obeyed: ¶ but ¹⁹ now the manners of them which are created in this world that is made are corrupted by a perpetual seed, and by a law which is unsearchable rid themselves. So I considered the world, and ²⁰ behold, there was peril because of the devices that were come into it. And ²¹ I saw, and ^s spared it greatly, and ^t have kept me a ^u grape of the cluster, and ^v a plant of a great people. Let ° the ²² multitude perish then, which was born in vain; and let my ^u grape be kept, and my plant; for with great labour have I made it perfect. Nevertheless, ²³ if thou wilt cease ^y yet seven days moe, (but thou shalt not fast in them, but ²⁴ go into a field of flowers, where no house is builded, and ^w eat only the flowers of the field; taste no flesh, drink no wine, but ^x eat flowers only:) and pray unto the Highest continually, ²⁵ then will I come and talk with thee.

So I went my way into the field ²⁶ which is called Ardath, like as he commanded me; and there I sat amongst the flowers, and did eat of the herbs of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me. After seven days I sat upon ²⁷ the grass, and my heart was vexed within me, ^y like as before: and I ²⁸ opened my mouth, and began to talk before the most High, and said,

O Lord, thou that shewest thyself ²⁹ unto us, ^a thou wast shewed unto our fathers in the wilderness, in a place where no man ^{treadeth}, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt. And thou spakest, saying, Hear me, ³⁰ O Israel; and mark my words, thou seed of Jacob. For behold, I sow my ³¹ law in you, and it shall bring fruit in you, and ye shall be honoured in it for ever. But our fathers, which re- ³²

ceived the law, kept it not, and observed not thy ordinances: and ^b though the fruit of thy law did not perish, neither could it, for it was thine; yet ³³ they that received it perished, because they kept not the thing that was sown in them. And lo, it is a custom, when ³⁴ the ground hath received seed, or the sea a ship, or any vessel meat or drink, that, that being perished wherein it was ³⁵ sown or cast into, that thing also which was sown, or cast therein, or received, doth perish, and remaineth not with us: but with us it hath not happened so. ³⁶ For we ^c that have received the law perish by sin, and our heart also which ³⁷ received it. Notwithstanding ^b the law perisheth not, but remaineth in his force.

And when I spake these things in my heart, I looked back with mine eyes, and upon the right side I saw ^d a woman, and behold, she mourned and wept with a loud voice, and was much grieved in heart, and ^e her clothes were rent, and she had ^f ashes upon her head. ³⁸ ¶ Then let I my thoughts go that I was ³⁹ in, and turned me unto her, and said unto her, Wherefore weepest thou? why ⁴⁰ art thou so grieved in thy mind? And she said unto me, ^h Sir, let me alone, that I may bewail myself, and add unto my sorrow, for I ⁱ am sore vexed in my ⁴¹ mind, and brought very low. And I said unto her, What aileth thee? tell ⁴² me. She said unto me, I thy servant have been barren, and had no child, though I had a husband thirty years, ⁴³ and those thirty years I did nothing else day and night, and every hour, but ⁴⁴ ^j make my prayer to the Highest. After thirty years God heard me thine handmaid, looked upon my misery, considered my trouble, and gave me a son: and I was very glad of him, so was my husband also, and all my neighbours: and we gave great honour unto ⁴⁵ the Almighty. And I nourished him with ⁴⁶ great travail. So when he grew up, and came to the time that he should have a wife, ^k I made a feast. And it ⁴⁷ so came to pass, that when my son was entered into his weddingchamber, ² he fell down, and died. Then we all overthrew the lights, and ^a all my ^l neighbours rose up to comfort me: so I took my rest unto the second day at night. ³ And it came to pass, when they had all left off to comfort me, to the end I

^b Then left I the ^{||} meditations where- in I was, and spake to her in anger, saying, Thou foolish woman above all other, seest thou not our mourning, and what happeneth unto us? How that Sion our mother is full of all heaviness, and ^c much humbled, mourning very sore? And now, seeing we all mourn and are sad, for we are all in heaviness, art thou grieved for one son? For ask the earth, and she shall tell thee, that it is she which ought to mourn for the fall of so many that grow upon her. For out of her came all at the first, and out of her shall all others come, and behold, they walk almost all into destruction, and a multitude of them is utterly ^{||} rooted out. Who then should make more mourning than she, that hath lost so great a multitude; and not thou, which art sorry but for one? But if thou sayest unto me, My lamentation is not like the earth's, because I have lost the fruit of my womb, which I brought forth with pains, and bare with sorrows; ^{||} but the earth not so: for the multitude present in it according to the course of the earth is gone, as it came: then say I unto thee, Like as thou hast brought forth with labour; even so the earth also hath given her fruit, namely, man, ever sithence the beginning unto him that made her. Now therefore keep thy sorrow to thyself, and bear with a good courage that which hath befallen thee. For ^d if thou shalt acknowledge the determination of God to be just, thou shalt both receive thy son in time, and shalt be commended amongst women. Go thy way then into the city to thine husband. And she said unto me, That will I not do: ^e I will not go into the city, but here will I die. So I proceeded to speak further unto her, and said,

Do not so, but be counselled by me: so for how many are the adversities of Sion? be comforted in regard of the sorrow of Jerusalem. For thou seest that ^f our sanctuary is laid waste, ^f our altar broken down, ^g our temple destroyed; our psaltery is laid on the ground, our song

I die frustrate of my hope. For I have³⁵ seen that I knew not, and hear that I do not know. Or is my sense deceived,³⁶ or my soul in a dream? Now therefore³⁷ I beseech thee that thou wilt shew thy servant of this ¹vision. He answered³⁸ me then, and said,

Hear me, and I shall inform thee, and tell thee wherefore thou art afraid: for the Highest will reveal many secret things unto thee. He hath seen that³⁹ thy ¹way is right: for that thou sorrowest continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Sion. This⁴⁰ therefore is the meaning of the vision which thou lately sawest: ^vthou sawest⁴¹ a woman mourning, and thou beganst to comfort her: but now seest thou the⁴² likeness of the woman no more, but ^wthere appeared unto thee a city build-⁴³ed. And whereas she told thee of the death of her son, this is the ¹solution: this woman, whom thou sawest, is Sion:⁴⁴ and whereas she said unto thee, (even she whom thou seest as a city build-⁴⁵ed,) whereas, I say, she said unto thee,

^xthat she hath been thirty years bar-⁴⁶ren: those are the thirty years wherein there was no offering made in her. But after thirty years Solomon builded the city, and ^voffered offerings: and then bare the barren a son. And whereas⁴⁷ she told thee that she nourished him with labour: that was the dwelling in Jerusalem. But whereas she said unto⁴⁸ thee, That my son coming into his marriage chamber ^zhappened to have a fall, and died: this was the destruc-⁴⁹tion that came to Jerusalem. And be-⁵⁰hold, ^vthou sawest her likeness, and because she mourned for her son, thou beganst to comfort her: and of these things which have chanced, these are to be opened unto thee. For now the⁵¹ most High seeth that thou art grieved unfeignedly, and sufferest from thy whole heart for her, so hath he shewed thee the brightness of her glory, and the comeliness of her beauty: and there-⁵²fore ^aI bade thee remain in the field where no house was builded: for I⁵³ knew that the Highest ^bwould shew this unto thee. Therefore ^aI command-⁵⁴ed thee to go into the field, where no foundation of any building was. For⁵⁵ in the place wherein the Highest ^bbeginneth to shew his city, there can no man's building be able to stand. And⁵⁶ therefore fear not, let not thy heart be affrighted, but go thy way in, and^c see the beauty and greatness of the building, as much as thine eyes be able^c to see: and then shalt thou hear as much as thine ears may comprehend.⁵⁷ For thou art blessed above many other, and ¹art called with the Highest; and⁵⁸ ^{so} are but few. But to morrow at night⁵⁹ thou shalt remain here; and so shall the Highest shew thee visions of the ¹high things, which the most High will do unto them that dwell upon earth ^din the last days. So I slept that night and another, like as he commanded me.

Then saw I a dream, and behold, there came up ^afrom the sea ^{aa}an eagle, which had twelve feathered wings, and² three heads. And I saw, and behold, she spread her wings over all the earth, and all the winds of the air blew on her,³ and were gathered together. And I beheld, and out of her feathers there grew other ^bcontrary feathers: and they⁴ became little feathers and small. But her heads were at rest: the head in the midst was greater than the other, yet⁵ rested ¹it with the residue. Moreover I beheld, and lo, the eagle flew with her feathers, and reigned upon earth, and⁶ over them that dwelt therein. And I saw that all things under heaven were subject unto her, and no man spake against her, no, not one creature upon⁷ earth. And I beheld, and lo, the eagle rose upon her talons, and spake to her⁸ feathers, saying, Watch not all at once: sleep every one in his own place, and⁹ watch by course: but let the heads be¹⁰ preserved for the last. And I beheld, and lo, the voice went not out of her heads, but from the midst of her body.¹¹ And I numbered her ^bcontrary feathers, and behold, there were ¹eight of them.¹² And I looked, and behold, ^con the right side there arose one feather, and¹³ reigned over all the earth; and so it was, that when it reigned, the end of it came, and ^dthe place thereof appeared no more: so the next following stood up,¹⁴ and reigned, and had a great time; and it happened, that when it reigned, the end of it came also, like as the first, so¹⁵ that it appeared no more. time, neither unto the half thereof. Then ¹⁸ arose the third, and reigned as the other before, and appeared no more also. Then I ^{be-20} held, and lo, in process of time the feathers that followed stood up ^cupon the right side, that they might rule also; and some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more: for some ²¹ of them were set up, but ruled not. After ²² this I looked, and behold, ^ethe twelve feathers appeared no more, nor the ^ftwo ^blittle feathers: and there was no more ²³ upon the eagle's body, but three ^gheads that rested, and ^fsix ^blittle wings. Then ²⁴ saw I also that two little feathers divided themselves from the six, and remained under the head that was upon the right side: for ⁱthe four continued ^hin their place. And I beheld, and lo, ^hthe fea-25 thers that were under the wing thought to set up themselves, and to have the rule. And I beheld, and lo, there was ²⁶ ⁱone set up, but shortly it appeared no more. And ⁱthe second was sooner ²⁷ away than the first. And I beheld, and ²⁸ lo, ⁱthe two that remained thought also in themselves to reign: and when they ²⁹ so thought, behold, there awaked one of ^gthe heads that were at rest, namely, it that was in the midst; for that was greater than the two other heads. And ³⁰ then I saw that the two other heads were joined with it. And behold, the head ³¹ was turned ^jwith them that were with it, and did eat up ⁱthe two ^hfeathers under the wing that would have reigned. But ³² this head put the whole earth in fear, and bare rule in it over all those that dwelt upon the earth, ^kwith much oppression; and it had the governance of the world more than all the wings that had been. And after this I beheld, and ³³ lo, the head that was in the midst suddenly appeared no more, ⁱlike as the wings. But there remained the two ³⁴ heads, which also in like sort ruled upon the earth, and over those that dwelt therein. And I beheld, and lo, ³⁵ the head upon the right side devoured it that was upon the left side.

Then I heard a voice, which said ³⁶ unto me, Look before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest. And I ³⁷ beheld, and lo, as it were a roaring ^mlion chased out of the wood: and I saw that he sent out a man's voice unto the eagle, and said, Hear thou, I will talk with thee, and the Highest shall say unto ³⁸ thee, Art not thou it that remainest of ³⁹ ⁿthe four beasts, whom I made to reign ⁿin my world, that the end of their times ⁿmight come through them? And ^othe ^ofourth came, and overcame all the beasts that were past, and had power over the world with great fearfulness, and over ^pthe whole compass of the earth ^kwith much wicked oppression; and so long time dwelt he upon the earth with deceit. For the earth hast thou not judged ⁴¹ with truth. For thou hast afflicted the meek, thou hast hurt the peaceable, thou hast loved liars, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruit, and hast cast down the walls of ⁴³ such as did thee no harm. Therefore is thy wrongful dealing come up unto the Highest, and thy pride unto the ⁴⁴ Mighty. The Highest also hath looked upon the proud times, and behold, they are ended, and his abominations are fulfilled. And therefore appear no more, thou eagle, nor ^qthy horrible wings, nor ^rthy wicked feathers, nor ^qthy malicious heads, nor thy hurtful ^sclaws, nor all thy ⁴⁶ vain body: that all the earth ^tmay be refreshed, and may return, being delivered from thy violence, and that she may hope for the judgment and mercy of him that made her.

And it came to pass, whiles the lion spake these words unto the eagle, I saw, and behold, ^athe head that remained, and ^bthe four wings appeared no more, and ^cthe two went unto it, and set themselves up to reign, and ^ctheir kingdom ³ was small, and full of uproar. And I saw, and behold, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the eagle was burnt, so that the earth was in great fear: then awaked I out of the trouble and ^{cc}trance of my mind, and from great ⁴ fear, and said unto my spirit, Lo, this hast thou done unto me, in that thou searchest out the ways of the Highest. ⁵ Lo, yet am I weary in my mind, and very weak in my spirit; and little strength is there in me, for the great fear where- ⁶ with I was affrighted this night. Therefore will I now beseech the Highest, that he will comfort me unto the end. ⁷ And I said, ^dLord that bearest rule, ^eif I have found grace before thy sight, and if I am justified with thee before many ^{others}, and if my prayer indeed be come ⁸ up before thy face; comfort me then, and shew me thy servant the interpretation and plain difference of this fearful vision, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soul. ^fFor ^gthou hast judged ^hme worthy to shew me ⁱthe last times. And he said unto me,

This is the interpretation of the vision: ⁱThe eagle, whom thou sawest ^jcome up from the sea, is the kingdom which was seen ^kin the vision of thy brother Daniel. But it was not expounded unto him, therefore now I declare ^lit unto thee. Behold, the days ^mwill come, that there shall rise up a kingdom upon earth, and it shall be feared above all the kingdoms that were before it. In the same ⁿshall ^otwelve kings reign, one after another: whereof ^pthe second shall begin to reign, and shall have more time than ^qany of the twelve. And this do the twelve wings signify, which thou sawest. As for the voice which thou heardest ^rspeak, and ^sthat thou sawest ^tnot to go out from the heads, but from the midst of the body thereof, this is the interpretation: That after the time of ^uthat kingdom there shall arise great strivings, and it shall stand in peril of falling: nevertheless it shall not then fall, but shall be restored again to his beginning. And whereas thou sawest ^vthe eight ^wsmall under feathers sticking to her wings, this is the interpretation: ^xThat in him there shall arise eight kings, ^ywhose times shall be ^zbut small, and ^atheir years swift. And ^btwo of them shall perish, the middle time approaching: ^cfour shall be kept until their end begin to approach: but ^dtwo shall be kept unto the end. And whereas thou ^esawest ^fthree heads resting, this is the interpretation: ^gIn his last ^hdays shall ⁱthe most High raise up three kingdoms, and renew many ^jthings therein, and they shall have the dominion of the earth, and ^kof those that dwell therein, ^lwith much oppression, above all ^mthose that were before them: therefore are they called the heads of the eagle. For ⁿthese are they that shall accomplish his wickedness, and that shall finish his last ^oend. And whereas thou sawest that ^pthe great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die upon his bed, and yet with pain. For ^qthe two that remain shall be slain with the sword. And ^fthe lion, ^gwhom thou sawest rising up out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the eagle, and rebuking her for her unrighteousness with all the words which ^hthou hast heard; this is the ⁱanointed, which the Highest hath kept for them and ^jfor their wickedness unto the end: he shall reprove them, and shall up-^kbraid them with their cruelty. Jude 14.

And it came to pass ^aafter seven days, I dreamed a dream by night: and lo, there arose ¹a wind from the sea, that it moved all the waves thereof. And I beheld, and lo, that man waxed³ strong with the ^bthousands of heaven: and when he turned his countenance to look, all the things trembled that were seen under him. And whensoever the⁴ voice went out of his mouth, all they burnt that heard his voice, like as the earth faileth when it feeleth the fire. And after this I beheld, and lo,⁵ there was gathered together a multitude of men, out of number, from the four winds of the heaven, to subdue the man that came out of the sea. But I⁶ beheld, and lo, he had graved himself a great mountain, and flew up upon it. But I would have seen the region⁷ or place whereout the hill was graven, and I could not. And after this I⁸ beheld, and lo, all they which were gathered together to subdue him were sore afraid, and yet durst fight. And⁹ lo, as he saw the violence of the multitude that came, he neither lift up his hand, nor held sword, nor any instrument of war: but only I saw that¹⁰ he sent out of his mouth as it had been a blast of fire, and out of his lips a flaming breath, and out of his tongue he cast out sparks and tempests. And they were all mixt to-¹¹gether; the blast of fire, the flaming breath, and the great tempest; and fell with violence upon the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burnt them up every one, so that upon a sudden of an innumerable multitude nothing was to be perceived, but only dust and smell of smoke: when I saw¹² this I was afraid. Afterward saw I the same man come down from the mountain, and call unto him another peace-¹³able multitude. And there came much people unto him, whereof some were glad, some were sorry, ^{bb}some of them were bound, and other some brought¹⁴ ¹of them that were offered: then was I sick through great fear, and I awaked,¹⁵ and said, Thou hast shewed thy servant these wonders from the beginning, and ^chast counted me worthy that thou¹⁶ shoulddest receive my prayer: shew me now yet the interpretation of this dream. For as I conceive in mine understand-¹⁷ing, woe unto them that shall be left in those days! and much more woe unto them that are not left behind!

Therefore are they come into great perils and many necessities, like as these dreams²⁰ declare. Yet is it easier ^ffor him that is in danger ^eto come into ¹these things, than to pass away as a cloud out of the world, and not to see the things that happen ^din the last days. And he answered unto me, and said,

²⁶^jthe midst of the sea: the same is he whom God the Highest hath kept a great season, which ^kby his own self shall deliver his creature: and he shall²⁷ order them ^ethat are left behind. And whereas thou sawest, that ¹out of his mouth there came as a blast of wind,²⁸ and fire, and storm; and that ^mhe held neither sword, nor any instrument of war, but that ⁿthe rushing in of him²⁹ destroyed the whole multitude ^othat came to subdue him; this is the interpretation: Behold, the days come, when ²⁹ the most High will begin ^p to deliver them that are upon the earth. And he ³⁰ shall come to ^q the astonishment of them that dwell on the earth. And ³¹ one shall undertake to fight against another, one city against another, one place against another, ^r one people against another, and ^s one realm against another. And the time shall be when these things shall come to pass, and the signs shall happen ^s which I shewed thee before, and then shall my Son be declared, ⁱ whom thou sawest as a man ascending. And when all the people ³³ hear his voice, every man shall in their own land leave the battle they have one against another. And an innumerable multitude shall be gathered together, as thou sawest them, willing to come, and to overcome him by fighting. But he shall stand upon the top ³⁵ of the ^t mount Sion. And Sion shall ³⁶ come, and shall be shewed to all men, being prepared and builded, ^u like as thou sawest the hill graven without hands. And this my Son shall rebuke ³⁷ the wicked inventions of those nations, which for their wicked life are fallen ^u into the ^u tempest; and shall lay before ³⁸ them their evil thoughts, and the torments wherewith they shall begin to be tormented, ^v which are like unto a flame: and he shall destroy them without labour by the law ^u which is like unto fire. And whereas thou sawest ³⁹ that he gathered ^x another peaceable multitude unto him; those are the ten ⁴⁰ tribes, ^y which were carried away prisoners out of their own land in the time of Osea the king, whom ^z Salmanasar the king of Assyria led away captive, and he carried them over the waters, and so came they into another land. But they took this counsel ⁴¹ amongst themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country, where never mankind dwelt, that they might there ⁴² keep their statutes, which they never kept in their own land. And they entered into ^a Euphrates by the narrow passages of the river. For the most ⁴⁴ High then shewed signs for them, and ^b held still the flood, till they were passed over. For through that country ⁴⁵ there was a great way to go, namely, of a year and a half: and the same region is called [¶] Arsareth. Then dwelt [¶] Or, [¶] Ararath, [¶] See ch. 8. [¶] 50. [¶] Comp. Isai. 11. 15, 16. they there ^c until the latter time: and now when they shall begin to come, ⁴⁷ ^d the Highest shall ^b stay the springs of the stream again, that they may go through: therefore sawest thou the multitude with peace. But those that be left behind of thy people are they that ⁴⁹ are found within my borders. Now when he destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shall defend his people that remain. ⁵⁰ And then shall he shew them great wonders.

⁵¹ Then said I, ^e O Lord that bearest rule, shew me this: Wherefore have I ^f seen the man coming up from the midst of the sea? And he said unto me, ^g Like as thou canst neither seek out nor know the things that are in the deep of the sea: even so can no man upon earth see my Son, or those that ⁵³ be with him, but in ^h the daytime. This is the interpretation of the dream which thou sawest, and whereby thou only art ⁵⁴ here lightened. For thou hast forsaken thine own way, and applied thy diligence unto my law, and sought it. ⁵⁵ Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdom, and ⁱ hast called understanding thy motto. And therefore have I shewed ⁵⁶ thee the treasures of the Highest: after other three days I will speak other things unto thee, and declare unto thee ⁵⁷ mighty and wondrous things. Then went I forth into the field, giving praise and thanks greatly unto the most High because of his wonders, which he ⁵⁸ did in time; and because he governeth the same, and such things as fall in their seasons: and there I sat three days.

And it came to pass ^a upon the third day, I sat under an oak, and behold, ^a ch. 13. 56, ^{58.} there came a voice out of a bush over against me, and said, Esdras, Esdras. ² And I said, Here am I, Lord. And I ³ stood up upon my feet. Then said he unto me, ^b In the bush I did manifestly reveal myself unto Moses, and talked with him, when my people served in ⁴ Egypt: and I sent him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him up to the mount of Sinai, ^c where I held him by me a long season, and told him many wondrous things, and shewed him the secrets of the times, and the end; ⁶ and commanded him, saying, These words shalt thou declare, and these ⁷ shalt thou hide. And now I say unto thee, That thou lay up in thy heart the 8 signs that I have shewed, and the dreams that thou hast seen, and the interpretations which thou hast heard: for thou shalt be taken away from all, 9 and from henceforth thou shalt remain with my ¹¹Son, and with such as be ^dlike thee, until the times be ended. For ^ethe world hath lost his youth, and ¹⁰the times begin to wax old. For the ¹¹world is divided into twelve parts, and the ten parts of it are gone already, and half of a tenth part: and there ¹²remaineth that which is after the half of the tenth part. Now therefore ^fset ¹³thine house in order, and reprove thy people, comfort such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce corruption, let go from thee mortal thoughts, ^gcast ¹⁴away the burdens of man, put off now the weak nature, and set aside the thoughts that are most heavy unto thee, and haste thee to flee from these times. For ^hyet greater evils than those which ¹⁶thou hast seen happen shall be done hereafter. For look how much the world ¹⁷shall be weaker through age, so much the more shall evils increase upon them that dwell therein. For ⁱthe truth is ¹⁸fled far away, and ^kleasing is hard at hand: for now hasteth the vision to come, which thou hast seen.

Then answered I before thee, and ¹⁹said, Behold, Lord, I will go, ^{1a}as thou hast commanded me, and reprove the people which are present: but they that shall be born afterward, who shall admonish them? thus the world is set in darkness, and they that dwell therein are without light. For ^mthy law is ²¹burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the works that shall begin. But ⁿif I have found grace before thee, ^osend the Holy Ghost into me, and I shall write all that hath been done in the world since the beginning, which were written in thy law, that men may find thy path, and that they which will live ^pin the latter days may live. And he answered me, ²³saying, Go thy way, gather the people together, and say unto them, ^qthat they seek thee not ^rfor forty days. But ²⁴look thou prepare thee many ¹box trees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, ²Ecanus, and Asiel, these five which are ^sready to write swiftly; and come hither, and I ^tshall light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out, till the things be performed which thou shalt begin to ²⁶write. And when thou hast done, some things shalt thou publish, and ^usome things shalt thou shew secretly to the wise: to morrow this hour shalt thou ²⁷begin to write. Then went I forth, as he commanded, and gathered all the people together, and said,

²⁸^w Hear these words, O Israel. ^x Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were delivered: and ^yreceived the law of life, which they kept not, which ye also ³¹have transgressed after them. Then was the land, even the land of Sion, parted among you by lot: but your fathers, and ye yourselves, have done unrighteousness, and have not kept the ways which the Highest commanded ³²you. And forasmuch as he is ^za righteous judge, he took from you in time ³³*the thing* that he had given you. And now are you ^ahere, and your brethren ³⁴among you. Therefore if so be that you will subdue your own understanding, and reform your hearts, ye shall be kept alive, and after death ye shall obtain mercy. For ^bafter death shall the judgment come, when we shall live again: and then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and the works ³⁶of the ungodly shall be declared. ^cLet no man therefore come unto me now, nor seek after me these forty days. ³⁷So I took ^dthe five men, ^eas he commanded me, and we went into the field, and remained there. And the next day, behold, a voice called me, saying Esdras, ^fopen thy mouth, and drink that I give thee to drink. Then opened I my mouth, and behold, he reached me a full cup, which was full as it were with water, but the colour of it ⁴⁰*was* like fire. And I took it, and drank: and when I had drunk of it, my heart uttered understanding, and wisdom grew in my breast, for my ⁴¹spirit strengthened my memory: and ⁴²*my* mouth was opened, and shut no more. The Highest gave understanding unto ^ethe five men, and they wrote the wonderful visions of the night that were told, which they knew not: and they sat forty days, and they wrote in the day, and at night they ate bread. ⁴³As for me, I spake in the day, and ⁴⁴held not my tongue by night. ^cIn forty days they wrote ¹two hundred

Behold, speak thou in the ears of my people the words of prophecy, which ^aI will put in thy mouth, saith the Lord: and cause them to be written in ^bpaper: ²for ^cthey are faithful and true. Fear not ³the imaginations against thee, let not the incredulity of them trouble thee, that speak against thee. For ^dall the unfaithful shall die in their unfaithfulness. For wickedness ⁶hath exceedingly polluted the whole earth, and their hurtful works are fulfilled. Therefore saith the Lord, I will hold my tongue no more as touching their wickedness, which they profanely commit, neither will I suffer them in those things, in which they wickedly exercise themselves: behold, ^ethe innocent and righteous blood crieth unto me, and ^ethe souls of the just complain continually. And therefore, saith the Lord, I will surely avenge them. and receive unto me all the innocent blood from among them. Behold, my people ¹⁰is led ^fas a flock to the slaughter: I will not suffer them now ^gto dwell in the land of Egypt: but I will bring them ¹¹with a mighty hand and a stretched out arm, and smite Egypt with plagues, as before, and will destroy all the land thereof. ⁱEgypt shall mourn, and the foundation of it shall be smitten with the plague and punishment that God shall bring upon it. The great and mighty clouds ⁴⁰ shall be lifted up ^xfull of wrath, and ¹the star, that they may make all the earth afraid, and them that dwell therein; and they shall pour out over every high and eminent place ⁴¹a horrible star, fire, and hail, and flying swords, and many waters, that all fields may be full, and all rivers, with the abundance of great waters. And they shall break down the ⁴² cities and walls, mountains and hills, trees of the wood, and grass of the meadows, and their corn. And they shall ⁴³ go stedfastly unto Babylon, and ¹²make her afraid. And thou, ^dAsia, that art ¹partaker of ⁴⁶ the hope of Babylon, and art the glory of her person: woe be unto thee, thou ⁴⁷ wretch, because thou hast made thyself like unto her; and hast deckt thy daughters in whoredom, that they might please and glory in thy lovers, which have alway desired to commit whoredom with thee! Thou hast followed her ⁴⁸ that is hated in all her works and inventions: therefore saith God, ^eI will send ⁴⁹ plagues upon thee; widowhood, poverty, famine, sword, and pestilence, to waste thy houses with destruction and death.

⁵⁰ And the glory of thy power ^fshall be dried up as a flower, when the heat shall ⁵¹ arise that is sent over thee. Thou shalt be weakened as a poor woman with stripes, and as one chastised with wounds, so that the mighty and lovers shall not ⁵² be able to receive thee. ^gWould I with jealousy have so proceeded against thee, ⁵³ saith the Lord, if thou hadst not alway slain ^hmy chosen, exalting the stroke of thine hands, and saying over their ⁵⁴ 'dead, ⁱwhen thou wast drunken, ^kSet forth the beauty of thy countenance? The reward of thy whoredom shall be ⁵⁵ ¹in thy bosom, therefore shalt thou receive ⁵⁶ recompence. drive them away? ^eA fire shall go forth from his wrath, and who is he that may quench it? ⁱHe shall cast lightnings, and who shall not fear? ⁱhe shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid? The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not be utterly beaten to powder at his presence? ^jThe earth quaketh, and the foundations thereof; the sea ariseth up with waves from the deep, and ^kthe waves of it are troubled, and the fishes thereof also, ^lbefore the Lord, and before the glory of his power: for ^mstrong is his right hand that bendeth the bow, ⁱhis arrows that he shooteth are ⁿsharp, and shall not miss, when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world. Woe is me! woe is me! who will deliver me in those days?

^pThe beginning of sorrows and great mournings; the beginning of famine and great death; the beginning of wars, and the powers shall stand in fear; the beginning of evils: what shall I do when these evils shall come? Behold, famine and plague, ^qtribulation and anguish, are sent as scourges for amendment. But for all these things they shall not turn from their wickedness, nor be alway mindful of the scourges. Behold, victuals shall be so good cheap upon earth, that they shall think themselves to be in good case, and even then shall ^revils grow upon earth, sword, famine, and great confusion. For many of them that dwell upon earth shall perish of famine; and the other, that escape the hunger, shall the sword destroy. And ^rthe dead shall be cast out as dung, and there shall be no man to comfort them: for the earth shall be wasted, and the cities shall be cast down. There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sow it. The trees shall give fruit, and who shall gather them? The grapes shall ripen, and who shall tread them? for all places shall be desolate of men: so that one man shall desire to see another, and to hear his voice. For of a city there shall be ten left, and two of the field, which shall hide themselves in the thick groves, and ^u*in* the clefts of the rocks. ^xAs in an orchard of olives upon every tree there are left three or four olives; ^xor, when as a vineyard is gathered, there are left some clusters of them that diligently seek through the vineyard: ^y*even* so in those days there shall be three or four left by them that search their houses with the sword. And the earth shall be laid waste, and the fields thereof shall wax old, and her ways and all her paths shall grow full of thorns, because no man shall travel therethrough. ^zThe virgins shall mourn, having no bridegrooms; the women shall mourn, having no husbands; their daughters shall mourn, having no helpers. In the wars shall their bridegrooms be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of famine.

Hear now these things, and understand them, ^a*ye* servants of the Lord. Behold the word of the Lord, receive it: believe not the gods of whom the Lord spake. Behold, the plagues draw nigh, and are not slack. ^bAs when a woman with child in the ninth month bringeth forth her son, within two or three hours of her birth great pains compass her womb, which pains, when the child cometh forth, they slack not a moment: even so shall not the plagues be slack to come upon the earth, and the world shall mourn, and sorrows shall come upon it on every side. O my people, hear my word: make you ready to the battle, and in those evils be even as ^cpilgrims upon the earth. ^dHe that selleth, let him be as he that fleeth away: and he that buyeth, as one that will lose: he that ^eoccupieth merchandise, as he that hath no profit by it: and he that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein: he that soweth, as if he should not reap: so also he that planteth the vineyard, as he that shall not gather the grapes: they that marry, as they that shall get no children; and they that marry not, as the widowers. And therefore they that labour, labour in vain: for strangers shall reap their fruits, and spoil their goods, overthrow their houses, and take their children captives, for ^fin captivity and famine shall they get children. And they that ^eoccupy their merchandise with robbery, the more they deck their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their own persons: the more ^fwill I be angry with them ⁴⁸ for their sin, saith the Lord. Like as ⁴⁹ a whore ^genvieth a ^hright honest and virtuous woman: so shall righteousness ⁵⁰ ^ghate iniquity, ⁱwhen she decketh herself, and shall accuse her to her face, when he cometh that shall defend him that diligently searcheth out every sin upon earth.

And therefore be ye not like there-⁵¹ unto, nor to the works thereof. For ⁵² ^jyet a little, and iniquity shall be taken away out of the earth, and righteousness shall reign among you. ^kLet not the sinner say that he hath not sinned: for God ^lshall burn coals of fire upon his head, ^kwhich saith before the Lord God and his glory, I have not sinned. Behold, the Lord knoweth all the works ⁵⁴ of men, their ²imaginings, their thoughts, and their ^mhearts: which spake but the ⁵⁵ word, ⁿLet the earth be made; and it was made: Let the heaven be made; and it was created. In his word were ⁵⁶ the stars made, and ^ohe knoweth the number of them. He searcheth the ⁵⁷ deep, and the treasures thereof; ^phe hath measured the sea, and what it containeth. ^qHe hath shut the sea in the midst of the waters, and with his word ^rhath he hanged the earth ^supon the waters. ^tHe spreadeth out the heavens like a vault; ^uupon the waters hath he founded it. ^xIn the desert ⁶⁰ hath he made springs of water, and pools upon the tops of the mountains, that the floods might pour down from the high rocks to water the earth. ^yHe ⁶¹ made man, and put his heart in the midst of the body, and gave him breath, life, and understanding. Yea, and the spirit of Almighty God, which made all things, and searcheth out all hidden things in the secrets of the earth, surely ⁶³ he knoweth your ²inventions, and what you think in your hearts, even them that sin, and would hide their sin. There-⁶⁴

fore hath the Lord exactly searched out all your works, and he will put you all ⁶⁵ to shame. And ^awhen your sins are brought forth, ye shall be ashamed before men, and your own sins shall ⁶⁶ be your accusers in that day. What will ye do? or how will ye hide your ⁶⁷ sins before God and ^bhis angels? Behold, ^cGod himself is the judge, fear him: leave off from your sins, and forget your iniquities, to meddle no more with them for ever: so shall God lead you forth, and ^ddeliver you from all trouble.

For behold, the burning wrath of a great multitude is kindled over you, and they shall take away certain of you, and feed you, ^hbeing ^eidle, with ⁶⁹ ^fthings offered unto idols. And they that consent unto them shall be had in derision and in reproach, and trod-⁷⁰ den under foot. For there shall be in every place, and in the next cities, a great insurrection upon those that fear ⁷¹ the Lord. They shall be like mad men, sparing none, but still spoiling and de-⁷² stroying those that fear the Lord. For they shall waste and take away their goods, and cast them out of ^gtheir ⁷³ houses. Then shall they be known, who are ^hmy chosen; and ⁱthey shall be ⁷⁴ tried as the gold in the fire. me, with my son Tobias, in ^athe feast of Pentecost, which is ^athe holy feast of the seven weeks, there was a good dinner prepared me, in the which I sat down to eat. And when I saw abundance of meat, I said to my son, Go and bring what poor man soever thou shalt find out of our brethren, who is mindful of the Lord; and lo, I tarry for thee. But he came again, and said, Father, one of our nation is strangled, and is cast out in the marketplace. Then before I had tasted of any meat, I start up, and took him up into a room until the going down of the sun. Then I returned, and washed myself, and ate my meat in heaviness, remembering that prophecy of Amos, as he said, ^bYour feasts shall be turned into mourning, and all your mirth into lamentation. Therefore I wept: and after the going down of the sun I went and made a grave, and ^cburied him. But my neighbours mocked me, and said, This man is not yet afraid to be put to death for this matter: ^dwho fled away; and yet lo, he burieth the dead again.

The same night also I ^ereturned from the burial, and slept by the wall of my ^fcourtyard, ^gbeing polluted, and my face was uncovered: and I knew not that there were ^hsparrows in the wall, and mine eyes being open, the sparrows muted warm dung into mine eyes, and ^aa whiteness came in mine eyes; and I went to the physicians, but they helped me not: moreover ^hAchiacharus did nourish me, until I went into ⁱElymais. And my wife Anna ^jdid take women's works to do. And when she had sent ^kthem home to the owners, they paid her wages, and gave her also besides a kid. And when it was in mine house, and began to cry, I said unto her, From whence is this kid? is it not stolen? render it to the owners; ^kfor it is not lawful to eat any thing that is stolen. But she ^lreplied upon me, It was given for a gift more than the wages. Howbeit I did not believe her, but bade her render it to the owners: and I was abashed at her. ^lBut she replied upon me, Where are thine alms and ^mthy righteous deeds? ^lbehold, thou and all thy works are known.

Then I being grieved did weep, and in my sorrow prayed, saying, ^aO Lord, thou art just, and all thy works and all thy ways are mercy and truth, and thou judgest truly and justly for ever.

Remember me, and look on me, punish me not for my sins and ^bignorances, and the sins of my fathers, who have sinned before thee: for they obeyed not thy commandments: wherefore thou hast delivered us ^cfor a spoil, and unto captivity, and unto death, and for ^da proverb of reproach to all the nations among whom we are dispersed. And now thy judgments are many and true: deal with me according to my sins and my fathers': because we have not kept thy commandments, neither have walked in truth before thee. Now therefore ^edeal with me as seemeth best unto thee, and ^fcommand my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be ^ldissolved, and become earth: ^ffor ^git is profitable for me to die rather than to live, because ^hI have heard false reproaches, and have much sorrow: command therefore that I may now be delivered out of this distress, and go into the everlasting place: ⁱturn not thy face away from me.

It came to pass the same day, that in ^kEcbatane a city of ^lMedia Sara the daughter of Raguel was also reproached ⁸by her father's maids; because that she had been married to seven husbands, whom ^mAsmodeus the evil spirit had killed, before they had lain with her. Dost thou not know, said they, that thou hast strangled thine husbands? thou hast had already seven husbands, neither wast ⁹thou named after any of them. Wherefore dost thou beat us for them? if they be dead, go thy ways after them, let us never see of thee either son or daughter. When she heard these things, she was very sorrowful, so that she thought to have strangled herself; and she said, I am the only daughter of my father, and if I do this, it shall be a reproach unto him, and ⁿI shall bring his old age with sorrow unto the grave. Then she prayed ^otoward the window, and said, ^{oo}Blessed art thou, O Lord my God, and thine holy and glorious name is blessed and honourable for ever: ^plet all thy works praise thee for ever. And now, O Lord, ^qI set mine eyes and my face toward thee, and say, ^rTake me out of the earth, that I may hear no more the reproach. bath he any child to be his heir, neither any near kinsman, nor any son of his alive, to whom I may keep myself for a wife: my seven husbands are already dead; and why should I live? but if it please not thee that I should die, command some regard to be had of me, and pity taken of me, that I hear no more reproach.

So the prayers of them both were heard before the majesty of the great God. And ⁵Raphael was sent to heal them both, that is, to ¹⁷scale away the whiteness of Tobit's eyes, and to give Sara the daughter of Raguel for a wife to Tobias the son of Tobit; and to bind ¹³Asmodeus the evil spirit: because ¹¹she belongeth to Tobias by right of inheritance. ¹²The selfsame time came Tobit home, and entered into his house, and Sara the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

IV. In that day Tobit remembered ^athe money which he had committed to Gabael in Rages of Media, and said with himself, ^bI have wished for death; wherefore do I not call for my son Tobias, that I may signify to him of the money before I die? And when he had called ³him, he said,

My son, when I am dead, bury me; and ^cdespise not thy mother, ^dbut honour her all the days of thy life, and do that which shall please her, and grieve her not. Remember, my son, that she saw many dangers for thee, when thou wast in her womb; and when she is dead, bury her by me in one grave. My son, be mindful of the Lord our God all thy days, and ^elet not thy will be set to sin, or to transgress his commandments: do uprightly all thy life long, and follow not the ways of unrighteousness. For if ⁶thou deal truly, thy doings shall prosperously succeed to thee, and to all them that live justly.

^fGive alms of thy substance; and ⁷when thou givest alms, ^glet not thine eye be envious, ^hneither turn thy face from any poor, and ⁱthe face of God shall not be turned away from thee. ^jIf ⁸thou hast abundance, give alms accordingly: if thou have but a little, be not afraid to give according to that little: for thou ^klayest up a good treasure for ⁹thyself against the day of necessity. Because ¹⁰thou hast abundance, give alms doth deliver from death, and suffereth not to come into darkness. For alms is a good gift unto ¹¹

all that give it, in the sight of the most High.

^mBeware of all whoredom, my son, and chiefly take a wife of the seed of thy fathers, and take not a strange woman to wife, which is not of thy father's tribe: for we are the children of the ⁿprophets, Noe, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: remember, my son, that our fathers from the beginning, even that they all married wives of their own kindred, and were blessed in their children, and their seed ¹³shall inherit the land. Now therefore, my son, love thy brethren, and despise not in thy heart thy brethren, the sons and daughters of thy people, in not taking a wife of them: for ^oin pride is destruction and much trouble, and in ^pplewdness is decay and great want: for ^qplewdness is the mother of famine. ^rLet not the wages of any man, which hath wrought for thee, tarry with thee, but give him it out of hand: for if thou serve God, he will also repay thee: be ^scircumspect, my son, in all things thou doest, and be wise ^tin all thy conversation. ^uDo that to no man which thou hatest: ^vdrink not wine to make thee drunken: neither let drunkenness go with thee in thy journey. ^wGive of thy bread to the hungry, and of thy garments to them that are naked; and ^xaccording to thine abundance give alms; and ^ylet not thine eye be envious, when ¹⁷thou givest alms. ^zPour out thy bread on the burial of the just, but give ¹⁸nothing to the wicked. Ask counsel of all that are wise, and despise not any counsel that is profitable. Bless the Lord ^{thy} God always, and desire of him that ^athy ways may be directed, and that all thy paths and counsels may prosper: for every nation hath not counsel; but ^dthe Lord himself giveth all good things, and he humbleth whom he will, as he will; now therefore, my son, remember my commandments, neither let them be put ²⁰out of thy mind. And now I signify this to thee, that I committed ten talents to Gabael ^{the son} of Gabrias at Rages ²¹in Media. And fear not, my son, that ^ewe are made poor: for ^fthou hast much wealth, if thou fear God, and depart from all sin, and do that which is pleasing in his sight.

Tobias then answered and said, Father, I will do all things which thou hast commanded me: but how can I receive the money, seeing I know him not?

^a ch. 9. 4. Then he gave him ^athe handwriting, ³ and said unto him, Seek thee a man which may go with thee, whiles I yet live, and I will give him wages: and go and receive the money. Therefore when ^{aa} See ch. 3. 17. he went to seek a man, he found ^{aa} Raphael that was an angel. But he knew not; and he said unto him, Canst thou go with me to ^bRages? and knowest thou those places well? To whom the angel said, I will go with thee, and I know the way well: for I have lodged with our brother Gabael. Then Tobias said unto him, Tarry for me, till I tell my father. Then he said unto him, Go, and tarry not. So he went in and said to his father, Behold, I have found one which will go with me. Then he said, Call him unto me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trusty man to go with thee. So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another. Then Tobit said unto ¹⁰ him, Brother, shew me of what tribe and family thou art. To whom he said, ¹¹ Dost thou seek for a tribe or family, or a hired man to go with thy son? Then Tobit said unto him, I would know, brother, thy kindred and name. Then ¹² he said, I am Azarias, the son of Ananias the great, and of thy brethren. ^{bb} ch. 11. 17. Then Tobit said, ^{bb} Thou art welcome, ¹³ brother; be not now angry with me, because I have inquired to know thy tribe and thy family; for thou art my brother, of ^can honest and good stock: for I know Ananias and Jonathas, sons of that great Samaias, ^das we went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the first-born, and the tenths of the fruits; and they were not seduced ^ewith the error of our brethren: my brother, thou art of a good stock. But tell me, what wages ¹⁴ shall I give thee? wilt thou ^fa drachm a day, and things necessary, as to my own son? Yea, moreover, if ye return ¹⁵ safe, I will add something to thy wages. So they were well pleased. Then said ¹⁶ he to Tobias, Prepare thyself for the journey, and God send you a good journey. And when his son had prepared all things for the journey, his father said, Go thou with this man, and God, which dwelleth in heaven, prosper your journey, and the angel of God keep you company. So they went forth both, and ¹⁷ the young man's dog with them. But Anna his mother wept, and ^hsaid ¹⁷ to Tobit, Why hast thou sent away our

Then said Tobit to her, Take no care, ¹my sister; he shall return in safety, and thine eyes shall see him. For ^mthe good angel will keep him company, and his journey shall be prosperous, and he shall return ²² safe. Then she made an end of weeping. And as they went on their journey, they came in the evening to the river ²^aTigris, and they lodged there. And when the young man went down to wash himself, a fish leaped out of the river, and would have devoured him. ³ Then the angel said unto him, Take the fish. And the young man laid hold ⁴ of the fish, and ¹drew it to land. To whom the angel said, Open the fish, and take the heart and the liver and the ⁵ gall, and put them up safely. So the young man did as the angel commanded him; and when they had roasted the fish, they did eat it: then they both went on their way, till they drew near ⁶ to ^bEcbatane. Then the young man said to the angel, Brother Azarias, to what use is the heart and the liver and ⁷ the gall of the fish? And he said unto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a devil or an ^cevil spirit trouble any, we must make a smoke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shall ⁸ be no more vexed. As for the gall, it is ^{cc}good ^{cc}to anoint a man that hath whiteness in his eyes, and he shall be healed. ⁹ And when they were come near to ¹⁰ ^dRages, the angel said to the young man, Brother, to day we shall lodge with ^eRaguel, who is thy cousin; he also hath ^fone only daughter, named Sara; I will speak for her, that she may be given ¹¹ thee for a wife. For to thee doth the ¹² ¹right of her appertain, seeing thou only art of her kindred. And the maid is fair and wise: now therefore hear me, and I will speak to her father; and when we return from ^dRages we will celebrate the marriage: for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another according ¹³ to the law of Moses, but ^hhe shall be guilty of death, because the right of inheritance doth rather appertain to thee than to any other. Then the young man answered the angel, I have heard, brother Azarias, that this maid hath been given to seven men, who all died in ¹the marriage chamber. And now I ¹⁴ am the only son of my father, and I am afraid, lest, if I go in unto her, I die, as the other before: for a ¹wicked spirit loveth her, which hurteth no body, ²but those which come unto her: wherefore I also fear lest I die, and ¹bring my father's and my mother's life, because of me, to the grave with sorrow: for they have no other son to bury them. Then ¹⁵ the angel said unto him, Dost thou not remember the precepts which thy father gave thee, ¹⁶that thou shouldest marry a wife of thine own kindred? wherefore hear me, O my brother; for she shall be given thee to wife; and make thou no reckoning of ¹⁷the evil spirit; for this same night shall she be given thee in marriage. And when thou shalt come into ¹⁸the marriage chamber, thou shalt take the ¹⁹ashes of perfume, and shalt lay upon them some of the heart and liver of the fish, and shalt make a smoke with it: and ²⁰the devil shall smell it, and flee away, and never come again any more: but when thou shalt come to her, rise up both of you, and pray to God which is merciful, who will have pity on you, and save you: fear not, for she is appointed unto thee from the beginning; and thou shalt preserve her, and she shall go with thee. Moreover I suppose that she shall bear thee children. Now when Tobias had heard these things, he loved her, and his heart was ²¹effectually joined to her.

VII.

And when they were come to ²²a Ecba-tane, they came to the house of Raguel, and Sara met them: and after that they had saluted one another, she brought them into the house. Then said Raguel ²³to Edna his wife, How like is this young man to Tobit my cousin! And Raguel ²⁴asked them, From whence are you, brethren? To whom they said, We are ²⁵of the sons of Nephthali, which are captives in Nineve. Then he said to them, Do ye know Tobit our kinsman? And they said, We know him. ²⁶Then said he, Is he in good health? And they said, He is both alive, and in good health: and Tobias said, He is my father. Then Raguel leaped up, and kissed him, and wept, and blessed him, and said unto him, Thou art the son of ²⁷an honest and good man. But when he had heard that Tobit was blind, he was sorrowful, and wept. And likewise Edna ²⁸

his wife and Sara his daughter wept. Moreover they ²⁹entertained them cheerfully; and after that they had killed ³⁰a ram of the flock, they set store of meat on the table. Then said Tobias to ³¹Raphael, Brother Azarias, speak of those things of which thou didst talk in the way, and let this business be dispatched. ³²So he communicated the matter with Raguel: and Raguel said to Tobias, Eat ³³and drink, and make merry: for it is meet that thou shouldest marry my daughter: nevertheless I will declare ³⁴unto thee the truth. I have given my daughter in marriage to seven men, who died that night they came in unto her: nevertheless for the present be merry. But Tobias said, I will eat nothing here, till we agree and swear one to another. ³⁵Raguel said, Then take her from henceforth ³⁶according to the ³⁷manner, for thou art her cousin, and she is thine, and the merciful God give you good success ³⁸in all things. Then he called his daughter Sara, and she came to her father, and he took her by the hand, and gave her to be wife to Tobias, saying, Behold, take her ³⁹after the law of Moses, and lead her away to thy father. And he ⁴⁰blessed them; and called ⁴¹Edna his wife, and took ⁴²paper, and did write an instrument of covenants, and ⁴³sealed it. ⁴⁴Then they began to eat. After Raguel called his wife Edna, and said unto her, ⁴⁵Sister, prepare another ⁴⁶chamber, and bring her in thither. Which when she had done as he had bidden her, she brought her thither: and she wept, and she ⁴⁷received the tears of her daughter. ⁴⁸And said unto her, ⁴⁹Be of good comfort, my daughter; the Lord of heaven and earth give thee joy for this thy sorrow: ⁵⁰be of good comfort, my daughter.

And when they had supped, they ⁵¹brought Tobias in unto her. And as he went, he remembered the words of ⁵²a Raphael, and took the ⁵³ashes of the perfumes, and put the heart and the liver of the fish thereupon, and made a smoke ⁵⁴*therewith*. The which smell when ⁵⁵the evil spirit had smelled, he fled into the utmost parts of Egypt, and ⁵⁶the angel bound him. And after that they were both shut in together, Tobias rose out of the bed, and said, ⁵⁷Sister, arise, and let us pray that God would have pity on ⁵⁸us. Then began Tobias to say, ⁵⁹Blessed art thou, O God of our fathers, and blessed is thy holy and glorious name for ever; let the heavens bless thee, and all thy creatures. ^fThou madest Adam, ⁶ and gavest him Eve his wife for a helper and stay: of them came mankind: thou hast said, ^g*It is not good that man should be alone*; let us make unto him an aid like unto himself. And now, O ⁷ Lord, I take not this my ^dsister for lust, but uprightly: therefore mercifully ordain that we may become aged together. And she said with him, Amen. So they slept both that night.

And Raguel arose, and went and made a grave, saying, I fear lest he also be ¹⁰ dead. But when Raguel was come into ¹¹ his house, he said unto his wife Edna, ¹² Send one of the maids, and let her see whether he be alive: if he be not, that we may bury him, and no man know it. So the maid opened the door, and went ¹³ in, and found them both asleep, and ¹⁴ came forth, and told them that he was alive. Then Raguel praised God, and ¹⁵ said, O God, thou art ^eworthy to be praised with all pure and holy praise; therefore ^hlet thy saints praise thee with all thy creatures; and ⁱlet all thine angels and ^kthine elect praise thee for ever. Thou art ^eto be praised, for thou hast ¹⁶ made me joyful; and that is not come to me which I suspected; but thou hast dealt with us according to thy great mercy. Thou art ^eto be praised, be- ¹⁷ cause thou hast had mercy of two that were the only-begotten children of their fathers: grant them mercy, O Lord, and finish their life in health with joy and mercy. Then Raguel bade his servants ¹⁸ to fill the grave. And he kept ¹the wedding feast ^mfourteen days. For before ²⁰ the days of the marriage were finished, Raguel had said unto him by an oath, that he should not depart till ⁿthe fourteen days of the marriage were expired; and then he should take ^othe half of his ²¹ goods, and go in safety to his father; and should have the rest when ^pI and my wife be dead.

IX.

Then Tobias called ^aRaphael, and said unto him, Brother Azarias, take ² with thee a servant, and two ^bcamels, and go to ^cRages of Media to Gabael, and bring me ^ethe money, and bring him to the wedding. For ^dRaguel hath ³ sworn that I shall not depart. But ^emy ⁴ father counteth the days; and if I tarry long, he will be very sorry. So ^aRaphael ⁵ went out, and lodged with Gabael, and gave him ^fthe handwriting: who brought forth bags which were sealed up, and ⁶gave them to him. And early in the morning they went forth both together, and came to the wedding: and ^hTobias blessed his wife.

Now Tobit his father ^acounted every day: and when the days of the journey ²were expired, and they came not, then Tobit said, Are they detained? or is Gabael dead, and there is no man to ³give him the money? Therefore he was ⁴very sorry. Then his wife said to him, My son is dead, seeing he stayeth long; and she began to bewail him, and said, ⁵*Now* I care for nothing, my son, since I have let thee go, ^bthe light of mine eyes. ⁶To whom Tobit said, Hold thy peace, ⁷take no care, for he is safe. But she said, Hold thy peace, and deceive me not; my son is dead. And she went out every day into the way which they went, and did eat no meat on the day-time, and ceased not whole nights to bewail her son Tobias, ^cuntil the fourteen days of the wedding were expired, which Raguel had sworn that he should spend there.

Then Tobias said to Raguel, Let me go, for my father and my mother look ⁸no more to see me. But his father in law said unto him, Tarry with me, and I will send to thy father, and they shall declare unto him how things go with ⁹thee. But Tobias said, No; but let me ¹⁰go to my father. Then Raguel arose, and gave him Sara his wife, and ^dhalf ¹¹his goods, ^eservants, and cattle, and ¹²money: and he blessed them, and sent them away, saying, The God of heaven give you a prosperous journey, my children. And he said to his daughter, Honour thy father and thy mother in law, which are now thy parents, that I may hear good report of thee. And he kissed her. Edna also said to Tobias, The Lord of heaven restore thee, my dear brother, and grant that I may see thy children of my daughter Sara before ¹I die, that I may rejoice before the Lord: behold, I ^fcommit my daughter unto thee ^hof special trust; wherefore do not entreat her evil.

After these things Tobias went his way, praising God that he had given him a prosperous journey, and blessed Raguel and Edna his wife, and went on his way till they drew near unto Nineve. ²Then ^aRaphael said to Tobias, Thou knowest, brother, how thou didst leave thy father: let us haste before thy wife, ³ and prepare the house. And take in ⁴ thine hand ^b the gall of the fish. So they went their way, and ^c the dog went after them. Now ^d Anna sat looking about ⁵ towards the way for her son. And when she espied him coming, she said to his father, Behold, thy son cometh, and the man that went with him. Then said ⁷ ^a Raphael, I know, Tobias, that thy father will open his eyes. Therefore anoint ⁸ thou his eyes with ^b the gall, and being pricked therewith, he shall rub, and the whiteness shall fall away, and he shall see thee. Then Anna ran forth, and ⁹ ^e fell upon the neck of her son, and said unto him, Seeing I have seen thee, my son, from henceforth I am content to die. And they wept both. Tobit also ¹⁰ went forth toward the door, and stumbled: but his son ran unto him, and ¹¹ took hold of his father: and he strake ^f of ^b the gall on his father's eyes, saying, Be of good hope, my father. And when ¹² his eyes began to smart, he rubbed them; and the whiteness ^g pilled away from the corners of his eyes: and when he saw his son, ^e he fell upon his neck. And he ¹⁴ wept, and said, ^h Blessed art thou, O God, and blessed is thy name for ever; and blessed are all thy ⁱ holy angels: for ^k thou hast scourged, and hast taken ¹⁵ pity on me: for behold, I see my son Tobias. And his son went in rejoicing, and told his father the great things that had happened to him in Media. Then ¹⁶ Tobit went out to meet his daughter in law at the gate of Nineve, rejoicing, and praising God: and they which saw him go marvelled, because he had received his sight. But Tobit gave thanks before ¹⁷ them, because God had mercy on him. And when he came near to Sara his daughter in law, he blessed her, saying, ^l Thou art welcome, daughter: ^h God be blessed, which hath brought thee unto us, and blessed be thy father and thy mother. And there was joy amongst all his brethren which were at Nineve. And ¹⁸ ^m Achiacharus, ⁿ and Nasbas his ^o brother's son, came: and Tobias' ^o wedding ¹⁹ was kept ^p seven days with great joy.

XII.

Then Tobit called his son Tobias, and said unto him, My son, see that the man have ^a his wages, which went with thee, and thou must give him more. And Tobias said unto him, O father, ² it is no harm to me to give him half ^b of those things which I have brought:

for he hath ^c brought me again to thee in safety, and ^d made whole my wife, and ^e brought me the money, and ^f like-⁴ wise healed thee. Then the old man ⁵ said, It is due unto him. So he called the angel, and he said unto him, Take half of all that ye have brought, and go ⁶ away in safety. Then he took them both apart, and said unto them, Bless God, ^g praise him, and magnify him, and ^g praise him for the things which he hath done unto you in the sight of all that live. It is good to praise God, and exalt his name, and ^h honourably to shew forth the works of God; therefore be not slack to praise him. ^h It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but it is honourable to reveal the works of God. ⁱ Do that which is good, and no evil shall touch you. ^j Prayer is good with fasting and ^k alms and ^k righteousness. ^l A little with righteousness is better than much with unrighteousness. It is better to give alms ⁹ than to lay up gold: ^m for alms doth deliver from death, and shall purge away all sin. ^k Those that exercise alms and righteousness shall be filled with ¹⁰ life: but ⁿ they that sin are enemies ¹¹ to their own life. Surely I will keep close nothing from you. For I said, ^h It was good to keep close the secret of a king, but that it was honourable ¹² to reveal the works of God. Now therefore, when ^o thou didst pray, and ^p Sara thy daughter in law, ^q I did bring the remembrance of your prayers before the Holy One: and ^r when thou didst bury the dead, I was with thee like-¹³ wise. And ^s when thou didst not delay to rise up, and leave thy dinner, ^t to go and cover the dead, thy good deed was not hid from me: but I was with ¹⁴ thee. And now God hath sent me to heal ^f thee and ^d Sara thy daughter in ¹⁵ law. I am ^r Raphael, one of ^u the seven ^v holy angels, ^w which present the prayers of the saints, and ^x which go in and out before the glory of the Holy One.

Then they were ^y both troubled, and ^z fell upon their faces: for they feared. ¹⁷ But he said unto them, Fear not, for it shall go well with you; praise God ¹⁸ therefore. For not of any favour of mine, but by the will of our God I came; wherefore praise him for ever. ¹⁹ All these days I did appear unto you; but ^a I did neither eat nor drink, but you did see a vision. Now therefore ²⁰ ^b give God thanks: for ^c I go up to him that sent me; but write all things which are done in a book. And when ²¹ they rose, they saw him no more. Then they ^b confessed the great and wonderful works of God, and how the angel of the Lord had appeared unto them.

XIII. Then Tobit wrote a prayer of rejoicing, and said,

Blessed be God that liveth for ever, and blessed be his kingdom.

For ^a he doth scourge, and hath mercy: ² ^b He leadeth down to hell, and bringeth up again :

Neither is there any that can avoid his hand.

^c Confess him before the Gentiles, ye children of Israel :

For ^d he hath scattered us among them.

There declare his greatness, And extol him before all the living: For he is our Lord, And he is the God our Father for ever.

And ^a he will scourge us for our iniquities,

And will have mercy again, and ^e will gather us out of all nations, Among whom he hath scattered us.

If you turn to him ^f with your whole heart,

And with your whole mind, and deal uprightly before him,

Then will he turn unto you, And will not hide his face from you.

Therefore see what he will do with you,

And ^c confess him with your whole mouth,

And praise the Lord of might, And extol ^g the everlasting King.

^d In the land of my captivity do I ^c praise him,

And declare his might and majesty to a sinful nation.

O ye sinners, turn and do justice before him :

^h Who can tell if he will accept you, And have mercy on you?

I will extol my God,

And my soul shall praise ⁱ the King of heaven,

And shall rejoice in his greatness. Let all men speak, and let all ^c praise ^h him for his righteousness.

O Jerusalem, ^j the holy city,

^l He will scourge thee for thy children's works,

And will have mercy again on ^k the sons of the righteous.

^c Give praise to the Lord, for he is good :

And praise ^g the everlasting King, That his tabernacle may be builded in thee again with joy, And ^l let him make joyful there in thee those that are captives, And love in thee ^l for ever those that are miserable.

^m Many nations shall come from far to the name of the Lord God

ⁿ With gifts in their hands, even gifts to ⁱ the King of heaven ;

All generations shall praise thee with great joy.

¹² Cursed are all they which hate thee, And ^o blessed shall all be which love thee for ever.

¹³ Rejoice and be glad for ^k the children of the just :

For they shall be gathered together, and shall bless the Lord of the just.

¹⁴ O ^o blessed are ^p they which love thee, for they shall rejoice in thy ^l peace:

Blessed are ^p they which have been sorrowful for all thy scourges ;

For they shall rejoice for thee, when they have seen all thy glory,

And shall be glad for ever.

¹⁵ Let my soul bless God ^q the great King.

¹⁶ For ^r Jerusalem shall be built up with ^r sapphires, and ^r emeralds, and precious stone:

Thy walls and towers and battlements with pure gold.

¹⁷ And the streets of Jerusalem shall be paved with ^r beryl and carbuncle and stones of ^s Ophir.

¹⁸ And all her streets shall say, ^t Alleluia; And they shall praise him, saying,

Blessed be God,

Which hath extolled it for ever.

So Tobit made an end of ^a praising

² God. And he was eight and fifty years old when he lost his sight, which was restored to him after eight years: and he gave alms, and he ^l increased in the fear of the Lord God, and ^a praised

³ him. And when he was very aged, he called his son, and the six sons of his son, and said to him,

My son, take thy children; for behold, I am

JUDITH.

I. IN the twelfth year of the reign of ^aNabuchodonosor, who reigned in Nineve, ^bthe great city; in the days of Arphaxad, which reigned over the ^cMedes in ^dEcbatane, and built in ^eEcbatane walls round about of stones hewn three cubits broad and six cubits long, and made the height of the wall seventy cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits: and set the towers thereof upon the gates of it, an hundred cubits high, and the breadth thereof in the foundation threescore cubits: and he made the gates thereof, even gates that were raised to the height of seventy cubits, and the breadth of them was forty cubits, for the going forth of his mighty armies, and for the setting in array of his footmen: even in those days king Nabuchodonosor made war with king Arphaxad in the great plain, which is the plain in the borders of ^eRagau. And there came unto him all they that dwelt in the hill country, and all that dwelt by Euphrates, and ^fTigris, and Hydaspes, and the plain of Arioch the king of the ^gElymeans, and very many nations of the sons of Chelod, assembled themselves to the battle. Then Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians sent unto all that dwelt in ^hPersia, and to all that dwelt westward, and to those that dwelt in ⁱCilicia, and ^jDamascens, and ^kLibanus, and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt upon the sea coast, and to those amongst the nations that were of ^lCarmel, and ^mGalaad, and ⁿthe higher Galilee, and the great plain of ^oEsdrelom, and to all that were in ^pSamaria and the cities thereof, and beyond Jordan unto Jerusalem, and Betane, and ^qChellus, and ^rKades, and ^sthe river of Egypt, and Taphnes, and ^tRamesse, and all the land of ^uGesem, until you come beyond ^vTanis and ^wMemphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt, until you come to the borders of ^yEthiopia. But all the inhabitants of the land ^zmade light of the commandment of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, neither went they with him to the battle; for they were not afraid of him: yea, he was before them as one man, and they sent away his ambassadors from them without effect, and with disgrace. Therefore Nabuchodonosor was very angry with all this country, and sware by his throne and kingdom, that he would surely be avenged upon all those coasts of ⁱCilicia, and ^jDamascus, and ^aSyria, and that he would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of ^bMoab, and the children of ^cAmmon, and all Judea, and all that were in Egypt, till you come to the borders of ^dthe two seas. Then he marched in battle array with his power against king Arphaxad ^{dd}in the seventeenth year, and he prevailed in his battle: for he overthrew all the power of Arphaxad, and all his horsemen, and all his chariots. And became lord of his cities, and came unto ^eEcbatane, and took ^fthe towers, and spoiled the streets thereof, and turned the beauty thereof into shame. He took also Arphaxad in the mountains of ^gRagau, and smote him through with his darts, and destroyed him utterly that day. So he returned afterward to Nineve, both he and all his ^hcompany of sundry nations, being a very great multitude of men of war, and there he took his ease, and banqueted, both he and his army, an hundred and twenty days. And ^ain the eighteenth year, the two and twentieth day of the first month, there was talk in the house of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, that he should, ^bas he said, avenge himself on all the earth. So he called unto him all his officers, and all his ^cnobles, and com-communicated with them his secret counsel, and ^dconcluded the afflicting of the whole earth out of his own mouth. Then they decreed to destroy all flesh, ^{dd}that did not obey the commandment of his mouth. And when he had ended his counsel, Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians called Olofernes the chief captain of his army, which was ^tnext unto him, and said unto him,

Thus saith ^ethe great king, the lord of the whole earth, Behold, thou shalt go forth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their own strength, of footmen an hundred and twenty thousand; and the number of horses with ^{their} riders twelve thousand. And thou shalt go against all the west country, because ^dthey disobeyed my commandment. And thou shalt declare unto them, that ^{they} prepare for me

^{||} earth and water: for I will go forth in my wrath against them, and will cover the whole face of the earth with the feet of mine army, and I will give them for a spoil unto them: so that their slain shall fill their valleys and brooks, and the river shall be filled with their dead, till it overflow: and I will lead them captives to the utmost parts of all the earth. Thou therefore shalt go forth, and take beforehand for me all their coasts: and if they will yield themselves unto thee, thou shalt reserve them for me till the day of their punishment. But concerning them that rebel, ^flet not thine eye spare them; but put them to the slaughter, and spoil ^{them} wheresoever thou goest. For ^gas I live, and by the power of my kingdom, whatsoever I have spoken, that will I do by mine hand. And take thou heed that thou transgress none of the commandments of thy lord, but accomplish ^{them} fully, as I have commanded thee, and defer not to do them.

Then Olofernes went forth from the presence of his lord, and called all the ^hgovernors and captains, and the officers of the army of Assur; and he mustered the chosen men for the ⁱbattle, as his lord had commanded him. ^junto an hundred and twenty thousand, and twelve thousand archers on horseback; and he ranged them, as a great army is ordered for the war. And he took ^kcamels and asses for their ^kcarriages, a very great number; and sheep and oxen and goats without number for their provision: and plenty of victual for every man of the army, and very much gold and silver out of the king's house. Then he went forth and all his power to go before king Nabuchodonosor in the voyage, and ^lto cover all the face of the earth westward with ^{their} chariots, and horsemen, and their chosen footmen. A great multitude also ^mof sundry countries came with them like ⁿlocusts, and ^olike the sand of the earth: for the multitude was without number. And they went forth of Nineve three days' journey toward the plain of Bectileth, and pitched from Bectileth near the mountain which is at the left hand of the upper ^pCilicia. Then he took all his army, his footmen, and horsemen, and chariots, and went from thence into the hill country; and destroyed ^qPhud and ^qLud, and spoiled all the children of Rassas, and ^rthe children of Ismael, which were toward the wilderness at the south of the land of the ^sChelians. Then he went over Euphrates, and went through ^tMesopotamia, and destroyed all the high cities that were upon the river Arbonai, till ^{you} come to the sea. And he took the borders of ^pCilicia, and killed all that resisted him, and came to ^uthe borders of Japheth, which were toward the south, over against Arabia. He compassed also all the children of ^vMadian, and burnt up their tabernacles, and spoiled their sheepcotes. ^wThen he went down into the plain of ^wDamascus in the time of wheat harvest, and burnt up all their fields, and destroyed ^{their} flocks and herds, also he spoiled their cities, and ^xutterly wasted their countries, and smote all their young men with ^ythe edge of the sword. Therefore the fear and dread of him fell upon ^{all} the inhabitants of the sea coasts, which were in ^zSidon and Tyrus, and them that dwelt in Sur and Ocina, and all that dwelt in ^aJemnaan; and they that dwelt in ^bAzotus and ^cAscalon feared him greatly.

So they sent ambassadors unto him to treat of peace, saying, Behold, we the servants of Nabuchodonosor ^athe great king lie before thee; use us as shall be good in thy sight. Behold, our houses, and all our places, and all ^bour fields of wheat, and flocks, and herds, and all the lodges of our tents, lie before thy face; use ^{them} as it pleaseth thee. Behold, even our cities and the inhabitants thereof are thy servants; come and deal with them as seemeth good unto thee. So 5

the men came to Olofernes, and de- 6 clared unto him after this manner. Then came he down toward ^cthe sea coast, ^{both} he and his army, and set garrisons
in the high cities, and took out of them chosen men for aid. So they and all 7
the country round about received them ^dwith garlands, ^ewith dances, and ^{with} ^etimbrels. Yet he did cast down their 8
frontiers, and ^fcut down their groves:
for he had decreed to destroy all the gods of the land, that all nations should worship Nabuchodonosor only, and that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as god. Also he came over against 9 ^gEsdraelon near unto ^hJudea, over against the ⁱgreat strait of Judea. And 10
he pitched between ^jGeba and ^kScythopolis, and there he tarried a whole month, that he might gather together all the ^lcarriages of his army.

IV.

Now the children of Israel, that dwelt in Judea, heard all that Olofernes the chief captain of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians had done to the nations, and after what manner he had spoiled all their temples, and brought them to nought. Therefore they were exceedingly afraid of him, and were troubled for Jerusalem, and for the temple of the Lord their God: ^afor they 3
were newly returned from the captivity,
and all the people ^bof Judea were lately gathered together: and the vessels, and ^bthe altar, and ^bthe house, were sanctified after the profanation. Therefore 4
they sent into all the coasts of ^cSamaria,
and the villages, and to ^dBethoron, and Belmen, and Jericho, and to ^eChoba,
and Esora, and to the valley of ^fSalem:
and ^gpossessed themselves beforehand 5
of all the tops of the high mountains,
and fortified the villages that were in
them, and laid up victuals for the provision of war: for ^htheir fields were of late reaped. Also ⁱJoachim the high 6 priest, which was in those days in Jerusalem, wrote to them that dwelt in ^jBethulia, and ^kBetomestham, which is over against ^lEsdraelon toward the ^mopen country near to ^lDothaim, charging them 7
to keep ^mthe passages of the hill country: for by them there was an entrance into Judea, and it was easy to stop them
that would come up, because the passage was strait, ⁿfor two men at the most. And the children of Israel did as ⁱJoachim the high priest had commanded

them, with the ⁿancients of all the people of Israel, which dwelt at Jerusalem.
9 Then every man of Israel cried to God
with great ⁿfervency, and with great ⁿvehemency did they humble their souls:
10 ^{both} they, and their wives, and their children, and their cattle, and every stranger and hireling, and their servants bought with money, ^oput sackcloth upon 11 their loins. Thus every man and woman, and the little children, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ^pfell before the temple, and ^qcast ashes upon their heads, and ^rspread out their sackcloth
before the face of the Lord: also they 12 put sackcloth about the altar, and cried
to the God of Israel all with one consent earnestly, that he would not give their children for a prey, and their wives ^sfor a spoil, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the sanctuary to profanation, and reproach, and 13 for the nations to rejoice at. So God heard their prayers, and ^tlooked upon their afflictions: for the people fasted
many days in all Judea and Jerusalem ^ubefore the sanctuary of the Lord ^vAl-mighty. And ⁱJoachim the high priest, 14 and all the priests that stood before the Lord, and they which ministered unto the Lord, ^ohad their loins girt with sackcloth, and ^woffered the daily burnt offerings, with the vows and free gifts of the 15 people, and ^qhad ashes on their ^xmitres, and cried unto the Lord with all their power, that he would look upon all the house of Israel graciously.

Then was it declared to Olofernes,
the chief captain of the army of Assur,
that the children of Israel had prepared for war, and had shut up ^athe passages of the hill country, and had fortified ^aall ^bthe tops of the high hills, and had laid ^{bb}impediments in the champian countries:
2 wherewith he was very angry, and called all the princes of ^cMoab, and the captains of ^cAmmon, and all the governors 3 of ^dthe sea coast, and he said unto them, Tell me now, ye sons of Canaan,
who this people is, that dwelleth in the hill country, and what are the cities that they inhabit, and what is the multitude of their army, and wherein is their power
and strength, and what king is set over 4 them, or captain of their army; and why have they determined not to come and meet me, more than all the inhabitants 5 of the west? Then said ^eAchior, the captain of all the sons of ^eAmmon,

Let my lord now hear a word from the mouth of thy servant, and I will declare unto thee the truth concerning this people, which dwelleth near thee, and inhabiteth the hill countries: and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy servant. This people are descended of the Chaldeans: and ^fthey sojourned heretofore in ^gMesopotamia, because ^hthey would not follow the gods of their fathers, which were in the land of Chaldea. For they ⁱleft the way of their ancestors, and worshipped ^jthe God of heaven, the God whom they knew: so they cast them out from the face of their gods, and they fled into ^kMesopotamia, and sojourned there many days. Then ^ltheir God commanded ^mthem to depart from the place where they sojourned, and to go into the land of Canaan: where they dwelt, and ⁿwere increased with gold and silver, and with very much cattle. But when a famine covered all the land of Canaan, ^othey went down into Egypt, and sojourned there, while they were nourished, and ^pbecame there a great multitude, so that one could not number their nation. Therefore ^qthe king of Egypt rose up against them, and ^rdealt subtilly with them, and brought them low with labouring in brick, and made them slaves. ^sThen they cried unto their God, and ^the smote all the land of Egypt with incurable plagues: so ^uthe Egyptians cast them out of their sight. And ^vGod dried the Red sea before them, and ^wbrought them ^xto mount Sina, and ^yCades-Barne, and cast forth all that dwelt in the wilderness. ^zSo they dwelt in the land of the Amorites, and they destroyed by their strength all them of ^{aa}Esebon, and ^{ab}passing over Jordan they possessed ^{ac}all the hill country. And ^{ad}they cast forth before them the ^{ae}Canaanite, the ^{af}Pherezite, the ^{ag}Jebusite, and the ^{ah}Sychemite, and all the ^{ai}Gergesites, and they dwelt in that ^{aj}country many days. And whilst they sinned not before their God, they prospered, because the ^{ak}God that hateth iniquity was with them. But ^{al}when they departed from the way which he appointed them, they were destroyed in many battles very sore, and ^{am}were led captives into a land ^{an}that was not theirs, and the temple of their God was cast to the ground, and their cities were taken by the enemies. But now are they returned to their God, and ^{ao}are come up from the places where they were scattered, and have possessed Jerusalem, where their sanctuary ^{ap}is, and ^{aq}are seated in the hill country; for it was desolate. Now therefore, my lord ^{ar}and governor, if there be ^{as}any error in this people, and they sin against their God, let us consider that this shall be their ^{at}ruin, and let us go up, and we shall overcome them. But if there be no iniquity in their nation, let my lord now pass by, lest their Lord defend ^{au}them, and their God ^{av}be for them, and we become a reproach before all the world.

And when Achior had finished these sayings, all the people standing round about the tent murmured, and the ^{aw}chief men of Olofernes, and all that dwelt by ^{ax}the sea side, and in ^{ay}Moab, spake that ^{az}he should kill him. For, ^{ba}say they, we will not be afraid of the face of the children of Israel: for lo, ^{bb}it is a people that have no strength nor power ^{bc}for a strong ^{bd}battle. Now therefore, lord Olofernes, we will go up, and they shall be ^{be}a prey to be devoured of all thine army. And when the tumult of men that were about the council was ceased, Olofernes the chief captain of the army of Assur said unto Achior and all the ^{bf}Moabites before all the company of other nations,

And who art thou, Achior, and ^{bg}the hirelings of Ephraim, that thou hast prophesied amongst us as to day, and hast said, ^{bh}that we should not make war with the people of Israel, ^{bi}because their God will defend them? and who ^{bj}is God but Nabuchodonosor? He will send his power, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and ^{bk}their God shall not deliver them: but we his servants will destroy them as one man; for they are not able to sustain the power of our horses. For with them we will tread them under foot, and their mountains ^{bl}shall be drunken with their blood, and their fields shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their footsteps shall not be able to stand before us, for they shall utterly perish, saith king Nabuchodonosor, lord of all the earth; for he said, None of my words shall be in vain. And thou, Achior, ^{bm}a hireling of ^{bn}Ammon, which hast spoken these words in the day of thine iniquity, shalt see my face no more from this day, until I take vengeance of ^{bo}this nation ^{bp}that came out of Egypt. And then shall the sword of mine army, and the multitude of them that serve me, pass through thy sides, and thou shalt fall among their slain, ^hwhen I return. Now therefore my servants shall bring thee back into the hill country, and shall set thee in one of the cities of ⁱthe passages: and thou shalt not perish, till thou be destroyed with them. And if thou persuade thyself in thy mind that they shall not be taken, let not ^kthy countenance fall: I have spoken it, and none of my words shall be in vain.

Then Olofernes commanded his servants, that waited in his tent, to take Achior, and bring him to ^lBethulia, and deliver him into the hands of the children of Israel. So his servants took him, and brought him out of the camp into the plain, and they went from the midst of the plain into the hill country, and came unto ^mthe fountains that were under Bethulia. And when the men of the city saw them, they took up their weapons, and went out of the city to the top of the hill: and every man that used a sling kept them from coming up by casting of stones against them. Nevertheless having gotten privily under the hill, they bound Achior, and cast him down, and left him at the foot of the hill, and returned to their lord. But the Israelites descended from their city, and came unto him, and loosed him, and brought him into Bethulia, and presented him to the governors of the city: which were in those days Ozias the son of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, and Chabris the son of Gothoniell, and Charmis the son of Melchiel. And they called together all ⁿthe ancients of the city, and all their youth ran together, and their women, to the assembly, and they set Achior in the midst of all their people. Then Ozias asked him of that which was done. And he answered and declared unto them the words of ^othe council of Olofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the midst of the princes of Assur, and whatsoever Olofernes had spoken proudly against the house of Israel. Then the people fell down and worshipped God, and cried unto God, saying, O Lord ^pGod of heaven, behold their pride, and pity the low estate of our nation, and ^qlook upon the face of those that are sanctified unto thee this day. Then they comforted Achior, and praised him greatly. And Ozias took him out of the assembly unto his house, and ^rmade a feast to ^sthe elders; and they called on the God of Israel all that night for help.

The next day Olofernes commanded all his army, and all his people which were come to take his part, that they should remove their camp against Bethulia, to take aforehand ^athe ascents of the hill country, and to make war ²against the children of Israel. Then their strong men removed their camps in that day, and the army of the men of war was ^ban hundred and seventy thousand footmen, and twelve thousand horsemen, beside the baggage, and other men that were afoot amongst them, a very great multitude. And they camped in the valley near unto Bethulia, ^cby the fountain, and they spread themselves in breadth ^dover ^eDothaim even to ^fBelmaim, and in length from Bethulia unto ^gCyamon, which is over against ^hEsdraelon. Now the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, were greatly troubled, and said every one to his neighbour, Now will these men ⁱlick up the face of the earth; for neither the high mountains, nor the valleys, nor the hills, are able to bear their weight. Then every man took up his weapons of war, and when they had kindled fires upon their towers, they remained and watched ^jall that night. But in the second day Olofernes brought forth all his horsemen in the sight of the children of Israel ^kwhich were in Bethulia, and viewed ^lthe passages up to the city, and came to ^mthe fountains of their waters, and took them, and set ⁿgarrisons of men of war over them, and he himself removed towards his people.

Then came unto him all the chief of ⁱthe children of Esau, and all the governors of the people of ^kMoab, and the captains of ^lthe sea coast, and said,

Let our Lord now hear a word, that there be not an overthrow in thine army. For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their spears, but in the height of the mountains wherein they dwell, because it is not easy to come up to the tops of their mountains. Now therefore, my lord, fight not against them in battle ^oarray, and there shall not ^pso much as one man of thy people perish.

Remain in thy camp, and keep all the men of thine army, and let thy servants get into their hands ^qthe fountain of water, which issueth forth of the foot of the mountain: for all the inhabitants of ¹³ Bethulia have their water thence; so shall thirst kill them, and they shall give up their city, and we and our people shall go up to the tops of the mountains that are near, and will camp upon them, to watch that none go out of the city. So ¹⁴ they and their wives and their children shall be consumed with famine, and before the sword come against them, they shall be overthrown in the streets where they dwell. Thus shalt thou render them ¹⁵ an evil reward; because they rebelled, and met not thy person peaceably.

And these words pleased Olo- ¹⁶ fernes and all his servants, and he appointed to do as they had spoken. So ¹⁷ the ^bcamp of the children of ^mAmmon departed, and with them five thousand of the Assyrians, and they pitched in the valley, and took the waters, and ^cthe fountains of the waters of the children of Israel. Then ⁱthe children of Esau ¹⁸ went up with the children of ^mAmmon, and camped in the hill country over against ^dDothaim: and they sent some of them toward the south, and toward the east, over against Ekrebel, which is near unto Chusi, that is upon the brook Mochmur; and the rest of the army of the Assyrians camped in the plain, and ¹⁹ covered the face of the whole land; and their tents and ^ecarriages were pitched to a very great multitude. Then the children of Israel cried unto the Lord their God, because their heart failed, for all their enemies had compassed them round about, and there was no way to escape out from among them. Thus all ²⁰ the ^bcompany of Assur remained about them, both their footmen, chariots, and horsemen, four and thirty days, so that all their vessels of water failed all the inhabitants of Bethulia. And the ²¹ ^ppcis- terns were emptied, and they had not water to drink their fill for one day; for they gave them drink ^aby measure. Therefore their young children were out ²² of heart, and their women and young men ^rfainted for thirst, and fell down in the streets of the city, and by the passages of the gates, and there was no longer any strength in them.

Then all the people assembled to ²³ ^sOzias, and to the chief of the city, both young men, and women, and children, and cried with a loud voice, and said before all ^tthe elders. ^uGod ²⁴

be judge between us and you: for you have done us great injury, in that you have not required peace of the children ²⁵ of Assur. For now we have no helper: but ^xGod hath sold us into their hands, that we should be thrown down before them with thirst and great destruction.

²⁶ Now therefore call them unto you, and deliver the whole city ^yfor a spoil to the people of Olofernes, and to all his army.

²⁷ For it is better for us to be made a spoil unto them, than to die for thirst: for we will be his servants, that our souls may live, and not see the death of our infants before our eyes, nor our wives nor our children to die. ²⁸ We take to witness against you the heaven and the earth, and our God and Lord of our fathers, which punisheth us according to our sins, and ^athe sins of our fathers, ^tthat he do not ^baccording as we have said this day.

Then there was great weeping with one consent in the midst of the assembly; and they cried unto the Lord God with a loud voice. Then said Ozias to them, Brethren, be of good courage, ^clet us yet endure five days, in the which space the Lord our God may turn his mercy toward us; for he will ³¹ not forsake us ^dutterly. And if these days pass, and there come no help unto us, I will do ^eaccording to your word.

³² And he dispersed the people, every one to their own charge; and they went unto the walls and towers of their city, and sent the women and children into their houses: and they were very low brought in the city.

Now at that time Judith heard there- of, which was the daughter of Merari, the son of Ox, the son of Joseph, the son of Oziel, the son of Elcia, the son of Ananias, the son of Gedeon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Acitho, the son of Eliu, the son of Eliab, the son of Nathanael, the son of ²Samael, the son ²of Salasadaï, ^athe son of Israel. And Manasses was her husband, of her tribe and kindred, who died in ^bthe barley ³harvest. For as he stood overseeing them that bound sheaves in the field, ^cthe heat came upon his head, and he fell on his bed, and died in the city of Bethulia: and they buried him with his fathers in the field between ^dDothaim ⁴and ^eBalamo. So Judith was a widow in her house three years and ^ffour ⁵months. And she made her a tent upon ^gthe top of her house, and ^hput

²³ things that she had, to call ^o Ozias and ²⁴ Chabris and Charmis, ^p the ancients of ²⁵ the city. And they came unto her, and ²⁶ she said unto them,

Hear me now, O ye governors of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your words
that you have spoken before the people
this day are not right, touching this oath which ye made and pronounced between God and you, and have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, unless within these days the Lord turn to help you. And now who are ¹ you ^q that have tempted God this day,
² and stand instead of God amongst the ³ children of men? And now try the ⁴ Lord ^r Almighty, but you shall never ⁵ know any thing. For ^s you cannot find
⁶ the depth of the heart of man, neither ⁷ can ye perceive the things that he
⁸ thinketh: then how can you search out
⁹ God, that hath made all these things,
¹⁰ and ^t know his mind, or comprehend
¹¹ his purpose? Nay, my brethren, ^u pro-
¹² voke not the Lord our God to anger.
¹³ For if he will not help us within these
¹⁴ five days, he hath power to defend us
¹⁵ when he will, even every day, or to ¹⁶ destroy us before our enemies. Do not ¹⁷ ¹ bind the counsels of the Lord our ¹⁸ God: for ^x God is not as man, that he
¹⁹ may be threatened; ^y neither is he as ²⁰ the son of man, that he should be ²¹ wavering. Therefore let us wait for ²² salvation of him, and call upon him to help us, and he will hear our voice, if ¹ it please him. For there arose none in our age, neither is there any now

in these days, neither tribe, nor family, nor ¹ people, nor city, among us, which worship gods made with hands, ^y as ² hath been aforetime. For the which cause our fathers were given to the sword, and for a spoil, and had a great fall before our enemies. But we know none other god, therefore we trust that he will not despise us, nor any of our nation. For if we be taken, so all Judea shall lie waste, and our sanctuary shall be spoiled; and he will require the profanation thereof at our mouth.
And the ¹ slaughter of our brethren, and the captivity of the country, and the desolation of our inheritance, will he turn upon our heads among the Gentiles, wheresoever we shall be in bondage; and we shall be ² an offence and a reproach to all them that possess us.
For our servitude shall not be directed to favour: but the Lord our God shall turn it to dishonour. Now therefore,
O brethren, let us shew an example to our brethren, because their hearts depend upon us, and the sanctuary, and the house, and the altar, rest upon us.
Moreover let us give thanks to the Lord our God, which trieth us, even as he did our fathers. Remember what things he did to ^a Abraham, and how he tried ^a Isaac, and ^b what happened to Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, when he kept the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. For he hath not tried us in the fire, as he did them, for the examination of their hearts, neither hath he taken vengeance on us: but ^c the Lord doth scourge them that come near unto him, to admonish them.

Then said Ozias to her, All that thou hast spoken hast thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that may gainsay thy words. For this is not the first day wherein thy wisdom is manifested; but from the beginning of thy days all the people have known thy understanding, because the disposition of thine heart is good. But ^d the people were very thirsty, and compelled us
to do unto them as we have spoken,
and to bring an oath upon ourselves,
which we will not break. Therefore now pray thou for us, because thou art
a godly woman, and the Lord will send us rain to fill our ^e cisterns, and we

the eyes of all men that should see her. Then she gave her maid a bottle of wine, and ¹a cruse of oil, and filled a bag with parched corn, and ¹lumps of figs, and with fine bread; so she ¹folded all these things together, and laid them upon her. Thus they went forth to the gate of the city of Bethulia, and ^kfound standing there Ozias, and ¹the ancients of the city, Chabris and Char-mis. And when they saw her, that her countenance was altered, and her apparel was changed, they wondered at her beauty very greatly, and said unto her, The God, the God of our fathers, give thee favour, and accomplish thine ^menterprises to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Jerusalem. Then they worshipped God. And she said unto them, Command the gates of the city to be opened unto me, that I may go forth to accomplish the things whereof you have spoken with me. So they commanded the young men to open unto her, as she had spoken. And when they had done so, Judith went out, she, and her maid with her; and the men of the city looked after her, until she was gone down the mountain, and till she had passed the valley, and could see her no more.

Thus they went straight forth in the valley: and the ^{mm}first watch of the Assyrians met her, and took her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? And she said, I am a woman of the Hebrews, and am fled from them: for they shall be given you ⁿto be consumed: and I am coming before Olofernes the chief captain of your army, to declare words of truth; and I will shew him a way, whereby he shall go, and win all the hill country, without losing the body or life of any one of his men. Now when the men heard her words, and beheld her countenance, they wondered greatly at her beauty, and said unto her, Thou hast saved thy life, in that thou hast hasted to come down to the presence of our lord: now therefore come to his tent, and some of us shall ^oconduct thee, until they have delivered thee to his hands. And when thou standest before him, be not afraid in thine heart, but shew unto him according to thy word; and he will entreat thee well. Then they chose out of them an hundred men ¹to accompany her and her maid; and they brought her to the tent of Olofernes. Then ^pwas there a course throughout all the camp: for her coming was noised among the tents, and they came about her, as she stood without the tent of Olofernes, till they told him of her. And they wondered at her beauty, and admired the children of Israel because of her, and every one said to his neighbour, Who would despise this people, that have among them such women? surely it is not good that one man of them be left, who being let go might deceive the whole earth. And they that ^rlay near Olofernes went out, and all his servants, and they brought her into the tent. Now Olofernes rested upon his bed under a ^qcanopy, which was woven with purple, and gold, and emeralds, and precious stones. So they shewed him of her; and he came out before his tent with ^rsilver lamps going before him. And when Judith was come before him and his servants, they all marvelled at the beauty of her countenance; and ^sshe fell down upon her face, and did reverence unto him: and his servants took her up. Then said Olofernes unto her, Woman, be of good comfort, fear not in thine heart: for I never hurt any that was willing to serve Nabuchodonosor, the king of all the earth. Now therefore, if thy people that dwell in the mountains had not ^aset light by me, I would not have lifted up my spear against them: but they have done these things to themselves. But now tell me wherefore thou art fled from them, and art come unto us: for thou art come for safeguard; be of good comfort, thou shalt live ^bthis night, and hereafter: for none shall hurt thee, but entreat thee well, as they do the servants of king Nabuchodonosor my lord. Then Judith said unto him.

Receive the words of thy servant, and suffer thine handmaid to speak in thy presence, and I will declare no lie to my lord ^bthis night. And if thou wilt follow the words of thine handmaid, God will bring the thing perfectly to pass by thee; and my lord shall not fail of his ^{bb}purposes. ^cAs Nabuchodonosor king of all the earth liveth, and as his power liveth, who hath sent thee for the upholding of every living thing: for not only men shall serve him by thee, but also ^{cc}the beasts of the field, and the cattle, and the fowls of the air, shall live by thy power under Nabuchodonosor and all his house. Therefore, O lord ^oand governor, reject not ^fhis word; but lay it up in thine heart, for it is true: for our nation shall not be punished, neither can the sword prevail against them, except they sin against their God. And now, that my lord be not defeated and frustrate of his purpose, even death is now fallen upon them, and their sin hath overtaken them, wherewith they will ^gprovoke their God to anger, whensoever they shall do that which is not fit to be done: for their victuals fail them, and all their water is scant, and they have determined to lay hands upon their cattle, and purposed to consume all those things, that God hath forbidden them to eat by his laws: and are resolved to spend ^hthe firstfruits of the corn, and the tenths of wine and oil, which they had sanctified, and ^hreserved for the priests that serve in Jerusalem before the face of our God; the which things it is not lawful for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands. Wherefore I thine handmaid, knowing all this, am fled from their presence; and God hath sent me to work things with thee, wherewith all the earth shall be astonished, and whosoever shall hear it. For thy servant is ^jreligious, and serveth ^kthe God of heaven ^lday and night: now therefore, my lord, I will remain with thee, and thy servant will go out by night into the valley, and I will pray unto God, and he will tell me when they have committed their

18 sins: and I will come and shew it unto thee; then thou shalt go forth with all thine army, and there shall be none of them that shall resist thee. And I will lead thee through the midst of Judea, until thou come before Jerusalem; and I will set thy throne in the midst thereof; and thou shalt drive them ^mas sheep that have no shepherd, and ⁿa dog shall not so much as ^oopen his mouth at thee: for ^othese things were told me according to my foreknowledge, and they were declared unto me, and I am sent to tell thee.

20 Then her words pleased Olofernes and all his servants; and they marvelled at her wisdom, and said, There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, both for beauty of face, and wisdom of words. Likewise Olofernes said unto her, God hath done well to send thee before the people, that strength might be in our hands, and destruction upon them that ^alightly regard my lord. And now thou art both beautiful in thy countenance, and witty in thy words: surely if thou do as thou hast spoken, ^pthy God shall be my God, and thou shalt dwell in the house of king Nabuchodonosor, and shalt be renowned through the whole earth.

Then he commanded to bring her in where ^ahis plate was set; and bade that they should prepare for her of his own meats, and that she should drink of his own wine. And Judith said, ^{aa}I will not eat thereof, lest there be an offence: but provision shall be made for me ^bof the things that I have brought. 3 Then Olofernes said unto her, If thy provision should fail, how should we give thee the like? for there be none with us of thy nation. Then said Judith unto him, ^cAs thy soul liveth, my lord, thine handmaid shall not spend those things that I have, before the Lord work by mine hand the things that he hath determined. Then the servants of Olofernes brought her ^dinto the tent, and she slept ^etill midnight, and she arose when it was towards ^fthe morning watch, and sent to Olofernes, saying, Let my lord now command that thine handmaid may go forth unto prayer. 7 Then Olofernes commanded his guard that they should not stay her: thus she abode in the camp three days, and went out in the night into the valley of Be-thulia, and washed herself ^g in a fountain of water by the camp. And when she came out, she besought the Lord God of Israel to direct her way to ^h the raising up of the children of her people. So she came in clean, and remained in ^d the tent, until she did eat her meat at evening. And in the fourth day ⁱ Olofernes made a feast to his own servants only, and called none of the officers to the banquet. Then said he ¹¹ to Bagoas the eunuch, who had charge over all that he had, Go now, and persuade this Hebrew woman ^d which is with thee, that she come unto us, and eat and drink with us. For lo, it will ¹² be a shame for our person, if we shall let such a woman go, not having had her company; for if we draw her not unto us, she will laugh us to scorn. Then went Bagoas from the presence ¹³ of Olofernes, and came to her, and he said, Let not this fair damsel fear to come to my lord, and to be honoured in his presence, and drink wine, and be merry with us, and be made this day as one of the daughters of the Assyrians, which ^j serve in the house of Nabuchodonosor. Then said Judith ¹⁴ unto him, Who am I now, that I should gainsay my lord? surely whatsoever pleaseth him I will do speedily, and it shall be my joy unto the day of my death. So she arose, and decked her- ¹⁵ self with her apparel and all her woman's attire, and her maid went and laid soft skins on the ground for her over against Olofernes, which she had received of Bagoas for her daily use, that she might sit and eat upon them. Now when Judith came in and sat ¹⁶ down, Olofernes ^k his heart was ravished with her, and his mind was moved, and he desired greatly her company; for he waited a time to deceive her, from the day that he had seen her. Then said ¹⁷ Olofernes unto her, Drink now, and be merry with us. So Judith said, I ¹⁸ will drink now, my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day more than all the days since I was born. Then she took and ate and drank ¹⁹ before him ^l what her maid had prepared. And Olofernes took great de- ²⁰ light in her, and drank much more wine than he had drunk at any time in one day since he was born.

Now when the evening was come, ^a his servants made haste to ^b depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, and dismissed ^c the waiters from the presence of his lord; and they went to their beds: for they were all weary, ² because the feast had been long. And Judith was left alone in the tent, and Olofernes lying along upon his bed: ³ for ^d he was filled with wine. Now Judith had commanded her maid to stand without her bedchamber, and to wait for her coming forth, as she did daily: for she said she would go forth to her prayers, and she spake to Bagoas ⁴ according to the same purpose. So all went forth, and none was left in the bedchamber, ^e neither little nor great. Then Judith, standing by his bed, said in her heart, O Lord God of all power, look at this present upon the works of mine hands for the exaltation ⁵ of Jerusalem. For now is the time ^f to help thine inheritance, and to execute mine ^g enterprises to the destruction of the enemies which are risen against ⁶ us. Then she came to the ¹ pillar of the bed, which was at Olofernes' head, and took down his ^h fauchin ⁷ from thence, and approached to his bed, and took hold of the hair of his head, and said, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, this day. And she smote twice upon his neck with all her might, and ⁱ she took away his head from him, ⁹ and tumbled his body down from the bed, and pulled down the ^k canopy from the ¹ pillars; and ^m anon after she went forth, and gave Olofernes his head ¹⁰ to her maid; and she put it in her ⁿ bag of meat: so they twain went together according to their custom unto prayer: and when they passed the camp, they compassed ^o the valley, and went up the mountain of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

¹¹ Then said Judith afar off to the watchmen at the gate, Open, open now the gate: God, even our God, is with us, to shew his power yet in Jerusalem, and his forces against the enemy, as he ¹² hath even done this day. Now when the men of her city heard her voice, they made haste to go down to the gate of their city, and they called ^p the ¹³ elders of the city. And then they ran all together, ^q both small and great, for it was strange unto them that she was come: so they opened the gate, and received them, and made a fire for a light, and stood round about them.

Then she said to them with a loud ¹⁴ voice, Praise, praise God, praise God, I say, for he hath not taken away his mercy from the house of Israel, but hath destroyed our enemies by mine hands this night. So she took the ¹⁵ head out of ^m the bag, and shewed it, and said unto them, Behold the head of Olofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, and behold the ^k canopy, wherein he did lie in his drunkenness; and ^a the Lord hath smitten him by the hand of a woman. ^r As the Lord ¹⁶ liveth, who hath kept me in my way that I went, my countenance hath deceived him to his destruction, and yet hath he not committed sin with me, to defile and shame me. Then all the peo- ¹⁷ ple were wonderfully astonished, and bowed themselves, and worshipped God, and said with one accord, Blessed be thou. O our God, which hast this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people. Then said Ozias unto her, O ¹⁸ daughter, blessed art thou of ^s the most high God above all the women upon the earth; and blessed be the Lord God, ^t which hath created the heavens and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chief of our enemies. For this thy ¹⁹ confidence shall not depart from the heart of men, which remember the power of God for ever. And God turn ²⁰ these things to thee for a perpetual praise, to visit thee in good things, because thou hast not spared thy life for the affliction of our nation, but hast revenged our ruin, walking a straight way before our God. ^u And all the people said, So be it, so be it.

XIV.

Then said Judith unto them, Hear me now, my brethren, and take this head, and ^a hang it upon the highest place of your walls. And so soon as the morning shall appear, and the sun shall come forth upon the earth, take you every one his weapons, and go forth every valiant man out of the city, and set you a captain over them, as though you would go down into the field toward the ^b watch of the Assyrians; but go not down. Then they shall take their armour, and shall go into their camp, and raise up the captains of the army of Assur, and they shall run to the tent of Olofernes, but shall not find him: then fear shall fall upon them, and they shall flee before your face. So you, and ⁴

all that inhabit the coast of Israel, shall pursue them, and overthrow them as ⁵ they go. But before you do these things, call me ^c Achior the Ammonite, that he may see and know him that despised the house of Israel, and that sent him ⁶ to us, as it were to his death. Then they called Achior ^d out of the house of Ozias; and when he was come, and saw the head of Olofernes in a man's hand in the assembly of the people, he fell down on his face, and ^e his spirit ⁷ failed. But when they had recovered him, ^f he fell at Judith's feet, and revered her, and said, Blessed art thou in all the tabernacle of Juda, and in all nations, which hearing thy ⁸ name shall be ^s astonished. Now therefore tell me all the things that thou hast done in these days. Then Judith declared unto him in the midst of the people all that she had done, from the day that she went forth until that hour ⁹ she spake unto them. And when she had left off speaking, the people shouted with a loud voice, and made a joyful ¹⁰ noise in their city. And when Achior had seen all that the God of Israel had done, he believed in God greatly, and ^s circumcised the flesh of his foreskin, and was joined unto the house of Israel ^b unto this day.

¹¹ And as soon as the morning arose, ⁱ they hanged the head of Olofernes upon the wall, and ^k every man took his weapons, and they went forth by bands unto the ^l straits of the mountain. ¹² But ^l when the Assyrians saw them, they sent to their leaders, which came to their captains and ^m tribunes, and to ¹³ every one of their rulers. So ^l they came to Olofernes' tent, and said to ⁿ him that had the charge of all his things, Waken now our lord: for the slaves have been bold to come down against us to battle, that they may be ¹⁴ ^o utterly destroyed. Then went in ⁿ Ba- goas, and knocked at the door of the tent; for he thought that he had slept ¹⁵ with Judith. But because none answered, he opened it, and went into the bedchamber, and found him cast upon the floor dead, and his head was ¹⁶ taken from him. ^l Therefore he cried with a loud voice, with weeping, and sighing, and a mighty cry, and ^p rent ¹⁷ his garments. After, he went into ^q the tent where Judith lodged: and when he found her not, he leaped out to the people, and cried, These slaves have ¹⁸ ^r dealt treacherously; one woman of the Hebrews hath brought shame upon the house of king Nabuchodonosor: for behold, Olofernes lieth upon the ground without a head. When the captains of ¹⁹ the Assyrians' army heard these words, they ^p rent their coats, and their minds were wonderfully ^s troubled, and there was a cry and a very great noise throughout the camp.

XV.

And when they that were in the tents heard, they were astonished at the thing that was done. And ^a fear and trembling fell upon them, so that there was no man that durst abide in the sight of his neighbour, but rushing out all together, they fled into every way of the plain, and of the hill country. They ^b also ^b that had camped in the mountains round about Bethulia fled away. Then the children of Israel, every one that was a warrior among them, rushed out upon them. Then sent Ozias to ^c Betomasthem, and to Bebai, and ^d Chobai, and Cola, and to all the coasts of Israel, such as should tell the things that were done, and that all should rush forth upon their enemies to destroy them. Now when the children of Israel heard ^e it, they all fell upon them with one consent, and slew them unto ^d Choba: likewise also they that came from Jerusalem, and from all the hill country, (for men had told them what things were done in the camp of their enemies,) and they that were in ^e Galaad, and in ^e Galilee, ^f chased them with a great slaughter, until they were past ^f Damascus and the borders thereof. And the residue, that dwelt at Bethulia, ⁶ fell upon the camp of Assur, and spoiled them, and were greatly enriched. And ⁷ the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter had that which remained; and the villages and the cities, that were in the mountains and in the plain, gat many spoils: for the multitude was very great.

Then ^g Joacim the high priest, and ⁸ the ^h ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Jerusalem, came to behold the good things that God had shewed to Israel, and to see Judith, and to ⁱ salute her. And when they came unto her, they blessed her with one accord, and said unto her, Thou art the exaltation of Jerusalem, thou art the great glory of Israel. thou art the great rejoicing of our nation: thou hast done all these things by thine hand: thou hast done much good to Israel. and God is pleased therewith: blessed be thou of the ^k Almighty Lord for evermore. ¹ And all the people said,

¹¹ So be it. And the people spoiled the camp the space of thirty days: and they gave unto Judith Olofernes his tent, and all ^m his plate, and beds, and vessels, and all his ⁿ stuff: and she took it, and laid it on her mule; and made ready her carts, and laid them

¹² thereon. Then all the women of Israel ran together to see her, and blessed her, and made a dance among them for her: and she took ^o branches in her hand, and gave also to the women that

¹³ were with her. And they put a garland of olive upon her and her maid that was with her, and she went before all the people ^p in the dance, leading all the women: and all the men of Israel followed in their armour ^q with garlands, and with songs in their mouths. Then Judith began to sing this thanksgiving in all Israel, and all the people sang ² after her ^r this song of praise. And Judith said,

Begin unto my God with ^a timbrels,

Sing unto my Lord with ^b cymbals:

Tune unto him a ^r new psalm: Exalt him, and call upon his name.

³ For God ^c breaketh the battles: For amongst the camps in the midst of the people

He came with ten thousands of his army,

The multitude whereof stopped the torrents,

And ^e their horsemen have covered the hills.

⁵ ^f He bragged that he would burn up my borders,

And kill my young men with the sword,

And ^g dash the sucking children against the ground,

And make mine infants ^h as a prey, And my virgins as a spoil.

THEN Mardocheus said, God hath ⁴ done these things. For I remember ⁵ ^a a dream which I saw concerning these matters, and nothing thereof hath failed. A little fountain became a river, and ⁶ there was light, and the sun, and much water: this river is Esther, whom the king married, and made queen: and ⁷ the two dragons are I and Aman. And the nations were those that were ⁸ assembled to destroy the name of the Jews: and my nation is this Israel, ⁹ which cried to God, and were saved: for the Lord hath saved his people, and the Lord hath delivered us from all those evils, and God hath wrought ¹⁰ ^b signs and great wonders, which have not been done among the Gentiles. Therefore hath he made two ^c lots, one ¹¹ for the people of God, and another for all the Gentiles. And these two lots ¹² came at the hour, and time, and ^d day of judgment, before God amongst all nations. So God remembered his peo- ¹³ ple, and justified his inheritance. ² In ^e the second year of the reign of Artaxerxes the great, in the first day of the month Nisan, ^d Mardocheus the son of Jairus, the son of Semei, the son of Cisai, of the tribe of Benjamin, had ^e a ³ dream; ^d who was a Jew, and dwelt in the city of ^f Susa, a great man, being a ⁴ ^g servitor in the king's court. ^h He was also one of the captives, which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon carried from Jerusalem with Jechonias king of Judea; and this was his ^e dream: ⁵ behold a noise of a tumult, with thunder, and earthquakes, and uproar in the ⁶ land: and behold, two great dragons came forth ready to fight, and their cry ⁷ was great. And at their cry all nations were prepared to battle, that they might ⁸ fight against the righteous people. And lo, ⁱ a day of darkness and obscurity, ^k tribulation and anguish, affliction and ⁹ great uproar, upon the earth. And the whole righteous nation was troubled, fearing their own evils, and were ready ¹⁰ to perish. Then they cried unto God, and upon their cry, as it were from a little fountain, was made a great flood, ¹¹ even much water. The light and the sun rose up, and the lowly were ex- ¹² alted, and devoured ^l the glorious. Now when Mardocheus, who had seen this ^e dream, and what God had determined to do, was awake, he bare this dream in mind, and until night by all means was desirous to know it.

And ^aMardocheus took his rest in the court with Gabatha and Tharra, the two eunuchs of the king, and keepers of the palace. And ^bhe heard their devices, and searched out their purposes, and learned that they were about to lay hands upon Artaxerxes the king; and so he certified the king of them. Then the king examined the two eunuchs, and after that they had confessed it, they were strangled. And the king made a record of these things, and Mardocheus also wrote thereof. So the king commanded Mardocheus to serve in the court, and for this he rewarded him. Howbeit ^cAman the son of Amadathus the ^cAgagite, who was ^din great honour with the king, sought to molest Mardocheus and his people because of the two eunuchs of the king.

^aThe great king Artaxerxes unto the princes and governors of an hundred and seven and twenty provinces ^bfrom India unto Ethiopia, and unto all ¹our faithful subjects, greeting. Many, the ²more often they are honoured with the great bounty of ³their gracious princes, the more proud they are waxen, and endeavour to hurt not ⁴our subjects only, but not being able to bear abundance, do take in hand to practise also against those that do them good: and take not only thankfulness away from among men, but also lifted up with the glorious words of ⁵lewd persons, ⁶that were never good, they think to escape the justice of God. ⁷that seeth all things, and hateth evil. Oftentimes also fair speech ⁸of those, that are put in trust to manage their friends' affairs, hath caused many that are in authority to be partakers of innocent blood, and hath enwrapped them in remediless calamities: beguiling with the falsehood and deceit of ⁹their lewd disposition the innocency and goodness of princes. Now ye may see ¹⁰this, as we have declared, not so much by ancient histories, as ye may, if ye search what hath been wickedly done of late through the pestilent behaviour of them that are unworthily placed in authority. And ¹¹we must take care for the time to come, that ¹²our kingdom may be quiet and peaceable for all men, both by changing ¹³our purposes, and always judging things that are evident with more equal proceeding.

For Aman, ¹⁴a Macedonian, the son of ¹⁵Amadatha, being indeed a stranger from the Persian blood, and far distant from our goodness, and as a stranger received of us, had so far forth obtained ¹⁶the favour that we shew toward every nation, as that he was called our ¹⁷father, and was continually honoured of all men, ¹⁸as ¹⁹the next person unto the king. But ²⁰he, not bearing ²¹his ²²great dignity, went about to deprive us of ²³our kingdom and life: having by manifold and cunning deceits sought ²⁴of us the destruction, as well of Mardocheus, who saved our life, and continually procured our good, as also of blameless Esther, partaker of ²⁵our kingdom, with their whole nation. For by these means he thought, finding us destitute ²⁶of friends, to have translated the kingdom of the Persians to the Macedonians. But we find that the Jews, whom ²⁷this wicked wretch hath delivered to utter destruction, are no evildoers, but live by most just laws: and that they be children of ²⁸the most high and most mighty ²⁹living God, who hath ³⁰ordered the kingdom both unto us and to our progenitors in the most excellent ³¹manner. Wherefore ye shall do well not to put in execution the letters sent ³²unto you by Aman the son of ³³Amadatha. For he, that was the worker of these things, ³⁴is hanged at the gates of ³⁵Susa ³⁶with all ³⁷his family: God, who ruleth all things, speedily rendering vengeance to him according to ³⁸his deserts. Therefore ye shall publish the copy of this letter in all places, that the Jews may ³⁹freely live after their own laws. And ye shall aid them, that ⁴⁰even the same day, being the thirteenth day of the twelfth month Adar, they may be avenged on them, who in the time of ⁴¹their affliction shall set upon them. For ⁴²Almighty God hath turned to joy unto them the day, wherein ⁴³the chosen people should have perished. You shall therefore among your solemn feasts keep ⁴⁴it a high day with all feasting: that both now and hereafter there may be safety to us, and the well affected Persians; but to those which do conspire against us a memorial ⁴⁵of destruction. Therefore ⁴⁶every city and country whatsoever, which shall not do according to these things, shall be destroyed without mercy with fire and sword, and shall be made not only unpassable for men, but also most hateful to wild beasts and fowls for ever.

THE WISDOM OF SOLOMON.

I. ^a LOVE righteousness, ye that be judges of the earth: think of the Lord with a good heart, and in simplicity of heart seek him. For he will be found of them that tempt him not; and ^bsheweth himself unto such as do not distrust him. For froward thoughts separate from God: and his power, when it is tried, ¹reproveth the unwise. For into a malicious soul wisdom shall not enter; nor dwell in the body that is subject unto sin. For the holy spirit of discipline will flee deceit, and ^cremove from thoughts that are without understanding, and ^dwill not abide when unrighteousness cometh in.

For wisdom is a ^dloving spirit; and will not acquit a blasphemer of his words: for ^eGod is witness of his reins, and a true ^fbeholder of his heart, and a hearer of his tongue. For ^gthe Spirit of the Lord filleth ^hthe world: and that which ⁱcontaineth all things ^jhath knowledge of the voice. Therefore he that speaketh unrighteous things cannot be hid: neither shall vengeance, when it ^kpunisheth, pass by him. For inquisition shall be made into the counsels of the ungodly: and the sound of his words shall come unto the Lord for the ^lmanifestation of his wicked deeds. For the ear of ^mjealousy heareth all things: and the noise of ⁿmurmurings is not hid. Therefore beware of ^omurmuring, which is unprofitable; and refrain ^pyour tongue from ^qbackbiting: for ^rthere is no word so secret, that shall go for nought: and the mouth that ^sbelieth ^tslayeth the soul.

hath he pleasure in the destruction of the living. For he created all things, that they might have their being: and ^sthe generations of the world were healthful; and there is no poison of destruction in them, nor the kingdom of death upon the earth: for righteousness is immortal: but ^tungodly men with their works and words called it to them: for when they thought to have it their friend, they consumed to nought, and ^umade a covenant with it, because they are worthy ^xto take part with it.

For ^athe ungodly said, reasoning with themselves, but not aright, ^bOur life is short and tedious, and ^cin the death of a man there is no remedy: neither was there any man known to have ^dreturned from the grave. III.

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: and their departure is taken for misery, and their going from us to be utter destruction: but they are in peace. For though they be punished in the sight of men, yet is their hope full of immortality. And having been a little chastised, they shall be greatly rewarded: for God proved them, and found them worthy for himself. As gold in the furnace hath he tried them, and received them as a burnt offering. And in the time of their visitation they shall shine, and run to and fro like sparks among the stubble. They shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people, and their Lord shall reign for ever. They that put their trust in him shall understand the truth: and such as be faithful in love shall abide with him: for grace and mercy is to his saints, and he hath care for his elect. But the ungodly shall be punished according to their own imaginations, which have neglected the righteous, and forsaken the Lord. For whoso despiseth wisdom and nurture, he is miserable, and their hope is vain, their labours unfruitful, and their works unprofitable: their wives are foolish, and their children wicked: their offspring is cursed. Wherefore blessed is the barren that is undefiled, which hath not known the sinful bed: she shall have fruit in the visitation of souls. And blessed is the eunuch, which with his hands hath wrought no iniquity, nor imagined wicked things against God: for unto him shall be given the special gift of faith, and an inheritance in the temple of the Lord more acceptable to his mind. For glorious is the fruit of good labours: and the root of wisdom shall never fall away. As for the children of adulterers, they shall not come to their perfection, and the seed of an unrighteous bed shall be rooted out. For though they live long, yet shall they be nothing regarded: and their last age shall be without honour. Or, if they die quickly, they have no hope, neither comfort in the day of trial. For horrible is the end of the unrighteous generation. Better it is to have no children, and to have virtue: for the memorial thereof is immortal: because it is known with God, and with men. When it is present, men take example at it; and when it is gone, they desire it: it wear-eth a crown, and triumpheth for ever, having gotten the victory, striving for undefiled rewards. But the multiplying brood of the ungodly shall not thrive.

^d Ecclus. 23. ^d nor take deep rooting from bastard slips, nor lay any fast foundation. For ⁴ ^e though they flourish in branches for a time; yet standing not fast, ^e they shall be shaken with the wind, and through the force of winds they shall be rooted out. The ^f unperfect branches ^g shall be broken off, their fruit unprofitable, not ripe to eat, yea, meet for nothing. ^h For children begotten of unlawful ⁱ beds are witnesses of wickedness against their parents in their trial.

But though the righteous be ⁱ prevented with death, yet shall he be in rest. For honourable age is not that which standeth in length of time, nor that is measured by number of years. But wisdom is the gray hair unto men, and an unspotted life is old age. ^j He pleased God, and was beloved of him: so that living amongst sinners he was translated.

Yea, ^k speedily was he taken away, lest that wickedness should alter his understanding, or deceit beguile his soul. For the bewitching of naughtiness ^l doth obscure things that are honest; and the wandering of concupiscence doth ^l undermine the simple mind. He, ^m being made ⁿ perfect in a short time, fulfilled a long time: for ^j his soul pleased the Lord: therefore hastened he to take him away from among the wicked. This the people saw, and understood it not, neither laid they up this in their minds, that his ⁿ grace and mercy is with his saints, and that he hath ⁿⁿ respect unto his chosen. Thus the righteous that ^o dead shall ^{oo} condemn the ungodly which are living; and ^p youth that is soon perfected the many years and old age of the unrighteous. For ^q they shall see the end of the wise, and shall not understand what God in his counsel hath decreed of him, and to what end the Lord hath set him in safety. They shall see him, and despise him; but God shall laugh them to scorn: and they shall hereafter be a vile carcase, and a reproach among the dead for evermore. For he shall rend them, and cast them down headlong, that they shall be speechless; and he shall shake them from the foundation; and they shall be utterly laid waste, and be in sorrow; and ^r their memorial shall perish. And ^s when they cast up the accounts of their sins, they shall come with fear: and their own iniquities shall convince them to their face.

Then shall the righteous man ^a stand in great boldness before the face of such as have afflicted him, and made no account of his labours. When they see it, they shall be troubled with terrible fear, and shall be amazed at the strangeness of his salvation, so far beyond all that they looked for. And they repenting and groaning for ^b anguish of spirit shall say within themselves, This was he, whom we had sometimes in derision, and a ^c proverb of reproach: we ^c fools accounted his life madness, and his end ^d to be without honour: how is he numbered among the children of God, and ^e his lot is among the saints! Therefore have we erred from the way of truth, and the light of righteousness hath not shined unto us, and the sun of righteousness rose not upon us. We ^f wearied ourselves in the way of wickedness and destruction: yea, we have gone through deserts, where ^d there lay no way: but as for the way of the Lord, we have not ^g known it. What hath pride profited us? or what good hath riches with our vaunting brought us? All those things are passed away ^h like a shadow, and ⁱ as a post that hasted by; and ^j as a ship that passeth over the waves of the water, which when it is gone by, the trace thereof cannot be found, neither the ^k pathway of the keel in the waves; or ^l as when a bird ^h hath flown through the air, there is no ^h token of her way to be found, but the light air being beaten with the stroke of her wings, and parted with the violent noise and motion of them, is passed through, and therein afterwards no sign where she went is to be found; or like as when an arrow is shot ⁱ at a mark, it parteth the air, which immediately cometh together again, so that a man cannot know where it went ^j through: even so we in like manner, as soon as we were born, began to draw to our end, and had no sign of virtue to shew; but were consumed in our own ^k wickedness. For ^k the hope of the ungodly is like ^l dust ^l that is blown away with the wind; like a ^m thin froth that is driven away with the storm; ⁿ like as the smoke which is dispersed here and there with a tempest, and passeth away as the remembrance of a guest that ^o tarrieth but a day. ¶ Or, palace: fore shall they receive a glorious kingdom, and a beautiful crown from the Lord's hand: for with his right hand shall he cover them, and with his arm shall he protect them. He shall take to him his jealousy for complete armour, and make the creature his weapon for the revenge of his enemies. He shall put on righteousness as a breastplate, and true judgment instead of a helmet. He shall take holiness for an invincible shield. His severe wrath shall he sharpen for a sword, and the world shall fight with him against the unwise. Then shall the right aiming thunderbolts go abroad; and from the clouds, as from a well drawn bow, shall they fly to the mark. And hailstones full of wrath shall be cast as out of a stone bow, and the water of the sea shall rage against them, and the floods shall cruelly drown them. Yea, a mighty wind shall stand up against them, and like a storm shall blow them away: thus iniquity shall lay waste the whole earth, and ill dealing shall overthrow the thrones of the mighty.

VI.

¶ Hear therefore, O ye kings, and understand; learn, ye that be judges of the ends of the earth. Give ear, you that rule the people, and glory in the multitude of nations. For power is given you of the Lord, and sovereignty from the Highest, who shall try your works, and search out your counsels. Because, being ministers of his kingdom, you have not judged aright, nor kept the law, nor walked after the counsel of God; horribly and speedily shall he come upon you: for a sharp judgment shall be to them that be in high places. For mercy will soon pardon the meanest: but mighty men shall be mightily tormented. For he which is Lord over all shall fear no man's person, neither shall he stand in awe of any man's greatness: for he hath made the small and great, and careth for all alike. But a sore trial shall come upon the mighty.

Unto you therefore, O kings, do I speak, that ye may learn wisdom, and not fall away. For they that keep holiness holily shall be judged holy: and they that have learned such things shall find what to answer. Wherefore set your affection upon my words; desire them, and ye shall be instructed. Wisdom is glorious, and never fadeth away: yea, she is easily seen of them that love her, and found of such as seek her. She preventeth them that desire her, in making herself first known unto them.

Whoso seeketh her early shall have no great travail: for he shall find her sitting at his doors. To think therefore upon her is perfection of wisdom: and whoso watcheth for her shall quickly be without care. For she goeth about seeking such as are worthy of her, sheweth herself favourably unto them in the ways, and meeteth them in every thought.

For the very true beginning of her is the desire of discipline; and the care of discipline is love; and love is the keeping of her laws; and the giving heed unto her laws is the assurance of incorruption; and incorruption maketh us near unto God: therefore the desire of wisdom bringeth to a kingdom. If your delight be then in thrones and sceptres, O ye kings of the people, honour wisdom, that ye may reign for evermore. As for wisdom, what she is, and how she came up, I will tell you, and will not hide mysteries from you: but will seek her out from the beginning of her nativity, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and will not pass over the truth. Neither will I go with consuming envy; for such a man shall have no fellowship with wisdom. But the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the world: and a wise king is the upholding of the people. Receive therefore instruction through my words, and it shall do you good.

VII.

I myself also am a mortal man, like to all, and the offspring of him that was first made of the earth, and in my mother's womb was fashioned to be flesh in the time of ten months, being compacted in blood, of the seed of man, and the pleasure that came with sleep.

And when I was born, I drew in the common air, and fell upon the earth, which is of like nature, and the first voice which I uttered was crying, as all others do. I was nursed in swaddling clothes, and that with cares. For there is no king that had any other beginning of birth. For all men have one entrance into life, and the like going out.

Wherefore I prayed, and understanding was given me: I called upon God, and the spirit of wisdom came to me.

I preferred her before sceptres and thrones, and esteemed riches nothing in comparison of her. Neither compared I unto her any ^{†m}precious stone, because all gold in respect of her is as a little sand, and silver shall be counted as clay before her. I loved her above ¹⁰health and beauty, and chose to have her ^oinstead of light: for the light that cometh from her never goeth out. [¶]All ¹²good things together came to me with her, and [¶]innumerable riches in her hands. And I rejoiced in them all, because wisdom goeth before them: and I knew not that she was the mother of them. I learned [†]diligently, and do ¹³communicate her [¶]liberally: ^{¶¶}I do not hide her riches. For she is ^{¶a}treasure unto men that never faileth: which they that use ^{¶¶}become the friends of God, being [¶]commended for the gifts that come from ^{¶¶}learning. [¶]God hath granted ¹⁵me to speak as I would, and to conceive as is meet for the things that [¶]are given me: because it is he that leadeth unto wisdom, and directeth the wise. For in ¹⁶his hand are both we and our words; all wisdom also, and knowledge of workmanship. For he hath given me certain ¹⁷knowledge of the things that are, namely, to know how the world was made, and the operation of the elements: the beginning, ending, and midst of the times: the alterations of [¶]the turning of the sun, and the change of seasons: the circuits ¹⁹of years, and the [¶]positions of stars: the ²⁰natures of living creatures, and the furies of wild beasts: the violence of winds, and the [¶]reasonings of men: the diversities of plants, and the virtues of roots: and all such things as are either secret or manifest, them I know. For wisdom, ²²*which is* [¶]the worker of all things, taught me: for in her is an understanding spirit, holy, [¶]one only, manifold, subtil, lively, [¶]clear, undefiled, plain, not subject to hurt, [¶]loving the thing that is good, quick, which cannot be letted, ready to do good. Kind to man, stedfast, sure, ²³[¶]free from care, having all power, overseeing all things, and going through all understanding, pure, and most subtil, spirits. For wisdom is more moving ²⁴than any motion: she passeth and goeth through all things by reason of her pureness. For she is the [¶]breath of the power of God, and a pure [¶]influence flowing from the glory of the [¶]Almighty: therefore can no defiled thing fall into her. For she is [¶]the brightness of the ²⁶everlasting light, the unspotted ^{¶¶}mirror of the power of God, and [¶]the image of 27 his goodness. And being but one. she can do all things: and remaining in herself, she [¶]maketh all things new: and in all ages entering into holy souls, she [¶]maketh them [¶]friends of God, and [¶]prophets. For God loveth none but him ²⁸that dwelleth with wisdom. For she is more beautiful than the sun, and above all the [¶]order of stars: being compared with the light, she is found before it. ³⁰For after this cometh night: but vice shall not prevail against wisdom.

Wisdom reacheth from one end to another mightily: and [¶]sweetly doth she ²order all things. I loved her, and sought her out from my youth, I desired ^{¶a}to make her my spouse, and I was a lover ³of her beauty. In that she is ^{¶b}conversant with God, she magnifieth her nobility: yea, the Lord of all things [¶]himself ⁴loved her. For she is [¶]privy to the mysteries of the knowledge of God, and a ⁵[¶]lover of his works. If riches be a possession to be desired in this life; [¶]what is richer than wisdom, [¶]that worketh all ⁶*things*? And if [¶]prudence work; who of all that are is a more cunning workman ⁷than she? And if a man love righteousness, her labours are virtues: for she teacheth temperance and prudence, justice and [¶]fortitude: which are such things, as men can have nothing more ⁸profitable in their life. If a man desire much experience, she knoweth things of old, and conjectureth aright what is to come: she knoweth the subtilties of speeches, and can expound [¶]dark sentences: she foreseeth signs and wonders, and the [¶]events of seasons and ⁹times. Therefore I purposed [¶]to take her to me ^{¶b}to live with me, knowing that she [¶]would be a counsellor of good things, and a comfort in cares and grief. ¹⁰For her sake I shall have estimation among the multitude, and honour with the elders, [¶]though I be young. I shall be found of a quick conceit [¶]in judgment, and shall be admired in the sight ¹²of [¶]great men. [¶]When I hold my tongue, they shall bide my leisure, and when I speak, they shall give good ear unto me: if I talk much, they shall [¶]lay their ¹³hands upon their mouth. Morcover [¶]by the means of her I shall obtain immortality, and leave behind me an everlasting memorial to them that come after me. ¹⁴I shall [¶]set the people in order, and [¶]the nations shall be subject unto me. ¹⁵Horrible tyrants shall be afraid, when

Or, appear. they do but hear of me; I shall be found good among the multitude, and ^avaliant in war. After I am come into mine house, I will repose myself with her: for her conversation hath no bitterness; and ^bto live with her hath no sorrow, but mirth and joy.

Now when I considered these things in myself, and ^rpondered them in mine heart, how that to be allied unto wisdom ^ois immortality; and great pleasure it is to have her friendship; and in the works of her hands are infinite riches; and in the exercise of conference with her, prudence; and in talking with her, a ^ggood report; I went about seeking how to ^htake her to me. For I was a witty child, and had a good spirit. Yea rather, being good, ^sI came into a body undefiled. Nevertheless, when I perceived that I could not otherwise obtain her, except God gave her me; and that was a point of wisdom also to know whose gift she was; I ^uprayed unto the Lord, and besought him, and with my whole heart I said,

IX. O God of my fathers, and Lord of mercy, ^awho hast made all things with thy word, and ordained man through thy wisdom, that he should ^bhave dominion over the creatures which thou hast made, and order the world according to ^cequity and righteousness, and execute judgment with an upright heart: ^dgive me wisdom, ^ethat sitteth by thy throne; and reject me not from among thy children: for ^fI thy servant and son of thine handmaid am a feeble person, and of a short time, and ^gtoo young for the understanding of judgment and laws. For though a man be never so perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, ^hhe shall be nothing regarded. ⁱThou hast chosen me to be a king of thy people, and a judge of thy sons and daughters: ^kthou hast commanded me to build a temple upon ^lthy holy mount, and an altar in the city wherein thou dwellest, ^ma resemblance of the holy tabernacle, ⁿwhich thou hast prepared from the beginning. And ^owisdom was with thee: which ^pknoweth thy works, and was present when thou madest the world, and knew what was acceptable in thy sight, and right in thy commandments. O send her out of thy ^qholy heavens, and from the throne of thy glory, that being present she may labour with me, that I may ¹¹ know what is pleasing unto thee. For she knoweth and understandeth all things, and she shall lead me soberly in my doings, and preserve me ¹in her power. ¹² So shall my works be acceptable, and then shall I judge thy people righteously, and be worthy to sit in my father's seat. ¹³ For what man is he that can know the counsel of God? or who can think what the will of the Lord is? For the thoughts of mortal men are miserable, and our devices are but uncertain. For the corruptible body presseth down the soul, and ¹⁴the ^searthy tabernacle weigheth down the mind that museth upon many things. And ¹⁵hardly do we guess aright at things that are upon earth, and with labour do we find the things that are ¹⁶before us: but the things that are in heaven who hath searched out? And ¹⁷thy counsel who hath known, ¹⁸except thou give wisdom, and ¹⁹send thy Holy Spirit from above? For so the ways of them which lived on the earth were reformed, and men were taught the things that are pleasing unto thee, and ²⁰were saved through wisdom.

She preserved the ^afirst formed father of the world, that was created alone, and brought him out of his fall, and ^bgave him power to rule all things. But ^cwhen the unrighteous went away from her in his anger, ^dhe perished also in the fury wherewith he murdered his brother. For whose cause ^ethe earth being drowned with the flood, ^fwisdom again preserved it, and directed the course of ^gthe righteous ^hin a piece of wood of small value. Moreover, ⁱthe nations in their wicked conspiracy being confounded, ^jshe found out the righteous, and preserved him ^kblameless unto God, and ^lkept him strong ^magainst his tender compassion towards his son. ⁿWhen the ungodly perished, she delivered ^othe righteous man, who fled from the fire which fell down upon ^pthe ^qfive cities. Of whose wickedness even to this day the waste land that smoketh is a testimony, and plants bearing fruit that never come to ripeness: and ^ra standing pillar of salt is a monument of an unbelieving soul. For regarding not wisdom, they gat not only this hurt, that they knew not the things which were good: but also left behind them to the world a memorial of their foolishness: so that in the things wherein they offended they could not so much as be hid. But wisdom delivered from pain those that attended upon her. When ^athe righteous fled from his brother's wrath, she guided ^bhim in right paths, ^cshewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things, ^dmade him rich in his travails, and multiplied ^ethe fruit of his labours. ^fIn the covetousness of such as oppressed him she stood by ^ghim, and made him rich. ^hShe defended him from his enemies, ⁱand kept ^jhim safe from those that lay in wait, and ^kin a sore conflict she gave him the victory; that he might know that godliness is stronger than all. ^lWhen the righteous was sold, she forsook ^mhim not, but ⁿdelivered him from sin: ^oshe went down with him into the pit, and ^pbleft him not in bonds, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and ^qpower against those that oppressed him: as for ^rthem that had accused him, she shewed them to be liars, and gave him perpetual glory. ^sShe delivered the ^trighteous people and ^ublameless seed from the nation that oppressed ^vthem. ^wShe entered into the soul of ^xthe servant of the Lord, and ^ywithstood dreadful kings ^zin wonders and signs; ^{aa}rendered to the ^{ab}righteous a reward of their labours, guided them in a marvellous way, and was unto them for ^{ac}a cover by day, and ^{ad}a light of stars in the night-season; ^{ae}brought them through the Red sea, and led them through much water: ^{af}but she drowned their enemies, ^{ag}and ^{ah}cast them up out of the bottom of the deep. Therefore ^{ai}the righteous spoiled the ungodly, and ^{aj}praised thy holy name, O Lord, and magnified with one accord thine hand, that fought for ^{ak}them. For wisdom opened the mouth of the dumb, and made the tongues of them that cannot speak ^{al}eloquent. She prospered their works in the hand of the holy ^{am}prophet. ^{an}They went through the wilderness ^{ao}that was not inhabited, and pitched tents in places where there lay no way. ^{ap}They stood against their enemies, and were avenged of their adversaries. When they were thirsty, they called upon thee, and ^{aq}water was given them out of the flinty rock, and their thirst was quenched out of the hard stone.

proof of ^{that} commandment, whereby the infants were slain, thou gavest unto them abundance of water ^gby a means which they hoped not for: declaring by ^{that} thirst then ^hhow thou hadst punished their adversaries. For when they were tried, albeit ^{but} in mercy chastised, they knew how the ungodly were judged in wrath and tormented, ⁱthirsting in another manner than the just. For these thou didst admonish and try, ^{as}a father: but the other, as a severe king, thou didst condemn and punish. Whether they were absent or present, they were vexed alike. For a double grief came upon them, and a groaning for the remembrance of ^{things} past. For when they heard by their own punishments the other to be benefited, ^kthey ^lhad some feeling of the Lord. For whom they rejected with scorn, ^lwhen he was long before thrown out at the casting forth of ^{the} infants, him in the end, ^mwhen they saw what came to pass, they admired. But for the foolish devices of their wickedness, wherewith being deceived they worshipped ⁿserpents void of reason, and ^ovile beasts, ^pthou didst send a multitude of unreasonable beasts upon them for vengeance; ^qthat they might know, that ^rwherewithal a man sinneth, by the same ^{also} shall he be punished. For thy Almighty hand, that made the world ^{of} matter without form, wanted not means ^sto send among them a multitude of bears, or fierce lions, or unknown wild beasts, ^tfull of rage, newly created, breathing out either a fiery vapour, or filthy fumes of scattered smoke, or shooting horrible sparkles out of ^{their} eyes: whereof not only the harm might dispatch them at once, but also the terrible sight utterly destroy ^{them}. Yea, and without these might they have fallen down with one blast, being persecuted of ^uVengeance, and scattered abroad through ^vthe breath of thy power: but thou hast ordered all ^{things} in ^wmeasure and ^xnumber and weight. XII.

Therefore chastenest thou them by ² little and little that ^aoffend, and warnest them by putting them in remembrance wherein they have offended, that leaving their wickedness they may believe on thee, O Lord. For it was thy will to ³ destroy by the hands of our fathers both those ⁴old inhabitants of thy holy land, whom ^bthou hatedst for doing most odious works of ^cwitchcrafts, and wicked sacrifices; and also those ^dmerciless murderers of children, and devourers of man's flesh, and the feasts of blood; with their priests out of the midst of ⁶their idolatrous crew, and ^dthe parents, that killed with their own hands souls destitute of help: that the land, which ⁷thou esteemedst above all other, might receive a worthy ¹colony of God's children. as thou art righteous thyself, thou orderest all things righteously: ⁿthinking it not agreeable with thy power to condemn him that hath not deserved to be ¹⁶punished. For thy power is the beginning of righteousness, and because thou art the Lord of all, ^eit maketh thee to be ¹⁷gracious unto all. For when men will not believe that thou art of a ¹full power, ¹Or, perfect.
thou shewest thy strength, and among them that know it thou makest their ¹⁸boldness manifest. But thou, mastering thy power, judgest with ^oequity, and orderest us ^ewith great favour: for ^pthou mayest use power when thou wilt.

¹⁹ But by such works hast thou taught thy people that the just man should be merciful, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope that thou givest repentance for sins. ^qFor if thou didst punish the enemies of thy children, and the condemned to death, with such deliberation, giving them ^rtime and place, whereby they might be delivered from ²¹their malice: with how great ^scircumspection didst thou judge thine own sons, 'unto whose fathers thou hast sworn, and made covenants of good promises? ²²Therefore, whereas thou dost chasten us, thou scourgest our enemies a thousand times more, to the intent that, ^uwhen we judge, we should carefully think of thy goodness, and when we ourselves are judged, we should look for mercy. ²³Wherefore, whereas men have lived dissolutely and unrighteously, ^vthou hast tormented them with their own ^wabominations. For ^vthey went astray very far in the ways of error, and ^xheld them for gods, which even amongst the beasts of their enemies were despised, being deceived, as children of no understanding. that is: neither by considering the works did they acknowledge the ^bwork-master; but deemed either fire, or wind, ^cor the swift air, or ^cthe circle of the stars, or the violent water, or ^cthe lights of heaven, to be the gods which govern the world. With whose beauty if they ^dbeing delighted ^dtook them to be gods; let them know how much better the Lord of them is: for the first Author of beauty hath created them. But if they were astonished at their power and virtue, let them understand by them, how much mightier he is that made them. ^eFor by the greatness and beauty of the creatures proportionably the Maker of them is seen. But yet for this they are the less to be blamed: for they peradventure err, seeking God, and desirous to find him. ^fFor being conversant in his works they ^gsearch him diligently, and believe their sight: because the things are beautiful that are seen. Howbeit neither are they to be pardoned. For if they were able to know so much, that they could aim at the world; how did they not sooner find out the Lord thereof?

But miserable are they, and in ^gdead ^hthings is their hope, who called them gods, which are ^hthe works of men's hands, gold and silver. ⁱto shew art in, and resemblances of beasts, or a stone good for nothing, the work of an ancient hand. ^jNow a ^kcarpenter that felleth timber, after he hath sawn down a tree meet for the purpose, and taken off all the bark skilfully round about, and hath wrought it handsomely, and made ^la vessel thereof fit for the service of man's life; and ^lafter spending the ^mrefuse of ⁿhis work to dress his meat, hath filled himself; and taking the ⁿvery ⁿrefuse ^oamong those, which served to no use, being a crooked piece of wood, and full of knots, hath carved it diligently, when he had nothing else to do, and formed it by the skill of his understanding, and fashioned it to the image of a man; or made it like some ⁿvile beast, laying it over with vermilion, and with paint colouring it red, and covering every spot therein; and ^owhen he had made a convenient room for it, set it in a wall, and made it fast with iron: for he provided for it that it might not fall, knowing that it was unable to help itself; for it is an image, and hath need of help: ^pthen ^pmaketh he prayer for his goods, for his wife and children, and is not ashamed ^qto speak to that which hath no life. For health he calleth upon that which is weak: for life prayeth to that which is dead: for ^qaid humbly beseecheth ^rthat which hath least means to help: and for a good journey he asketh of ^rthat which cannot set a foot forward: and for gaining and getting, and for good success of his hands, asketh ability to do of him, that is most unable to do any thing. Again, one preparing himself to sail, and about to pass through the raging waves, calleth upon a piece of wood more rotten than the ^svessel that carrieth him. ^tFor verily desire of gain devised ^tthat, and the workman built it by his skill. ^uBut thy providence, O Father, governeth it: for thou ^uhast made a way in the sea, and a safe path in the waves; shewing that thou canst save from all danger: yea, though a man went to sea without ^vart. Nevertheless thou wouldest not that the works of thy wisdom should be idle, and therefore do men commit their lives to a small piece of wood, and passing the rough sea ^win a weak vessel are ^wsaved. For in the old time also, ^xwhen the proud giants perished, the hope of the world governed by thy hand escaped in a weak vessel, and left to all ages a ^yseed of generation. For blessed is ^ythe wood whereby righteousness cometh. ^zBut that which is made with hands is cursed, ^zas well it, as he that made it: he, because he made it; and it, because, being corruptible, it was called god. ^{aa}For ^{aa}the ungodly and his ungodliness ^{aa}are both alike hateful unto God. For that which is made shall be punished ^{ab}together with him that made it. Therefore ^{ab}even ^{ab}upon the idols of the Gentiles shall there be a ^{ab}visitation: because in the creature of God they are become an abomination, and ^{ac}stumblingblocks to the souls of men, and a ^{ac}snare to the feet of the unwise. ^{ad}For the ^{ad}devising of idols was the beginning of spiritual fornication, and the invention of them ^{ae}the corruption of life. For neither were they from the beginning, neither shall they be for ever.

^{af}For by the vain glory of men they entered into the world, and therefore shall they come shortly to an end. ^{ag}For a father afflicted with untimely mourning, when he hath made an image of his child soon taken away, now honoured him as a god, which was then a dead man, and delivered to those that were under him ¹ceremonies and ¹sacrifices. Thus ¹in process of time an un-¹⁶godly custom grown strong was kept as a law, and graven images were worshipped by the commandments of ¹kings. Whom men could not honour ¹in presence, because they dwelt far off, they took the counterfeit of his visage from far, and made an express image of a king whom they honoured, to the end that by this their ^mforwardness they might flatter him that was absent, as if he were present. Also the singular diligence of ¹⁸the artificer did help to set forward the ignorant to more ¹⁸superstition. For he, ¹⁹peradventure willing to please one in authority, forced all his skill to make the resemblance ¹of the best fashion. And so the multitude, allured by the grace of the work, took him now for a ^ogod, which a little before was but honoured as a man. And this was ²¹Pan occasion to deceive the world: for men, serving either calamity or tyranny, did ascribe unto stones and stocks ^athe incommunicable ¹name.

Moreover this was not enough for ²²them, that they erred in the knowledge of God; but whereas they lived in the great war of ignorance, those so great plagues called they peace. For whilst ²³they slew their children in ¹sacrifices, or used secret ¹ceremonies, or made ²⁴revellings of strange rites; they kept neither lives nor marriages any longer undefiled: but either one slew another traiterously, or grieved him by adultery. ²⁵So that there reigned in all men ¹without exception blood, manslaughter, theft, and dissimulation, corruption, unfaithfulness, tumults, perjury, disquieting of ²⁶good men, ¹forgetfulness of good turns, defiling of souls, changing of ¹kind, disorder in marriages, ¹adultery, and ¹shameless uncleanness. ²⁷For the ¹worshipping of idols ¹not to be named is the beginning, the cause, and the end, of all evil. For either they are mad when ²⁸they be merry, or ¹prophesy lies, or live unjustly, or else lightly forswear themselves. For ²⁹inasmuch as their trust is in idols, which have no life; though they swear falsely, yet they look not to be hurt. Howbeit for both causes shall ³⁰they be justly punished: both because they thought not well of God, ¹giving heed unto idols, and also unjustly swore in deceit, despising holiness. For it is ³¹ not the power of them by whom they swear: but it is the just vengeance of sinners, that punisheth always the offence of the ungodly.

But thou, O God, art gracious and ^{XV.} true, longsuffering, and in mercy ordering all things. For if we sin, we are thine, knowing thy power: but we will not sin, knowing that we are counted thine. For to know thee is perfect righteousness: yea, to know thy power is ^athe root of ⁴immortality. For neither did the mischievous ^binvention of men deceive us, nor an image spotted with divers colours, ⁵the painters' fruitless labour; the sight whereof ¹enticeth fools to lust after it, and so they desire the form of a dead ⁶image, that hath no breath. Both they that make them, they that desire them, and they that worship them, are lovers of evil things, and are worthy to have such ⁷things to trust upon. For ^cthe potter, tempering soft earth, fashioneth every ⁸vessel with much labour for our service: yea, ^cof the same clay he maketh both the vessels that serve for clean uses, and likewise also all such as serve to the contrary: but what is the use of either ⁸sort, the potter himself is the judge. And employing his labours lewdly, he maketh a vain god of the same clay, even he which a little before was made of earth himself, and within a little while after returneth to the same, ^dout of the which he was taken, ^ewhen his life which was ⁹lent him shall be demanded. Notwithstanding his care is, not that he shall ¹have much labour, nor that his life is short: but striveth to excel goldsmiths and silversmiths, and endeavoureth to do like the workers in brass, and counteth it his glory to make counterfeit ¹⁰things. ^fHis heart is ashes, his hope is more vile than earth, and his life of less ¹¹value than clay: forasmuch as he knew not his Maker, and him that inspired into him an active soul, and ¹²breathed in a living spirit. But they counted our life ^ha pastime, and our ¹time here a market for gain: for, say they, we must be getting every way, though it be by ¹³evil means. ¹For this man, ¹that of earthly matter maketh briclike vessels and graven images, knoweth himself to offend ¹⁴above all others. And all the enemies of thy people, that hold them in subjection, are most foolish, and are more ¹⁵miserable than very babes. For they counted all the idols of the heathen to

he gods: ^kwhich neither have the use of eyes to see, nor noses to draw ^lbreath, nor ears to hear, nor fingers of hands to handle; and as for their feet, they are slow to go. For man made them, and ¹⁶ ^lhe that borrowed his own spirit fashioned them: but no man can make a god
 like unto himself. For being mortal, he ¹⁷
 worketh ^ma dead thing with wicked hands: for he himself is better than ⁿthe things which he worshippeth: whereas he lived once, but they never.
 Yea, ^othey worshipped those beasts ¹⁸
 also that are most hateful: for being compared together, some are worse than others. Neither are they beautiful, so ¹⁹ much as to be desired ^pin respect of beasts: but ^qthey went without the praise
 of God and his blessing. Therefore ^aby
 the like were they punished worthily,
 and by the multitude of beasts torment-
 ed. Instead of which punishment, ^{aa}dealing graciously with thine own people, thou preparedst for them meat of a strange taste, even ^bquails to stir up their appetite: to the end that they, desiring ³ food, might ^cfor the ugly sight of the beasts sent among them lothe even that,
 which they must needs desire; but these,
 suffering penury ⁿfor a short space,
 might be made partakers of a strange taste. For it was requisite, that upon ⁴ them exercising tyranny should come penury, ^dwhich they could not avoid:
 but to these it should only be shewed
 how their enemies were tormented. For ⁵
 when ^ethe horrible fierceness of beasts
 came upon ^fthese, and ^fthey perished with the stings of crooked serpents, thy wrath endured not for ever: but they ⁶ were troubled ⁿfor a small season, that they might be admonished, ^ghaving a sign of salvation, ^mto put them in remembrance of the commandment of thy law.
 For he that turned himself towards it ⁷
 was not saved by the thing that he saw, ^hbut by thee, that art ¹the Saviour of all.
 And in this thou madest thine enemies ⁸
 confess, that it is thou who deliverest
 from all evil: for them the bitings of ⁹ ^jgrasshoppers and ^kflies killed, neither was there found any remedy for their life: ^lfor they were worthy to be punished by such. But thy sons not the very ¹⁰ teeth of venomous dragons overcame:
 for thy mercy was ever by them, and healed them. For they were ¹¹ ^mthat they should remember thy words;
 and were ⁿquickly saved, that not falling into deep forgetfulness, they might be ^lcontinually mindful of thy goodness. For it was neither herb, nor ¹² mollifying plaister, that restored them

 to health: but ^pthy word, O Lord, ¹³ which healeth all things. ^qFor thou hast
 power of life and death: ^rthou ledest
 to the gates of hell, and bringest up again.
¹⁴ ^sA man indeed killeth through his malice: and ^tthe spirit, when it is gone forth, returneth not; neither the soul received up cometh again. ⁵But it is not ¹⁶ possible to escape thine hand. For the ungodly, ^uthat denied to know thee,
 were scourged ^vby the strength of thine arm: ^wwith strange rains, hails, and showers, were they persecuted, ^dthat
they could not avoid, and ^wthrough fire ¹⁷ were they consumed. For, which is most to be wondered at, ^xthe fire had more force in the water, that queneth
 all things: for ^ythe world fighteth for ¹⁸ the righteous. For sometimes the flame was mitigated, that it might not burn up ^zthe beasts that were sent against the ungodly; but themselves might see and perceive that they were persecuted with ¹⁹ the judgment of God. And at another time it burneth even in the midst of water above the power of fire, that it might destroy the fruits of an unjust ²⁰ land. Instead whereof ^athou feddest thine own people with ^bangels' food, and didst send them ^cfrom heaven bread prepared without their labour, able to content every man's delight, and agree-²¹ ing to every taste. For thy ^dsustenance declared thy sweetness unto thy children,
 and serving to the appetite of the eater,
²² ^etempered itself to every man's liking.
^eBut snow and ^gice endured the fire,
 and melted not, that they might know ^wthat fire burning in the hail, and ^wsparkling in the rain, ^fdid destroy the ²³ fruits of the enemies. But ^gthis again did even forget his own strength, that ²⁴ ^hthe righteous might be nourished. ⁱFor
 the creature that serveth thee, who art
 the Maker, increaseth his strength against the unrighteous for their punishment, ²⁵ and abateth his strength for the benefit of such as put their trust in thee. Therefore even then ⁱwas it altered into all ^ffashions, and was obedient to thy grace, that nourisheth all things, according to ²⁶ the desire ^jof them that had need: that thy children, O Lord, ^jwhom thou lovest, of fruits that nourisheth man: but that it is thy word, which preserveth them that put their trust in thee. For that which was not destroyed of the fire. ¹being warmed with a little sunbeam, soon melted away: that it might be known, ²that we must prevent the sun to give thee thanks, and at the dayspring ³pray unto thee. For the hope of ⁴the unthankful shall melt away as the winter's hoar frost, and shall run away as unprofitable water.

XVII. For ¹great are thy judgments, and cannot be expressed: therefore ²unnurtured souls have erred. For when ³unrighteous men thought to oppress the holy nation; ⁴they being shut up ⁵in their houses, the prisoners of darkness, and fettered with the bonds of a long night, lay there ⁶exiled from the eternal providence. For while they supposed to lie hid in their secret sins, they were scattered ⁷under a dark veil of forgetfulness, being horribly astonished, and troubled with strange ⁸apparitions. For neither might the corner that held them keep them from fear: but noises as of waters falling down sounded about them, and sad visions appeared unto them with heavy countenances. No power of the fire might give them light: neither could the bright flames of the stars endure to lighten that horrible night. Only there appeared unto them a fire kindled of itself, very dreadful: for being much terrified, ⁹they thought the things which they saw to be worse than the sight they saw not. As for ¹⁰the illusions of art magick, they were put down, and ¹¹their vaunting in wisdom was reprov'd with disgrace. For they that promised to drive away terrors and troubles from a sick soul, were sick themselves of ¹²fear, worthy to be laughed at. For though no terrible thing did fear them; yet being scared with beasts that passed by, and hissing of ¹³serpents, they died for fear, ¹⁴denying that they saw the air, ¹⁵which could of no side be avoided. (For wickedness, condemned by her own witness, is very timorous, and being pressed with conscience, ¹⁶always forecasteth grievous things. For fear is nothing else but a betraying of the succours which reason offereth. And the expectation from within, being less, ¹⁷counteth the ignorance more than the cause which bringeth the torment). But they sleeping the same sleep that night, ¹⁸which was indeed intolerable, and which came upon them out of the bottoms of ¹⁹inevitable hell, were partly vexed with monstrous ²⁰apparitions, and partly fainted, ²¹their heart failing them: for a sudden fear, and not looked for, came upon them. So then whosoever there fell down was ²²straitly kept, shut up in a prison without iron bars. ²³For whether he were husbandman, or shepherd, or a labourer in the ²⁴field, he was overtaken, and endured that necessity, which could not be avoided: for they were all bound with one chain of darkness. ²⁵Whether it were a ²⁶whistling wind, or a melodious noise of birds among the spreading branches, or a pleasing fall of water running violently, or a ²⁷terrible sound of stones cast down, or a running that could not be seen of skipping beasts, or a roaring voice of most ²⁸savage wild beasts, or a rebounding echo from the hollow mountains; these things made them to swoon for fear. ²⁹For the whole world shined with clear light, and none were hindered in their labour: over them only was spread a heavy night, an image of that ³⁰darkness which should afterwards receive them: but yet were they unto themselves more grievous than the darkness. ³¹Nevertheless thy ³²saints had a very great light, whose voice they ³³hearing, and not seeing their shape, because they also had not suffered the same ³⁴things, they counted them happy. But for that they did not hurt them now, of whom they had been wronged before, they thanked them, and besought them pardon for that they ³⁵had been enemies. ³⁶Instead whereof ³⁷thou gavest them a burning pillar of fire, both to be a guide of the unknown journey, and a ³⁸harmless sun to entertain them honourably. ³⁹For they were worthy to be deprived of light, and imprisoned in darkness, who had kept thy sons shut up, by whom the ⁴⁰uncorrupt light of the law was to be given unto the world.

XVIII. And ¹when they had determined to slay the babes of ²the saints, ³one child being cast forth, and saved, to reprove them, ⁴thou tookest away the multitude of their children, and ⁵destroyedst them altogether in a mighty water. ⁶Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that ⁷assuredly knowing ⁸unto what oaths they had given credence, they might afterwards be of good cheer. So of thy people was accepted both the salvation of the righteous, and destruction of the enemies. For ^pwherewith thou didst ⁸ punish our adversaries, ^qby the same thou didst glorify us, whom thou hadst called. For the ^rrighteous children of good men ^rdid sacrifice ^ssecretly, and with one consent made ^ta holy law, that the saints should be alike partakers of the same good and evil, the fathers now singing out the songs of praise. But ^uon the other side there sounded ^van ill according cry of the enemies; and a lamentable noise was carried abroad for children that were bewailed. ^wThe master and the servant were punished after one manner; and like as the king, so suffered the common person. ^xSo they altogether had innumerable dead with one kind of death; neither were the living sufficient to bury them: for in one moment the noblest offspring of them was destroyed. For whereas they would not believe any thing ^yby reason of the enchantments; upon the destruction of the firstborn, ^zthey acknowledged this people to be the sons of God. For while all things were in quiet silence, and ^{aa}that night was in the midst of her swift course, ^{ab}thine Almighty word leapt ^{ac}down from heaven ^{ad}out of thy royal throne, ^{ae}as ^{af}a fierce man of war into the midst of a land of destruction, and brought thine ^{ag}unfeigned commandment ^{ah}as ^{ai}a sharp sword, and standing up filled all things with death; and ^{aj}it touched the heaven, but it stood upon the earth. Then suddenly ^{ak}visions of horrible dreams troubled them sore, and terrors came upon them unlooked for. And one thrown here, another there, half dead, shewed the cause of his death. For the dreams that troubled them did foreshew this, lest they should perish, and not know why they were afflicted.

Yea, ^{al}the tasting of death touched ^{am}the righteous also, and ^{an}there was a destruction of the multitude in the wilderness: ^{ao}but the wrath endured not long. For ^{ap}then ^{aq}the blameless man made haste, and stood forth to defend them; and bringing ^{ar}the shield of his proper ministry, ^{as}even prayer, and ^{at}the propitiation of incense, set himself against the wrath, and ^{au}so brought the calamity to an end, declaring that he was thy servant. So ^{av}he overcame the destroyer, not with strength of body, nor force of ^{aw}arms, but with a word subdued he him that punished, ^{ax}alleging the oaths and covenants made with the fathers. For when the dead were now fallen down by heaps one upon another, ^{ay}standing between, he stayed the wrath, and ^{az}parted the way ^{ba}to the living. For ^{bb}in the long garment was the whole world, and ^{bc}in the four rows of the stones ^{bd}was the glory of the fathers graven, and thy majesty ^{be}upon ^{bf}the diadem of his head. Unto these ^{bg}the destroyer gave place, and was afraid of them: for it was enough that they only ^{bh}tasted of the wrath.

As for the ungodly, wrath came upon them without mercy ^{bi}unto the end: for he knew before what they would do; ^{bj}how that ^{bk}having given them leave to depart, and ^{bl}sent them hastily away, ^{bm}they would repent and pursue them. For whilst they were yet mourning and making lamentation at the graves of the dead, they added another foolish device, and pursued them as fugitives, whom ^{bn}they had ^{bo}intreated to be gone. For the destiny, ^{bp}whereof they were worthy, drew them unto this end, and made ^{bq}them forget the things that had ^{br}already happened, that they might fulfil the punishment which was ^{bs}wanting to their ^{bt}torments: and ^{bu}that ^{bv}thy people might pass a wonderful way: but they might find a strange death. ^{bw}For the whole creature in his proper kind was fashioned again anew, ^{bx}iserving the peculiar commandments ^{by}that were given unto them, that thy children might be kept without ^{bz}hurt: ^{ca}as ^{cb}namely, ^{cc}a cloud shadowing the camp; and where water stood before, dry land appeared; ^{cd}and ^{ce}out of the Red sea a way without impediment: and out of the violent stream a green field: ^{cf}wherethrough all the people went that were defended with thy hand, seeing ^{cg}thy marvellous strange wonders. For ^{ch}they went at large like horses, and ^{ci}leaped like lambs, praising thee, O Lord, who ^{cj}hadst delivered them. For they were yet mindful of the things that were ^{ck}done while they sojourned in the strange land, how the ground brought forth ^{cl}flies instead of cattle, and ^{cm}how the river cast up a multitude of frogs instead of fishes. But afterwards ^{cn}they saw a new generation of fowls, when, being led with ^{co}their appetite, they asked delicate meats. For quails came up unto them from the sea ^{cp}for ^{cq}their ^{cr}contentment. And punishments came upon the sinners not without former ^{cs}signs ^{ct}by the force of thunders: for they suffered justly according

THE WISDOM OF JESUS THE SON OF SIRACH,

OR,

ECCLESIASTICUS.

A Prologue made by an uncertain Author.

Some refer this Prologue to Athanasius, because it is found in his Synopsis.

THIS Jesus was the son of Sirach, and grandchild to Jesus of the same name with him. This man therefore lived in the latter times, after the people had been led away captive, and called home again, and almost after all the prophets. Now his grandfather Jesus, as he himself witnesseth, was a man of great diligence and wisdom among the Hebrews, who did not only gather the grave and short sentences of wise men, that had been before him, but himself also uttered some of his own, full of much understanding and wisdom. When as therefore the first Jesus died, leaving this book almost ¹perfected, Sirach his son receiving it after him left it to his own son Jesus; who, having gotten it into his hands, compiled it all orderly into one volume, and called it Wisdom, intituling it both by his own name, his father's name, and his grandfather's; alluring the hearer by the very name of wisdom to have a greater love to the study of this book. It containeth therefore wise sayings, ^adark sentences, and parables, and ^bcertain particular ancient godly stories of men ^cthat pleased God; also ^dhis prayer and ^esong; moreover, what benefits God had vouchsafed his people, and what plagues he had heaped upon their enemies. This Jesus did imitate Solomon, and was no less famous for wisdom and learning, both being indeed a man of great learning, and so reputed also.

that have followed their steps, for the which things Israel ought to be commended for learning and wisdom; and whereof not only the readers must needs become skilful themselves, but also they that desire to learn be able to profit them which are ¹without, both by speaking and writing: my grandfather Jesus, when he had much given himself to the reading of ^athe law, and the prophets, and other books of our fathers, and had gotten therein good judgment, was drawn on also himself to write something pertaining to learning and wisdom; to the intent that those which are desirous to learn, and are addicted to these things, might profit much more in living according to the law. Wherefore let me intreat you to read it with favour and attention, and to pardon us, wherein we may seem to come short of some words, which we have laboured to interpret. For in the eight and thirtieth year coming into Egypt, when Euergetes was king, and continuing there some time, I found a ¹ book of no small learning: therefore I thought it most necessary for me to bestow some diligence and travail to interpret it; using great watchfulness and skill in that space to bring the book to an end, and set it forth for them also, which ^c in a strange country are willing to learn, being prepared before in manners to live after the law.

For the power of the Lord is great, ²⁰
And he is honoured of the lowly.
ⁿ Seek not out the things that are too ²¹
hard for thee,
Neither search the things that are above thy strength.
But what is commanded thee, think ²²
thereupon with reverence;
For it is not needful for thee to see with thine eyes the things that are
in secret.
Be not ^o curious in unnecessary mat- ²³
ters:
For more things are shewed unto thee
than men understand.
For many are deceived by their own ²⁴
vain opinion;
And an evil suspicion hath overthrown their judgment.
Without eyes thou shalt want light: ²⁵ Profess not the knowledge therefore that thou hast not.
A stubborn heart shall fare evil ^p at ²⁶
the last;
And he that loveth danger shall perish therein.
An obstinate heart shall be laden ²⁷
with sorrows;
And the wicked man shall ^q heap sin
upon sin.
^r In the ^r punishment of the proud ²⁸
there is no remedy;
For the plant of wickedness hath taken root in him.
The heart of the prudent will under- ²⁹
stand a parable;
And an attentive ear is the desire of a wise man.

^l Or, in the sanctuary.

They that serve her shall minister ^lto ¹⁴ the Holy One :
And them that love her the Lord doth love.

^s See Wisd. 3. 8.

Whoso giveth ear unto her ^sshall judge ¹⁵ the nations :

And he that attendeth unto her shall dwell securely.

If a man commit himself unto her, he ¹⁶ shall inherit her ;

And his generations shall hold her in possession.

For at the first she will walk with ¹⁷ him ^t by crooked ways,

And bring fear and dread upon him,

And torment him with her discipline,

Until she may trust his soul,

And try him by her laws.

Then will she return the straight way ¹⁸ unto him,

And ^q comfort him, and ^u shew him her secrets.

But if he go wrong, she will forsake ¹⁹ him,

And give him over to his own ruin.

^w Observe the opportunity, and be-²⁰ ware of evil ;

And ^x be not ashamed when it concerneth thy soul.

For ^y there is a shame that bringeth ²¹ sin ;

And ^z there is a shame which is glory and grace.

^a Accept no person against thy soul, ²² And let not the reverence of any man cause thee to fall.

And refrain not to speak, ^t when there ²³ is occasion to do good,

And hide not thy wisdom in her beauty.

For by speech wisdom shall be ²⁴ known :

And learning by the word of the tongue.

In no wise speak against the truth ; ²⁵ But be abashed of the error of thine ignorance.

^b Be not ashamed to confess thy sins ; ²⁶ ^l And force not the course of the river.

Make not thyself an underling to a ²⁷ foolish man ;

Neither ^a accept the person of the mighty.

Strive for the truth unto death, ²⁸ And the Lord shall fight for thee.

^c Be not hasty in thy tongue, ²⁹ And in thy deeds slack and remiss.

Be not as a lion in thy house, ^d Nor frantick among thy servants.

³¹ ^e Let not thine hand be stretched out to receive,

And shut when thou shouldest ^l repay.

^a Set not thy heart ^b upon thy goods :
And say not, ^c I have enough for my life.

² ^d Follow not thine own mind and thy strength,

To walk in the ways of thy heart :

³ And say not, Who shall controul me for my works ?

For the Lord will surely revenge thy pride.

⁴ ^e Say not, I have sinned, and what harm hath happened unto me ?

For ^f the Lord is longsuffering, ^g he will in no wise let thee go.

⁵ Concerning propitiation, be not without fear

^h To add sin unto sin :

⁶ And say not, His mercy is great ;
He will be pacified for the multitude of my sins :

ⁱ For mercy and wrath come from him, ¹ ch. 16. 11.

And his indignation resteth upon sinners.

⁷ ^j Make no tarrying to turn to the Lord,

And put not off from day to day :

For ^k suddenly shall the wrath of the Lord come forth,

And in thy security thou shalt be destroyed,

And perish in the day of vengeance.

⁸ ^a Set not thy heart upon ^l goods unjustly gotten ;

For ^m they shall not profit thee in the day of ⁿ calamity.

⁹ Winnow not with every wind,

And go not into every way :

For ^o so doth the sinner ^p that hath a double tongue.

¹⁰ ^q Be stedfast in thy understanding ;

And let thy word be ^p the same.

¹¹ ^q Be swift to hear ; and let thy life be sincere ;

And ^r with patience give answer.

¹² If thou hast understanding, ^r answer thy neighbour ;

If not, ^s lay thy hand upon thy mouth.

¹³ ^t Honour and shame is in talk ;

And ^u the tongue of man is his fall.

¹⁴ Be not called ^x a whisperer, and ^y lie not in wait with thy tongue :

For ^z a foul shame is upon the thief,
And an evil condemnation upon ^p the double tongue.

And there is one that turneth aside
to make judgment appear;
And there is a wise man that ^ljusti-
fieth in judgment.
²⁶ There is a wicked man that ^shangeth
down his head ^lsadly;
But inwardly he is full of deceit, ²⁷ ^sCasting down his countenance, and making as if he heard not:
Where he is not known, he will do thee a mischief before thou be aware.
²⁸ And if for want of power he be hindered from sinning,
Yet when he findeth opportunity he will do evil.
²⁹ A man may be known by his look,
And one that hath understanding by his countenance, when thou meetest
him.
³⁰ A man's attire, and ^texcessive laughter,
And gait, shew what he is.
^aThere is a reproof that is not ^lcomely:
Again, ^esome man holdeth his tongue,
and he is wise.
² It is much better to reprove, than to be angry secretly:
And ^bhe that confesseth his fault shall
be preserved from hurt.
³ How good is it, when thou art re-proved, to shew repentance!
For so shalt thou escape ^ewilful sin.
⁴ As is ^dthe lust of an eunuch to de-
flower a virgin;
So is he that executeth judgment with violence.
⁵ ^eThere is one that keepeth silence, ^ever. 1.
and is found wise:
And another by much babbling be-
cometh hateful.
⁶ Some man holdeth his tongue, because
he hath not to answer:
And some keepeth silence, ^fknowing
his time.
⁷ ^gA wise man will hold his tongue ^ftill
he see opportunity:
But a babbler and a fool will regard
no time.

There is a sinner that hath good success in evil things;
And ^hthere is a ⁱgain that turneth to loss.
There is a gift that shall not profit
thee;
And there is a gift whose recompence
is double.

^kThere is an abasement because of
glory;
And there is that lifteth up his head
from a low estate.
There is that buyeth much for a little,
And repayeth it ^lsevenfold.

^mA wise man by his words maketh himself beloved:
But the ⁿgraces of fools shall be ^opoured out.

The gift of a fool shall do thee no
good when thou hast it;
Neither yet of the envious ^pfor his ^qFor he looketh to receive many things

for one.
He giveth little, and ^rupbraideth
much;

^sHe openeth his mouth like a crier;
To day he lendeth, and to morrow
will he ask it again:
Such a one is to be hated of God and
man.

The fool saith, I have no friends,
I have no thank for all my good deeds,

And ^tthey that eat my bread speak
evil of me.

How oft, and of how many shall he
be laughed to scorn!
For he knoweth not aright what it is to have;

And it is ^uall one unto him as if he

than ^vto slip with the tongue:
So the fall of the wicked shall come

^wAn unseasonable tale
Will always be in the mouth of the unwise.

^xA wise sentence shall be rejected
when it cometh out of a fool's mouth;
For ^yhe will not speak it in due

throweth himself.

^{ad}There is that for ^{ae}bashfulness pro-

^{af}A lie is a foul blot in a man,
Yet it is continually in the mouth of the untaught.

^{ag}A thief is better than a man that is accustomed to lie:
But they both shall have destruction
to heritage.

^{ah}The disposition of a liar is ^{ai}dis-honourable,
And his shame is ever with him.

A wise man shall promote himself to honour with his words: (Proverbs).

And he that hath understanding will please great men.

^{aj}He that tilleth his land shall increase
his heap:

And he that pleaseth great men shall
get pardon for iniquity.

^{ak}Presents and gifts blind the eyes of the wise,
And ^{al}stop up his mouth that he can-

^{am}Wisdom that is hid, and ^{an}treasure

What profit is in them both?

^{ao}Better is he that hideth his folly
^{ap}Than a man that hideth his wis-

^{aq}Necessary patience in seeking the Lord is better Than he that leadeth his life without a guide.

My son, hast thou sinned? ^{ar}do so no
more,

But ^{as}ask pardon for thy former sins.

^{at}Flee from sin as from the face of ^{au}a

And his counsel is like a pure fountain of life.

^u The inner parts of a fool are like ^v a 14
broken vessel,

And he will hold no knowledge as long as he liveth.

If a skilful man hear a wise word, 15
He will commend it, and ^w add unto it:

But as soon as one of no understanding heareth it, it displeaseth him,

And ^x he casteth it behind his back.

The talking of a fool is like ^y a burden 16
in the way:

But ^z grace shall be found in the lips
of the wise.

They inquire at the mouth of the wise 17
man in the congregation,

And they shall ponder his words in

As is a house that is destroyed, so is 18
wisdom to a fool:

And the knowledge of the unwise is
as talk ^{aa} without sense.

Doctrine unto fools is as fetters on
the feet,

And like manacles on the right hand.

^{ab} A fool lifteth up his voice with 19
laughter;

But a ^{ac} wise man doth scarce smile a 20

But a man of experience is ashamed
of him.

A fool will ^{af} creep in at the door into 23
the house:

But he that is well nurtured will stand without.

It is the rudeness of a man to hearken 24
at the door:

But a wise man will be grieved with disgrace.

The lips of talkers will be telling such 25
things as pertain not unto them:

But the words of such as have understanding ^{ag} are ^{ah} weighed in the balance.

^{ai} The heart of fools is in their 26

But the mouth of the wise is in their
heart.

When the ungodly curseth ^{aj} Satan, 27
^{ak} He curseth his own soul.

^{al} A whisperer defileth his own soul, 28
And is hated wheresoever he dwelleth.

A slothful man is compared to a filthy
stone,

And every one will hiss him out to his disgrace.

2 A slothful man is compared to the
filth of a dunghill:

Every man that takes it up will shake
his hand.

3 ^{am} An evil nurtured son is the dishonour
of his father that begat him:

And a ^{an} foolish daughter is born to his

4 A wise daughter ^{ao} shall bring an in-

Whoso teacheth a fool is as one that

And as he that waketh one from a sound sleep.

He that telleth a tale to a fool speak-
eth to one in a slumber:

When he hath told his tale, he will say, What is the matter?

If children live honestly, and have wherewithal,

They shall cover the baseness of their parents.

But children, being haughty, through disdain and want of nurture

Do stain the nobility of their kindred.

Weep for the dead, for he hath lost
the light:

And weep for the fool, for he wanteth
understanding:

Make little weeping for the dead, for
he is at rest:

But the life of the fool is worse than death.

Seven days do men mourn for him
that is dead;

But for a fool and an ungodly man,
all the days of his life.

Talk not much with a fool,

And go not to him that hath no understanding:

Beware of him, lest thou have
trouble,

And thou shalt never be defiled with
his fooleries:

Depart from him, and thou shalt find
rest,

And never be disquieted with mad-
ness.

What is heavier than lead?

And what is the name thereof, but a fool?

Sand, and salt, and a mass of iron,
is easier to bear,

Than a man without understanding.

As timber girt and bound together in a building cannot be loosed with shaking:

So the heart that is stablished by advised counsel shall fear at no
time.

A heart settled upon a thought of understanding

Is as a fair plaistering on the wall
of a gallery.

Pales set on a high place will never stand against the wind:

So a fearful heart in the imagination of a fool cannot stand against any fear.

He that pricketh the eye will make tears to fall:

And he that pricketh the heart mak-
eth it to shew her knowledge.

Whoso casteth a stone at the birds
frayeth them away:

And he that upbraideth his friend
breaketh friendship.

Though thou drewest a sword at thy friend, yet despair not:

For there may be a returning to favour.

If thou hast opened thy mouth against thy friend, fear not;

For there may be a reconciliation:

Except for upbraiding, or pride, or disclosing of secrets, or a treacherous wound:

For, for these things every friend will depart.

Be faithful to thy neighbour in his poverty,

That thou mayest rejoice in his prosperity:

Abide stedfast unto him in the time
of his trouble,

That thou mayest be heir with him in
his heritage:

For a mean estate is not always to be condemned:

Nor the rich that is foolish to be had
in admiration.

As the vapour and smoke of a furnace goeth before the fire;

So reviling before blood.

I will not be ashamed to defend a friend;

Neither will I hide myself from him.

And if any evil happen unto me by
him,

Every one that heareth it will beware
of him.

Who shall set a watch before my
mouth,

And a seal of wisdom upon my lips.

That I fall not suddenly by them,
And that my tongue destroy me not?

O Lord, Father and Governor of all
my whole life,

Leave me not to their counsels,
And let me not fall by them.

¹⁴ I was exalted like ⁱ a palm tree in

¹⁸ I am the mother of fair love,

A harlot shall be accounted as ¹spittle: ²²
But ^aa married woman is a tower
against death ^oto her husband.

A wicked woman is given as a por- ²³
tion to a wicked man:

But a godly woman is given to him
that feareth the Lord.

A dishonest woman contemneth ²⁴
shame:

But an honest ^pwoman will reverence
her husband.

A ⁱshameless woman shall be count- ²⁵
ed as a dog;

But she that is shamefast will fear the Lord.

A woman that honoureth her hus- ²⁶
band shall be judged wise of all;

But she that dishonoureth him in her
pride shall be counted ungodly of all.

A loud crying woman and a ^qscold ²⁷ Shall be sought out to drive away the enemies.

There be ^dtwo things that grieve my ²⁸
heart;

And the third maketh me angry:

A man of war that suffereth poverty;
And ^rmen of understanding that are ^snot set by;

And ^tone that returneth from righteousness to sin;

^uThe Lord prepareth such a one for the sword.

A ^wmerchant shall hardly keep him- ²⁹
self from doing wrong;

And a huckster shall not be ^xfreed
from sin.

Many ^ahave sinned for ¹a small matter;
And he that ^bseeketh for abundance
will turn his eyes away.

As a ^cnail sticketh fast between the ²
joinings of the stones;

So ^ddoth sin stick close between buying and selling.

Unless a man hold himself diligently ³
in the fear of the Lord,

His house shall soon be overthrown.

As when one sifteth with a sieve, the ⁴
refuse remaineth;

So the ^efilth of man in his ^utalk.

^fThe furnace proveth the potter's ⁵
vessels;

So ^kthe trial of man is in his ^grea-

^hThe fruit declareth if the tree have ⁶

7 Praise no man before thou hearest
him ⁱspeak;

For ^kthis is the trial of men.

8 If thou followest ¹righteousness, thou shalt obtain her,

And ^lput her on, ^mas a glorious long robe.

9 The birds will ⁿresort unto their like;
So will truth return unto them that practise in her.

10 As ^othe lion lieth in wait for the prey;
So sin for them that work iniquity.

11 The discourse of a godly man is always with wisdom;

But a fool changeth as the moon.

12 If thou be among the undiscree, ^pOb-
serve the time;

But be continually among men of
understanding.

13 The discourse of fools is irksome,
And their sport is in the ^qwantonness
of sin.

14 ^rThe talk of him that sweareth much
maketh the hair stand upright;
And their brawls make one stop his ears.

15 The strife of the proud is bloodshed-
ding,

And their revilings are grievous to the ear.

16 ^sWhoso discovereth secrets loseth his credit;

And shall never find friend to his mind.

17 Love thy friend, and be faithful unto
him:

But ^sif thou ^tbewrayest his secrets,
^ufollow no more after him.

18 For as a man hath destroyed his enemy;

So hast thou lost the love of thy
neighbour.

19 ^xAs one that letteth a bird go out of
his hand,

So hast thou let thy neighbour go, and
shalt not get him again.

20 ^yFollow after him no more, for he is too far off;

And sendeth swiftly the lightnings of
his judgment.

Through this o the treasures are 14
opened:

And clouds fly forth as fowls.
By his great power he maketh the 15
clouds firm,

And p the hailstones are broken small.

q At his sight the mountains are 16
shaken,

And at his will the south wind blow-
eth.

17 r The noise of the thunder maketh the earth s to tremble:

So doth the northern storm and the whirlwind:

m As birds flying he scattereth the snow,

And the falling down thereof is as the lighting of t grasshoppers:

18 The eye marvelleth at the beauty of the whiteness thereof,

And the heart is astonished at the
raining of it.

19 m The hoar frost also as salt he poureth
on the earth,

And being congealed, n it lieth on the top of sharp stakes.

20 When the cold north wind bloweth,
And the water is congealed into ice,

It abideth upon every t gathering together of water,

And clotheth the water as with a breast-
plate.

21 It devoureth the mountains, and burn-
eth the wilderness,

And consumeth the grass as fire.

22 A present remedy of all is a mist coming speedily:

A dew coming u after heat refresheth.

23 By his counsel he appeaseth the deep,
And planteth islands therein.

24 u They that v sail on the sea tell of the danger thereof;

And when we hear it with our ears,
we marvel thereat.

25 w For therein he x strange and wondrous works,

Variety of all kinds of beasts and whales created.

26 By him the end of them hath y prosperous success,

And z by his word all things consist.

27 We may speak much, and yet a come short;

Wherefore in sum, he is all.

28 a How shall we be able to magnify
him?

For he is great above all his works.

29 b The Lord is terrible and very great,
And marvellous is his power.

30 When you glorify the Lord, exalt him
as much as you can;

For even yet will he far exceed:

And when you exalt him, put forth all
your strength,
And be not weary; for you can never go far enough.

31 c Who hath d seen him, that he might

And who can magnify him as he is?

^b But the Lord will never leave off his ²²
mercy,

Neither shall any of his works perish,
Neither will he abolish the posterity
of ^chis elect,

And the seed of him that loveth him
he will not take away:

Wherefore he gave a remnant unto
Jacob,

And ^dout of him a root unto David.

^eThus rested Solomon with his fathers, ²³
And of his seed he left behind him
Roboam,

Even the foolishness of the people,
and one that had no understanding,

Who ^fturned away the people through his counsel.

There was also ^gJeroboam the son of Nabat,

^hWho caused Israel to sin,
And shewed Ephraim the way of sin:

And their sins were multiplied ex-²⁴
ceedingly,

ⁱThat they were driven out of the land.

For they sought out all wickedness, ²⁵
Till the vengeance came upon them.

Then stood up ^aElias the prophet
as fire,

And his word ^bburnt like a lamp.

^cHe ^dbrought a sore famine upon ²
them,

And by his zeal he diminished their
number.

^cBy the word of the Lord he ^lshut ³
up the heaven,

And also ^dthree times brought down
fire.

O Elias, ^{dd}how wast thou honoured ⁴
in thy wondrous deeds!

And who may glory like unto thee!

^cWho didst raise up a dead man ⁵
from death,

And his soul from the ^lplace of the dead, by the word of the most High:

^fWho broughtest kings to destruction, ⁶
And ^ghonourable men from their ^lbed:

^hWho hearest the rebuke of the ⁷
Lord in Sinai.

And in ⁱHoreb the judgment of vengeance:

^kWho anointedst kings to take ⁸
venge,

And ^kprophets to succeed after ^lhim:

⁹ ^lWho wast taken up in a whirlwind
of fire,

And in a chariot of fiery horses:

¹⁰ Who wast ^lordained for reproofs in their times,

To pacify the wrath of the Lord's judgment, before it break forth into fury,

And ^mto turn the heart of the father unto the son,

And ⁿto ^lrestore the tribes of Jacob.

¹¹ Blessed are they that saw thee,

And ^lslept in love;

For we shall surely live.

¹² ^lElias it was, who was covered with a whirlwind:

And ^oEliseus was filled with his spirit:

Whilst he lived, ^phe was not moved
with the presence of any prince,

Neither could any bring him into subjection.

¹³ ^qNo word could overcome him;

And ^rafter his ^sdeath his body prophesied.

¹⁴ He did wonders in his life,

And at his death were his works marvellous.

¹⁵ For all this the people repented not,
Neither departed they from their sins,

^tTill they were spoiled and carried out of their land,

And were scattered through all the
earth:

^uYet there remained a small people,
And a ruler in the house of David:

¹⁶ Of whom some did that which was pleasing to God,

And some multiplied sins.

¹⁷ ^vEzekias ^wfortified his city,

And ^xbrought in water into the midst
thereof:

He digged the hard rock with iron,
And made ^xwells for waters.

¹⁸ In his time ^ySennacherib came up,
And sent Rabsaces,

And lift up his hand against Sion,
And boasted proudly.

¹⁹ Then trembled their hearts and hands,
And they ^zwere in pain, as women in travail.

²⁰ ^aBut they called upon the Lord which
is merciful,

And ^bstretched out their hands towards him:

And immediately the Holy One heard
them out of heaven,

And delivered them by the ^lministry
of Esay.

his father,

^e As Esay the prophet, who was great
And ^f faithful in his vision, had commanded him.

^g In his time the sun went backward, ²³
And he lengthened the king's life.

He saw by an excellent spirit what ²⁴

And secret things or ever they came.

The remembrance of ^a Josias is like
^b the composition of the perfume

That is made by the art of the apothecary :

It is sweet as honey in all mouths,
And as ^c musick at a banquet of

He ^d behaved himself uprightly in the ²
conversion of the people,

And ^d took away the abominations of iniquity.

^e He directed his heart unto the Lord, ³
And in the time of the ungodly he established the worship of God.

All, except David and Ezekias and ⁴
Josias, were defective :

For they forsook the law of the most High,

Even the kings of Judah failed.

Therefore ^f he gave their ^l power unto ⁵
others,

And their glory to a strange nation.

^g They burnt the chosen city of the ⁶
sanctuary,

And made the streets desolate, ^h according to the prophecy of Jere-mias.

For ⁱ they entreated him evil, ⁷
Who nevertheless was a prophet,

^k sanctified in his mother's womb,

^l That he might root out, and afflict,

And ^l that he might build up also,

It was ^m Ezekiel who saw the glori- ⁸
ous vision,

Which was shewed him upon ⁿ the
chariot of the cherubims.

9 For he made mention of the ^o enemies under the figure of the rain,
And ^l directed them that went right.

10 And of ^p the twelve prophets ^q let the 12 So was ^u Jesus the son of Josedec :

Who in their time builded the house,

And set up a holy temple to the Lord,
Which was prepared for everlasting
glory.

13 And among the ^v elect was Neemias,
Whose renown is great,

^w Who raised up for us the walls that were fallen,

And set up the gates and the bars,
And raised up our ruins again.

14 But upon the earth was no man cre-

16 ^c Sem and ^d Seth were in great honour

Who in his life repaired the house

And in his days fortified the temple :

And by him was built from the foundation the double height,

The high fortress of the wall about
the temple :

3 In his days the ^a cistern to receive
water, being in compass as the sea,
was covered with plates of brass :

4 He took care of the temple that it

^a AND these are the words of the book,
which ^bBarnich the son of ^cNerias,
the son of Maasias, the son of Sedecias,
the son of Asadiah, the son of Chelcias,
wrote in Babylon, in ^dthe fifth year,
and ^din the seventh day of the month,
what time as the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, and burnt it with fire. And ^bBa-ruch did read the words of this book in the hearing of ^eJechonias the son of ^fJoachim king of Juda, and in the ears of all the people that came to hear the book, and in the hearing of the nobles,
and of the kings' sons, and in the hearing of the elders, and of all the people, ^ffrom the lowest unto the highest, even
of all them that dwelt at Babylon, by the river Sud. Whereupon they wept, fast-ed, and prayed before the Lord. They made also a collection of money ^gaccording to every man's power: and they sent it to Jerusalem unto ^fJoachim the high priest, the son of ^hChelcias, son of ⁱSalom, and to the priests, and to all the people which were found with him at Jerusalem, at the same time when he received ^kthe vessels of the house of the Lord, that were carried out of the temple, to return them into the land of Juda,
the tenth day of the month ^lSivan, namely, ^msilver vessels, which ⁿSedecias the son of Josias king of Juda had made,
after that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon ^dhad carried away ^eJechonias, and the princes, and the ^ocaptives, and the mighty men, and the people of the land,
from Jerusalem, and brought them unto Babylon.

And they said, Behold, we have sent
you ^omoney to buy you ^pburnt offerings,
and ^qsin offerings, and ^rincense, and prepare ye ^tmanna, and offer upon the altar of the Lord our God; and ^spray for the life of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon,
and for the life of ^tBalthasar his son,
that their days may be upon earth as ^uthe days of heaven: and the Lord will give us strength, and lighten our eyes,
and we shall live ^xunder the shadow of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and under the shadow of ^tBalthasar his son,

and we shall serve them many days, and ^yfind favour in their sight. Pray for us also unto the Lord our God, for we have sinned against the Lord our God; and unto this day the fury of the Lord and his wrath is not turned from us. And ye shall read ^zthis book which we have sent unto you, to make confession in the house of the Lord, upon the feasts and solemn days. And ye shall say,

^aTo the Lord our God belongeth righteousness, but unto us ^bthe confusion of faces, as it is come to pass this day, unto them of Juda, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to our ^ckings, and to our princes, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers: for ^dwe
have sinned before the Lord, ^dand disobeyed him, and ^ehave not hearkened unto the voice of the Lord our God, ^eto walk in the commandments that he gave us openly: since the day that the Lord
brought our forefathers out of the land of Egypt, unto this present day, we have been disobedient unto the Lord our God, and we have been negligent in not hearing his voice. Wherefore ^fthe evils cleaved unto us, and ^gthe curse, which the Lord appointed by Moses his servant at the time that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to give us ^ha land that floweth with milk and honey, like ⁱas it is to see this day.
^jNevertheless we have not hearkened
unto the voice of the Lord our God, ^kaccording unto all the words of the prophets, whom he sent unto us: but every man followed the imagination of his own wicked heart, to serve ^lstrange gods, and to do evil in the sight of the Lord our God.

Therefore ^athe Lord hath made good his word, which he pronounced against us, and against our judges that judged Israel, and against our kings, and against our princes, and against the men of Israel and Juda, to bring upon us great plagues, such as never happened under the whole heaven, as it came to pass in Jerusalem, ^aaccording to the things that were written in the law of Moses; ^bthat

a man should eat the flesh of his own son, and the flesh of his own daughter. Moreover he hath delivered them to be in subjection to call the kingdoms that are round about us, to be as a reproach and desolation among all the people round about, where the Lord hath scattered them. Thus we were cast down, and not exalted, because we have sinned against the Lord our God, and have not been obedient unto his voice. To the Lord our God appertaineth righteousness: but unto us and to our fathers open shame, as appeareth this day. For all these plagues are come upon us, which the Lord hath pronounced against us. Yet have we not prayed before the Lord, that we might turn every one from the imaginations of his wicked heart. Wherefore the Lord watched over us for evil, and the Lord hath brought it upon us: for the Lord is righteous in all his works which he hath commanded us. Yet we have not hearkened unto his voice, to walk in the commandments of the Lord, that he hath set before us. And now, O Lord God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and high arm, and with signs, and with wonders, and with great power, and hast gotten thyself a name, as appeareth this day: O Lord our God. we have sinned, we have done ungodly, we have dealt unrighteously in all thine ordinances. Let thy wrath turn from us: for we are but a few left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered us. Hear our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, and deliver us for thine own sake, and give us favour in the sight of them which have led us away: that all the earth may know that thou art the Lord our God, because Israel and his posterity is called by thy name. O Lord, look down from thy holy house, and consider us: bow down thine ear, O Lord, to hear us. Open thine eyes, and behold; for the dead that are in the graves, whose souls are taken from their bodies, will give unto the Lord neither praise nor righteousness: but the soul that is greatly vexed, which goeth stooping and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul, will give thee praise and righteousness, O Lord. Therefore we do not make our humble supplication before thee, O Lord our God, for the righteousness of our fathers, and of our kings. For thou hast sent out thy wrath and indignation upon us, as thou hast spoken by thy servants the prophets, saying,

Thus saith the Lord, Bow down your shoulders to serve the king of Babylon: so shall ye remain in the land that I gave unto your fathers. But if ye will not hear the voice of the Lord, to serve the king of Babylon, I will cause to cease out of the cities of Juda, and from without Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of joy, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: and the whole land shall be desolate of inhabitants.

But we would not hearken unto thy voice, to serve the king of Babylon: therefore hast thou made good the words that thou spakest by thy servants the prophets, namely, that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers, should be taken out of their places.

And lo, they are cast out to the heat of the day, and to the frost of the night, and they died in great miseries by famine, by sword, and by pestilence. And the house which is called by thy name hast thou laid waste, as it is to be seen this day, for the wickedness of the house of Israel and the house of Juda. O Lord our God, thou hast dealt with us after all thy goodness, and according to all that great mercy of thine.

as thou spakest by thy servant Moses in the day when thou didst command him to write thy law before the children of Israel, saying, If ye will not hear my voice, surely this very great multitude shall be turned into a small number among the nations, where I will scatter them.

For I knew that they would not hear me, because it is a stiffnecked people: but in the land of their captivities they shall remember themselves, and shall know that I am the Lord their God: for I will give them a heart, and ears to hear: and they shall praise me in the land of their captivity, and think upon my name, and return from their stiff neck, and from their wicked deeds: for they shall remember the way of their fathers, which sinned before the Lord. And I will bring them again into the land which I promised with an oath unto their fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and they shall be lords of it: and I will increase them, and they shall not be diminished. And I will

THE EPISTLE OF JEREMIE.

VI.

A copy of an epistle, which Jeremie sent unto them which were to be led captives into Babylon by the king of the Babylonians, to certify them, as it was commanded him of God.

^a 2 Kin. 24. 12-16.
^b 25. 11.
^c 2 Chr. 36. 10, 20.
^d Jer. 25. 9.

Because of the sins which ye have committed before God, ^aye shall be led away captives into Babylon by Nabuchodonosor king of the Babylonians. So when ye be come unto Babylon, ye shall remain there many years, and for a long season, namely, ^bseven generations: and after that I will bring you away peaceably from thence. Now shall ye see in Babylon ^cgods of silver, and of gold, and of wood, ^dborne upon shoulders, ^ewhich cause the nations to fear. Beware therefore that ye in no wise be like to strangers, ^eneither be ye afraid of them, when ye see the multitude before them and behind them, worshipping them. But say ye in your hearts, O ^eLord, we must worship thee. For ^fmine angel is with you, and I myself caring for your souls. As for their tongue, it is polished by the workman, and they themselves are gilded and laid over with silver; yet are they but false, and ^hcannot speak. And taking gold, as it were for a virgin that loves to go gay, they make crowns for the heads of their gods. Sometimes also the priests convey from their gods gold and silver, and bestow it upon themselves. Yea, they will give thereof to the ⁱcommon harlots, and ⁱdeck them as men with garments, being ^egods of silver, and gods of gold, and wood. Yet cannot these gods save themselves from ^jrust and moths, though they be covered with ^kpurple raiment. They wipe their faces ^lbecause of the dust of the temple, when there is much upon them. And he that cannot put to death one that offendeth him holdeth a sceptre, as though he were a judge of the country. He hath also in his right hand a dagger and an axe: but cannot deliver himself from war and ^mthieves. ⁿWhereby they are known not to be gods: ^otherefore fear them not.

For like as a vessel that a man useth is nothing worth when it is broken; even so it is with their gods: when they be set up in the temple, their eyes be full of dust through the feet of them that come in. And as ^pthe ⁱdoors are made sure on every side upon him that offendeth the king, as being ^qcommitted to suffer death: even so the priests make fast their temples with doors, with locks, and bars, lest their gods be spoiled with ^rrobbers. They light them candles, yea, more than for themselves, whereof they cannot see one. They are ^qas one of the beams of the temple, yet they say their hearts are ^tgnawed upon by things creeping out of the earth; and when they eat them and their clothes, they feel it not. Their faces are blacked through the smoke that comes out of the temple. Upon their bodies and heads sit bats, swallows, and birds, and the cats also. ^uBy this you may know that they are no gods: ^otherefore fear them not.

Notwithstanding the gold that is about them to make them beautiful, except they ^vwipe off the ^jrust, they will not shine: for neither when they were molten did they feel it. The things wherein there is no breath are bought for ^aa most high price. ^{ds}They are borne upon shoulders, having no feet, whereby they declare unto men that they be nothing worth. They also that serve them are ashamed: stfor if they fall to the ground at any time, they cannot rise up again of themselves: neither, if one set them upright, can they move of themselves: neither, ^uif they be bowed down, can they make themselves straight: but they ^vset ⁱgifts before them, ^{was} unto dead men. As for the things that are sacrificed unto them, ^xtheir priests sell and ^yabuse; ^zin like manner their wives lay up part thereof in salt; but unto the poor and impotent they give nothing of it. Menstruous women and ^awomen in childbed eat their sacrifices: ^{aa}by these things ye may know that they are no gods: ^{aa}therefore fear them not.

For how can they be called gods? because women ^bset meat before ^cthe gods of silver, gold, and wood. And the priests sit in their temples, ^dhaving their clothes rent, and ^etheir heads and beards shaven, and nothing upon their heads. ^fThey roar and cry before their gods, as men ^gdo ^gat the feast when one is dead. The priests also ^htake off their garments, and clothe their wives and children. Whether it be evil that one doeth unto them, or good, they are not able to recompense it: they can neither ^{hh}set up a king, nor put him down. In like manner, they can neither give riches nor ⁱmoney: ^jthough a man make a vow unto them, and keep it not, they will not require it. They can save no man from death, neither deliver the weak from the mighty. They cannot restore a blind man to his sight, nor help any man in his distress. They can shew no mercy to the widow, nor do good to the fatherless. ^c*Their gods* of wood, and ³⁹*which are* ^koverlaid with gold and silver, are like the stones that be hewn out of the mountain: ^lthey that worship them shall be confounded. ^mHow should a ⁴⁰*man* then think and say that they are gods?

When even the Chaldeans themselves dishonour them. ⁿWho if they shall see one dumb that cannot speak, they ^lbring him, and intreat ^oBel that he may speak, as though he were able to understand. Yet they cannot understand this ⁴²themselves, and leave them: for they have no ^lknowledge. ^pThe women also ⁴³with cords about them, sitting in the ways, burn ^qbran for perfume: but if any of them, drawn by some that passeth by, lie with him, she reproacheth her fellow, that she was not thought as worthy as herself, nor her cord broken. What ⁴⁴soever is done among them is false: ⁿhow may it then be thought or said that they are gods?

^rThey are made of carpenters and ⁴⁵goldsmiths: they can be nothing else than the workmen will have them to be. And they themselves that made them ⁴⁶can never continue long; how should then the things that are made of them be gods? For they left lies and re- ⁴⁷proaches to them that come after. For ⁴⁸when there cometh any war or plague upon them, the priests consult with themselves, where they may be hidden with them. ^mHow then cannot men ⁴⁹perceive that they be no gods, which can neither save themselves from war, nor from plague? For seeing they be ⁵⁰*but* ^sof wood, and ^toverlaid with silver and gold, it shall be known hereafter that they are false: and it shall mani- ⁵¹festly appear to all nations and kings that they are no gods, but ^uthe works of men's hands, and that there is no work of God in them. ^mWho then may not ⁵²know that they are no gods?

For neither can they ^vset up a king ⁵³in the land, nor ^wgive rain unto men. Neither ^xcan they judge their own cause, ⁵⁴nor ^yredress a wrong, being unable: for they are as crows between heaven and earth. Whereupon when fire falleth upon ⁵⁵the house of ^sgods of wood, or ^tlaid over with gold or silver, their priests will flee away, and escape; but they themselves shall be burnt asunder ^zlike beams. Moreover ^athey cannot withstand any ⁵⁶

king or enemies: ^bhow can it then be thought or said that they be gods? ^b See ver. 40.

⁵⁷ Neither are those ^cgods of wood, and ^dlaid over with silver or gold, able to escape either from thieves or ^erobbers. ^c See ver. 4. ^d See ver. 8. ^e See ver. 15.

⁵⁸ Whose gold, and silver, and garments wherewith they are clothed, they that are strong do take, and go away withal: ^aneither are they able to help themselves. ^aneither are they able to help themselves.

⁵⁹ Therefore it is better to be a king that sheweth his power, or else ^fa profitable vessel in a house, which the owner shall have use of, than such false gods; or to be a door in a house, to keep such ^gthings safe as be therein, than such false gods; or a pillar of wood in a palace, ⁶⁰than such false gods. For ^msun, moon, and stars, being bright, and sent to do

⁶¹*their* offices, are obedient. In like manner the lightning when it breaketh forth is easy to be seen; and ^hafter the same ^hmanner the wind bloweth in every ⁶²country. And when God commandeth the clouds to go over the whole ^hworld, ⁶³they do as they are bidden. And ^gthe fire sent from above to consume hills and woods doeth as it is commanded: but these are like unto them neither in ⁶⁴shew nor power. Wherefore ⁱit is ⁱneither to be supposed nor said that they are gods, seeing they are able neither ^jto judge causes, nor ^kto do good unto men. ⁶⁵^lKnowing therefore that they are no gods, ^lfear them not. ^l See ver. 16.

⁶⁶ For they can neither curse nor bless ⁶⁷kings: neither can they shew signs in the heavens among the heathen, ^mnor shine as the sun, nor give light as the ⁶⁸moon. The beasts are better than they: for they can get under a covert, and ⁶⁹help themselves. ^lIt is then by no means manifest unto us that they are

⁷⁰gods: ^ltherefore fear them not. For as a scarecrow in ⁿa garden of cucumbers keepeth nothing: so are their ^cgods of wood, and ^dlaid over with silver and ⁷¹gold. And likewise their ^cgods of wood, and ^dlaid over with silver and gold, are like to a white thorn in an orchard, that every bird sitteth upon; as also to ^oa dead body, that is cast into the dark. ⁷²And ^lyou shall know them to be no gods by the ^lbright purple that rotteth upon them: and ^qthey themselves afterward shall be eaten, and shall be a reproach ⁷³in the country. Better therefore is the just man that hath none idols: for he shall be far from reproach. ^o Comp. ver. 27.

⁷² And ^lyou shall know them to be no gods by the ^lbright purple that rotteth upon them: and ^qthey themselves afterward shall be eaten, and shall be a reproach ⁷³in the country. Better therefore is the just man that hath none idols: for he shall be far from reproach. ^l Or, ^ppurple and ^vbrightness. ^p Rev. 18. 12 (Gk.). ^q ver. 12.

THE SONG OF THE THREE HOLY CHILDREN,

which followeth in the third Chapter of DANIEL after this place,—fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace—verse 23. That which followeth is not in the Chaldee, to wit, And they walked—unto these words, Then Nebuchadnezzar—verse 24.

AND they walked in the midst of the fire, praising God, and blessing the Lord. Then ^aAzarias stood up, and ²prayed on this manner; and ^bopening his mouth in the midst of the fire, said,

^{bb}Blessed art thou, O Lord God of ³our fathers: thy name is worthy to be praised and glorified for evermore: for ⁴thou art righteous in all the things that thou hast done to us: yea, true are all thy works, ^dthy ways are right, and ^dall thy judgments are truth. In all the things ⁵that thou hast brought upon us, and upon ^ethe holy city of our fathers, even Jerusalem, thou hast executed true judgment: for according to truth and judgment didst thou bring all these things upon us because of our sins. For ^fwe ⁶have sinned and committed iniquity, departing from thee. In all things ⁷have we trespassed, and not obeyed thy commandments, nor kept them, neither done as thou hast commanded us, ^gthat it might go well with us. Wherefore all ⁸that thou hast brought upon us, and every thing that thou hast done to us, thou hast done in true judgment. And ⁹thou didst deliver us into the hands of lawless enemies, most hateful ^{ss}forsakers of God, and to ^han unjust king, and the most wicked in all the world. And now ¹⁰we cannot open our mouths, ⁱwe become a shame and reproach to thy servants, and to them that worship thee. Yet deliver us not up ^jwholly, for thy name's sake, neither ^kdisannul thou thy covenant: and cause not thy mercy to depart from us, for ^lthy beloved Abraham's sake, for thy servant Isaac's sake, ¹³and for thy holy Israel's sake; to whom thou hast spoken and promised, ^mthat ^mthou wouldest multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and ^mas the sand that ¹⁴lieth upon the sea shore. For ⁿwe, O ^oLord, are become less than any nation, and be kept under this day in all the ¹⁵world because of our sins. Neither is there at this time prince, ^por prophet, or leader, or burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or ^qplace to sacrifice before thee, and to find mercy. ¹⁶Nevertheless in ^ra contrite heart and an ¹⁷humble spirit let us be accepted. ^sLike ^sas in the burnt offering of rams and bullocks, and ^slike as in ten thousands of fat lambs: so ^slet our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and grant that ^twe may ^twholly go after thee: for ^uthey shall not be confounded that put their trust in ¹⁸thee. And now we follow thee with all ^{our} heart, we fear thee, and seek thy ¹⁹face. ^uPut us not to shame: but ^xdeal with us after thy ^ylovingkindness, and according to the multitude of thy mercies. Deliver us also according to thy marvellous works, and ^zgive glory to thy name, O Lord: and let all them that do ²¹thy servants hurt be ashamed; and let them be confounded ^zin all their power and might, and let their strength be ²²broken; and ^alet them know that thou art Lord, the only God, and glorious over ^bthe whole world. ²³And the king's servants, that put them in, ceased not to make the oven hot with ^crosin, pitch, ^ctow, and small ²⁴wood; so that ^dthe flame streamed forth above the furnace forty and nine cubits.

THE HISTORY OF SUSANNA,

set apart from the beginning of Daniel, because it is not in Hebrew, as neither the narration of † Bel and the Dragon.

† Gr. Bel's Dragon.
Bel and Drag., title.

THERE dwelt a man in Babylon, 2
called ^aJoachim: and he took a wife, ²
whose name was ^bSusanna, the daughter of ^aChelcias, a very ^xfair woman, and one that feared the Lord. Her parents also were ^crighteous, and taught their daughter according to the law of Moses.
Now Joachim was ^da great rich man, and had a ^efair garden joining unto his house: and to him resorted the Jews;
because he was more honourable than all others. ^fThe same year were appointed two of the ^gancients of the people to be judges, such as the ^hLord spake
of, ⁱthat wickedness came from Babylon from ancient judges, who ^jseemed to govern the people. These ^kkept much at Joachim's house: and all that had any suits in law came unto them. Now
when the people departed away ^lat
noon, Susanna went into her husband's ^egarden to walk. And the two elders saw her going in every day, and walking; so that their lust was inflamed toward her. And ^mthey perverted their own mind, and turned away their eyes,
that they might not look unto heaven,
nor remember just judgments. And ⁿal-beit they both were ^owounded with her love, yet durst not one shew another his grief. For they were ashamed to declare their lust, that they desired to have to do with her. Yet they watched diligently from day to day to see her.
And the one said to the other, Let us
now go home: ^lfor it is dinner time.
So when they were gone out, they parted the one from the other, and turning back again they came to the same place;
and after that they had asked one another the cause, they acknowledged their lust: then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone.
And it fell out, as they watched a ^ofit

time, she went in [†]as before with two maids only, and she was desirous to wash herself in the ^egarden: for it was hot. And there was no body there save the two elders, that had hid themselves,
and watched her. Then she said to her maids, Bring me oil and washing balls,
and shut the ^egarden doors, that I may wash me. And they did as she bade them, and shut the ^egarden doors, and went out themselves at [¶]privy doors to fetch the things that she had commanded them: but they saw not the elders, because they were hid. Now when the maids were gone forth, the two elders rose up, and ran unto her, saying, Behold, the garden doors are shut, that no man can see us, and we are in love with thee; therefore consent unto us, and lie with us. If thou wilt not, we will bear witness against thee, that a young man was with thee: and therefore thou didst send away thy maids from thee. Then Susanna ^psighed, and said, I am straited
on every side: for if I do this thing, ^qit is death unto me: and if I do it not, I cannot escape your hands. It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not do it, than to sin in the sight of the Lord. With that Susanna cried with a loud voice: and the two elders cried out against her. Then ran the one, and opened the garden door. So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at a ^rprivy
door, to see what was done unto her.
But when the elders had declared their matter, the servants were greatly ashamed: for there was never such a report made of Susanna.
And it came to pass the next day,
^swhen the people were assembled to her husband Joachim, the two elders came also full of mischievous ^timagination

THE HISTORY OF SUSANNA.

against Susanna ^ato put her to death. And said before the people, Send for ²⁹Susanna, the daughter of ^aChelcias, ^aJoachim's wife. And so they sent. So ³⁰she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kindred. Now ³¹Susanna was a very ^udelicate woman, and ^xbeauteous to behold. And these ³²wicked men commanded to uncover her face, (^yfor she was covered) that they might be filled with her beauty. There- ³³fore ^zher friends and all that saw her wept. Then the two elders stood up in ³⁴the midst of the people, and ^alaid their hands upon her head. And she weep- ³⁵ing looked up towards heaven: for her heart trusted in the Lord. And the el- ³⁶ders said, As we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the garden doors, and sent the maids away. Then a young ³⁷man, who there was hid, came unto her, and lay with her. Then we that stood ³⁸in a corner of the garden, seeing this wickedness, ran unto them. And when ³⁹we saw them together, the man we could not hold: for he was stronger than we, and opened the door, and leaped out. But having taken this wo- ⁴⁰man, we asked who the young man was, but she would not tell us: these things do we testify. Then the assembly be- ⁴¹lieved them, as those that were ^bthe elders and judges of the people: so ^cthey condemned her to death.

Then Susanna cried out with a loud ⁴²voice, and said, O everlasting God, ^dthat knowest the secrets, and ^eknowest all things before they be: thou knowest ⁴³that they have borne false witness against me, and behold. I must die; whereas I never did such things as these men have maliciously invented against me. And ⁴⁴the Lord heard her voice. Therefore ⁴⁵when she was led ^cto be put to death, ^ethe Lord raised up the holy spirit of a young youth, whose name was Daniel: who cried with a loud voice, ^hI am clear from the blood of this woman. Then ⁴⁷all the people turned them towards him, and said, What mean these words that thou hast spoken? So he standing in ⁴⁸the midst of them, said, Are ye such fools, ye sons of Israel. that without examination or knowledge of the truth ye have condemned ^aa daughter of Israel? Return again to the place of judgment: ⁴⁹for they have borne false witness against her. Wherefore all the people turned ⁵⁰

again in haste, and ^bthe elders said unto him, Come, ⁱsit down among us, and shew it us, seeing God hath given thee ⁵¹the honour of an elder. Then said Daniel unto them, Put these two aside one far from another, and I will ex- ⁵²amine them. So when they were put asunder one from another, he called one of them, and said unto him, O thou that art waxen old in wickedness, now thy sins which thou hast committed afore- ⁵³time are come to light: for thou hast pronounced false judgment, and hast condemned the innocent, and hast let the guilty go free; albeit the Lord saith, ^jThe innocent and righteous shalt thou not slay. Now then, if thou hast seen her, tell me, Under what tree sawest thou them companying together? Who answered, Under a ^kmastick tree. ⁵⁵And Daniel said, Very well; thou hast lied against thine own head; for even now the angel of God hath received the sentence of God to ^kcut thee in two. ⁵⁶So he put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, and said unto him, O thou seed of ^lCanaan, and not of Juda, beauty hath deceived thee, and lust hath ^mperverted thine heart. Thus have ye dealt with ⁿthe daughters of Is- ⁵⁷rael, and they for fear companied with you: but ⁿthe daughter of Juda would ⁵⁸not abide your wickedness. Now there- fore tell me, Under what tree didst thou take them companying together? Who ⁵⁹answered, Under a ^lholm tree. Then said Daniel unto him, Well; thou hast also lied against thine own head: for the angel of God waiteth with the sword to ^kcut thee in two, that he may destroy ⁶⁰you. With that all ^pthe assembly cried out with a loud voice, and praised God, who saveth ^qthem that trust in him. ⁶¹And they arose against the two elders, (for ^rDaniel had convicted them of false witness by their own mouth;) and ^sac- cording to the law of Moses they did unto them in such sort as they mali- ciously intended to do to their neigh- bour: and they put them to death. Thus the innocent blood was saved ⁶³the same day. Therefore ^tChelcias and his wife praised God for their daughter Susanna, with Joachim her husband, and all the kindred, because there was no dishonesty found in her. ⁶⁴From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

AND king ^aAstyages ^bwas gathered to his fathers, and ^aCyrus of Persia received his kingdom. And Daniel ^ccon-versed with the king, and ^dwas honoured above all his friends. Now the Babylonians had an idol, called ^eBel, and ^dthere were spent upon him every day twelve great measures of fine flour, and forty sheep, and six ^evessels of wine. And the king worshipped it, and went daily to adore it: but Daniel worshipped his own God. And the king said unto him, Why dost not thou worship Bel? Who answered and said, Because I may not worship idols made with hands, but ^fthe living God, who hath created the heaven and the earth, and hath sovereignty over all flesh. Then said the king unto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a living god? seest thou not how much he eateth and drinketh every day? Then Daniel ^gsmiled, and said, O king, be not deceived: for this is but clay within, and brass without, and ^gdid never eat or drink any thing. So the king was wroth, and called for his priests, and said unto them, If ye tell me not who this is that devoureth ^hthese expences, ye shall die. But if ye can certify me that Bel devoureth them, then Daniel shall die: for he hath ⁱspoken blasphemy against Bel. And Daniel said unto the king, Let it be according to thy word.

Now the priests of Bel were three-score and ten, beside their wives and children: and the king went with Daniel into the temple of Bel. So Bel's priests said, Lo, we go out: but thou, O king, set on the meat, and make ready the wine, and shut the door fast, and ^jseal it with thine own signet; and to morrow when thou comest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten up all, we will suffer death; or else Daniel, that speaketh falsely against us. And they little regarded it: for under the table they had made a privy entrance, whereby they entered in continually, and ^kconsumed those things. So when they were gone forth, the king set meats before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his servants to bring ashes, and those they strewed throughout all the temple in the presence of the king alone: then went they out, and shut the door, and ^lsealed it with the king's signet, and so departed. Now in the night came the priests with their wives and children, (as they were wont to do,) and ^kdid eat and drink up all. In the morning betime the king arose, and Daniel with him. And the king said, Daniel, are the seals whole? And he said, Yea, O king, they be whole. And as soon as he had opened the door, the king looked upon the table, and cried with a loud voice, Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceit at all. Then ^llaughed Daniel, and held the king that he should not go in, and said, Behold now the pavement, and mark ^mwell whose footsteps are these. And the king said, I see the footsteps of men, women, and children. And then the king was angry, and took the priests with their wives and children, who shewed him ⁿthe privy doors, where they came in, and consumed such things as were upon the table. Therefore the king slew them, and delivered Bel into Daniel's power, who destroyed him and his temple.

Daniel, Wilt thou also say ^athat this is of brass? lo, he liveth, he eateth and drinketh; thou canst not say that he is no living god: therefore worship him.

^o So Deut. 6. 13.

Then said Daniel unto the king, ^oI will worship the Lord my God: for he is ^fthe living God. But give me leave, O king, ²⁶and I shall slay this dragon without sword or staff. The king said, I give thee leave. Then Daniel took pitch, and ²⁷fat, and hair, and did seethe them together, and made lumps thereof: this he put in the dragon's mouth, and so the dragon burst in sunder: and Daniel said, ^g Or, Behold what you worship.

^p See 2 Thess. 2. 4.

Lo, these are ^pthe gods you worship. When they of Babylon heard that, they ²⁸took great indignation, and conspired against the king, saying, The king is become a Jew, and ^qhe hath destroyed Bel, he hath slain the dragon, and ^qput the priests to death. So they came to ²⁹the king, and said, Deliver us Daniel, or else we will destroy thee and thine house. Now when the king saw that they ³⁰pressed him sore, being constrained, he delivered Daniel unto them: ^rwho cast ³¹him into the lions' den: where he was six days. And in the den there were ³²seven lions, and they had given them every day ^htwo carcasses, and two sheep: which then were not given to them, to the intent they might devour Daniel.

³⁴*it* to the reapers. But the angel of the Lord said unto Habacuc, Go, carry the dinner that thou hast into Babylon unto ³⁵Daniel, who is in the lions' den. And Habacuc said, Lord, I never saw Babylon; neither do I know where the den is.

³⁶Then the angel of the Lord ^ttook him by the crown, and ^ubare him by the hair of his head, and through the vehemency of his spirit set him in Babylon over the den. And Habacuc cried, saying, O Daniel, Daniel, ^vtake the dinner which God hath sent thee. And Daniel said, Thou hast remembered me, O God: neither hast thou forsaken them that seek thee and love thee. So Daniel arose, and did eat: and the angel of the Lord set Habacuc in his own place again immediately.

⁴⁰Upon the seventh day ^wthe king went to bewail Daniel: and when he came to the den, he looked in, and behold, Daniel was sitting. Then cried the king with a loud voice, saying, Great art thou, O Lord ^xGod of Daniel, and ⁴²there is none other besides thee. I. ^a AND it happened, after that Alexander son of Philip, the Macedonian, who came out of the land of ^b Chethiim, had smitten Darius king of the Persians and ^c Medes, that he reigned in his stead, the first over Greece, and made many wars, and wan many ^d strong holds, and slew the kings of the earth, and went through to the ends of the earth, and took spoils of many nations, insomuch that the earth was quiet before him; whereupon ^e he was exalted, and his heart was lifted up. And he gathered a mighty strong host, and ruled over countries, and nations, and ^f kings, who became tributaries unto him. And after these things he ^g fell sick, and perceived ^h that he should die. Wherefore he called his servants, such as were honourable, and ⁱ had been brought up with him from his youth, and parted his kingdom among them, while he was yet alive. So Alexander reigned twelve years, and then ^j died. And his servants bare rule every one in his place. And after his death they all put ^k crowns upon themselves; so did their sons after them many years: and evils were multiplied in the earth. And there came out of them ^l a wicked root, ^m Antiochus surnamed Epiphanes, son of Antiochus the king, ⁿ who had been ^o a hostage at Rome, and he reigned in ^p the hundred and thirty and seventh year ^q of the kingdom of the Greeks. ^r In those days went there out of Israel ^s wicked men, who persuaded many, saying, Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen that are round about us: for since we departed from them ^t we have had much sorrow. Then ^v certain of the people were so forward ^w herein, that they went to the king, who gave them licence to do after the ordinances of the heathen: whereupon ^x they ^y built a place of exercise at Jerusalem according to the customs of the heathen: and ^z made themselves uncircumcised, and forsook the holy covenant, and ^{aa} joined themselves to the heathen, and ^{ab} were sold to do mischief. had taken all away, he went into his own land, ^chaving made a great massacre, and ^dspoken very proudly. Therefore there was great mourning in Israel, in every place where they were; so that the princes and elders mourned, the virgins and young men were made feeble, and the beauty of women was changed. ^eEvery bridegroom took up lamentation, and she that sat in the marriage chamber was in heaviness. The land also was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was covered with confusion.

And after ^ftwo years fully expired ^{ff}the king sent his chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Juda, who came unto Jerusalem ^gwith a great multitude, and spake peaceable words unto them, but all was deceit: for when they had given him credence, he fell suddenly upon the city, and smote it very sore, and destroyed much people of Israel. And when he had taken the spoils of the city, he set it on fire, and pulled down the houses and walls thereof on every side. But the women and children took they captive, and possessed the cattle. Then builded they the city of David with a great and strong wall, and with mighty towers, and made it ^{gg}a strong hold for them.

And they put therein a ^hsinful nation, ⁱwicked men, and fortified themselves therein. They stored it also with armour and victuals, and when they had gathered together the spoils of Jerusalem, they laid them up there, and so they became a sore snare: for it was ^ja place to lie in wait against the sanctuary, and an evil adversary to Israel. Thus ^kthey shed innocent blood on every side of the sanctuary, and defiled it: insomuch ^lthat the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled because of them: whereupon ^{ll}the city was made a habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her; and her own children left her. ^mHer sanctuary was laid waste like a wilderness, ⁿher feasts were turned into mourning, ⁿher sabbaths into reproach, her honour into contempt. As had been her glory, so was her dishonour increased, and her excellency was turned into mourning.

Moreover king Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, and ^oevery one should leave his laws: so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king. Yea, many also of the Israelites consented to his ^preligion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the sabbath. For the king had sent letters by messengers unto Jerusalem and the cities of Juda, that they should follow ^qthe strange laws of the land, and ^qforbid burnt offerings, and sacrifice, and drink offerings, in the temple; and that they should ^rprofane the sabbaths and festival days: and ^rpollute the sanctuary and holy people: ^rset up altars, and ^sgroves, and ^schapels of idols, and ^tsacrifice swine's flesh, and ^xunclean beasts: that they should also leave their children uncircumcised, and make their souls abominable with all manner of uncleanness and profanation: ^uto the end they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances. And ^vwhosoever would not do according to the commandment of the king, ^zhe said, he should die. ^aIn the selfsame manner wrote he to his whole kingdom, and appointed ^boverseers over all the people, commanding the cities of Juda to sacrifice, city by city. Then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit, every one that forsook the law; and so they committed evils in the land; ^land drove the Israelites into ^csecret places, even wheresoever they could flee for succour.

Now the fifteenth day of the month ^dCasleu, in ^ethe hundred forty and fifth year, they set ^{up}the abomination of desolation upon the altar, and ^ebuilded idol altars throughout the cities of Juda on every side; and burnt incense at the doors of their houses, and in the streets. And when they had rent in pieces the books of the law which they found, they burnt them with fire. And wheresoever was found with any the book of the testament, or if any ^fconsented to the law, ^fthe king's commandment was, that they should put him to death. Thus did they by their authority unto the Israelites every month, to as many as were found in the cities. Now ^gthe five and twentieth day of the month they did sacrifice upon the idol altar, ^gwhich was upon the altar of God. At which time, according to the commandment, ^hthey put to death certain women, ^hthat had caused their children to be circumcised. And ^hthey hanged the infants about their necks, and rifled their houses, and slew them that had circumcised them. Howbeit many in Israel were fully resolved and confirmed in themselves not to eat ¹unclean thing. Wherefore ^kthey chose ^{rather} to die, ^kthat they might not be defiled with meats, and ^{that} they might not profane the holy covenant: so ^{then} they died. And there was very great wrath upon Israel.

II.

In those days ¹arose Mattathias the son of John, the son of ^aSimeon, a priest of the sons of ^bJoarib, from Jerusalem, and dwelt in ^cModin. And he had five sons, ^dJoannan, ¹called ¹Caddis: Simeon, called ¹Thassi: ^eJudas, who was called Maccabeus: ^{ee}Eleazar, called ¹Avanan: and Jonathan, ^fwhose surname was Apphus.

And when he saw the blasphemies that were committed in Juda and Jerusalem, he said, Woe is me, wherefore was I born to see this ^gmisery of my people, and of ^hthe holy city, and to dwell there, when it was delivered into the hand of the enemy, and the sanctuary into the hand of strangers? Her temple is become as a man ⁱwithout glory. ^kHer glorious vessels are carried away into captivity, ¹her infants are slain in the streets, her young men with the sword of the enemy. What nation hath not ^mhad a part in her kingdom, and gotten of her spoils? ⁿAll her ornaments are taken away; of a free woman she is become a bondslave. And behold, our ^osanctuary, even ^pour beauty and our glory, is laid waste, and ^qthe Gentiles have profaned it. To what end ^{therefore} shall we live any longer? Then Mattathias and his sons ^rrent their clothes, and ^{rs}put on sackcloth, and mourned very sore.

In the mean while ¹the king's officers, such as compelled the ^{people} to ^vrevolt, came into the city ^cModin, to make them sacrifice. And when many of Israel came unto them, Mattathias also and his sons came together. Then answered ¹the king's officers, and said to Mattathias on this wise, Thou art a ruler, and an honourable and great man in this city, and ^vstrengthened with sons and brethren: now therefore come thou first, and fulfil the king's commandment, ^{like} ^vas all the heathen have done, ^{yea}, and the men of Juda also, and such as remain at Jerusalem: so shalt thou and thine house be ⁱⁿ the number of the king's friends, and thou and thy children shall be honoured with silver and gold, and many ^xrewards. Then Mattathias answered and spake with a loud voice, Though all the nations that are under ^ythe king's dominion obey him, and ^vfall away every one from the ^zreligion of their fathers, and give consent to his commandments: ^ayet will I and my sons and my brethren walk in the covenant of our fathers. ^bGod forbid that ^{we} should forsake the law and the ordinances. ^cWe will not hearken to the king's words, to go from our ^dreligion, ^eeither on the right hand, or the left.

Now when he had left speaking these words, there came one of the Jews in the sight of all to sacrifice on the altar which was at ¹Modin, according to the king's commandment. Which thing when Mattathias saw, he was inflamed with zeal, and ^ghis reins trembled, neither could he forbear to shew his anger ^haccording to judgment: wherefore he ran, and slew him upon the altar. Also the king's commissioner, who compelled ^{men} to sacrifice, he killed at that time, and the altar he pulled down. Thus dealt he zealously for the law of God, like as ⁱPhinees did unto Zambri the son of Salom. And Mattathias cried throughout the city with a loud voice, saying, Whosoever is zealous of the law, and maintaineth the covenant, let him follow me. So ^jhe and his sons fled into the mountains, and left all that ^{ever} they had in the city. Then many that ^ksought after justice and ^hjudgment ^jwent down into the wilderness, to ¹dwell there: ^{both} they, ¹and their children, and their wives, and their cattle; because ¹afflictions increased sore upon them.

Now when it was told the king's servants, and ^mthe host that was at Jerusalem, ⁱⁿ the city of David, that ^{certain} men, who had ⁿbroken the king's commandment, were gone down into ^othe secret places in the wilderness, they pursued after them a great number, and having overtaken them, they camped against them, and made war against them on the sabbath day.

And they said unto them, Let that ³³ which you have done hitherto suffice; come forth, and do according to the commandment of the king, and you shall live. But they said, We will not come ³⁴ forth, neither will we do the king's commandment, ^Pto profane the sabbath day. So then they gave ¹¹them the ³⁵ battle with all speed. Howbeit they ³⁶ answered them not, neither cast they a stone at them, nor stopped ^othe places where they lay hid; but said, Let ³⁷ us die all in our ^tinnocency: heaven and earth shall testify for us, that you put us to death wrongfully. ^qSo they ³⁸ rose up against them in battle on the sabbath, and they slew them, ^rwith their wives and children, and their cattle, to the number of a thousand ^tpeople.

Now when Mattathias and his friends ³⁹ understood hereof, they mourned for them right sore. And one of them ⁴⁰ said to another. If we all do as our brethren have done, and fight not for our lives and laws against the heathen, they will now quickly root us out of the earth. At that time therefore they ⁴¹ decreed, saying, ^sWhosoever shall come to make battle with us on the sabbath day, we will fight against him; neither will we die all, ^tas our brethren that were murdered in ^othe secret places. Then came there unto him a company ⁴² of ^uAsideans, who were mighty men of Israel, even all such as were voluntarily devoted unto the law. Also ⁴³ all they that fled for persecution joined themselves unto them, and were ^va stay unto them. So they joined their ⁴⁴ forces, and smote ^wsinful men in their anger, and ^xwicked men in their wrath: but the rest fled to the heathen for succour. Then Mattathias and his friends ⁴⁵ went round about, and pulled down the altars: and what children soever they ⁴⁶ found within the coast of Israel uncircumcised, those they circumcised ^yvaliantly. They pursued also after the proud men, and the work prospered in their hand. So they recovered the law out ⁴⁸ of the hand of the Gentiles, and out of the hand of kings, neither ^tsuffered they ^wthe sinner to triumph.

Now when the time drew near that ⁴⁹ Mattathias should die, he said unto his sons, Now hath pride and rebuke gotten strength, and the time of destruction, and the wrath of indignation:

now therefore, my sons, be ye zealous for the law, and give your lives for the ⁵¹ covenant of your fathers. Call to remembrance what acts our fathers did in their ^ttime; so shall ye receive great ⁵² honour and an everlasting name. ^zWas not Abraham found faithful in temptation, ^aand it was imputed unto him ⁵³ for righteousness? ^bJoseph in the time of his ^cdistress kept the commandment, ⁵⁴ ^dand was made lord of Egypt. Phinees ^eour father ^{fn}in being zealous and fervent obtained the covenant of an everlasting priesthood. ^gJesus for fulfilling the word was made a judge in Israel. ⁵⁶ ^hCaleb for bearing witness before ⁱthe congregation received the heritage of the land. David for being ^kmerciful ^lpossessed the throne of an everlasting ⁵⁸ kingdom. ^mElias ⁿfor being zealous and fervent for the law was taken up ⁵⁹ into heaven. ^oAnanias, Azarias, and Misael, by believing were saved out of ⁶⁰ the flame. ^pDaniel for his ^qinnocency was delivered from the mouth of lions. ⁶¹ And thus consider ye throughout all ages, that none that put their trust in him shall be overcome. ^rFear not then the words of a sinful man: ^sfor his ⁶³ glory shall be ^tdung and worms. ⁵To day he shall be lifted up, and to morrow he shall not be found, because ^uhe is returned into his dust, ^xand his thought is come to nothing. Wherefore, you my sons, be valiant, and ^yshew yourselves men in the behalf of the law; for by it shall you obtain glory. ⁶⁵ And behold, I know that your brother ^zSimon is a man of counsel, give ear unto him alway: he shall be a father ⁶⁶ unto you. As for ^aJudas Maccabeus, he hath been mighty and strong, even ^bfrom his youth up: let him be your captain, and ¹fight the battle of the ⁶⁷ people. Take also unto you all ^cthose that observe the law, and avenge ye the ⁶⁸ wrong of your people. Recompense fully the heathen, and take heed to the commandments of the law.

So ^dhe blessed them, and ^ewas gathered to his fathers. And he died in ^fthe hundred forty and sixth year, and his sons buried him in the sepulchres of his fathers at ^fModin, and all Israel ^gmade great lamentation for him.

Then ^ahis son Judas, called Maccabeus, ^{aa}rose up in his stead. And all his brethren helped him, and so did all they that held with his father, and they fought with cheerfulness the battle of Israel. So he gat his people great honour, and put on a ^bbreastplate as a giant, and girt his warlike ^charness about him, and he made battles, protecting ^dthe host with his sword. In his acts he was like a lion, and like a lion's whelp roaring for his prey. For he pursued ^ethe wicked, and sought them out, and ^{ee}burnt up those that vexed his people. Wherefore ^ethe wicked ^fshrunk for fear of him, and ^{ff}all the workers of iniquity were troubled, because ^gsalvation prospered in his hand. He grieved also many kings, and made Jacob glad with his acts, and ^{gg}his memorial is blessed for ever. Moreover he went through the cities of Juda, destroying ^ethe ungodly out of them, and ^hturning away wrath from Israel: so that he was renowned unto the utmost part of the earth, and he ⁱreceived unto him such as were ⁱready to perish.

Then ^kApollonius gathered the Gentiles together, and a great host out of ^lSamaria, to fight against Israel. Which thing when Judas perceived, he went forth to meet him, and so he smote him, and slew him: many also ^mfell down slain, but the rest fled. Wherefore Judas took their spoils, and ^kApollonius' sword also, and therewith he fought all his life long.

Now when Seron, a prince of the army of Syria, heard say that Judas had gathered unto him a multitude and company of the faithful to go out with him to war; he said, I will get me a name and honour in the kingdom: for I will go fight with Judas and them that are with him, who despise the king's commandment. So he ⁿmade him ready to go up, and there went with him a mighty ^dhost of ^ethe ungodly to help him, and to be avenged of the children of Israel. And when he came near to the going up of ^oBethoron, Judas went forth to meet him ^pwith a small company: who, when they saw ^dthe host coming to meet them, said unto Judas, How shall we be able, being so ^pfew, to fight against so great a multitude and so strong, seeing ^qwe are ready to faint with fasting all this day? Unto whom Judas answered, ^rIt is no hard matter for many to be ^sshut up in the hands of a few; and with ^tthe God of heaven

it is all one, ^rto deliver with a great multitude, or a small company: for the victory of battle standeth not in the multitude of a host; but strength cometh from heaven. They come ^uagainst us ^tin much pride and iniquity to destroy us, and our wives and children, and to spoil us: but we fight for our lives and our laws. Wherefore the Lord himself will overthrow them before our face: and as for you, be ye not afraid of them. Now as soon as he had left off speaking, he leapt suddenly upon them, and so Seron and his ^dhost was overthrown before him. And they pursued them ^vfrom ^uthe going down of Bethoron unto the plain, where were slain about eight hundred men of them; and the residue fled into the land of the Philistines. Then began the fear of Judas and his brethren, and ^wan exceeding great dread, to fall upon the nations round about them: inso-much as his fame came unto the king, and all nations talked of the ^xbattles of Judas.

Now when ^yking Antiochus heard these things, he was full of indignation: wherefore he sent and gathered together all the forces of his realm, even a very strong ^darmy. He opened also his treasure, and gave his soldiers ^zpay for a year, commanding them to be ready ^ywhenever he should need them. Nevertheless, when he saw that the money of his treasures failed, and ^zthat the tributes in the country were small, because of the dissension and plague, which he had brought upon the land ^zin taking away the laws which had been of old time; he feared ^zthat he should not be able to bear the charges ^aany longer, nor to have such gifts to give so liberally as he did before: for ^bhe had abounded above the kings that were before him. Wherefore, being greatly ^cperplexed in his mind, he determined to go into ^dPersia, there to take the tributes of the countries, and to gather much money. So he left ^cLysias, a nobleman, and one ^{cc}of the blood royal, to oversee the affairs of the king from the river Euphrates unto the borders of Egypt: and to bring up ^zhis son Antiochus, until he came again. Moreover he delivered unto him the half of his forces, and ^gthe elephants, and gave him charge of all things that he would have done, as also concerning them that dwelt in Juda and Jerusalem: to wit, that he should send an army against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Israel, and ^h the remnant of Jerusalem, and ⁱ to take away their memorial from that place; and that he should place strangers in all their quarters, and divide their land by lot. So the king took the half of the forces that remained, and departed from ^j Antioch, [†] his royal city, ^{*} the hundred forty and seventh year; and having passed the river Euphrates, ^d he went through ^k the high countries.

Then Lysias chose [†] Ptoleeme the son of Dorymenes, and ¹¹ Nicanor, and ¹² Gorgias, mighty men of ¹¹ the king's friends: and with them he sent forty thousand footmen, and seven thousand horsemen, to go into the land of Juda, and to destroy it, as the king commanded. So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by ^o Emmaus in the plain country. And ¹¹ the merchants of the country, hearing the fame of them, took silver and gold very much, with ¹¹ servants, and came into ^p the camp to buy the children of Israel for slaves: a power also of Syria and of the land ¹¹ of the Philistines joined themselves unto them. ^q Now when Judas and his brethren saw that miseries were multiplied, and that the forces did encamp themselves in their borders; (for they knew how the king had given commandment to destroy the people, and utterly abolish them;) they said one to another, Let us restore ^r the decayed estate of our people, and let us fight for our people and the sanctuary. Then was the congregation gathered together, that they might be ready for battle, and that they might pray, and ask mercy and compassion. Now ¹¹ Jerusalem lay void as a wilderness, there was none of her children that ^t went in or out: ^s the sanctuary also was trodden down, and aliens kept ^u the strong hold; the heathen had their habitation in that place; and joy was taken from Jacob, and the pipe with ^w the harp ceased. Wherefore the ¹¹ Is- ¹¹ ra- ¹¹ elites assembled themselves together, and came to ¹¹ Maspha, over against Jerusalem; for in ^{*} Maspha was the place where they prayed aforetime in Israel. Then ^y they fasted that day, and ^z put on sackcloth, and cast ^y ^z ashes upon their heads, and ^z ^z rent their clothes, and laid open the book of the law, ¹¹ wherein the heathen had sought to paint ^b the likeness of their images. They brought also ^c the priests' garments, and ^d the firstfruits, and ^e the tithes: and ^f the Nazarites they stirred up, ^g who had accomplished their days. Then cried they with a loud voice toward heaven, saying, What shall we do with these, and whither shall we carry them away? For thy ^h sanctuary is trodden down and profaned, and thy priests are in heaviness, and brought low. And lo, the heathen are assembled together against us to destroy us: what things they imagine against us, thou knowest. How shall we be able to stand against them, except thou, O God, be our help? Then sounded they with ⁱ trumpets, and cried with a loud voice. And ^k after this Judas ordained captains over the people, even ¹ captains over thousands, and over hundreds, and over fifties, and over tens. But as for ^m such as were building houses, or had betrothed wives, or were planting vineyards, or ⁿ were ^o fearful, those he commanded that they should return, every man to his own house, ^m according to the law. So ^p the camp removed, and pitched upon the south side of ^q Emmaus. And Judas said, ^r Arm yourselves, and be valiant men, and see that ye be in readiness against the morning, that ye may fight with these nations, that are assembled together against us to destroy us and our ^h sanctuary: for it is better for us to die in battle, than to behold the calamities of our people and our ^h sanctuary. Nevertheless, ^r as the will ^s of God is in heaven, so let him do.

Then took ^a Gorgias ^b five thousand footmen, and a thousand of the best horsemen, and removed out of ^c the camp by night; to the end he might rush in upon ^c the camp of the Jews, and smite them suddenly. And the men of ^d the fortress were his guides. Now when Judas heard thereof, he himself removed, and the valiant men with him, that he might smite ^c the king's army which was at Emmaus, while as yet the forces were dispersed from ^c the camp. In the mean season came ^a Gorgias by night into ^c the camp of Judas: and when he found no man there, he sought them in the mountains: for said he, These fellows flee from us.

But as soon as it was day, Judas shewed himself in the plain with three thousand men, who nevertheless had neither ¹armour nor swords to their minds. And they saw ²the camp of the heathen, that it was strong and well ³harnessed, and compassed round about with horsemen; and these were expert of war. Then ⁴he said Judas to the men ⁵that were with him. Fear ye not ⁶their multitude, neither be ye afraid of their assault. Remember how ⁷our fathers were delivered in the Red sea, when Pharaoh pursued them with an army. Now therefore let us ⁸cry unto heaven, if peradventure the Lord will have mercy upon us, and remember the covenant of our fathers, and destroy this ⁹host before our face this day:

¹⁰that so all the heathen may know that there is one who delivereth and saveth Israel. Then the strangers lift ¹¹up their eyes, and saw them coming over against them. ¹²Wherefore they went out of ¹³the camp to battle; but they that were with Judas ¹⁴sounded their trumpets. So they joined battle, and the heathen being discomfited fled into the plain. Howbeit all the hind- ¹⁵most of them were slain with the sword: for they pursued them unto ¹⁶Gazera, and unto the plains of ¹⁷Idumea, and ¹⁸Azotus, and ¹⁹Jamnia, so that there were slain of them upon a three thousand men.

This done, Judas returned again with ²⁰his host from pursuing them, and said ²¹to the people, Be not greedy of the spoils, inasmuch as there is a battle before us, and ²²Gorgias and his host ²³are here by us ²⁴in the mountain: but stand ye now against our enemies, and overcome them, and after this you may boldly take the spoils. As Judas was yet speaking these words, there appeared a part of them looking out of the mountain: who when they perceived that the Jews had put their host to flight, and were burning ²⁵the tents; for the smoke that was seen declared what was done: when therefore they perceived these things, they were sore afraid, and seeing also ²⁶the host of Judas in the plain ready to fight, they fled every one into the land of ²⁷strangers. ²⁸Then Judas returned to spoil ²⁹the tents, where they got much gold, and silver, and ³⁰blue silk, and purple of the sea, and great riches. After this they went home, and ³¹sung a song of thanksgiving, and praised the Lord in heaven: ³²because ³³it is good, because his mercy endureth for ever. Thus Israel had a great deliverance that day.

Now all the strangers that had escaped came and told ³⁴Lysias what had happened: who, when he heard thereof, ³⁵was confounded and discouraged ³⁶because neither such things as he would were done unto Israel, nor such things as the king commanded him were come to pass. The next year therefore following Lysias gathered together ³⁷threescore thousand choice men of foot, and five thousand horsemen, that he might subdue ³⁸them. So they came into ³⁹Idumea, and pitched their tents at ⁴⁰Bethsura, and Judas met them with ⁴¹ten thousand men. And when he saw that mighty ⁴²army, he prayed and said, Blessed art thou, O Saviour of Israel, ⁴³who didst quail the violence of the mighty man by the hand of thy servant David, and gavest the host of ⁴⁴strangers ⁴⁵into the hands of Jonathan the son of Saul, and his armourbearer; ⁴⁶shut up this army in the hand of thy people Israel, and let them be confounded in their power and ⁴⁷horsemen: make them to be of no courage, and cause the boldness of their strength to ⁴⁸fall away, and let them quake at their destruction: cast them down with the sword of them that love thee, and let all those that know thy name praise thee with thanksgiving.

So they joined battle; and there were slain of the host of Lysias about five thousand men, even before them were they slain. Now when Lysias saw his army put to flight, and the manliness of Judas' soldiers, and how they were ready either to live or die valiantly, he went into ⁴⁹Antiochia, and gathered together a company of strangers, and having made his army greater than it was, he purposed to come again into Judea.

Then said Judas and his brethren, Behold, our enemies are discomfited: let us go up to cleanse and ⁵⁰dedicate the sanctuary. ⁵¹Upon this all the host assembled themselves together, and went ⁵²up into mount Sion. ⁵³And when they saw ⁵⁴the sanctuary desolate, and ⁵⁵the altar profaned, and ⁵⁶the gates burnt up, and shrubs growing in ⁵⁷the courts as in a forest, or in one of the mountains, yea, and the priests' ⁵⁸chambers ⁵⁹pulled down; ⁶⁰they rent their clothes,

^k ch. 2. 70. and ^kmade great lamentation, and ⁱcast ashes upon their heads, and fell down ⁴⁰ flat to the ground upon their faces, and blew an alarm ^lwith the trumpets, and ^mcried towards heaven. Then Judas appointed certain men to fight against ⁿthose that were in the fortress, until he had cleansed the sanctuary.

So he chose priests of blameless conversation, such as had pleasure in the law: who cleansed the sanctuary, and ⁴³ bare out the defiled stones into an unclean place. And when as they consorted what to do with the altar of burnt offerings, ^fwhich was profaned; they ⁴⁵ thought it best to pull it down, lest it should be a reproach to them, because ^fthe heathen had defiled it: wherefore they pulled it down, and laid up the ⁴⁶ stones in the mountain of the temple in a convenient place, ^ountil there should come a prophet to shew what should be done with them. Then they took ⁴⁷ ^pwhole stones according to the law, and ^qbuilt a new altar according to the former; and made up the sanctuary, and ⁴⁸ the things that were within the temple, and hallowed ^rthe courts. They made ⁴⁹ also new holy vessels, and into the temple they brought ^rthe candlestick, and the altar ^sof burnt offerings, and ^tof incense, and ^uthe table. And ^wupon the altar ^xthey burnt incense, and ^wthe lamps that were upon the candlestick they lighted, that they might give light in the temple. Furthermore ^ythey set ⁵¹ the loaves upon the table, and ^zspread out ^zthe vails, and finished all the works which they had begun to make.

Now ^aon the five and twentieth day ⁵² of the ninth month, which is called the month ^bCasleu, in ^{*}the hundred forty and eighth year, they rose up betimes in the morning, and offered sacrifice ⁵³ ^caccording to the law upon the new altar of burnt offerings, ^dwhich they had made. Look, at what time and ^awhat day ⁵⁴ the heathen had profaned it, even in that was it dedicated with songs, and citherns, and ^eharps, and ^fcymbals. Then all the ⁵⁵ people fell upon their faces, worshipping and praising ^gthe God of heaven, who had given them good success. And ⁵⁶ ^hthey kept the dedication of the altar ^height days, and offered burnt offerings with gladness, and sacrificed the sacrifice of ⁱdeliverance and ⁱpraise. They ⁵⁷ deckt also the forefront of the temple with crowns of gold, and with shields;

and ^jthe gates and ^jthe chambers they ^jrenewed, and ^jhanged doors upon them. ⁵⁸ Thus was there very great gladness among the people, for that the reproach of the heathen was put away. Moreover Judas and his brethren with the whole congregation of Israel ordained, that the days of ^kthe dedication of the altar should be kept in their season from year to year by the space of eight days, ^lfrom the five and twentieth day of the month ^bCasleu, with mirth and gladness.

⁶⁰ At that time also they builded up the mount Sion ^mwith high walls and strong towers round about, lest the Gentiles should come and tread it down, ⁿas they ⁶¹ had done before. And they set there a garrison to keep it, and fortified ^oBethsura to preserve it; that the people might have a defence against ^pIdumea.

Now when the nations round about heard that ^athe altar was built, and ^bthe sanctuary renewed as before, it displeased ² them very much. Wherefore they thought to destroy the generation of Jacob that was among them, and thereupon they began to slay and destroy the people. ³ Then Judas fought against ^cthe children of Esau in ^dIdumea at ^lArabattine, because they besieged Israel: and he gave them a great overthrow, and abated ⁴ their courage, and took their spoils. Also he remembered the ⁱinjury of the children of ^lBean, who had been ^ea snare and ^ean offence unto the people, in that they lay in wait for them in the ways. ⁵ He shut them up therefore in the towers, and encamped against them, and ^fdestroyed them utterly, and burnt the towers of that place with fire, and all ⁶ that were therein. Afterward he passed over to ^gthe children of Ammon, where he found a mighty power, and much people, with ^gTimotheus their captain. ⁷ So he fought many battles with them, till at length they were discomfited before him; and he smote them. And when he had taken ^hJazar, with ⁱthe towns belonging thereto, he returned into Judea.

⁹ Then the heathen that were at ^jGalaad assembled themselves together against the Israelites that were in their quarters, to destroy them; but they fled ¹⁰ to the fortress of Dathema, and sent letters unto Judas and his brethren, The heathen that are round about us are assembled together against us to destroy us: and they are preparing to ¹¹ come and take the fortress whereunto we are fled, ¹² Timotheus being captain of their ¹³ host. Come now therefore, and deliver us from their hands, for many of us are slain: yea, all ¹⁴ our brethren that were in the places of ¹⁵ Tobie are put to death: their wives and their children also they have carried away captives, and borne away their ¹⁶ stuff; and they have destroyed there about a thousand men. While these letters were yet read-

Now when Judas and the people heard these words, there assembled a great congregation together, to consult what they should do for their brethren, that were in trouble, and assaulted of them. Then said Judas unto ²² Simon his brother, Choose thee out men, and go and deliver thy brethren that are in ²³ Galilee, for I and ²⁴ Jonathan my brother will go into ²⁵ the country of Galaad. So he left ²⁶ Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, captains of the people, with the remnant of the host in Judea to keep it. Unto whom he gave commandment, saying, Take ye the charge of this people, and ²⁷ see that you make not war against the heathen until the time that we come again. Now unto Simon were given three thousand men to go into ²⁸ Galilee, and unto Judas eight thousand men for ²⁹ the country of Galaad. Then went Simon into Galilee, where he fought many battles with the heathen, so that the heathen were discomfited by him. And he pursued them unto the gate of ³⁰ Ptolemais; and there were slain of the heathen about three thousand men, whose spoils he took. And ³¹ those that were in Galilee, and in ³² Arbattis, with their wives and their children, and all that they had, took he away with him, and brought them into Judea, with great joy.

³³ Judas Maccabeus also and his brother Jonathan went over Jordan, and travelled three days' journey in the wilderness, where they met with the ³⁴ Nabathites, who came unto them in peaceable manner, and told them every ³⁵ thing that had happened to their brethren in ³⁶ the land of Galaad: and how that many of them were shut up in ³⁷ Bossora, and ³⁸ Bosor, in Alema, ³⁹ Casphor, ⁴⁰ Maked, and ⁴¹ Carnaim; (all these cities are strong and great:) and that they were shut up in the rest of the cities of the country of ⁴² Galaad, and that against to morrow ⁴³ they had appointed to bring their host against the forts, and to take them, and to destroy them all in one day. Hereupon Judas and his ⁴⁴ host turned suddenly by the way of the wilderness unto ⁴⁵ Bossora; and when he had won the city, ⁴⁶ he slew all the males ⁴⁷ with the edge of the sword, and took all their spoils, and burnt the city with fire. From whence he removed by night, and went till he came to ⁴⁸ the fortress. And betimes in the morning they ⁴⁹ looked up, and behold, there was an innumerable people bearing ladders and other engines of war, to take the fortress: for ⁵⁰ they assaulted them. When Judas therefore saw that the battle was begun, and that ⁵¹ the cry of the city went up to heaven, with trumpets, and a great sound, he said unto ⁵² his host, Fight this day for your brethren. So he went forth behind them ⁵³ in three companies, who sounded their trumpets, and cried with prayer. Then ⁵⁴ the host of Timotheus, knowing that it was Maccabeus, fled from him: wherefore he smote them with a great slaughter; so that there were killed of them that day about eight thousand men. This done, ⁵⁵ Judas turned aside to ⁵⁶ Maspha; and after he had assaulted it, he took it, and ⁵⁷ slew all the males therein, and received the spoils thereof, and burnt it with fire. From thence went he, and took ⁵⁸ Casphon, ⁵⁹ Maged, Bosor, and the other cities of the country of Galaad. After these things gathered ⁶⁰ Timotheus another ⁶¹ host, and encamped against Raphon beyond the brook. So Judas sent men to espy ⁶² the host, who brought him word, saying, All the heathen that be round about us are assembled unto them, even a very great host. He hath also hired ⁶³ the Arabians to help them, and they have pitched their tents beyond the brook, ready to come and fight against thee. Upon this Judas went to meet them. Then Timotheus said unto the captains of his host, When Judas and his ⁶⁴ host come near the brook, if he pass over first unto us, we shall not be able to withstand him; for he will mightily prevail against us:

but if he be afraid, and camp beyond⁴¹ the river, we shall go over unto him, and prevail against him. Now when⁴² Judas came near the brook, he caused^m the scribes of the people to remain by the brook: unto whom he gave commandment, saying, Suffer no man to remain in the camp, but let all come to the battle. So he went first over unto them,⁴³ and all the people after him: ⁿthen all the heathen, being discomfited before him, cast away their weapons, and fled unto the temple that was at ^aCarnaim. But ^lthey took the city, and ^oburnt⁴⁴ the temple with all that were therein. Thus was ^aCarnaim subdued, neither could they stand any longer before Judas.

Then Judas gathered together all the⁴⁵ Israelites that were in the country of Galaad, ^pfrom the least unto the greatest, even their wives, and their children, and their ^qstuff, a very great ^rhost, to the end they might come into the land of Judea. Now ^swhen they came unto⁴⁶ Ephron, (this was a great city in ^tthe way as they should go, very well fortified) they could not turn from it, ^ueither on the right hand or the left, but must needs pass through the midst of it. Then⁴⁷ they of the city shut them out, and stopped up the gates with stones. Whereupon Judas sent unto them in⁴⁸ peaceable manner, saying, "Let us pass through your land to go into our own country, and none shall do you any hurt; we will only pass through on foot: howbeit they would not open unto him. Wherefore Judas commanded a procla-⁴⁹ mation to be made throughout ^vthe host, that every man should pitch his tent in the place where he was. So the soldiers⁵⁰ pitched, and assaulted the city all that day and all that night, till at the length ^xthe city was delivered into his hands: ^ywho then slew all the males ^zwith the⁵¹ edge of the sword, and rased the city, and took the spoils thereof, and passed through the city over them that were slain. After this ^zwent they over Jordan⁵² ^zinto the great plain before ^aBethsan. And Judas gathered together those that⁵³ ^lcame behind, and ^lexhorted the people all the way through, till they came into the land of Judea. So they went⁵⁴ up to mount Sion with joy and gladness, where they offered ^lburnt offerings, because not one of them were slain ^buntil they had returned in peace.

Now what time as ^cJudas and Jona-^c than were in the land of Galaad, and⁵⁵ ^dSimon his brother in Galilee before^d ^ePtolemais, ^fJoseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, captains of the garrisons, heard of the valiant acts and warlike deeds which they had done. Wherefore⁵⁷ they said, ^gLet us also get us a name, and go fight against the heathen that⁵⁸ are round about us. So when they had given charge unto the garrison that was with them, they went towards ^hJamnia. Then came ⁱGorgias and his men out of⁵⁹ ^hthe city ^tto fight against them. And so it was, that ^fJoseph and Azarias were put to flight, and pursued unto the borders of Judea: and there were slain that day of the people of Israel about⁶¹ two thousand men. Thus was there a great overthrow among the children of Israel, ^gbecause they were not obedient unto Judas and his brethren, but thought⁶² to do some valiant act. Moreover these men came not of the seed of those, by whose hand deliverance was given unto⁶³ Israel. Howbeit the man Judas and his brethren were greatly renowned in the sight of all Israel, and of all the heathen, wheresoever their name was⁶⁴ heard of; insomuch as the people assembled unto them with joyful acclamations. Afterward ^kwent Judas forth with his brethren, and fought against ^lthe children of Esau in the land toward the south, where he smote ^mHebron, and the ^ttowns thereof, and pulled down the fortress of it, and burnt the⁶⁶ towers thereof round about. From thence he removed to go into the land of ^tthe Philistines, and passed through⁶⁷ ⁿSamaria. At that time certain priests, desirous to shew their valour, were slain in battle, for that they went out to fight⁶⁸ unadvisedly. So Judas turned to ^oAzotus in the land of the Philistines, and when he had pulled down their altars, and burnt their carved images with fire, and spoiled their cities, he returned into the land of Judea.

About that time ^aking Antiochus travelling through ^athe high countries, heard say that; ^bElymais in the country of ^{bb}Persia was a city greatly renowned for² riches, silver, and gold; and that there was in it a very rich temple, wherein were ^lcoverings of gold, and breastplates, and ^lshields, which ^cAlexander, son of Philip, the Macedonian king, ^cwho reigned first among the Grecians, had

^d 2 Macc. 9. 3 left there. Wherefore ^dhe came and 3 sought to take the city, and to spoil it; but he was not able, because they of the city, having had warning thereof, rose up against him in battle: so he fled, 4 and departed thence with great heaviness, and returned to ^wBabylon. Moreover there came one who brought him tidings ^{dd}into Persia, that the armies, which went against the land of Judea, were put to flight: and that ^eLysias, who 6 went forth first with a great power, was driven away of the Jews; and that they were made strong by the armour, and power, and ^fstore of spoils, which they had gotten of the armies, whom they had destroyed: also that ^gthey had pulled 7 down ^hthe abomination, which he had set up upon the altar in Jerusalem, and that ⁱthey had compassed about the sanctuary with high walls, as before, and his city ^kBethsura. Now when the king heard these words, he was astonished and sore moved: ^lwhereupon he laid him down upon his bed, and fell sick for grief, ^mbecause it had not befallen him as he looked for. And there 9 he continued many days: ⁿfor his grief was ever more and more, and he made account that he should die. Where-^ofore he called for all his friends, and said unto them, The sleep is gone from mine eyes, and my heart faileth for very care. And I thought with myself, Into 11 what tribulation am I come, and how great a flood of misery is it, wherein now I am! for I was ^pbountiful and beloved in my power. But now I remember the evils that I did at Jerusalem, and that 12 ^qI took all the vessels of gold and silver that were therein, and ^qsent to destroy the inhabitants of Judea without a cause. I perceive therefore that for this cause 13 these ^rtroubles are come upon me, and behold, I perish through great grief in a strange land. Then called he for 14 ^sPhilip, one of his friends, whom he made ruler over all his realm, and 15 gave him ^tthe crown, and his robe, and ^uhis ^usignet, to the end ^uhe should bring up his son Antiochus, and nourish him up for the kingdom. ^vSo king Antiochus 16 died ^wthere in ^wthe hundred forty and ninth year. Now when ^xLysias knew 17 that the king was dead, he set up Antiochus his son (^xwhom he had brought up, being young) to reign in his stead, and his name he called ^yEupator. About this time they that were in ^zthe 18

tower shut up the Israelites round about the sanctuary, and sought always their hurt, and the strengthening of the hea-¹⁹then. Wherefore Judas, purposing to destroy them, called all the people to-²⁰gether to besiege them. So they came together, and besieged them in ^{*}the hundred and fiftieth year, and he made ^amounts for shot against them, and ²¹other engines. Howbeit certain of them that were besieged got forth, unto whom some ^bungodly men of Israel joined themselves: and they went unto ^cthe king, and said, How long will it be ere thou execute judgment, and avenge ²²our brethren? We have been willing to serve thy father, and to do as he would have us, and to obey his com-²³mandments; for which cause ^bthey of our nation besiege ^dthe tower, and are alienated from us: moreover ^eas many of us as they could light on they slew, ²⁴and spoiled our inheritance. Neither have they stretched out their hand against us only, but also against all their ²⁵borders. And behold, this day are they besieging ^dthe tower at Jerusalem, to take it: ^fthe sanctuary also and Beth-²⁶sura have they fortified. Wherefore if thou dost not prevent them quickly, they will do greater things than these, neither shalt thou be able to rule them. ²⁷Now ^gwhen the king heard this, he was angry, and gathered together all his friends, and the captains of his army, and those that had charge of the horse. There came also unto him from other kingdoms, and from ^hisles ²⁸of the sea, bands of hired soldiers. ⁱSo that the number of his army was an hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and two and thirty ²⁹elephants exercised in battle. These went through ¹Idumea, and ^mpitched against Bethsura, which they assaulted many days, making engines of war; but they of Bethsura came out, and burnt them with fire, and fought vali-³⁰antly. Upon this Judas removed from ^dthe tower, and pitched in Bathzacharias, over against the king's camp. Then the king rising very early marched ³¹fiercely with his host toward Bathzacharias, where his armies made them ready to battle, and sounded the trumpets. And to the end they might provoke ^kthe elephants to fight, they shewed them ⁿthe blood of grapes and ³²mulberries. Moreover they divided the

These were ready at every occasion, wheresoever the beast was: and whithersoever the beast went, they went also, neither departed they from him. And upon the beasts were there strong towers of wood, which covered every one of them, and were girt fast unto them with devices: there were also upon every one two and thirty strong men, that fought upon them, besides the Indian that ruled him. As for the remnant of the horsemen, they set them on this side and that side at the two parts of the host, ^lgiving them signs what to do, and being ^oharnessed all over amidst the ranks. Now when the sun shone upon the shields of gold and brass, the mountains glistened therewith, and shined like lamps of fire. ⁴⁰ part of the king's army being spread upon the high mountains, and part on the valleys below, they marched on safely and in order. Wherefore all that heard the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rattling of the ^pharness, were moved: for the army was very great and mighty.

In * the hundred and one and fiftieth year ^aDemetrius the son of ^aSeleucus departed from ^{aa}Rome, and came up with a few men unto ¹a city of the sea coast, and reigned there. And as he entered into the ¹palace of his ancestors, so it was, that ^bhis forces had taken Antiochus and Lysias, to bring them unto him. Wherefore, when he knew it, he said, Let me not see their faces. So his host slew them. Now when Demetrius was set upon the throne of his kingdom, there came unto him all ^cthe wicked and ^cungodly men of Israel, having ^dAlcimus (who was desirous to be high priest) for their captain: and they accused the people to the king, saying, Judas and his brethren ^ehave slain all thy friends, and driven us out of our own land. Now therefore send some man whom thou trustest, and let him go and see what havock he hath made amongst us, and in the king's land, and let him punish them with all them that aid them.

Then the king chose ^fBacchides, ^ga friend of the king, who ruled ^hbeyond the flood, and was a great man in the kingdom, and faithful to the king. And him he sent with that wicked Alcimus, whom he made high priest, and commanded that he should take vengeance of the children of Israel. So they departed, and came with a great power into the land of Judea, where they sent messengers to Judas and his brethren with peaceable words deceitfully. But they gave no heed to their words; for they saw that they were come with a great power. Then did there assemble unto Alcimus and ^fBacchides a company of ¹scribes, to require justice. Now the ⁱAsideans were the first among the children of Israel that sought peace of them: for said they, ⁱⁱOne that is a priest of the seed of Aaron is come with this army, and he will do us no wrong. So he spake unto them peaceably, and sware unto them, saying, We will procure the harm neither of you nor your friends. Whereupon they believed him: howbeit he took of them threescore men, and slew them in one day, according to the words which ^jhe wrote, ^kThe flesh of thy saints have they cast out, and their blood have they shed round about Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them. Wherefore the fear and dread of them fell upon all the people, who said, There is neither truth nor ¹righteousness in them; for they have broken the covenant and oath that they made. After this removed ^fBacchides from Jerusalem, and pitched his tents in Bezeth, where he sent and took many of the men that had ¹forsaken him, and certain of the people also, and when he had slain them, ^mhe cast them into the great pit. Then committed he the country to Alcimus, and left with him a power to aid him: so ^fBacchides went unto the king.

But Alcimus ¹contended for the high priesthood. And unto him resorted all such as troubled the people, who, after they had gotten the land of Juda into their power, did much hurt in Israel.

Now when Judas saw all the mischief that Alcimus and his company had done among the Israelites, even above the heathen, he went out into all the coasts of Judea round about, and took vengeance of them that had ¹revolted from him, so that they durst no more go forth into the country. On the other side, when Alcimus saw that Judas and his company ¹had gotten the upper hand, and knew that he was not able ¹to abide their force, ⁿhe went again to the king, and said all the worst of them that he could. Then the king sent ^pNicanor, one of his honourable princes, a man that bare deadly hate unto Israel, with commandment to destroy the people. ^qSo Nicanor came to Jerusalem with a great force; and sent unto Judas and his brethren deceitfully with ¹friendly words, saying, Let there be no battle between me and you; I will come with a few men, that I may ¹see you in peace. He came therefore to Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably. Howbeit the enemies were prepared to take away Judas by violence. Which thing after it was known to Judas, to wit, that he came unto him with deceit, he was sore afraid of him, and would see his face no more. ^pNicanor also, when he saw that his counsel was discovered, went out to ¹fight against Judas besides ¹Capharsalama: where there were slain of ^pNicanor's side about five thousand men, and the rest fled into the city of David.

After this went ^pNicanor up ^rto mount Sion, and ^sthere came out of the sanctuary certain of the priests and certain of the elders of the people, to salute him peaceably, and to shew him the burnt sacrifice that was offered [†]for the king. But he mocked them, and laugh-³⁴ed at them, and [†]abused them shamefully, and spake proudly, and swore in ³⁵his wrath, saying, Unless Judas and his host be now delivered into my hands, if ever I come again [†]in safety, I will burn up this house. And with that he went out in a great rage. Then the ³⁶priests ^sentered in, and stood ^abefore the altar and the temple, weeping, and saying, Thou, O Lord, ³⁷*didst choose this house to be called by thy name, [†]and to be [†]a house of prayer and petition for thy people: be avenged of this man and his host, and let them fall by the sword: remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue any longer.

So ²Nicanor went out of Jerusalem, ³⁹and pitched his tents in ^aBethoron, where a host out of Syria met him. But Judas pitched in ^gAdasa with ⁴⁰three thousand men, and there ^bhe prayed, saying, O Lord, when they that were sent from the king of the Assyrians blasphemed, ^cthine angel went out, and smote an hundred fourscore and five thousand of them. Even so ⁴²destroy thou this host before us this day, that the rest may know that ^dhe hath spoken blasphemously against thy sanctuary, and judge thou him according to his wickedness. So the thirteenth ⁴³day of the month ^eAdar the hosts joined battle: but Nicanor's host was discomfited, and ^fhe himself was first slain in the battle. Now when Nicanor's host ⁴⁴saw that he was slain, they cast away their weapons, and fled. Then ^hthey ⁴⁵pursued after them a day's journey, from ^gAdasa unto ^hGazera, sounding an alarm after them ⁱwith their trumpets. Whereupon they came forth out ⁴⁶of all the towns of Judea round about, and closed them in; so that they, turning back upon them that pursued them, were all slain with the sword, and not one of them was left. Afterwards they ⁴⁷took the spoils, and the prey, and smote off Nicanor's head, and his right hand, ^kwhich he stretched out so ^dproudly, and brought them away, and hanged them up ^ltowards Jerusalem. For this ⁴⁸cause the people rejoiced greatly, and they kept that day a day of great gladness. Moreover ^mthey ordained to keep ⁴⁹

yearly this day, being the thirteenth of ⁵⁰^eAdar. Thus ^athe land of Juda was in ⁿSo ch. 9. 57. rest a little while. & 14. 4.

Now Judas had heard of the fame ^{VIII.} of ^athe Romans, that they were mighty and valiant men, and such as would lovingly accept all that joined themselves unto them, and make a league of amity with all that came unto them; ²and that they were men of great valour. It was told him also of their wars and noble acts which they had done amongst the ^hGalatians, and how they had conquered them, and brought them under tribute; and what they had done in the country of Spain, for the winning of the mines of the silver and gold ⁴which is there; and that by their policy and patience they had conquered ^hall the place, though it were very far from them; and the kings also that came against them from the uttermost part of the earth, till they had discomfited them, and given them a great overthrow, so that the rest did give them ⁵tribute every year: besides this, how they had discomfited in battle Philip, and Perseus, king of the ^hCitims, with others that lift up themselves against ⁶them, and had overcome them: how also Antiochus the great king of ^cAsia, that came against them in battle, having an hundred and twenty ^delephants, with horsemen, and chariots, and a very great army, was discomfited by them; ⁷and how they took him alive, and covenanted that he and such as reigned after him should pay a great tribute, and give ^ehostages, and that which was ⁸agreed upon, and the country of India, and Media, and Lydia, and of the goodliest countries, which they took of ⁹him, and gave to king Eumenes: moreover how the Grecians had determined ¹⁰to come and destroy them; and that they, having knowledge thereof, sent against them a certain captain, and fighting with them ^{ee}slew many of them, and carried away captives their wives and their children, and spoiled them, and took possession of their lands, and pulled down their strong holds, and brought them to be their servants unto ¹¹this day: it was told him besides, how they destroyed and brought under their dominion all other kingdoms and isles ¹²that at any time resisted them; but with their friends and such as relied upon them they kept amity: and that they had conquered kingdoms both far and nigh, insomuch as all that heard of their name were afraid of them: also that, whom they would help to a kingdom, those reign; and whom again they would, they displace: finally, that they were greatly exalted: yet for all this none of them ^fwore a crown, or was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby: moreover how they had made for themselves a ^fsenate house, wherein three hundred and twenty men sat in council daily, consulting alway for the people, to the end they might be well ordered: and that they committed their government to ^{ff}one man every year, who ruled over all their country, and that all were obedient to that one, and that there was neither envy nor emulation among them.

In consideration of these things, Judas chose ^gEupolemus the son of John, the son of Accos, and Jason the son of Eleazar, and sent them to ^aRome, to make a league of amity and confederacy with them, and to intreat them they would take ^pthe yoke from them; for they saw that the kingdom of ^hthe Grecians did oppress Israel with servitude. They went therefore to Rome, which was a very great journey, and came into the ⁱsenate, where they ^jspake and said, Judas ^kMaccabeus with his brethren, and the people of the Jews, have sent us unto you, to make a confederacy and peace with you, and that we might be registered your confederates and friends. So that matter pleased the Romans well. And this is the copy of the epistle which the senate wrote back again ^lin tables of brass, and sent to Jerusalem, that there they might have by them a memorial of peace and confederacy:

^mGood success be to the Romans, and to the people of the Jews, ⁿby sea and by land for ever: the sword also and enemy be far from them. If there come first any war upon the Romans or any of their confederates throughout all their dominion, the people of the Jews shall help them, as the time shall be appointed, with all their heart: neither shall they give any thing unto them that make war upon them, or aid them with victuals, weapons, money, or ships, as it hath seemed good unto the Romans; but they shall keep their covenants without taking any thing therefore.

In the same manner also, if war come first upon the nation of the Jews, the Romans shall help them with all their heart, according as the time shall be appointed them: neither shall victuals be given to them that take part against them, or weapons, or money, or ships, as it hath seemed good to the Romans; but they shall keep their covenants, and that without deceit. According to these articles did the Romans make a covenant with the people of the Jews. Howbeit if hereafter the one party or the other shall think meet to add or diminish any thing, they may do it at their pleasures, and whatsoever they shall add or take away shall be ratified.

And as touching the evils that ^oDemetrius doeth to the Jews, we have written unto him, saying, Wherefore hast thou made ^pthy yoke heavy upon ^qour friends and confederates the Jews? If therefore they ^rcomplain any more against thee, we will do them justice, and fight with thee ^aby sea and by land.

Furthermore ^awhen Demetrius heard that Nicanor and his host were slain in battle, ^bhe sent ^{aa}Bacchides and Alcimus into the land of Judea ^bthe second time, and with them ⁱthe chief strength of his host: who went forth by the way that leadeth to ⁱGalgala, and pitched their tents before Masaloth, which is in ^cArbela, and after they had won it, they slew much ^dpeople. Also the first month of ^ethe hundred fifty and second year they encamped before Jerusalem: from whence they removed, and went to ^fBeerea, with twenty thousand footmen and two thousand horsemen.

Now Judas had pitched his tents at ^eEleasa, and three thousand chosen men with him: who seeing the multitude of the other army to be so great were sore afraid; whereupon many conveyed themselves out of the host, insomuch as there abode of them no more but eight hundred men. When Judas therefore saw that his host slipt away, and that the battle pressed upon him, he was sore troubled in mind, and much distressed, for that he had no time to gather them together. Nevertheless unto them that remained he said, Let us arise and go up against our enemies, if peradventure we may be able to fight with them. But they dehorted him, saying, We shall never be able: ^hlet us now rather save our

and stood over against [‡]them, their horsemen being divided into two [§]troops, and their slingers and archers going before the host, and they that marched in the forward were all mighty men. As for Bac-¹² chides, he was in ^hthe right wing: so the host drew near on the two ^hparts, and sounded their trumpets. They also ¹³ of Judas' side, even they sounded their trumpets also, so that the earth shook at the noise of the armies, and the battle continued from morning till night. Now ¹⁴ when Judas perceived that Bacchides and the strength of his army were on ^hthe right side, he took with him all the hardy men, who discomfited ^hthe ¹⁵ right wing, and pursued them unto the mount ⁱAzotus. But when they of the ¹⁶ left wing saw that they of the right wing were discomfited, they followed upon Judas and those that were with him hard at the heels from behind: where-¹⁷ upon there was a sore battle, insomuch as ^jmany were slain on both parts. Judas also was killed, and the remnant ¹⁸ fled. Then ^kJonathan and Simon took ¹⁹ Judas their brother, and buried him in the sepulchre of his fathers in ^lModin. Moreover they bewailed him, and ^mall ²⁰ Israel made great lamentation for him, and mourned many days, saying, How ²¹ is the valiant man fallen, that delivered Israel! ^{mm}As for the other things concern-²² ing Judas and his wars, and the noble acts which he did, and his greatness, ⁿthey are not written: for they were very many.

Now after the death of Judas ^othe wicked began to put forth their heads in all the coasts of Israel, and there rose up all ^psuch as wrought iniquity. In ²⁴ those days also was there a very great famine, by reason whereof the country revolted, and went with [†]them. Then ²⁵ Bacchides chose ^othe wicked men, and made them lords of the country. And ²⁶ they made inquiry and search for Judas' friends, and brought them unto Bacchides, who took vengeance of them, and [†]used them despitefully. So was ²⁷

there a great affliction in Israel, the like whereof was not since the time that ²⁸ prophet was not seen amongst them. For this cause [†]all Judas' friends came to-²⁹ gether, and said unto ^kJonathan, Since thy brother Judas died, we have no man like him to go forth against our enemies, and Bacchides, and against them ^sof our nation that are adversaries to us. ³⁰ Now therefore we have chosen thee this day to be our prince and captain in his stead, that thou mayest fight our battles. ³¹ Upon this Jonathan took the governance upon him at that time, and rose up in- stead of his brother Judas.

But when Bacchides gat knowledge ³² thereof, he sought for to slay him. Then ³³ ^kJonathan, and Simon his brother, and all that were with him, perceiving that, fled into [†]the wilderness of ^uthecoe, and pitched their tents by the water of ³⁴ the pool Asphar. [¶]Which when Bacchides understood, he came ^wnear to Jordan with all his host upon the sab-³⁵ bath day. (Now Jonathan had sent his brother ^xJohn, a captain of the people, to pray his friends the ^yNabathites, [†]that they might leave with them their ³⁶ carriage, which was much. But the children of [†]Jambri came out of ^bMedaba, and took ^cJohn, and all that he ³⁷ had, and went their way with it. After this came word to Jonathan and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri made a great marriage, and were bring- ing the bride from Nadabatha with a great train, as being the daughter of one ³⁸ of the great princes of ^dCanaan. There- fore they remembered John their brother, and went up, and hid themselves under ³⁹ the covert of the mountain: where they lift up their eyes, and looked, and behold, there was much ado and great ^ecarriage: and the bridegroom came forth, and his friends and brethren, to meet them with [¶]drums, and [¶]instruments of musick, ⁴⁰ and many weapons. Then [§]Jonathan and they that were with him rose up against them from ^hthe place where they lay in ambush, and made a slaughter of them in such sort, as ⁱmany fell down dead, and the remnant fled into the mountain, and they took all their ⁴¹ spoils. Thus was the marriage turned into mourning, and the noise of their ⁴² melody into lamentation. So when they had avenged fully the blood of their brother, they turned again to ^kthe marish of Jordan).

¹¹ Comp. ch. 2. 41. ¹¹Let us go up now and fight for our lives, for it standeth not with us to day, as ¹² Susanna 15 marg. ¹²in time past: for behold, the battle *is*⁴⁵ before us and behind us, and the water of Jordan on this side and that side,
¹³ the marsh likewise and wood, neither is there place for us to turn aside. Where-⁴⁶
¹⁴ See ch. 3. 60. fore ¹⁴cry ye now unto heaven, that ye may be delivered from the hand of your enemies. With that they joined battle,⁴⁷ and Jonathan stretched forth his hand to smite Bacchides, but he turned back from him. Then Jonathan and they⁴⁸ that were with him leapt into Jordan, and swam over unto the farther bank: howbeit the other passed not over Jordan unto them. So there were slain of Bac-⁴⁹ chides' side that day about 'a thousand men.

Afterward returned Bacchides to Je-⁵⁰ rusalem, and repaired the strong cities in Judea: the fort in ⁵¹ Jericho, and ⁵² Emmaus, and ⁵³ Bethoron, and ⁵⁴ Bethel, and ⁵⁵ Thamnatha, ⁵⁶ Pharathon, and ⁵⁷ Taphon, these did he strengthen ⁵⁸ with high walls, with gates, and with bars. And in them he set a garrison, that they might work malice upon Israel. He fortified⁵⁹ also ⁶⁰ the city ⁶¹ Bethsura, and ⁶² Gazara, and ⁶³ the tower, and put forces in them, and ⁶⁴ provision of victuals. Besides, he took the chief men's sons in the country ⁶⁵ for ⁶⁶ hostages, and put them into ⁶⁷ the tower at Jerusalem to be kept. More-⁶⁸ over in ⁶⁹ the hundred fifty and third year, in the second month, ⁷⁰ Alcimus commanded that ⁷¹ the wall of the inner court of the sanctuary should be pulled down: he pulled down also ⁷² the works of the prophets. And as he began to pull down, even at that time was Alcimus plagued, and his enter-⁷³ prises hindered: for his mouth was stop-⁷⁴ ped, and he was taken with a palsy, so that he could no more speak any thing, nor ⁷⁵ give order concerning his house. So Alcimus died at that time with great torment. Now when ⁷⁶ Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead, he returned to the king: whereupon ⁷⁷ the land of Judea was in rest two year.

Then all ⁷⁸ the ungodly men held a ⁷⁹ council, saying, Behold, Jonathan and his company are at ease, and dwell without care: now therefore we will bring Bacchides hither, who shall take them all in one night. So they went⁵⁹ and consulted with him. Then removed he, and came with a great host, and sent letters privily to his adherents in Judea, that they should take Jonathan and those that were with him: howbeit they could not, because their⁶¹ counsel was known unto them. Wherefore they took of the men of the country, that were authors of that mischief, about fifty persons, and slew them.⁶² Afterward ⁶³ Jonathan, and Simon, and they that were with him, got them away to ⁶⁴ Bethbasi, which is in the wilderness, and they ⁶⁵ repaired the decays thereof, and made it strong. Which thing when Bacchides knew, he gathered together all his host, and sent word⁶⁶ ⁶⁷ to them that were of Judea. Then went he and laid siege against Bethbasi: and they fought against it a long season, and made engines of war.⁶⁸ But Jonathan left his brother Simon in ⁶⁹ the city, and went forth himself into the country, and with a certain number⁷⁰ went he forth. And he smote ⁷¹ Odonarkes and his brethren, and the children of Phasiron in their tent. And when he began to smite them, and came up with his forces, Simon and his company went out of ⁷² the city, and burnt⁷³ up ⁷⁴ the engines of war; and fought against Bacchides, who was discomfited by them, and they afflicted him sore: for his counsel and travel was in vain.⁷⁵ Wherefore he was very wroth at ⁷⁶ the wicked men that gave him counsel ⁷⁷ to come into the country, insomuch as he slew many of them, and purposed to return into his own country. Whereof when Jonathan had knowledge, he sent ambassadors unto him, ⁷⁸ to the end he should make peace with him, and deliver them the prisoners. Which thing he accepted, and did according to his demands, and sware unto him that he would never do him harm all the days of his life. When therefore he had restored unto him ⁷⁹ the prisoners that he had taken aforetime out of the land of Judea, he returned and went his way into his own land, neither ⁸⁰ came he any more into their borders. Thus the sword ceased from Israel: but Jonathan dwelt at ⁸¹ Machmas, and began to ⁸² govern the people; and he destroyed ⁸³ the ungodly men out of Israel.

¶ [Jos[eph.] the son of Antiochus Epiphanes. ^a ver. 39, 56, 57, 58, 60. See ch. 5. 15. ^b ch. 7. 1. & 9. 1, &c.

Alexander, [¶] the son of Antiochus, sur-named Epiphanes, went up and took ^a Ptolemais: for the people had received him, by means whereof he reigned there. Now when ^bking Demetrius heard there-^{of}, he gathered together an exceeding great host, and went forth against him to fight. Moreover Demetrius sent let-^cters unto ^cJonathan with loving words, so as he magnified him. For said he, ^dLet us first ^dmake peace with him, before he join with Alexander against us: else ^ehe will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and against his brethren and his people. Wherefore he gave him authority to gather together a host, and to provide weapons, that he might aid him in bat-^ftle: he commanded also that ^fthe ^ghost-ages that were in ^hthe tower should be delivered him.

^g ch. 9. 53. ^h See ch. 1. 10. ⁱ ver. 32. See ch. 1. 33.

Then came ^cJonathan to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in ^hthe tower: who ⁱwere sore afraid, when they heard that the king had given him authority to gather together a host. Whereupon they of ^hthe tower delivered their ^ghostages unto Jonathan, and he delivered them unto their pa-^jrents. This done, Jonathan settled him-^kself in Jerusalem, and began to build and repair the city. And he com-^lmanded the workmen ^kto build the walls and the mount Sion round about with square stones for fortification; and they did so. Then the strangers that ^mwere in the fortresses ^lwhich Bacchides had built, fled away; insomuch as every man left his place, and went into his own country. Only at ^mBethsura cer-ⁿtain of ⁿthose that had forsaken the law and the commandments remained still: for it was their place of refuge.

^o ver. 3, 6.

Now when king Alexander had heard ^owhat promises Demetrius had sent unto Jonathan: when also it was told him of the battles and noble acts which he and his brethren had done, and of the pains that they had endured, he said, Shall we find such another man? now therefore we will make him our friend and confederate. Upon this he wrote a letter, and sent it unto him, according to these words, saying, King Alexander ^{oo}to his brother Jonathan sendeth greeting: we have heard of thee, that thou art a man of great power, and meet to be our friend. Wherefore

now this day we ordain thee to be the high priest of thy nation, and to be called ^pthe king's friend; (and there-^{withal} he sent him ^{pp}a purple robe and ^qa crown of gold:) and require thee ^rto take our part, and keep friendship

²¹ with us. So in ^sthe seventh month of ^tthe hundred and sixtieth year, ^sat the feast of the tabernacles, Jonathan put on ^tthe holy robe, and gathered together forces, and provided much ar-²²mour.

Whereof when Demetrius heard, he ²³was very sorry, and said, What have we done, ^uthat Alexander hath ^xpre-vented us in making amity with ²⁴Jews to strengthen himself? I also will write unto them words of encour-agement, and promise them dignities and gifts, that I may have their aid. ²⁵He sent unto them therefore to this effect:

King Demetrius unto the people of ²⁶the Jews sendeth greeting: whereas you have kept covenants with us, and con-²⁷tinued in our friendship, not joining yourselves with our enemies, we have heard hereof, and are glad. Wherefore now continue ye still to be faithful unto us, and we will well recompense you ²⁸for the things you do in our behalf, and will grant you many ^yimmunities, and ²⁹give you rewards. And now I do free you, and for your sake I release all the Jews, from ^ztributes, and from ^zthe customs of salt, and from ^za crown ³⁰*taxes*, and from ^bthat which apper-taineth unto me to receive for the third ³¹*part* of the seed, and the half of the fruit of the trees, I release it from this day forth, so that they shall not be taken of the land of Judea, nor of ^cthe three governments which are added there-³²unto out of the country of ^dSamaria and Galilee, from this day forth for evermore. Let Jerusalem also be ^eholy and free, with the ^qborders thereof, ³³both from ^ftenths and ^gtributes. And as far ^bthe tower which is at Jerusalem, I yield up my authority over it, and give it to ⁱthe high priest, that he may set in it such men as he shall choose ³⁴to keep it.  in Judea.

Now when Jonathan and the people ⁴⁶

heard these words, they gave no credit unto them, nor received them, because ^t they remembered the great evil that ^{t See ver. 5.}
 he had done in Israel; for he had af-⁴⁷ flicted them very sore. But with Alexander they were well pleased, because he was the first that entreated of true
 peace with them, and they were con-⁴⁸ federate with him always. Then gathered king Alexander great forces, and ⁴⁹ camped over against Demetrius. And after the two kings had joined battle, Demetrius' host fled: but Alexander followed after him, and prevailed a-⁵⁰ gainst them. And he continued the battle very sore until the sun went down: and that day was Demetrius slain.

⁵¹ Afterward Alexander sent ambassadors to ⁿ Ptolemee king of Egypt with a ⁵² message to this effect: Forsomuch as I am come again to my realm, and am set in the throne of my progenitors, and have gotten the dominion, and overthrown Demetrius, and recovered our ⁵³ country: (for after I had joined battle with him, both he and his host was discomfited by us, so that we sit in ⁵⁴ the throne of his kingdom :) now therefore let us make a league of amity together, and give me now thy daughter to wife: and I will be thy son in law,
 and will give both thee and her gifts ⁵⁵ according to thy dignity. Then Ptole-mee the king gave answer, saying,
 Happy be the day wherein thou didst return into the land of thy fathers, and satest in the throne of thy kingdom.
⁵⁶ And now will I do to thee, as thou hast written: meet me therefore at ^x Ptolemais, that we may see one another;
 for I will marry my daughter to thee ⁵⁷ according to thy desire. So Ptolemee went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and they came unto ^x Ptolemais in ^{*} the hundred threescore and ⁵⁸ second year: where king Alexander meeting him, he gave unto him his daughter Cleopatra, and celebrated her marriage at ^x Ptolemais with great glory,
 as the manner of kings is.

⁵⁹ Now king Alexander had written unto Jonathan, that he should come and ⁶⁰ meet him. Who thereupon went hon-

 the two kings, and gave them and their friends silver and gold, and many pre-

of Israel, ^a men of a wicked life, assembled themselves against him, to ^baccuse him: but the king would not hear them. Yea more than that, the king commanded to take off his garments, and ^cclothe him in purple: and they did so. Also ⁶³ he made him sit by himself, and said unto his princes, ^dGo with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man ^bcomplain against him of any matter, and that no man ^etrouble him for any manner of cause. Now when his ^baccusers saw ⁶⁴ that he was honoured according to the proclamation, and clothed in purple, they fled all away. So the king honoured him, and ^fwrote him amongst his chief friends, and made him a ⁶⁵ duke, and ^bpartaker of his dominion. Afterward Jonathan returned to Jerusalem with peace and gladness.

Furthermore in ^{*}the hundred three-⁶⁷ score and fifth year came Demetrius son of ^gDemetrius out of ^hCrete into the land of his fathers: whereof when ⁶⁸ king Alexander heard tell, he was right sorry, and returned into ⁱAntioch. Then ⁶⁹ Demetrius made ^jApollonius the governor of ^kCoelosyria his general, who gathered together a great host, and camped in ^lJamnia, and sent unto Jonathan the high priest, saying,

Thou alone liftest up thyself against ⁷⁰ us, and I am laughed to scorn for thy sake, and reproached: and why dost thou vaunt thy power against us ^min the mountains? Now therefore, if thou ⁷¹ trustest in thine own strength, ⁿcome down to us into the plain field, and there let us try the matter together: for with me is the power of the cities. Ask and learn who I am, and the rest ⁷² that take our part, and they shall tell thee that thy foot is not able to stand before our face; for thy fathers have been ⁿtwice put to flight in their own land. Wherefore now thou shalt not ⁷³ be able to abide the horsemen and so great a power in the plain, ⁿⁿwhere is neither stone nor flint, nor place to flee unto.

So when Jonathan heard these words ⁷⁴ of ^jApollonius, he was moved in his mind, and choosing ten thousand men he went out of Jerusalem, where ^oSimon his brother met him for to help him. And he pitched his tents against ^pJoppe: ⁷⁵ but they of Joppe shut him out of the city, because Apollonius had a garrison there. Then Jonathan laid siege unto it: whereupon they of the city let him in for fear: and so Jonathan won Joppe.

⁷⁷ Whereof when Apollonius heard, he took three thousand horsemen, with a great host of footmen, and went to ^qAzotus ^ras one that journeyed, and therewithal ^sdrew him forth into ^tthe plain, because he had a great number of horsemen, in whom he put his trust.

⁷⁸ Then Jonathan followed after him to ^qAzotus, where the armies joined battle. Now Apollonius had left a thousand horsemen in ambush. And Jonathan knew that there was an ^rambushment behind him; for they had compassed in his host, and cast darts at the people, from morning till evening. But the people stood still, as Jonathan had commanded them: and so

⁸² the ^s*enemies'* horses were tired. Then brought Simon forth his host, and set them against the footmen, (for the horsemen were spent,) who were discom-

⁸³ fited by him, and fled. The horsemen also, being scattered in ^tthe field, fled to ^qAzotus, and went into ^uBeth-dagon,

⁸⁴ their ^vidol's temple, for safety. But Jonathan set fire on Azotus, and the cities round about it, and took their spoils; and ^wthe temple of Dagon, with them that were fled into it, he burnt

⁸⁵ with fire. Thus there were burnt and slain with the sword well nigh eight

⁸⁶ thousand men. And from thence Jonathan removed his host, and camped against ^wAscalon, where the men of the city came forth, and met him with ⁸⁷ great pomp. After this returned Jonathan and his host unto Jerusalem,

⁸⁸ having many spoils. Now when king Alexander heard these things, he honoured Jonathan ^xyet more, and sent him ^ya buckle of gold, as the use is to be given to such as are of the kings' blood: he gave him also ^zAccaron with the borders thereof in possession.

And ^athe king of Egypt gathered together a great host, ^blike the sand that lieth upon the sea shore, and many ships, and went about through deceit to get Alexander's kingdom, and join it

² to his own. Whereupon he took his journey into Syria ^cin peaceable manner, so as they of the cities opened unto him, and met him: for king Alexander had commanded them so to do, because

³ he was his father in law. Now as ^aPto-

le mee entered into the cities, he set in every one of them a garrison of soldiers to keep it. And when he came near to ^dAzotus, they shewed him ^ethe temple of Dagon that was burnt, and Azotus and ^ethe suburbs thereof that were destroyed, and the bodies that were ^fcast abroad, and them that he had burnt in the battle; for they had made heaps of them by the way where he should pass. Also they told the king ^gwhatsoever Jonathan had done, to the intent he might blame him: but the king held his peace. Then Jonathan ^hmet the king with great pomp at ^gJoppa, where they saluted one another, and ⁱlodged. Afterward Jonathan, when he had gone with the king to the river called ^hEleutherus, returned again to Jerusalem. ^aKing Ptolemee therefore, having gotten the dominion of the cities by the sea unto ⁱSeleucia upon the sea coast, ^kimagined wicked counsels against Alexander. Whereupon he sent ambassadors unto king ^lDemetrius, saying, Come, let us make a league betwixt us, and I will give thee my daughter whom Alexander hath, and thou shalt reign in thy father's kingdom: for I repent that I gave my daughter unto him, for he sought to slay me. Thus did he slander him, because he was desirous of his kingdom. Wherefore he took his daughter from him, and gave her to Demetrius, and ^mforsook Alexander. so that their hatred was openly known.

Then Ptolemee entered into ⁿAntioch, ^owhere he set two crowns upon his head, the crown of ⁿⁿAsia, and of Egypt. In the mean season was king Alexander in ^oCilicia, because those that dwell in those parts had revolted from him. But when Alexander heard of this, he came to war against him: whereupon king Ptolemee brought forth his host, and met him with a mighty power, and put him to flight. So Alexander fled into ^pArabia, there to be defended; but king Ptolemee was exalted: for Zabdiel the ^pArabian took off Alexander's head, and sent it unto Ptolemee. King Ptolemee also died the third day after, ^qand they that were in the strong holds were slain one of another. By this means ^{pp}Demetrius reigned in ^{*}the hundred threescore and seventh year.

At the same time ^qJonathan gathered together them that were in Judea, to take ^rthe tower that was in Jerusalem:

and he made many engines of war against it. Then certain ^sungodly persons, who hated their own people, went unto the ^rking, and told him that Jonathan besieged ^rthe tower. Whereof when he heard, he was angry, and immediately removing, he came to ^uPtolemais, and wrote unto Jonathan, that he should not lay siege to ^rthe tower, but come and speak with him at Ptolemais in great haste. Nevertheless Jonathan, when he heard this, commanded to besiege it still: and he chose ^tcertain of the elders of Israel and the priests, and ^uput himself in peril; and took silver and gold, and raiment, and divers presents besides, and went to ^uPtolemais unto the king, where he ^vfound favour in his sight. And though ^vcertain ungodly men of the people had ^{vz}made complaints against him, yet the king entreated him ^{as}as his predecessors had done before, and promoted him in the sight of all his friends, and confirmed him in ^bthe high priesthood, and in all the honours that he had before, and gave him pre-eminence among ^{his}chief friends. Then Jonathan desired the king, that he would make ^dJudea free from tribute, as also ^ethe three governments, with the country of Samaria; and he promised him three hundred talents. So the king consented, and wrote letters unto Jonathan of all these things after this manner:

King Demetrius ^funto his brother Jonathan, and unto the nation of the Jews, sendeth greeting: we send you here a copy of the letter which we did write unto our cousin Lasthenes concerning you, that ye might see it. King Demetrius unto his father Lasthenes sendeth greeting: we are determined to do good to the people of the Jews, who are our friends, and keep covenants with us, because of their good will towards us. ^gWherefore we have ratified unto them the borders of Judea, with ^ethe three governments of Apherema and ^hLydda and ^hRamathem, that are added unto Judea from the country of Samaria, and ⁱall things appertaining unto them, for all such as do sacrifice in Jerusalem, instead of the payments which the king received of them yearly aforetime ^kout of the fruits of the earth and ^kof trees. And as for other things that be ^oong unto us, of the ^ltithes and ^lcustoms pertaining unto us, as also ^mthe
